The announcement is made that the Joe Weber All Star Stock Company will appear for a limited engagement, beginning Monday, October 23, at the Chestnut Street Opera House, and presenting the two laughing and musical triumphs, which for more than a year packed the cosy little Weber Music Hall, in New York City, "Higgledy Piggledy" and "The College Widower."

A glance at the personnel of the Company is a sufficient guarantee of the excellence of the performance, and the promise that it is a three hour laughing spell. Headed by the quaint and foremost of German comedians, Joe Weber, the cast includes such names as Marie Dressler, Trixie Frizanza, Bonnie Magin, Erminie Esrle, Edythe Moyer, Chas. A. Bigelow, Sam Collins, Ernest Lambart, Edward J Connelly and Sam Marion, supported by a company of more than one hundred people, and the prettiest, best singing and dancing chorus to be seen anywhere.

The Weber shows have always been famous for the beauty and sprightli- readily from place to place. ness of their choruses, but the sixty girls who form the ensemble in " Higgledy Piggledy" and "The College Widower" are without doubt the liveliest and prettiest Mr. Weber has ever succeeded in securing.

Both "Higgledy Piggledy" and "The College Widower" are the joint work of Edgar Smith and Maurice Levi, who have accomplished much in the line of musical farces and satires.

Mr. Weber has had in the last ten years, and as a librettist he stands alone as having never met with a single failure. Mr. Levi has written song hits in the two pieces which have become so popular from ocean to ocean, and from the Guif to the northland. In order to accommodate the hundreds of out of town patrons the curtain will rise at eight o'clock sharp.

This disturbs per press supporting the Republican the eggs and gives the frost a better candidate for state treasurer, Mr. Plummer, and its author denounced as a falsifier and defamor.

The failure of that bank-the Enterprise National, of Allegheny-only last The Index Book Store, Bellefonte, Wednesday, and the suicide of its cashier, confirmed every statement made by Mr. Castle, and showed even a worse condition of affairs-a more reckless and vicious use of state funds -than he had intimated. Building Breweries With State Funds. In a speech delivered at Titusville on the evening of October 10, Mr. Castle declared that a brewery had been organized, built and brought to completion with state money taken from about the size of a baz-inut. He has banks favored with deposits in conbeen offered prices ranging from $100 sideration of such favors. This was an Allegheny county enterprise, in which William H. Andrews was also concerned. Of it Mr. Castle said:

"A bunch of state politicians had themselves incorporated, and with-out land or financial timber of any kind issued bonds. These bonds were placed in a bank, into which a state deposit had been turned, and with the proceeds they built a

"After a certain time their property was turned over to a brewery combine and the politicians pock-eted the proceeds."

At another meeting Mr. Castle told Mortgage Banking company, and John I. Shaw, who was endorser on the Penrose note in the Turtle Creek bank, was made president. He had only a nominal interest in the bank, but enfoyed a strong pull on the state treasury surplus. State Treasurer Harris and Auditor General Hardenburg, both the shipments will run up to, and p-r- there will be carried to the house and 100 shares of the bank stock, and Harris became a director in the concern. Let them make an investigation and they will find that the greater part of that $10,000,000 is in securities of such a character that scarcely a bank in the commonwealth would touch them. 'Bull' Andrews is not the only man who has been using the state money for his own personal benefit. There are many personal benefit. There are many others, some of them a great deal higher in state politics than 'Bull'

It may result in the financial crash of several institutions. It is not my fault. I am going to lay this thing open, no matter whose toes I may trample

Another Substantial Witness. John Marron, Esq., is easily among the leaders of the Pittsburg bar. Like many busy lawyers, he is not active in politics, though sensible of his civic obligations. He addressed a meeting in the Sixth Avenue Theatre, Beaver Falls, on the evening of October 2, and

