Election Returns That Interest All Parties.

The Age of Slang.

The way you New Yorkers address one another is still strange to me, although I have been coming here for years," said a visiting New Englander. "One would judge that you had no Christian names. I seldom hear one used, except formally. It's 'old man,' or 'old fellow,' and even in speaking to your wives it's 'little one,' 'little woman,' or some other silly diminutive. The women don't seem to be much better, with such terms as 'boy,' and 'hubby.' The children are likewise misnamed and seem to understand only such appellations as 'kid' and 'little rascal.' My daughter came here with the good old New England name of Priscilla, but I hear her called 'Prissy,' and some even make it 'Cilly.' This is certainly an age of slang."—New York Sun.

A TRULY IDEAL WIFE HER HUSBAND'S BEST HELPER

Vigorous Health is the Great Source of the Power to Inspire and Encourage—All Women Should Seek It.

One of the most noted, successful and richest men of this century, in a recent article, has said, "Whatever I am and whatever success I have attained in this world I owe all to my wife. From the day I first knew her she has been an inspiration, and the greatest helpmate of my life."

Mrs. Bessie Ainsley

To be such a successful wife, to retain the love and admiration of her husband, to inspire him to make the most of himself, should be a woman's constant study.

If a woman finds that her energies are flagging, that she gets easily tired, dark shadows appear under her eyes, she has headache, dizziness, bearing-down pains, nervousness, white, irregularities or the blues, she should start at once to build up her system by a tonic with specific powers, such as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Following we publish by request a letter from a young wife:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:

"Ever since my child was born I have suffered, as I hope few women ever have, with inflammation, female weakness, bearing-down pains, headache and wretched headaches. It affected my stomach so I could not enjoy my meals, and half my time was spent in bed.

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me a well woman, and I feel so grateful that I am glad to write and tell you of my marvelous recovery. It brought me health, new life and vitality."—Mrs. Bessie Ainsley, 611 South 10th Street, Tacoma, Wash.

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for Mrs. Ainsley it will do for every sick and ailing woman.

If you have symptoms you don't understand, write to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free and always helpful.

THERE IS NO SLICKER LIKE TOWER'S FISH BRAND

Forty years ago and after many years of use on the eastern coast, Tower's Waterproof Oiled Coats were introduced in the West and were called Slickers by the pioneers and cowboys. This graphic name has come into such general use that it is frequently though wrongfully applied to many substitutes. You want the genuine. Look for the Sign of the Fish and the name Tower on the buttons.

Careful of Strangers.

"They're very careful at the Boston beaches," said a man who visited the New England metropolis a few weeks ago. "I went down to one of the watering places one hot day. There had been a storm and the surf was rough, and the man in charge refused to let me go in bathing. I left in no very pleasant frame of mind, and complained to the cabman as I drove away.

"Oh, well," said he, in a consoling tone, "you see they don't like to have strangers come down here and get drowned. It hurts the beach."

Little Girl's Awful Suffering With Terrible Skin Humor—Sleepless Nights For Mother—Speedy Cure by Cuticura.

"My little girl had been suffering for two years from eczema, and during that time I could not get a night's sleep, as her ailment was very severe. I had tried so many remedies, deriving no benefit, I had given up all hope. But as a last resort I was persuaded to try Cuticura, and one box of the Ointment, and two bottles of the Resolvent, together with the Soap, effected a permanent cure. Mrs. I. B. The Latest Pennsylvania News Told in Short Order.

Dennis Wall, one of a party of six Philadelphians who were hunting in the Scotac Region, Clifton County, met a horrible death. Wall had a double-barreled shotgun and was standing on a stump lighting his pipe with the weapon between his legs. It slipped down and the hammers of both barrels struck the stump. The weapon discharged, and the double load tore him almost in two. Wall was about 35 years of age, a steam-fitter by trade, and the sole support of his father and mother.

A funeral shroud instead of a bridal dress was the covering of Miss Elsie Eaton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Eaton, of North Beaver Township. She was 19 years of age and was a member of the English Lutheran Church, of Petersburg. Her coming marriage with Ellis Clark, of Enon Valley, had been reported and the wedding day had been set for the afternoon that her funeral was held. Death was due to typhoid fever.

