DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.

STATE TREASURER: WILLIAM H. BERRY, Delaware. JUSTICE OF THE SUPREME COURT: JOHN STEWART, Franklin. JUDGE OF THE SUPERIOR COURT: JOHN B. HEAD, Westmoreland.

THE COUNTY TICKET.

SHERIFF: ELLIS S. SHAFFER. TREASURER: DR. FRANK K. WHITE. REGISTER: HARRY J. JACKSON. RECORDER: JOHN C. ROWE. COMMISSIONERS: JOHN L. DUNLAP, S. H. HOY.

Commissioner Miller swears that he "took a receipted bill at the Hotel Princess, where they were stopping."

How about Mr. Bailey? He was at Atlantic City, too. Are the voters asked by Mr. Miller, on account of his oath, to believe that he (Miller) did not do it, but that Mr. Bailey did?

It looks as though Mr. Bailey will not deny it. He hasn't been in politics as long as brother Miller.

There is no use trying, Dr. White can't be made to appear black.

Rebersburg.

Rev. Maize and family spent a few days last week at the home of Rev. Snyder, in this place. Miss Ruth Hockman left Saturday for Pittsburg, where she will be employed for several months.

Smullton.

The Rebersburg and Millheim base ball teams crossed bats at the latter place, Saturday. Score, 11 to 3, in favor of Millheim. The corn crop in Brush Valley is the largest had in many years.

Coyer.

Howard Shadow, of Reedsville, spent Sunday at home. Mr. and Mrs. Foster Frazier and children ann Mr. and Mrs. William Cummings and children spent Sunday at Pleasant Gap.

Sober.

Wm. Immel took the contract to haul the timber for J. E. Ebert and C. K. Sober, at Peru. W. Breen and his friend Immel were callers at the home of U. G. Auman, on Sunday.

Harris Township.

Rev. Wm. Rearick, of West Milton, one of the ministers attending the sessions of the Lutheran Synod at Pine Grove Mills last week, conducted services in the Reformed church at Boalsburg on Sunday.

James Dufford, of Pine Grove Mills, spent part of last week in this place, soliciting orders for the clothing house of Edward Grossman & Co., Chicago.

Mrs. D. K. Mothersbaugh and little girls, of Williamsport, are visiting friends here.

W. E. Gettig and family were visitors from the Mountain City.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Bortoff, of Leont, spent last Thursday with the Meyer family, at Locust Grove farm.

Mrs. F. W. Weber, Mrs. Nellie Segner and little daughters, Mary and Rachael, enjoyed Monday with friends in the country.

Mrs. Amanda Walker is staying at the home of J. W. Krumrine, at State College, for an indefinite time.

Miss Clara Rishel, who was matron at the Sigma Chi fraternity house, at State College, which was damaged by fire last week, is a guest at the home of William Stover.

Samuel Hazel, a representative of the Houserville woolen mills, made a trip through this section, having for sale fine blankets, flannels and other articles necessary for winter weather.

Miss Madie Gingerich returned home Saturday from a week's visit among friends in Altoona.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Myers, with their little girls, visited for a few days with Mrs. Myers' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Wolf, at Wolf's Store.

A business meeting was held in the Reading room Tuesday evening.

A game of base ball was played between the Boalsburg and Oak Hall teams in the Wagner field, near Boalsburg on Saturday. The Boalsburg boys came out best.

Dr. H. S. Braucht spent a day at the Lewisburg fair last week.

Mrs. Emory Ripka, who suffered a recent illness, is again able to be out.

Mrs. J. W. Hazel last Tuesday returned from Leek Haven, where she spent the past week with friends.

Mrs. C. A. Kraspe spent last Thursday in Bellefonte.

Prof. C. L. Gramley and wife, of Rebersburg, spent Sunday at the home of T. M. Gramley.

Mrs. O. T. Corman, accompanied by two children, is visiting friends in Milton.

John Rossman was called home from Lancaster to attend the funeral of his grandfather.

Mrs. S. L. Condo spent a few days last week in Lewisburg visiting friends and attending the Union county fair.

Miss Anna Sowers returned home last week after spending the last two years in Philadelphia. She expects to spend the winter at the home of her parents.

Mrs. George Wolfe, who went to the city last week to purchase her fall and winter stock of millinery goods, returned home Wednesday.

Rev. and Mrs. Daniel Gress, of Centre Hall, spent Tuesday in town.

The residence opposite the mill, occupied by John Meyer and family, is undergoing repairs. Among other improvements will be a veranda along the front of the house.

