Hotel to be Enlarged.

The Centre Hall hotel will be enlarged by Landlord Runkle, part of the work being planned for this fall, and to be finished in the spring. The first floor space of the hotel has been inadequate for some years, and since the hotel has been heated throughout by Mr. Runkle and other improvements made, the business has increased to such an extent that expansion is absolutely necessary. The large store room now occupied by Mr. Boozer, the saddler, will be refitted and the front used for a waiting room. and the rear for a bar room. The old Weaver, in this place. bar room will be added to the dining room.

To the south of the building an addition of about eighteen feet, two stories high, will be crected. The first floor will be used by Mr. Boozer and rooms.
