LANDSLIDE FOR BERRY IN PENNSYLVANIA

Democratic Candidate Elected Treasurer by Over 75,000.

REFORM FOR PHILADELPHIA

Latest Returns Show Tremendous Democratic Gains All Over the State. Reformers in Philadelphia Swept the City By Over 60,000 Plurality and Elected Their Entire Ticket.

Philadelphia, Nov. 8.—Philadelphia has been swept by the reform movement, the City Party ticket winning by a surprisingly large plurality.

While returns from only a few of the 42 wards in this city had been counted up to this morning, there is enough known of the result in the remaining wards to indicate the defeat of the local Republican ticket by from 60,000 to 75,000 plurality.

The victory of the City Party carries with it the election of William H. Berry, the Democratic and reform candidate for state treasurer. J. Lee Plummer, the Republican candidate for that office was badly cut through-out the city and state, and he has lost his own county, which is usually Republican.

The result has every appearance of a landslide for reform, not only in Philadelphia, but throughout the entire state.

Sent Message to the President. City Party Chairman Edmonds sent the following telegram to President Roosevelt:

"Philadelphia has risen to its opportunity and stands redeemed. The principle of honesty in government so effectively espoused by you has won an overwhelming triumph. Our majority approximates 75,000."

To Secretary Root the following was telegraphed:

"The masquerade is over. The criminal and corrupt combination has been driven from power by the righteous indignation of a great Republican city. We have only begun. Our thanks to you for your splendid aid."

State Senator James P. McNichol, the Republican leader, lost his division in the 10th ward by 69 votes.

One year ago President Roosevelt carried the city by 180,834 plurality.

None of the Republican leaders had much to say on the result. Sheriff James L. Miles, chairman of the Republican city committee, when asked for a statement, said: "I have nothing to say; what's the use?"

The City Party sympathizers celebrated their victory by parading the streets. As soon as the result was definitely known hundreds of them formed in line and marched down Chestnut street. An unusual turnout was that of the campaign committee of the City Party, which is made up of some of the wealthiest and most influential men on the city. They marched behind a band to the tune of "Onward, Christian Soldier."

Estimates from practically every county in the state indicate the election of Berry for state treasurer by from 75,000 to 100,000 plurality. Official returns will probably increase the figures.

In only two counties of the state—Somerset and Washington—are gains shown by the Republicans over the vote for state treasurer two years ago. Large Democratic gains were made in all the other counties. Several other counties, which have heretofore been staunch Republican counties, have gone for Berry by large majorities. In Lancaster and other Republican strongholds Plummer ran away behind the vote for state treasurer in 1903. Plummer lost his home county of Blair, and Berry lost his county of Delaware.

State treasurer was the only state office for which there was a contest at the election in Pennsylvania. Judge John Stewart, an appointee of Governor Pennypacker, was re-elected associate judge of the supreme court for the full term of 21 years. President Judge Charles E. Rice and Judges George B. Oriady and James A. Beaver, of the superior court, were re-elected for a term of 10 years. John B. Head, Democrat, was also elected a superior court judge to succeed Judge Peter P. Smith, the minority member of that body, who failed of renomination.

Under the law no elector is entitled to vote for more than three candidates for judge of the superior court when four are to be elected, as was the case this year. Mr. Head was the only Democratic nominee for this office, which practically made his nomination equivalent to an election. Homer L. Castle, who was brought into prominence by his attacks on the state treasury management, following the developments in the Enterprise National Bank affair, was the Prohibition nominee for state treasurer.

Public interest centered in the contest for state treasurer, for which the principal candidates were J. Lee Plummer, nominee of the Republican and Citizens' parties, and William H. Berry, the candidate of the Democratic, Prohibition, Lincoln and Independent parties. Berry was also the choice of the City Party leaders of Philadelphia, although his nomination was never formally endorsed by that party, on the ground that it was purely a local organization.

There was practically no opposition to the re-election of Judge James S. Young in Allegheny county. Judge John W. Reed, Rep., was re-elected in Jefferson county. There was no opposition to the venerable Judge Craig Biddle in Philadelphia and to Judge David Cameron in Tioga county. Judge Alexander B. McConnell was re-elected in Westmoreland county.

Morris Dallett was re-elected a judge of the orphans' court without opposition in Philadelphia. There was a hot fight in Schuylkill county for orphans' court judge between Judge P. M. Dunn, the incumbent, Dem.; E. A. Beddall, Rep., and George W. Bacon, Socialist.

Associate judges were elected in Clinton, Elk, Forest, Fulton, Mifflin, Monroe, Montour, Sullivan, Union, Warren and Wyoming counties.

Chester—Gives Berry a plurality of 1800. The same county gave Mathues 3776, a Democratic gain of 5576.