The firm of Fiedler & Weaver, lumber merchants at Penn Hall, has been dissolved. H. W. Weaver will continue the business with Irvin B. Showers as his partner, and will introduce new and improved machinery in the mill, also adding other improvements in order to manufacture lumber extensively. Mr. Weaver is an experienced lumberman.

Dr. White, the popular Democratic candidate for treasurer, was here for a day or two last week, looking up old friends and making hosts of new ones. The doctor will evidently poll a heavy vote in this Democratic Gibraltar.

Mr. Tuten, Republican candidate for recorder was also here last week, repairing his political fences. They need it.

Some monstrous pumpkins are reported in this neighborhood. M. Duck has one thirty-seven inches long and forty-seven inches in circumference.

'Squire Herring has one which he raised from seed received from Paris, measuring thirty-one inches in length and fifty-two inches in circumference. C. P. Long has also a monster about the size of two sugar barrels. These are certainly "some pumpkins."

All the merchants here report a satisfactory business during the last month.

Quite a large number of people from this section attended the fair at Lewisburg last week, and the village will be largely represented at the Bellefonte fair this week.

Miss Lizzie Stover left on Tuesday for Philadelphia and New York, to purchase her usual stock of millinery goods. Opening day will be the 12th instant.

Three to four cents worth of Wash-Easy does your washing.

LUTHERAN SYNOD

At Pine Grove Mills—Next Meeting at Middleburg.—Rev. Diehl Elected President.

The fifty-second regular meeting of the Lutheran Synod of Central Pennsylvania was held at Pine Grove Mills, September 27th to October 1st.

The opening sermon was preached Wednesday evening and the Holy Communion celebrated. Following this, Rev. M. J. Kline, Secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions, spoke in the interests of that board.

The regular routine of business was taken up Thursday morning. After the enrollment and appointment of committees, the president and secretary read their annual reports and placed them in the hands of the proper committees. Great unanimity prevailed in all matters claiming the attention of Synod.

The treasurer's report was very encouraging, showing a substantial increase in the benevolent offerings of the year.

Rev. W. K. Diehl invited Synod to hold its convention in 1906 in the Lutheran church at Middleburg. This invitation was accepted.

Friday afternoon the Synod, as a body, visited State College. The Central R. R. furnished a complimentary train for this trip.

The election of officers resulted as follows: President, Rev. W. K. Diehl, Middleburg; secretary, Rev. W. D. E. Scott, Loydsville; treasurer, Rev. C. L. McConnell, D. D., Millburg; statistician, Prof. T. C. Houtz, Se. D.

Lloyd W. Walter, Selinsgrove, and Charles Wheeler, Aaronsburg, were licensed to preach for one year.

W. A. Guis, Juniata county, and H. O. Reynolds, pastor at McClure, were ordained.

The retiring president, Rev. J. M. Restrick, served for three years, the limit of the term of office under Synod regulations.

Millheim. B. F. Kister, an employee on the staff of the Clearfield Republican, spent Sunday with his family in this place.

Mrs. E. W. Mauck left for Sewickley to spend some time with friends and relatives.

John Reighart, of Millburg, arrived Monday to transact some business pertaining to his farm.

William Swame, who stays at Williamsport, arrived Saturday and spent Sunday at home of J. H. B. Hartman.

Irvin Loose, formerly a Millheim resident but late of Wilkesburg, was taken ill about two weeks ago with typhoid fever and pneumonia and died Sunday. His body was brought to this place Tuesday for interment.

Mr. Loose is survived by a wife and son, father and mother, four sisters and three brothers.

Clyde Hartman, of Sparrow's Point, Maryland, arrived Tuesday morning to attend the funeral of his brother-in-law.

Frank Hartman, of Pittsburg, was also an arrival Tuesday, to attend the funeral of Mr. Loose.

Marcellus A. Sankey, Potters Mills. Anna M. Smith, Millheim.

A Jaded Inquirer. A well known traveling man who visits the drug trade says he has often heard the druggists inquire of customers who asked for a cough medicine, whether it was wanted for a child or for an adult, and if for a child they almost invariably recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

The reason for this is that they know there is no danger from it and that it always cures. There is not the least danger in giving it, and for coughs, colds and croup it is unsurpassed. For sale by C. W. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills.

WAYS OF THE PERSIAN.

The Queer Houses and the Water Supply of Yezd.

Persia is mostly desert, but desert in Persia is of many kinds. The ordinary desert is good soil and where it can be watered is extremely fertile.

