

TERMS.—The terms of subscription to the Reporter are one dollar per year in advance.

ADVERTISEMENTS.—20 cents per line for three insertions, and 5 cents per line for each subsequent insertion. Other rates made known on application.

The figures opposite your name on label of paper indicate the date to which your subscription is paid.

RESOLUTIONS AND CARDS OF THANKS.—Resolutions of respect will be charged for at the rate of one-half cent per word, (payable in advance) the minimum charge being $1.00.

The New York World hands Reformer Roosevelt this nut to crack: "The freight on a pair of men's shoes from New York to Chicago is one cent, one mill and two-tenths of a mill."

Formal announcement has been made of the candidacy of Assemblyman Frederick R. Schofield, of DuBois, for the Republican nomination for Congress in this the Twenty-first district.

President Roosevelt will recommend immediate joint statehood for Oklahoma and Indian Territory in his forthcoming message to congress, and Oklahomans are accordingly elated.

Rev. Miles O. Noll Dead.

The Rev. Miles O. Noll, pastor of the First Reformed church, at Carlisle, died Monday, aged forty-five years.

From Lucas, Kansas.

After expressing his delight over the fact that he became a regular reader of the Reporter, A. H. Hunter, of Lucas, Kansas, adds:

"I have been in Kansas for a year, and while it is a delightful country, I would rather live in Pennsylvania. I am working on a ranch. The weather this fall has been very pleasant, having had no cold weather so far."

Mr. Hunter is a son of Thomas V. Hunter, deceased, and was born and raised at Boalsburg. His mother now lives in Altoona.

Missing Hunter Found Dead.

Anderson Geedy, of Academia, went hunting for rabbits last Friday, and failed to return. His body was found Sunday morning in a field, with the head partly blown off.

Prospecting in Snyder.

The prospecting for coal at Port Ann, near Middleswarth, Snyder county, which has been lying idle for several months, will be resumed in a few weeks.

Not for Judicial Investigation.

Judge Bell, of Blair county, decided that there is no legal warrant for a judicial investigation of the contents of a woman's stockings.

His Honor further said that a jailer or constable often searches the persons of prisoners, but that this is done without the judicial knowledge and authority of the Court.

Camp-Kirk.

William Camp, son of W. A. Camp, of Tyrone, and Miss Marie Kirk, of Grimsbe, Ontario, Canada, were married last month.

Corn.

Let the Reporter readers hear about some of the fine corn crops just harvested. Let the acres and bushels be measured and reported to this office.

Smith, the Photographer.

W. W. Smith, the Photographer, will be in Centre Hall Friday, December 8, from 8 to 2:30 o'clock.

A man's good opinion of himself never gets too heavy for him to carry.

NOVEMBER COURT.

Sessions Opened Monday—Routine of Business.

The regular November term of court convened Monday morning with Judge Ellis L. Orvis on the bench. Prothonotary Kimport and Register Archie occupied their accustomed places.

Judge Orvis then addressed the grand jurors, explaining to them very plainly what their duties are and urging them to be careful but at the same time to progress as rapidly as possible with the business before them.

The constables of the several boroughs and townships of the county then made their quarterly reports.

Judge Samuel J. Telford, of Indiana county, who has been assisting Judge Orvis since last week, finished his business Monday morning.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, ex rel, Clara Brown vs. Ellen E. Bower and John J. Bower, administrators of C. M. Bower, late of Bellefonte borough, deceased, being an action in assumpsit; verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $304.07.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, ex rel, Blanch Hayes vs. same, being an action in assumpsit; verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $1547.93.

The case of George T. Brew vs. Christian Sharer, Eva Sharer, W. H. Marcey, A. A. Bertels, Thomas Pence, being an action for ejectment for lands in Rush township, was continued by agreement of counsel.

Last Thursday afternoon the case of Charles Schad vs. Milesburg borough was taken up before Judge Telford. Hon. A. O. Furst and Paul Zerby represented the prosecutor and John G. Love and J. A. B. Miller, the defendants.

The plaintiff owns considerable land back of the Armor Gap. On this land was a spring. Several years ago Milesburg borough took it under the right of eminent domain.

The Lytle vs. Griffith, trespass, was continued. The Clements vs. Emerick case was also continued, and will first come before the argument court.