"And suppose you found that the officers of the bank in which you have your money deposited here, were handing that money out practically without security to a lot of adventurers. You wouldn't stand for that, would you. Of course no you'd go first thing in the merning and set your money out. And I'd he willing to wager that if the of you had your money that if to of you had your money tied up in a bank whose accounts had not been audited for two or three years and you discovered this fact you'd kick in the bank's doors touight and look over the

are the books of the state treasury that have not been audited for 21 years, with admitted cases of misapplication of the state's funds and with you and I and everyone not in the treasury ring in abso-lute ignorance of the treasury's cendition. Now I wonder whether, in face of this, Pennsylvania will do the stupid thing again? "Do you know," he continued, "that with your money specula-tions are and have been carried on in Mexico and goodness only knows in what other far-off places, and that some of the speculators who have almost unlimited access to bankruptcy? That's true "Why, it is an open shameful fact that our treasury has the most disgraceful record of any state in the Union. Its doorstep is bloody with three lives at least. Its con-trol by the ring has left a trail of murder, suicide, wreck and ruin. The honor of thousands has been sapped out, a frightful story of blasted hope and dishonor has been written. Surely the money in the state treasury of Pennsylvania has been the root of all our political wrongs. Only recently one of our United States senators presented the frightful picture of pleading the statute of limitations in connection with a criminal charge of misuse of the public funds.

"Here is something I want you to think about, because it shows just how far this crowd will go," said Mr. Marron earnestly. "Do you know that two years ago this treasury ring went so far as to hold up education—the common school system—for the benefit of these ring speculators? The school teachers of the state were denied their pay, the appropriation was held back for 90 days, although it had been regularly deposited in had been regularly deposited in these favored banks we are learn-ing so much about. And where was the money? It was out of the treasury all right, for the teachers couldn't be paid. Well, it was out in Mexico. So, I repeat, the pirates went so far as to hold up educa-cation in their greed." cation in their greed.'

Farming the Funds the Rule. Recalling the original witness in the matter of "farming the funds," Mr. Homer L. Castle, in a speech delivered at Union City, Erie county, said, and declared that he is able to prove the statement:

"In Pittsburg there is an Institution known as the Mortgage Banking Company, and I have not a word to say about its solvency or its responsibility. Some time ago this institution entered into an arrangement with John I. Shaw by which he became its president. The contract providing for his se-lection as the bank's chief officer stipulated that the institution was to receive a certain amount of state funds, and that Shaw was to state funds, and that Shaw was to receive, and he did receive 2 per cent for securing the deposits of state money. Now, is that honest?

"This is the Shaw who entered into a deal with Boies Penrose by which the Turtle Creek bank was to receive $20,000 as a state depository, if it would advance Penrose and Shaw half the amount upon receiving it and this Boies Penrose is one of your United States senators, head of the Republican machine

Farming Out May Be General. 'Now it has been charged that there exists an arrangement all over the state whereby the banks over the state whereby the banks are made to pay certain ringsters a percentage for all state moneys deposited with them, though at this minute I am not able to prove this, as a condition existing generally. I know the facts, in connection with the Mortgage Banknection with the Mortgage Banking company-Shaw case, however, and you can draw your own conclusions as to whether the practice is generally carried on.
"I also know all the facts in connection with the Turtle Creek transaction. If Penrose acted with Shaw in that loan did he or did he not act with him in the Mortgage Banking company affair? I leave you to your own inferences in con-sidering the whole affair; I am making no charges except those I am prepared to substantiate in de-

Penrose is boss of the Republican machine. He controls this man Plummer, who is running for state treasurer, and if Plummer is elected Ponrose will be the treasurer. That is an encouraging effect, when we have here letters the machine is sending out to the banks holding state money. They call foully for campaign contributions and promise the bankers that there will be a great change in the method of running the treasury if Berry is elected. You bet there will be, and I say that is why I want the ring driven out. We want this farming out of our money stopped. We want a square deal in the treasury, so we want this change that the ringsters fear
