

POMONA GRANGE MEETING.

A Constitution Adopted for the Establishment of Rural Telephone Companies—Other Business.

The sessions of Pomona Grange held in Grange Arcadia, Centre Hall, Tuesday morning, were much below the average attendance, owing to the several local conditions and inclemency of the weather. There was, however, considerable business of importance transacted.

The chairman of the Encampment and Fair made his report, which proved to be of particular interest. There was a small net profit left to the organization.

James A. Keller, secretary of the Centre County Mutual Fire Insurance Company, made his quarterly report, which disclosed an increase in business and a low percentage of losses.

Officers were elected for two years. In most instances the officers now serving were re-elected, it being the custom to give an officer two terms. The installation will take place in January, at Centre Hall.

The committee appointed to investigate the rural telephone, decide which telephone company presented the best propositions for rural telephone lines and contract with the same, reported that they had entered into an agreement with the Pennsylvania Telephone Company. The report was accepted.

A plan of uniform organization for rural telephone companies was mapped out by the committee, which was adopted by the County Grange as a constitution and by-laws to govern the local companies.

The constitution as amended and adopted makes the official title of the company, "The Patrons Rural Telephone Company," designated throughout the constitution as "The Central Company." "Branch Companies" of the Central Company are the local organizations building and operating rural telephone lines. The board of managers of the Central Company is composed of five persons elected by the County Grange, and one person elected by each organized Branch Company. The board of managers of the Branch Company is composed of three persons elected by the stockholders, one person elected by the local Grange and one person elected by the County Grange. The legislative power lies with the Branch Companies and The Central Company, each being under the supervision of the Centre County Pomona Grange. Any person, whether a Patron or not, may become a stockholder and director in either the Branch or Central Company.

There are bright prospects of three rural telephone lines being established within the next three months. One line will run out from Centre Hall through the Keller district, connecting the homes of James A. Keller, David K. Keller, John Conley, William Homan, H. E. Homan, Dauberman's slaughter house, and perhaps several others. A second line is likely to be built up the Boalsburg road from Old Fort, connecting a half dozen or more prosperous, progressive farmers. The Dales, near Lemont, are also ready for the rural telephone line, and anticipate the beginning of construction in the near future.

Want the Grangers' Endorsement.
Politicians are making an effort to work the Grangers for their endorsement of a scheme to establish a department of horticulture in connection with the State Department of Agriculture. In order to accomplish this the instrument asks the passage of some very commendable legislation regarding the sale of fruit trees untrue to name, and adulteration of seeds, etc.

The prime object of the politicians is to secure the endorsement of the farmer to establish the new department suggested, which will give places to a half dozen or more politicians at large salaries. In the selection of these officials, the farmer would be deemed incapable, yet the politician seeks his endorsement to establish the department.

The County Grange, at its meeting Tuesday, endorsed the portion of the resolution passed by Washington Grange, of which Prof. H. A. Surface is Master, asking for legislation to insure against fraud in buying fruit trees and seeds, but the formation of a horticultural department was "cut out."

Witness Confesses.
Called as a witness in the horse-stealing case against John Henderson, at Franklin, George Clark confessed that he himself had a part in the affair. He said that he and Henderson stole the horse and sold it near New Castle. The man seemed to be laboring under heavy remorse, and before he left the stand he confessed that his right name was Harry Williams and that he was from Centre county.

He will throw himself on the mercy of the court, Clark, or Williams, is aged about forty-five years, and gives evidence of being a well-bred man.

Thanksgiving Services.
Union Thanksgiving services will be held this (Thursday) morning in the Methodist church, sermon by Rev. Daniel Gress. The offering will be for the benefit of the Bellefonte Hospital.

Granulated sugar five and one-half cents—C. W. Swartz, Tusseyville.

Obituary.

Mrs. Esther Mench Swartz was born December 13, 1817, in Columbia county, Pa., and died at the home of her son, David M. Swartz, November 18, 1905, aged eighty-seven years, eleven months and five days. She was married to Michael Swartz February 1st, 1844.

Mr. and Mrs. Swartz went west in the year 1855, going direct to Stephenson county, Illinois. They settled on the farm now owned by their son, David, and with the exception of a few years, that had ever since been their home. There were born to them six children, four of whom are living: Philip, of Peconics, Ill.; Mrs. Susan Berger, of Dixon, Ill.; Mrs. Hannah Lambert, of Gutrie, Centre, Iowa; David M., on the old homestead. The husband, a son and a daughter preceded the mother to the last resting place.

Mrs. Swartz became a member of the Lutheran church in the year 1836. Her faith and confidence in God were manifest in her calm and uncomplaining submission to his Providence. She often spoke of her desire to go home and be at rest, praying that it might be God's will to take her to Himself, yet patiently and calmly biding His own good time.