500 ARRESTS IN PHILADELPHIA Police Quickly Put Down Disturbances at the Polls.

Philadelphia, Nov. 8.—Contrary to general expectation, there was no great or very serious disturbance in the city. There were, however, many small scurrillages at polling places, especially in the more thickly settled wards where the Republican organization is very strong and where the City Party put up a most determined fight. The police department was at all times the master of the situation, and wherever trouble was started it was quickly stopped. Some of these disturbances blossomed into small riots, but after the smoke had cleared away it was found that no one was fatally wounded.

Under orders of Mayor Weaver, who anticipated trouble, the police force was almost doubled by the swearing in of citizens who were sent into the wards where trouble was expected. Nearly all the mounted police of the city were brought in from outlying districts and distributed in the strongholds of the organization. A corps of bicycle policemen were kept in reserve at the city hall. The police captains were provided with swift automobiles, so that they could quickly go to any part of the city.

The patrolmen assigned to the polls carried lists of names of illegal voters. These lists were handed to the election officers, who were warned not to permit any one to vote on the names. The policemen were also held responsible if an illegal vote was cast. Every ballot box had to be opened for the policeman's inspection before voting began.

The number of arrests for election frauds was upwards of about 500. Police magistrates were on duty in all parts of the city giving the prisoners hearings. The scene at the central police station at the city hall was without precedent. More than 200 prisoners were given hearings there for alleged fraud against the ballot. All day several hundred persons were gathered in the courtyard watching the prisoners arrive in wagon loads. Every batch of prisoners were hissed or hooted as they were led into the city hall. The hearing room was crowded all day with party workers, lawyers, bondsmen and others. As quickly as a prisoner was brought in he would be given an immediate hearing, held in hall for a further hearing, and promptly released by a waiting bondsman. The released men were then ordered back to their respective election divisions.

Among the more prominent men arrested were Senator William H. Keyser, door leader of the state senate, who was charged with interfering with a voter, and John S. Hammond, deputy coroner, who was accused of vouching for an illegal voter. A deputy sheriff was arrested on the charge of stuffing a ballot box while the election officers were not looking. More than 90 per cent of those arrested were men claiming to be workers of the Republican organization.

COLONEL GUFFEY'S STATEMENT Says Berry's Election Means End of Republican Machine.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 8.—Col. James M. Guffey, Democratic national committeeman and leader of the party in the state, makes the following statement:

"The election of William H. Berry, a Democrat, as treasurer of Pennsylvania by such a splendid majority, does honor and credit to her good citizens in every walk of life.

"The lesson means the beginning of the end of the greatest and most corrupt machine ever conceived in American politics. It means that the debauchery of the people's money in the state treasury, the days of ballot box stuffing, the enacting of venal legislation and the election of corrupt men to places of honor and trust is over. It means that common honesty and civic decency are now to have a hearing.

"It means that Pennsylvania, the greatest of them all, will re-establish her honor and integrity and again assume her former honored place in the union of states."

THE VOTE IN MARYLAND Disfranchise Amendment Defeated By 20,000 Majority.

Baltimore, Nov. 8.—The election in Maryland was for state comptroller, legislature and county officers, and in Baltimore for a judge of the supreme court, sheriff, city clerk and mayor. The issue which engrossed popular attention was a proposed constitutional amendment, the avowed purpose of which was to disfranchise negro voters, but which aroused widespread opposition among many Democrats and foreign voters in both parties. Owing to the extreme length of the ballot, the count has been slow, and the votes in some of the city precincts and remote county districts have not been counted. The returns so far received, however, make certain the defeat of the proposed constitutional amendment by a decisive majority of 20,000 or more, and very probable the election of McCullough, Rep., state comptroller over Atkinson, Dem., and the election of Republicans in three out of four of the city legislative districts. The Republican candidates for sheriff, city court clerk and city surveyor in Baltimore are also elected.

Chief Judge Harlan, Dem., is re-elected by 10,000 majority. The Republicans did not nominate a candidate against Judge Harlan, though there was an independent Republican candidate. The political complexion of the next legislature is uncertain, and will not be known until the official count has been completed.

Virginia Elects Democratic Governor. Richmond, Va., Nov. 8.—Claude A. Swanson, Dem., was elected governor of Virginia by 20,000 plurality over Judge L. L. Lewis, the Republican candidate. The vote everywhere was exceedingly light, but Democratic apathy was offset by unfavorable conditions on the other side. The negroes throughout the state abstained from voting almost entirely. The Republicans gain a few members of the legislature.

Masons Banqueted.

Mrs. J. W. Runkle and daughters, Mrs. J. R. G. Allison and Miss Laura planned a complete surprise for J. W. Runkle, the proprietor of the Centre Hall Hotel. Monday night Mr. Runkle was initiated into the mysteries of the third degree of Masonry, and while this was in progress, the ladies referred to prepared a sumptuous spread at the hotel. Mr. Runkle was detained in the lodge room until all the members of the order present were seated around the board, and then he was hurriedly called to the hotel. The surprise was genuine, and it was some time before he realized that the supper was in his honor.

Twenty or more Masons enjoyed the feast. Those out of town were S. E. Weber, Boalsburg; Dr. H. S. Braucht and H. F. Rossman, Spring Mills.
