Mr. Osman has been foreman of the Glen Iron division of the Lewisburg & Tyrone R. R. for sixteen years and stands well with the company.

Three of the four trustees of the East Stroudsburg State Normal School—all that are at present in the State—have been held in $1000 bail for trial for enriching themselves at the expense of the State institution. The amount of their graft was so petty, and some of the trustees are men of such ample means, that the charges are rather more than usually disgusting. The elimination of grafting is going to be accomplished, no matter who may get hurt in the process.

Among the new subscribers to the Reporter from Ohio is Elias H. Hoy, of Bellevue, Rural Free Delivery No. 4. Mr. Hoy is one of the progressive farmers of his section, and was formerly from Centre county. Mrs. Hoy is a daughter of Jacob Kopp, who with his father went west from Centre Hill, many years ago, when Ohio was designated as "way out west." Mr. Hoy, like many others who accidentally got hold of the Reporter, fell in love with the paper, because "there were so many familiar names to me, which brought back pleasant recollections and recalled many old associates."

THE BEST SHOES

Free SHOES Free

A Chance to Get Your Winter Shoes For Nothing.

This beyond question is the greatest chance ever offered by any Shoe House in the State. It is simply this: On a certain day during the month of September every purchase made at our Store—no matter how large or how small it may be—will be free. What day is it, nobody knows.

The way it is done is very simple. Twenty-five envelopes each containing a number that corresponds with the week days of the month of September (Sundays and Labor Day omitted) were put into a hat and well shaken. Mr. John Shugart, cashier of the Centre County Bank, Bellefonte, selected one of the envelopes and has placed the same in the vault at the bank. Mr. Shugart does not know what number it contains, we don't, you don't. On the 1st of October the envelope is opened and every person who has purchased Shoes on the day corresponding to the number contained in the envelope will have the amount of money they spent at our Store that day returned to them. We keep a record of each purchase made. Now let us see how lucky you are. If you need Shoes you cannot afford to miss this offer.
