

THE CENTRE REPORTER.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1905.

CHURCH APPOINTMENTS.

Presbyterian—Centre Hall, morning. Reformed—Centre Hall, morning; Tusseyville, afternoon. Lutheran—Union, morning; Spring Mills, afternoon; Centre Hall, evening.

Track Record Lowered.

The track record at the Bellefonte fair was materially lowered by "The Judge," in the free for all, who did a mile in 2:13.

Accident at the Fair.

One serious accident occurred to mar the closing of the Bellefonte fair Friday. While a driver was warming up prior to the start of the free-for-all, Mrs. William Cartwright and Mrs. Spurgeon McCauley, both of Bellefonte, attempted to cross the track and were knocked down.

District Luther League Convention.

A Luther League Convention of the societies in the district composed of Centre, Clinton and Union counties is in session in Millinburg, the opening meeting having been Wednesday afternoon.

The Winter Appropriation.

Preparation for the coming cold weather means the expenditure of an enormous sum of money for creature comforts. That money is going to be transferred principally to the pockets of merchants who advertise and who have wit enough to make their "ads" reasonable.

Dedication Next Sunday.

The Dedication Festival incident to the dedication of Penns Creek Evangelical Lutheran church, at Penn Hall, began Monday evening, and will continue until Sunday evening.

Drilling in Predicament.

Drilling, penetrating the earth by means of a percussion drill, is a very uncertain business, as is demonstrated by the predicament in which Oscar Long, of Nittany Valley, finds himself today.

Democratic Chairman Ill.

State Democratic Chairman J. K. P. Hall is seriously ill at his home in Ridgeway.

Spelling Bee.

An old fashioned spelling bee will be held in the High School room, Boalsburg, Saturday evening, 14th inst., at 7:30 o'clock; admission, 10 cents.

The Fair a Success.

The Bellefonte fair was a success this season. The weather was perfect, and had much to do with the large crowds assembling on the grounds Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

Not Much Evidence Against Shearer.

The following is from the Lock Haven Democrat: Charles Shearer, of Mill Hall, was arraigned before Alderman Kellenbach, at Williamsport, Friday evening, charged with burglarizing the residence of James Poust and stealing a pair of shoes belonging to George W. Rhoads.

Ask your grocer for Wash-Easy.

Wash-Easy contains neither lye nor acid. Dan Patch clipped three-quarter seconds from his pacing record, making it 1:54.

LOCALS.

Carpenter Milford Luse visited his father-in-law, Joel Kerstetter, at Laurelton, over Sunday.

Mrs. James Wagner, of Millinburg, was the guest of relatives in Potter township for several days this week.

Clayton Wagner, of near Tusseyville, went to Millinburg to visit his brother, James Wagner, station agent at that point.

Merc'ant G. O. Benner makes an announcement for the Star Store in this issue. He has just laid in a new line of goods.

Broad Mountain, one of the Seven Mountain ranges, is yielding a crop of luscious huckleberries. Rare, indeed, for this season of the year.

Mrs. Maria Wagner, of Tusseyville, is in Juniata visiting her sons Samuel and William A. Wagner, and will remain for two or more months.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moyer are at Darragh on a visit to their son, Alvin Moyer, who with his family have been living in that suburban point of Pittsburg for the past few years.

Tuesday morning Asher Stahl went to Altoona, and later may go to McKean county. He is looking for something to do calculated for a young man of superior physical make-up.

Miss May V. Rhone came up from Harrisburg Saturday morning to attend the reception tendered Mr. and Mrs. Marcellus A. Sankey, at his home at Potters Mills, Saturday afternoon.

Rebersburg has many pretty, delightful homes, but there will be none more complete as to arrangement and the adoption of the modern improvements than the dwelling of Jasper Brungart, now undergoing extensive repairs.

Bellefonte, Lewistown and most boroughs of that class, are enforcing the vaccination law. In some instances there is stout rebellion, but in others it is demanded there is but one alternative, and that is to submit.

Dr. Lincoln Hulley, recently of Pennsylvania, reports that the John B. Steison University, named for a Pennsylvania philanthropist, and located in DeLand, Fla., has opened with a great increase of students over last year.

James C. Maginnis, of Ridgeway, and Miss Adaline M. Lyon, of Bellefonte, were married at the rectory of St. Mary's church, Holidaysburg. The bride is a very pretty and accomplished young lady and is the daughter of William Lyon, of Bellefonte. She was employed as a stenographer for the American Lime & Stone Company.

Mrs. Catharine Bitner, of Spring Mills, accompanied by Mrs. George W. Sweeney, of Centre Hall, Saturday went to Union county where they will visit for a week or more. Among others who will entertain the ladies are three sisters of the former—Mrs. Annie Emory, aged eighty-four years; Mrs. Samuel Biogman, both of Glen Iron, and Mrs. Tamer Derr, of Lewistown.

Rev. and Mrs. G. W. McNay, of Spring Mills, attended the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Fishburn, at Munson, Clearfield county, Friday of last week. The reverend was pastor of the Fishburn family for two years. He returned to fill his pulpit on Sunday, and Tuesday morning left for Philadelphia to attend the Forty-first Annual Sabbath School Association Convention which meets in that city this week, to which convention he is a delegate from Centre county. Mrs. McNay and daughter tarried in Munson a few days, but returned home this week.