See "Rube" Waddell.

Manager Will Garman, of Bellefonte, has booked for the opera house Thursday evening of this week Hunting & Walter's high-class vaudeville company.

Marriage Licenses.

John A. Fulkrod, Williamsport. Mary E. Thompson, Bellefonte. Bud C. Benner, Bellefonte. Martha V. Reesides, Bellefonte.

Mrs. Margaret E. Border Dead.

Mrs. Margaret Eleanor Border, wife of Robert Border, died at her home in Altoona, Saturday. She was born in Nittany, this county, and was aged thirty-two years.

John Nearhood Dead.

John Nearhood, one of the best known citizens of Taylor township, died at his home in that place. Death was due to a complication of heart and stomach trouble.

The deceased was aged sixty-six years and six months, and was a veteran of the civil war, having served in the 110th Regiment, P. V.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks and deep appreciation of the tender sympathy and help of the neighbors during the illness and death of our beloved mother.

CHILDREN OF SARAH B. DURST

BEAVER DOUBLE HEATER FOR SALE.—This heater, including heater pipe, is in good condition, and will be sold at a bargain.

Rocking chairs free if you buy shoes of Yeager & Davis.

Clocks free if you buy shoes of Yeager & Davis.

DISTRESSING HUNTING ACCIDENT.

The Sad Affair in Brush Valley Mountains, Ten Miles from Loganton—Slayed and Slayer Were Close Friends.

Mistaken for a deer and shot to death by his gunning companion, is the sad tale of a day's sport that Wilbert Oberdorf, twenty-three years old, of West Buffalo township, Union county, had planned.

Oberdorf and his lifelong companion, Joseph Biddle, aged twenty-one years, were out with a party of ten hunters gunning for deer and bear in the Brush valley narrows about ten miles from Loganton, on a direct line, and became separated from the main body.

They separated so as to close in upon the animal from opposite directions, Biddle saw a laurel bush move, and shot. He saw something drop, and, hastening to the spot, was horrified to find his bosom friend, Oberdorf, shot through the head.

Ivy W. Bartsge will make sale of his farm stock and implements, Saturday, December 16th.

Mrs. L. Rhone is confined to bed at present. She has been in delicate health during the past year.

Mary J. Krape, of Lock Haven, this week, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Sweetwood, in this place.

The fourteen children of George E. Stover, were present at his funeral, all having come home prior to his death Saturday afternoon.

The students at Pennsylvania State College are on a strike because the faculty has made changes in "cuts" and "excesses."

Messrs. Alvin S. Meyers, of Altoona, and D. Olie Stover, of Beres, O., were callers Tuesday evening.

A telegram received from Miss Annie Durst, of Pittsburg, stated that owing to illness she was unable to come home to attend the funeral of her mother.

Why He Wanted a Tenner. Application was made at half a dozen stores before the man could get one ten dollar bill for his roll of ones.

Handel's Appetite. Handel was blessed with a wonderful appetite, and many are the amusing accounts, true or otherwise, as to the means taken by his owner for its indulgence.

Not the Same. On one occasion when "The Mikado" was being rehearsed Gilbert called out from the middle of the stalls.

The Mayflower Compact. During examination in American history in one of our big city schools the question was put, "What was the Mayflower compact?"

How a Bee Gave Up Work. On landing in Australia our hive bee industriously collected quantities of honey.

No Extension. "Is the wind due east or due west today?" asked an evasive creditor by way of changing the subject of his debt.

His Defense. The Count—You do me an injustice, I am not mercenary. The Heiress—No? The Count—No, I assure you. It is my creditors who are.—New York Press.

A very honest man and a very good understanding may be deceived by a knave.—Junius.

A MONSTER PHANTOM.

The Ancient Norse Legend of the Flying Dutchman.

The old Norsemen had a curious and vague tradition of a phantom ship which they called Mannifual. The French maritime chronicler, Jal, gives an account of her.

Down to within a century ago this gigantic ship was known among English sailors by the name of the Merry Dun of Dover, but she seems quite to have disappeared from the maritime lore of Great Britain.

Queer Records of an Old Time Writer on This Subject. Mention of an obscure belief in other countries that Englishmen used to wear tails has prompted a correspondent to submit some information regarding the subject of tails in general.

