

LEG ALMOST SEVERED.

Axe in Brother's Hand Leaves Handle and Shoots Twenty Feet.

A peculiar and serious accident happened on Nittany Mountain Thursday of last week in which the leg of James Calahan was almost severed at a point below the knee. The young man was sawing with a cross cut saw and was in a stooping position.

The polished steel struck young Calahan at a point below and back of the knee, separating the muscles, popliteal artery and the small bone, or tibia.

The injured man's companions did what they could to check the flow of blood, and dispatched one of their number for Dr. J. R. G. Allison, who summoned to his aid Dr. H. S. Braucht.

Although suffering from loss of blood, Mr. Calahan's condition is very favorable. The accident occurred at the Bilger lumber operations, near the school house, on top of Nittany Mountain.

Milinery Opening at Tusseyville.

Mrs. M. C. Ishler announces that upon her return from Philadelphia, where she is now buying goods, the ladies are invited to call and examine her complete stock of millinery goods.

The Van Valzah Farm Sold.

The Van Valzah farm, west of Centre Hall, was recently sold to Boyd Noll, of Zion, for $4550. This farm was occupied by the Heckmans for a number of years, until last spring. The present tenant is Mr. Walker.

LOCALS.

Wash-Easy saves work, money and clothes. Last week's rain put the grain fields in fine condition.

If you need a stove, call on Smith Brothers, Spring Mills. Granulated sugar five and one-half cents—C. W. Swartz, Tusseyville.

Rev. H. W. Buck, of New Freedom, filled the appointment in the United Evangelical church Sunday evening.

Will Stover, of Freeport, Illinois, is east on a visit to friends and relatives in Penns Valley. He is looking the picture of health.

Silverware—knives, forks, spoons, cake baskets, water pitchers, sugar bowls, cream pitchers free if you buy shoes of Yeager & Davis.

Mrs. B. H. Arney, of Centre Hall, and Mrs. A. Miles Arney and little daughter, of Bellefonte, Saturday went to Altoona to visit friends.

James A. Keller, secretary of the Grange Fire Insurance Company, last week, made a trip to Huntingdon county to adjust a loss caused by lightning.

G. H. McClintic, of Fort Wayne, Ind., and C. A. McClintic, of Pittsburg, accompanied by Misses Edith and Blanche Nagney, of Milroy, spent a few days with James A. McClintic, at Spring Mills.

Rev. James W. Boal, D. D., is attending the Presbyterian Synod in session at Greensburg. Before returning he will go to Williamsport where he will preach Tuesday and Wednesday evenings of next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham and little son, of Pittsburg, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Gingerich, west of Centre Hall. Mr. Cunningham is a moulder by trade, but is tiring of laboring in the large foundries.

Boyd Speicher, one of the rural mail carriers from Bellefonte, and Miss Emma Tressler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Tressler, of Pleasant Gap, were quietly married Wednesday evening of last week at the home of the bride's parents.

Mrs. W. C. Cunningham, of Grand Island, Nebraska, was the guest of her sister-in-law Mrs. J. Shannon Boal, in this place. Mrs. Cunningham is a native of Huntingdon county. Her daughter is the wife of Hon. Howard Kennedy, Jr., a district judge in Omaha, Nebraska.

A representative Democrat of Gregg township, M. B. Herring, Esq., was a pleasant caller the latter part of last week. He is warming up in the campaign, and, like all others who have looked into the county finances, has arrived at the conclusion that it is time to place men in the commissioners' office who have ability to economically conduct the county's affairs.

In another column will be found the advertisement of John I. Olewine, the hardware dealer, on High Street, Bellefonte. Mr. Olewine is thoroughly acquainted with the hardware business, and keeps on hand a most complete line of goods. There is no class of goods that fluctuates more in price than does hardware, but when you deal with Mr. Olewine you may feel assured that you are receiving not only the best makes, the latest improved tools, etc., but the best prices for the day.

Turn to the inside pages of the Reporter. The first snow squawl of the season was on hand Thursday morning of last week.

The next regular State Grange meeting will be held in Sunbury, convening December 12.

A California trout, twenty-eight inches in length and weighing almost seven pounds, was captured in Logan branch, near Nittany furnace.

C. W. Slack, assistant postmaster at Centre Hall, will become tenant on the Old Fort farm, owned by W. Frank Bradford, succeeding John C. Kuhn.

Mrs. M. C. Ishler, of Tusseyville, was called to Overbrook, near Philadelphia, on account of the illness of her daughter, Miss Gertrude, who is attending school at that place. In another column Mrs. Ishler announces her millinery opening.

Kate Jordan is one of the best short-story writers in this country. To the November Smart Set she contributes what is undoubtedly her finest piece of work, under the alluring title, "Unseen of Men." James Huneker is the author of another striking story of France, called "The Trade Wall," which is remarkable for its originality of theme and its technique.

Robert Gorman, of Philadelphia, was a caller at the Reporter office Monday on his way to Bellefonte. He was accompanied by Mrs. Gorman, and H. H. Hughes, Past Grand Patriarch of the Grand Encampment, I. O. O. F., and were traveling in an auto, having come by rail as far as Lewisport. The party was delighted with the scenery across the Seven Mountains and Penns Valley. Mr. Gorman is foreman in a large publishing house, and is also up in Odd Fellowship, being secretary of the Home for Orphans of Odd Fellows of Pennsylvania.

After living in the west for fifty years, Mr. and Mrs. James Irvin, of Gardner, Kansas, are east among friends, spending a part of the time with John Davis, at Linden Hall. Mr. Irvin went west from the Carson farm, at the head of Georges Valley, and has been engaged in farming. The Pennsylvania Valleys have great charm for Mr. Irvin, after so long an absence, and he was convinced that his boyish eyes correctly measured the great gifts of many old trees. To corroborate his tales of the weeping willows, the huge chestnut trees, etc., when he returns to his western home, he will take with him correct measurements. Mr. Irvin is son of John Guyar Irvin, who will be remembered by the older residents of Penns Valley.