Democratic Chairman H. H. State Democratic Chairman J. K. P. Hall is seriously ill at his home in Ridgeway.

An old fashioned spelling bee will be held in the High School room, Boalsburg, Saturday evening, 14th inst., at 7:30 o'clock; admission, 10 cents. Proceeds are for the benefit of the Reading Room fund. All are invited.

The Bellefonte fair was a success this season. The weather was perfect, and had much to do with the large crowds assembling on the grounds Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. From a financial standpoint the managers are highly gratified.

The county race was won by Henry Lowry, of Bellefonte. Time, 3:22; 3:10.

Charles Shearer, of Mill Hall, was arraigned before Alderman Kellenbach, at Williamsport, Friday evening, charged with burglarizing the residence of James Poust and stealing a pair of shoes belonging to George W. Rhoads. The evidence was not very damaging against the prisoner, as his visit to the house was not surprising, he being a former boarder. There were some very amusing disclosures made by some of the witnesses.

Blackmailing the Bankers. (From the Boston Herald, Ind. Rep.) The Pennsylvania Republicans have been appealing to about 100 banks of the Keystone State for campaign contributions to meet the expenses of the election this fall. The banks selected for this "touch" are those that have been favored by deposits of the state's money. But is there not some limit to the amount such banks can afford to contribute for the sake of holding deposits of the public funds? If campaign contributions must be made each year, and if banks holding public funds must loan money to political bosses whenever they desire it, we should suppose that the outgo might be greater than the income. Presumably all the banks will not pull together in this matter. If they did they could refuse to be bled for campaign contributions or to grant loans to political bosses; but there are those morally weak in business as well as in politics. That class will yield and share the profits they make from holding the state's money with those who are of service to them in obtaining this privilege.

Ask your grocer for Wash-Easy. Wash-Easy contains neither lye nor acid. Dan Patch clipped three-quarter seconds from his pacing record, making it 1:54.

Some Seasonable Advice. It may be a piece of superfluous advice to urge people at this season of the year to lay in a supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is almost sure to be needed before winter is over, and much more prompt and satisfactory results are obtained when taken as soon as a cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system, which can only be done by keeping the remedy at hand. This remedy is so widely known and so altogether good that no one should hesitate about buying it in preference to any other. It is for sale by C. W. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills.

Ask your grocer for Wash-Easy. To the cannibal any girl is sweet enough to eat. Spare the rabbits, Mr. Sporteman until the season opens, November 1st.

Aaronsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. John Emlg, of Logan Mills, spent a few hours Sunday with Mrs. Charles.

Mrs. Shuey, of near Boalsburg, visited her cousin, Mrs. Sue Gramley, a few days last week.

Editor Harter and Charles Mensch and family, of Bellefonte, and Harry Mensch, of Williamsport, were guests at the home of Lewis Mensch over Sunday.

Mrs. Kizzie Swabb spent Saturday with her sister, Mrs. Sadie Wolfe, at Spring Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Mingle and Mrs. Cronmiller attended the funeral of Mrs. Frank, at Rebersburg, on Friday. Clyde Boob has gone to Vintondale where he will be employed as a lather.

Cal. Weaver and James Breen have secured work at Altoona, to which place they went last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Meyer, of Coburn, visited George Weaver, Sunday. John Bowersox has gone to take a course in a veterinary college, at Toronto, Canada.

Robert Boob returned from a trip to Lewisburg, Milton and Williamsport. Mrs. Nora Bailey, of Booneville, is visiting her father, Charles Bower.

Wm. B. Mingle and wife, of Centre Hall, spent a day last week with the former's aged mother.

Sara Bowersox returned home after a pleasant week at the Bellefonte fair.

Miss Rebecca Frank, of Legation, spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of her brother, Edwin Frank.

Miss Amy Stover has gone to Aaronsburg where she will learn to be a seamstress.

Samuel Frank and family, of Harrisburg, and Orvis Frank and wife, of Bloomsburg, were called here Friday to attend the funeral of the gentlemen's mother, Mrs. James Frank.

Miss Amy Krider and sister are visiting friends at this place.

Miss Abbie Gilbert, who has been a seamstress in town for a number of years, has quit the business and is making her home at the residence of Dr. Bright.

A new carpet was put in the Sunday school room of the Reformed church one day this week.

Mrs. Maggie Weaver, of Tylersville, is paying a short visit to her aunt, Mrs. Fred Fehl.

The Line-Up of Political Forces. (From the Philadelphia Press, Rep.) On the one side is "Iz," he of the capacious pocket, and his business partner, "Jim," with a choice company of retainers-for-revenue-only, whose ranks have been seriously depleted because the presence of the faithful is required behind iron bars. The Martins, Salters, Smyths, Hills, Sters, et al., the gambling house keepers, the proprietors of disorderly resorts and speak-easies, the entire criminal population of the city, the corporation bribe-givers and law-making bribe-takers, all supported by one lone, doubtful "organ," which pipes in uncertain tones, makes up the Machine Organization.

On the other side are the president of the United States, the mayor of the city, the secretary of state, the secretary of the navy, all the respectable newspapers of Philadelphia, with the one exception noted, the national magazines and the press of the country generally, the Philadelphia creditors of all denominations, the Pennsylvania Bar Association, the leading business and professional men of the city, a splendid host of young men, fired with the glow of patriotism, and all the tried and proved leaders in movements for civic welfare and human betterment.