Generally it has a hard but rather gravelly surface. The oases are not really very different in character from the desert, however, according to the Rev. Napier Malcolm, in his book "Five Years in a Persian Town."

Water is brought from the mountains in a most curious manner. It is found near the hills at depths varying from sixty to a hundred yards below the surface.

"From the hills to the center of the plain," says Mr. Malcolm, "there is a considerable though very gradual declivity, so when the original shaft has been sunk and water found, perhaps at 300 feet below the surface, a long line of similar shafts is sunk toward the center of the plain at distances varying from twenty to forty yards, the line sometimes stretching for more than forty miles until a point of desert has been reached that lies as deep down as the original water level.

Then all the shafts are connected at the bottom by burrows just big enough to afford passage to a man; the water is let in and appears in an open ditch in the center of the desert."

Houses that are not very new are always more or less tumble down, but no man wants his house to last forever.

"Nobody can realize the damage that can be done in a town like Yezd by a really wet day," says the same writer. "Some while ago we had twenty-four hours of rain, which destroyed, I believe, about a couple of hundred roofs and, what is worse, caused the older aqueduct pits to fall in, blocking the water supply in some parts of the town for three months.

Is there any other town in the world where a little extra rain causes a three months' drought? There is a story in Teheran about a Dutch ambassador who was so afraid of the roof falling that in wet weather he invariably slept under the table. However, he was a very tall man, and when the catastrophe happened he got his foot crushed."

In Yezd houses are built only for protection against heat. In winter the citizens "grin and bear it," the merchants close their offices and stay at home, and only the smaller tradesmen and artisans go to the bazaars.

The heating arrangement consists of a wooden stool under which a charcoal brazier is placed. Over stool and brazier a heap of rugs and quilts is placed, and the family tuck their legs under the wraps, squatting on the floor.

Why They Laughed. One evening Carlotta Patti sang in a large town. Just as Ferranti, the buffo, was leading her out of the door upon the platform some one in the audience behind cried out to him that his coat had burst at the seam in the back.

It was too late to go back, for the audience had seen him, and the two singers advanced to the footlights. The knowledge of this mishap took all the fun out of Ferranti, and the duet, which was sung in Italian, was so dolefully devoid of its usual humor that Patti noticed it before they were half through, and, dropping the text of the duet, she fitted the following words to it, in Italian: "What is the matter with you tonight? I don't understand your nervousness. Nobody laughs at you!"

Whereupon Ferranti, in the mellifluous Italian, responded: "By the saints, I have burst my coat! Everybody will laugh when I go off the stage if they 'on't now!"

At this unexpected interchange of personal feelings Max Maretzek and his orchestra began to laugh immoderately. Then the people in the front seats, seeing the orchestra and the artists laughing, joined in themselves, and the merriment presently broke out into applause all over the house.

"Ah," said one of the papers next morning, "there is always something majestic in Ferranti's singing of that song. People burst into sympathetic laughter without being able to tell why!"

LOCALS. Don't do all of your pushing against the breechstraps.

The Free Library, Grange Arcadia, will be open to the public Saturday evening from 7 to 8 o'clock.

Marcellus A. Sankey and Miss Anna M. Smith were married Wednesday noon at the home of the bride, near Millheim.

Roy White is making his home with "granda" and "grandma" Conley and will stay during the coming winter. Next spring he will go with them to the farm, as will also his mother.

The last week in September was a most delightful one. The sun was warm, very warm, during the middle of the day, and the evenings and nights were more like in June than any other season of the year.

Insomnia and Indigestion Cured. "Last year I had a very severe attack of indigestion. I could not sleep at night and suffered most excruciating pains for three hours after each meal. I was troubled this way for about three months when I used Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and received immediate relief," says John Dixon, Tullamore, Ontario, Canada. For sale by C. W. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills.

Every man has ancestors of some sort.

Children and a lot of singers should be seen and not heard.

There is no similarity between a whole knot and a knot hole.

How to Cure Corns and Bunions.

First, soak the corn or bunion in warm water to soften it; then pare it down as closely as possible without drawing blood and apply Chamberlain's Pain Balm twice daily, rubbing it vigorously for five minutes at each application. A corn plaster should be worn a few days to protect it from the shoe. As a general liniment for sprains, bruises, lameness and rheumatism, Pain Balm is unequalled. For sale by C. W. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills.

Sick headache is caused by a disordered condition of the stomach and is quickly cured by Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. For sale by C. W. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills.