The opening of the rabbit season in Lancaster county was marked with the usual fatality with probably another death to follow as the result of a gunning accident. In company with three fellow-employees of the traction company, Frank Roland, a motorman on the car line, went gunning in West Earl Township. Roland was getting over a wire fence when the hammer of his gun caught on one of the bars. The charge of shot passed through his body, tearing his heart to pieces.

Peter Youtz, of Kinderhook, was probably fatally wounded by a companion while gunning along Chickies Creek. When the latter was aiming at a rabbit Youtz stepped directly in the line of fire.

Twenty high school students had a narrow escape from death or injury in Shamokin by a wheel on an omnibus flying off as the vehicle was descending a steep mountain road. The occupants were pitched to the ground, but none seriously injured.

That the United Mine Workers are preparing to combat the attempt of the coal operators to have the miners' certificate law declared unconstitutional was made certain when fifty witnesses who will testify at the trial of the famous Shea case in Scranton this week assembled and held a conference with Attorney Jones and the three district presidents, Dettrey, Fahy and Nichols. The conference lasted all day, and some important facts bearing on the mine certificate law were adduced.

A meeting of citizens was held in the Martin Auditorium, Lancaster, to discuss the initiative and referendum in general law-making. Speeches were made by George H. Shibley, of Washington, D. C., president of the People's Sovereignty League of America; J. L. Rodier, of the International Typographical Union; Jacob L. Frey, Jr., who introduced the measure recently into City Councils, and others.

Miss Nellie Rosenstock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Casper Rosenstock, of Weathersville, sailed from New York city on the Oceanic for Africa, where she will enter the missionary field. In company with seven other persons she will go down the Eastern coast of Africa as far as Mombasa, where the party will separate. Miss Rosenstock goes into the interior about 200 miles, where she will meet her fiancé, George Rhodes, a missionary, to whom she will be married.

During the absence from home of the family of U. S. G. Rhoads, a prominent Lancaster manufacturer, thieves looted the house and got considerable plunder in money and jewelry. While they were engaged on the second floor two rings at the doorbell interrupted them. One of the men answered the bell, took mail from the postman and informed a caller that the family was not at home.

Recent awards by a jury to land owners along Church road, near Jenkintown, for widening that highway have resulted in the filing of a score of appeals asking the Montgomery county courts for a review, the property owners maintaining that the awards are insufficient. Many wealthy residents of Cheltenham, Springfield and Whitemarsh Townships are interested.

Jones & Co., of Philadelphia, who purchased the Crum-Lynne Worsteds Works, in Chester, from Smith Longbottom, have started the plant after it has been idle for three months.

Thieves broke into the clothing factory of Kirchbaum & Co., of Sellersville, and stole a hundred pairs of trousers. This is the second time within a few months that the factory has been entered by thieves.

Because of the scarcity of labor a great deal of corn in Northern Berks, Lebanon and Southern Schuylkill counties remains to be husked. Fortunately the weather is fine for this period of the year, affording opportunity for a few men to do much work.

While going down the steep mountain south of Mount Carmel, the harness on a horse, driven by Michael Crane, broke and the animal ran away. The carriage was thrown over an embankment and Crane and his wife hurled several feet and painfully hurt.

While chopping down a big tree at Deturksville, William Miller, aged 23 years, was caught under the falling trunk and killed.

Several hundred hunters in all sections of the coal regions availed themselves of the opening of the rabbit and quail season, and spent the day on the hills and in the forests. Both species of game are reported as plentiful. Many large bags were carried home.

Henry Boengle, John Brior and Elmer Walton, of Easton, went gunning in the vicinity of the Wind Gap. Brior became separated from his companion and was in a clump of bushes when Boengle and Walton, taking him for a pheasant, fired simultaneously in the bushes, Brior receiving the two charges of shot in the back of his head.

The early passenger train on the Pennsylvania Railroad at the tunnel between St. Clair and Pottsville plowed through a herd of cows. Engineer "Jack" Roberts saw the cattle in time to avert striking them at full speed.
