Farm for Sale.

Peter Smith, of Centre Hill, offers at public sale, the Dr. Smith farm, one and one-half miles north-east of Clintonville, October 21. The farm contains one hundred and fifty acres, thirty-five acres of which are timbered with good oak and yellow pine, the remainder is under cultivation. The buildings, dwelling house and bank barn, are in good condition. See posters.

Time Stone Abound Here.

Within the past two years the Reporter called attention to the splendid quality of lime stone, and the extent of the rockbed, lying along the Lewisburg and Tyrone Railroad, immediately west of Centre Hall, on the farm of Samuel Durst. These stone are within forty rods of the railroad, and it is doubtful if a better quality of stone can be found anywhere.

John Kesigle Killed.

John Kesigle, of Howard, was killed at Mill Hill station Thursday morning of last week. He was standing behind a box car, and as the train came along he stepped on the track. Both his legs were cut off, and other injuries inflicted. Death took place in the Lock Haven hospital the next day.

The unfortunate man was a resident of Howard, and was aged about sixty years. Mrs. John Lee, of near Zion, is a daughter of the deceased, and it was Mr. Kesigle's intention to take the train to visit her when the accident occurred.

LOCALS.

Frank Fisher, formerly of Bobsburg, is now located at Reading.

Mrs. Andrew Ruhl, of Buffalo Cross Roads, was the guest of relatives in Centre Hall, last week.

The Northern Conference of the Lutheran church will meet at Rebersburg, Tuesday, November 7.

After almost a year's illness, Miss Mary Yearick, who makes her home with Edward Stumpf, at Aaronsburg, is recovering.

John D. Wagner, of near Spring Mills, is a Reporter reader who appreciates the paper, and, of course, now owns a six.

Miss Izora Rupp, of Oak Hall, and Mrs. J. W. Whiteman, of Centre Hall, were pleasant callers, and said some very complimentary things about the Reporter. Thanks, ladies.

Thomas Z. Stover, of Aaronsburg, was one of the young men who called on the Reporter last week, "just to pay a year's subscription to the one paper that furnishes the local news wanted."

Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Luse, of Tyrone, last week, made their annual visit to friends and relatives in Pennsylvania and Brush Valleys. Mr. Luse is justly proud of a fine dwelling house erected by him and his son, in Tyrone, and offers the same for sale.

Among the young ladies claiming Potter township as their old home who are holding good positions in the cities, is Miss Cora Sweetwood. For years she had been at Harrisburg, but recently she took charge of the altering department of the ladies' cloak establishment of B. F. De Wees, 1124 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia.

C. E. Hoffman, editor of the Lewisburg Free Press, was a brief caller Monday morning. He was on his way to Hecla Park to participate in the festivities incident to the fourth anniversary of the marriage of his sister to W. Harrison Walker, Esq., of Bellefonte. He made very good time in his auto across the mountains, although the roads were very rough.

He's a knocker, Frank Bloomster is Wednesday afternoon he dropped a penny in the slot and punched the machine with his fist. The indicator showed 2500 pounds, and the punch knocked the machine out of business for the week. The owner stated that his machine had withstood all kinds of knocks, but a single punch from the six-foot Swede did it up.

Among the many business men from a distance who were at the Encampment for business was Clayton B. Potter, of Cleveland, Ohio, representing the North Electric Company. Mr. Potter is an earnest worker for his employers, and if the North Electric Company does not succeed as manufacturers of telephones and telephone supplies, it is because they do not have a sufficient number of agents of the Potter stripe.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Greene and S. Edward Royer, of Altoona, were entertained last week by Mr. and Mrs. J. Elmer Royer. Mrs. Greene is the daughter of George Stover, formerly of Centre Hill, and is well known to many of the Reporter readers. Mr. Greene is employed in the passenger coach finishing room. It will be welcome news to the reader, if he knows George Stover, to learn that in Altoona, like when in Centre Hill, he is conducting a general blacksmith and repair shop, and that he is "busy as a nailer," all day long.

Case of Insomnia.

Indigestion nearly always disturbs the sleep more or less and is often the cause of insomnia. Many cases have been cured by Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. For sale by C. W. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills.

Incidents of 1874.

The incidents of 1874, which have appeared from week to week and have been read with more than ordinary interest by many of the Reporter's patrons, are omitted this week. Publication will be resumed in the next issue, without fail.

