

THE CENTRE REPORTER.
S. W. SMITH, . . . Editor and Proprietor.
CENTRE HALL, . . . PENN. A.
THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, 1905

TERMS.—The terms of subscription to the Reporter are one dollar per year in advance.
ADVERTISEMENTS.—20 cents per line for three insertions, and 5 cents per line for each subsequent insertion. Other rates made known on application.
The figures opposite your name on label of paper indicate the date to which your subscription is paid. When no date is given the date implied is July 1905; when no month is given the month implied is July—thus: "90" means July, 1905; "10" means July, 1901; "04" means that your subscription is paid in advance to July, 1904. Other months than July are indicated by abbreviations.
When you pay your subscription always examine your label, and when a notice appears that corrections have been made, compare and report immediately if you have not been given proper credit. No receipts for subscription will be sent by mail unless by special request. The change of date on label ought to be sufficient evidence. Money by mail is reasonably safe. There have been no losses to this date.

RESOLUTIONS AND CARDS OF THANKS.—Resolutions of respect will be charged for at the rate of one-half cent per word, (payable in advance) the minimum charge being $1.00. Cards of thanks, two cents per word, minimum charge, fifty cents, also payable in advance.

Such tickets will be good for return passage upon date of withdrawal from Joint Agent. For specific rates and further information, apply to nearest Pennsylvania Railroad Ticket Agent.

Spring Mills vs. Millheim.

One of the best played and most hotly contested game of base ball played this season in Centre county was played at Spring Mills Saturday, between Spring Mills and Millheim. The game was a contest from start to finish, and every step was well earned. This game had but few errors and several brilliant plays. Score 4 to 2 in favor of Millheim. Time 1:40.

There was clearly demonstrated in the game the fact that each nine has among its number young men who, with practice, would make players of the game who might become famous as such.

Married by Rev. Bearick.

Rev. J. M. Bearick, pastor of the Lutheran church, Centre Hall, recently officiated at the following weddings:

August 27, at the home of Jacob McCool, Spring Mills, Almon S. McCool, and Miss Mary E. Weaver, both of Spring Mills.

Sept. 6, at the parsonage, Edwin Blaine Palmer, Porters Mills, and Miss Carrie M. Boddorff, Colyer.

Sept. 12, at the home of N. B. Shaffer, east of town, James Roy Shaffer, Centre Hall, and Miss Sarah C. Keen, Millheim.

Photographer Here Picnic Week.

W. W. Smith, the photographer, will not be in Centre Hall this week, but Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of picnic week. He is prepared to do the latest style work, and at the most reasonable prices. Studio above Kreamer & Son's store.

Smullon.

H. E. Dooty, of the east part of the valley, moved into the house of Mr. J. H. Miller, recently.

Operations on the timber tract of T. D. Stover are proceeding very slowly.

Harry Stover and sister visited at the home of Robert Hackenberg, Sunday.

Some one stole chickens from Widow Garrett, east of town.

The Rebersburg and Hubersburg base ball teams crossed bats last Saturday; score 9-9. The previous game played between these nines resulted in a victory for Rebersburg.

Perry Winters and family visited in the west part of the valley, Sunday.

Jesse Miller, of Salona, spent Sunday at the home of H. H. Stover.

Forest Emerick and family are visiting J. S. Emerick.

W. E. Smullon, once a pedagogue, but now merchant at this place, spent Sunday at Aaronsburg.

Cloyd Smull returned home from Williamsport last week.

Spring Mills.

The ball game played here Saturday afternoon, between Spring Mills and Millheim, resulted 2 to 4, in favor of Millheim.

Mrs. James Litzell last week visited friends at Jersey Shore.

Mrs. Robert Coldren has been ill the past week.

David Sowers, Friday, made a trip to Millheim county.

THREE JURORS CURED

Of Cholera Morbus with One Small Bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Mr. G. W. Fowler, of Hightower, Ala., relates an experience he had while serving on a petit jury in a murder case at Edwardsville, county seat of Calhoun county, Alabama. He says: "While there I ate some fresh meat and some sausage meat and it gave me cholera morbus in a very severe form. I was never more sick in my life and sent to the drug store for a certain cholera mixture, but the druggist sent me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy instead, saying that he had what I sent for, but that this medicine was so much better he would rather send it to me in the fix I was in. I took one dose of it and was better in five minutes. The second dose cured me entirely. Two fellow jurors were afflicted in the same manner and one small bottle cured the three of us." For sale by C. W. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills.