Presbyterian Synod. MR. SMITH:—I am a commissioner to our synod, and give for your paper a few facts and figures that may be of interest to some of our readers:

The Presbyterian Synod of Pennsylvania meets in the First Presbyterian church, Greensburg, Thursday, 10th inst. This is a representative body, each Presbytery in the synod being entitled to a certain number of commissioners, according to the number of ministers and churches in the respective Presbyteries. The synod embraces the entire state. It has 21 Presbyteries, 1127 ministers, 4824 elders, 1150 deacons, 233,517 members, 213,586 Sabbath school members. The entire church has 33 synods. For congregational expenses there was contributed during the past year $2,887,186; for Home and Foreign Missions the amount given was $537,357, while the sum contributed by the whole church to these two objects—Home and Foreign Missions—was $2,427,918; amount given by the entire church during the past year, ending April 30th, was $18,638,750.

Respectfully, JAS. W. BOAL.

DEATHS.

MRS. EVA MINGLE. Mrs. Eva Mingle died in Aaronsburg, Monday, 16th inst., aged eighty-two years, eight months and five days. Interment was made this (Thursday) forenoon, at Aaronsburg, services being held in the Reformed church, of which denomination the deceased and her family were lifelong members.

Mother Mingle was of a modest and retiring disposition, a loving mother, a good neighbor, always remembering the poor; a humble follower of the Savior, living the teachings of her favorite text in Jeremiah 38:1, "Set thine house in order, for thou shalt die and not live."

The deceased was the widow of the late H. A. Mingle, Esq., of Aaronsburg, who died in 1891, and was the daughter of Henry and Sarah Bower. The latter came to Centre county about the year 1800. Mrs. Mingle was married about sixty-two years ago, and started house-keeping in the same house in which she died. Physically the deceased was never very strong, and for the past few years was an invalid, not having left her room during the last six years of her life. During this time she was cared for by her son (Edward G. Mingle) and family, who lived with the aged mother.

The deceased was the mother of seven sons, two of whom died in infancy; living ones: W. B. Mingle, Esq., Centre Hall; Dr. D. H. Mingle, Maxwell, Iowa; Thomas J. Mingle, Minneapolis, Minn.; A. C. Mingle, Bellefonte; Edward G. Mingle, Aaronsburg.

MRS. ALEXANDER SHANNON. Isabella, daughter of Amos and Elizabeth Royer, was born in Centre county, Pennsylvania, January 1, 1834, died October 8, 1905, aged seventy-one years, nine months and eight days; was married to Alexander Shannon March 20, 1856. Her parents, only brother and two sisters preceded her to another world, one sister surviving, residing in Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Shannon with her husband and four children moved from Centre Hall to Lena, Illinois, in May 1873, from there to Smith county, Kansas, March, 1886, onto what was later dubbed and now known as Shannon's Walnut Grove Farm. Her health giving way retired to quiet life and home in this center, Kansas, January 1, 1902, where her health still became more and more impaired until the end came, and she peacefully passed away at 10:30 A. M., Sunday, October 8, 1905, entering upon a new and better life in another world. She is survived by her husband, Alexander Shannon, Esq., and four children, namely: John H., of the Walnut Grove Farm; Sadie J., at home; Maggie, (Mrs. T. S. Terry) of Downs, Kansas, and Orris W., of San Francisco, Cal., all of whom with the granddaughter, Allie Terry, were present and faithfully ministered to the care and comfort of their patient, faithful and loving mother during the last few weeks of her suffering.

Mrs. Shannon was a devoted daughter, affectionate sister, loving wife and mother, living with a true, consistent christian spirit. She was a member of the Evangelical Lutheran church for many years. Upon moving to Kansas, where there was no church of her choice, by letter, she was admitted and became a member of the congregational church in Smith Center.

MRS. ELIZABETH McWILLIAMS. After an illness of two weeks from pneumonia, Mrs. Elizabeth McWilliams, of near Graysville, died Sunday morning. She had previously been in good health, and her death was a blow to all who knew her.

The deceased was a daughter of James and Sallie Sample, of Pine Grove Mills, where she was born February 2, 1825.

February 6, 1844, she was united in marriage to W. B. McWilliams. A few years later they moved to their home, near Graysville, which home has since become noted for its hospitality and good cheer.

Surviving her is one sister, Mrs. Hugh A. McGinnis, also the following children: Cyrus B., of Altoona; George, of Graysville; Wm. B., of Cherry Valley, Ill.; Mrs. J. C. Goheen, of Tyrone; Mrs. Robert G. Goheen, of Hatfieldville; Mrs. Wm. G. Gardner, of Rock Springs; James and Mary, at home.

MRS. SARAH AUMAN. Mrs. Sarah Auman, widow of Peter Auman, died at the home of Peter Confer, in Millheim, of dropsy and other diseases incident to old age. Deceased, whose maiden name was Sarah Zerby, was born in Gregg township seventy-nine years ago. She has left to survive three sons, Fred, Noah and John, and one daughter, Susan, of Poe valley. Mrs. Susan Wert, of Penn township, a twin sister; Mrs. Hannah Confer, of Millheim, a sister, and William Zerby, a brother, of Gregg township, also survive. Funeral services were held from the home of Peter Confer, conducted by Rev. I. N. Bair. Interment was made at Millheim.

AUSTIN D. BREW. Austin D. Brew, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry T. Brew, formerly of Bellefonte, but now of Pittsburg, died at his home in East Pittsburg. Death was the result of consumption. His age was twenty-five years.