Baring-Gould's "Curious Myths of the Middle Ages" contains the following: "Dr. Wolff in his travels and adventures says, 'There are men and women in Abyssinia with tails like dogs and horses.'"

Warning to Guests.

This notice greets one in a hotel opened by a foreigner who has just "mastered" the English language: "Gentlemen who come in this hotel not say anything about their meals they will be charged for, and if they should say beforehand that they are going out to breakfast or dinner, and if they say they have not anything to eat they will be charged, or unless they bring it to the notice of the manager."

The stage manager appeared and explained. "There is one gentleman," he said, "who is absent through illness."

"Ah," came the reply from the author in grave, matter of fact tones, "that is not the gentleman I am referring to."

During examination in American history in one of our big city schools the question was put, "What was the Mayflower compact?"

How a Bee Gave Up Work. On landing in Australia our hive bee industriously collected quantities of honey.

No Extension. "Is the wind due east or due west today?" asked an evasive creditor by way of changing the subject of his debt.

His Defense. The Count—You do me an injustice, I am not mercenary. The Heiress—No? The Count—No, I assure you. It is my creditors who are.—New York Press.

A very honest man and a very good understanding may be deceived by a knave.—Junius.

Spring Mills.

The merchants here are receiving and displaying their holiday goods.

Turkeys will be tolerably safe this year. Very few will adorn Thanksgiving tables. In this community turkeys are scarce and command high prices.

The toll gate annoyance, if not nuisance, has been wiped out, at last. Tolls and toll gates belong to the past.

How about the road bridge over the railroad from Allison's grain house to the hill opposite? It was rather expected that it would be completed by this time.

The revival in the Evangelical church still continues, and is meeting with success.

The Spring Mills planing mill has shut down for repairs.

Last Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. John Lloyd gave a birthday surprise party to their daughter Edith. The company consisted of only a few friends and proved a delightful occasion.

Miss Edith was the recipient of a number of handsome presents. The guests present were Rosa Smith, Mabel and Eleanor Long, Mabel Finkle, Besse Hoover, Mamie Bartley, Anna M. Cummings, Archie Decker, Samuel Leitzell and E. Finkle.

Aaronsburg.

Harry Sowers and Miss Hettie Smull, of State College, were at the home of Jesse Wert on Monday.

Mrs. Harvey Musser and son Phil, of Akron, Ohio, are visiting Col. J. P. Coburn and Dr. C. S. Musser.

Thaddeus Stover and daughter, Mrs. Kate Burd, of Smullton, spent a day this week at the home of Polly Stover.

Mrs. Jacob Sharer, of near Centre Hall, returned to her home after having spent a week with her mother and her brother, John Hetzle.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Stover spent a few days last week at the home of John Beaver, at Milroy. They were much pleased with their visit.

Mrs. Lavina Lenker and daughter, Miss Sue, visited friends at Mifflinburg over Sunday.

Carl Sylvus and family, of Milton, are guests at the home of H. D. Kreamer.

Colonel Decker and wife, of Madisonburg, were guests of Frederick Lambert over Sunday.

Milton Stover took Mrs. Gilbert's household furniture to New Berlin, last Friday, at which place she will locate.

Ripka's Laundry Agency. Ripka's Cash Store, Spring Mills, has taken the agency for the Milton Steam Laundry. They will give the business their best attention.

Visiting cards printed at this office. Call and get prices.

We are After You. We want you to buy your Shoes of us. We will make it an object for you. We will help you. Furnish Your Home Free. We are adding a free premium department to our Store. Something that has never been done by any store in Centre county.

THE HOUSE OF Kuppenheimer. When you see a well dressed man—a man whose clothes attract your attention—not because they are extreme or showy, but simply because they look well, look neat and stylish—you may know that man understands clothes buying.

Ayer's Pills. The dose is one, just one pill at bedtime. Sugar-coated, mild, certain. Sugar-coated, mild, certain. Sugar-coated, mild, certain. Sugar-coated, mild, certain.

Build up your Strength with JAYNE'S TONIC VERMIFUGE. A pleasant, potent and permanent invigorator for WOMEN, CHILDREN and MEN.