Telephones at Headquarters.

Both the Commercial and Pennsylvania Telephones were installed in the Headquarters, Grange Park, thus connecting the entire county with the main office of the Encampment and Fair. The outgoing messages were numerous, and the calls would have kept several messenger boys busy delivering messages sent exhibitors and other individuals. The telephone is indispensable.

The First Barn Burned.

Furst Brothers' barn, at Cedar Springs, was recently destroyed by fire. Most of the contents, including the crops, were also burned.

The stock burned was a horse and heifer, the property of A. D. Allison, tenant on the farm, and a driving horse owned by John Taylor, of Mackeyville. There was an insurance of $1200.

The blacksmith shop near by, where George Barritt did business, was also burned.

It is supposed the fire originated from a cigar stump that was carelessly thrown by the side of a straw stack.

MILTON'S COMING FAIR.

Will be One of the Best Exhibitions Held This Fall.

The fall meeting of the Milton Fair Association will be held on the society's grounds at Milton, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, October 4th, 5th and 6th. The management has completed every arrangement for a most interesting and entertaining exhibition. In addition to the fine displays that characterize a well conducted and successful agricultural fair, there will be band concerts each day. There will be two distinct attractions every day, each giving several performances. These attractions embrace Prof. Bristol's celebrated horse show, with the world renowned mule comedian, and Prof. Hampton's trained animal show, a most wonderful aggregation. There will be three races every day, and the outlook is that there will be some very fast stock in the entries. The Milton fair has no gamblers, it tolerates nothing immoral on the grounds, and does its best to protect its patrons in every way. Everybody goes to the Milton fair—you meet everybody there. Remember the dates—October 4th, 5th and 6th. The railroads will run special trains with a low rate for the round trip.

CENTRE COUNTY FAIR.

Special Trains and Reduced Rates Via Pennsylvania Railroad.

For the benefit of those desiring to attend the Centre County Fair, at Bellefonte, Pa., October 3 to 6, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets October 3 to 6, inclusive, good for return passage until October 7, inclusive, from Lewisburg and intermediate stations, at reduced rates. On October 5 and 6, special trains will leave Bellefonte at 7.00 p. m. for Coburn and intermediate stations.

Not Empty Handed.

Mrs. T. W. Walker and Mrs. W. J. Carlisle delegates to the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Convention of the Lutheran church, which meets at Dreisbach's church, Union county. They departed Monday and took with them a donation of towels, sheets, pillow cases, etc., for a hospital in India. The articles were donated by the members of the missionary society at Rebersburg.

Five Thousand See Stone Placed.

Five thousand persons Sunday witnessed the laying of the corner stone of the new First Methodist Church, Altoona. The services were in charge of the pastor, Rev. B. C. Connor, and ministers representing every denomination in the city to k part. The church will be of brownstone and cost $75,000.

Another Bunch of Sixes.

The Reporter readers were very liberal last week in paying subscription, and quite a bunch of sixes were bought. Among others who advanced their subscription were, Miss Alda Sankey 6, A. B. Homan 6, S. E. Royer 5, Chas. H. Auman 6, Andrew Cr-tzer 5, D. P. Heckman 6, Lloyd Brown 5, J. E. Harschberger 6, Miss Izora Rupp 6, John M. Stover 5, R. D. Sweetwood 6, C. S. Dwtliver 6, John D. THE BEST SHOES

Free SHOES Free
A Chance to Get Your Winter Shoes For Nothing.
This beyond question is the greatest chance ever offered by any Shoe House in the State. It is simply this: On a certain day during the month of September every purchase made at our Store—no matter how large or how small it may be—will be free. What day is it, nobody knows. The way it is done is very simple. Twenty-five envelopes each containing a number that corresponds with the week days of the month of September (Sundays and Labor Day omitted) were put into a hat and well shaken. Mr. John Shugart, cashier of the Centre County Bank, Bellefonte, selected one of the envelopes and has placed the same in the vault at the bank. Mr. Shugart does not know what number it contains, we don't, you don't. On the 1st of October the envelope is opened and every person who has purchased Shoes on the day corresponding to the number contained in the envelope will have the amount of money they spent in our Store that day returned to them. We keep a record of each purchase made. Now let us see how lucky you are. If you need Shoes you cannot afford to miss this offer.