Strange Reward For Life Savers.

"I have seen a good many drowning accidents," said an old sea captain, "and I have seen a good many queer rewards. Once a young man rescued a young widow's little son from the sea. The widow, in her gratitude, asked for the young man's photograph. He sent it to her, and two months later he received a magnificent painting, by Smith, that showed the scene of the rescue accurately, with the little boy and him, both perfect likenesses, struggling like mad in the water.

"A farmer, one of the Pinkertons told me, came from the west to meet a gold brick man. As the farmer and the swindler crossed on the ferry the swindler fell overboard, and the farmer rescued him. He was so grateful that he gave the farmer a brick of solid silver.

"I saved a pretty girl from drowning in my youth," the captain ended. "She gave me a present that weighed 130 pounds. She gave me herself, and I've still got her. She may not be in as good condition now as she was then, but in my eyes somehow she is as sweet and pretty as she ever was."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Koran and Bible.

Concerning the alleged resemblance between Christianity and Mohammedanism Rev. Napier Malcolm, in "Five Years in a Persian Town," says: "There are really not many resemblances to note. An officer of Indian troops replied to a Mussulman's suggestion that there were resemblances between the two religions. There is hardly a single practical point where Mussulmans and Christians are not entirely at issue," whereupon the Mussulman said: "Sahib, you have read your Bible and have also read the Koran. I always make that remark to Christians. I made it to a padre the other day, and they almost always say: 'Very true. Mohammedanism has a great deal in common with Christianity.' Well, sahib, when they say that, I know that they have not read the Koran and that they have not read their Bibles."

From Jail to the Bench.

Francis Pemberton (1825-97) was imprisoned in the Fleet for debts contracted during a period of youthful extravagance. While in jail he applied himself to the study of law and came to be regarded as a kind of legal oracle by his fellow prisoners, who nicknamed him Counselor. With the fees they gave him for legal advice he bought books to continue his studies. He then prevailed upon his creditors to grant his release from prison that he might the sooner earn money to pay off his debts. Called to the bar in 1834, after a brilliant career in the palace court at Westminster and subsequently in the house of lords, he became a puisne judge. He was knighted in 1875 and ultimately, on the dismissal of Scroggs, was made lord chief justice in 1881.

The Oldest Paper Books.

What is believed by antiquaries to be the oldest paper book in existence is the "Red Book of Lynn," an ancient register belonging to the corporation of King's Lynn, England. This volume is known as the "Red Book" from its original binding having been of that color. The first entry is a transcript of the will of Peter de Thorndon, burgess of Lynn, dated 1309. The latest entry is dated in the fifteenth year of King Richard II. Fifty years ago the book was repaired and rebound, and the leaves, which age had reduced to a loose, fibrous substance, were carefully resized as an aid to preservation.

Turn About.

An Irish doctor was asked to attend a patient on Tory island, off the Irish mainland. The doctor said that he was willing to go, but that the fee would be £2 ($10), payable in advance. The Tory islander paid the money and ferried the doctor over from the mainland himself. The physician finished his duties and wished to start back. The only way to get back was to be rowed back by the same man who had carried him over. The doctor asked what the charge was. "Two pounds," said the Tory island man, "payable in advance." It was paid.

The Pursuit of Man.

Directly or indirectly we are all interested in the pursuit of the desirable male, for whom every function is really arranged whatever be the ostensible reason. When one sees on all sides how eligible men are run after, fawned upon, flattered, cajoled and humbugged, can the truth of it be denied?—Ladies' Field.

As Unfair Fling.

Mrs. Wickwire—If woman were given the credit she deserves, I don't think man would be quite so prominent in the world's history. Mr. Wickwire—I expect you are right. If she could get all the credit she wanted, he'd be in the poorhouse.

A Finny Will.

Comforting Friend—Has your husband made his will? Prospective Widow—Yes, the wretch. He's left everything to the doctor if he cures 'im, an' not a blessed farthing to his widdler an' orphans.

Painlers Sometimes.

Sufferer—Do you extract teeth without pain? Dentist—Not always. I sprained my wrist on one a couple of days ago and it hurts yet.

Indulgent.

"Katherine, you will always find me an indulgent husband."

"Do you mean indulgent to me or indulgent to yourself?"

Discussing the merits of a man's opponents gives him a decided ascendancy over them.—Goethe.
