THE DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATES.

considerate Mr. Weaver also by his conduct in this office clearly demonstrated that he is capable of filling the office which he now seeks.

Mr. Weaver since the expiration of his term as deputy sheriff has been engaged in business at Coburn and the same integrity and efficiency that characterized his official career has been manifested in his dealings with his fellow citizens in business.

The Gazette alleges that Mr. Dunlap owns no property, is poor and therefore should not be elected County Commissioner. If this argument is to be considered then no poor man, however worthy or able he may be, could become a candidate for any office.

It is true, we admit, that John L. Dunlap is poor. He like many others was born to poverty and he has worked and labored to overcome this curse of humanity all his life.

On the ground of intelligence, capacity to perform the duties of the office and that faithfully and honestly, Mr. Dunlap is the superior of either of the present Republican candidates.

It is well known that A. V. Miller begged for an office for years on the ground of poverty. That he served as Government Storekeeper for a long while at Pleasant Gap, and wanted to be Prothonotary, then Sheriff and finally after the death of Matt. Riddle, was on the 18th or 19th of March, 1900, appointed County Commissioner on the ground of poverty, because the Gazette of March 23, 1900, says, "The appointment comes to Mr. Miller at this time as a God-send."

Indeed both of the candidates for this office on the Democratic ticket are poor, but they are intelligent, honest, and perfectly capable of performing every duty that may devolve upon them. As capable as any of the present board, or any of the board before the present. The members of both boards were all poor men.

Some of the best officers the county has ever had were poor. When they came into office they had nothing but honor, capability and intelligence. They performed every duty that devolved upon them faithfully and successfully and to the satisfaction of all the people. So will Dunlap and Weaver.

The Commissioner's office is of more interest to the people, comes closer to them than any other office in the county. By reason of the fact that Commissioners must provide all the funds necessary to carry on the courts, build bridges, the care and repair of the public buildings, etc., etc., comes ever home through the tax levy. If the funds thus collected are not carefully and judiciously expended, or are squandered the people must feel it in the increase of their taxes.

That the present board has been recklessly inconsiderate of the people and extravagant beyond all reason is proven in the fact that in three years the annual expense of the county has gone from $62,000.00 up to $93,000.00 or more. They show nothing for it. For fitness to discharge the onerous duties of the office of County Commissioner, for general intelligence and knowledge in the walks and ways of business, for morality and conduct and in all that pertains to their lives Weaver and Dunlap are the superiors of the Republican candidates for the same office.

And now comes James W. Swabb and S. H. Hoy for County Auditors. It is as necessary to have good County Auditors as well as to have good County Commissioners. The candidates are both very well qualified for this office. They are thorough Democrats and will perform their duties, if elected, to the entire satisfaction of the people.

SOME SEASONABLE ADVICE. It may be a piece of superfluous advice to urge people at this season of the year to lay in a supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is almost sure to be needed before winter is over, and much more prompt and satisfactory results are obtained when taken as soon as a cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system, which can only be done by keeping the remedy at hand. This remedy is so widely known and so altogether good that no one should hesitate about buying it in preference to any other. It is for sale by C. W. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Pottery Mills.

Underwear Reminder Thought I had better tell you about my Underwear Stock, or you might buy from some Jew or Gentle that would not give you near such good values for the money. I am safe in saying that there is no store in the Valley that has a larger variety, or no one who will beat my prices—either Jew or Gentle. We Gentle Merchants sell you a 50 cent article for 50 cents and do not take advantage of a 65-cent price, if we could. But I want to tell you that I have the best 50-cent Men's fleece lined Underwear that is on the market. Nothing better made for 50 cents. I have one at 45 cents that many sell at 50 cents. I have Men's Underwear as low as 25 cents, and up to $1.00. They are wool and the best that can be had for the money. For the ladies there is none to beat my Jersey Ribbed Vest and Pants at 25 cents. I have better ones at 50 cents. I have white and natural wool at 75 cents and $1.00. For children, such as infants, big girls and boys, little girls and boys, I have a good assortment in cotton and wool. Again I say nothing in the Valley to beat my line of Underwear. C. W.
