State Grange.

The State Grange will meet in Sunbury, Tuesday of next week.

650 Names for Jury Wheel.

The court made on order Monday morning, making Monday, December eleventh, the day for filling the jury wheel. Six hundred and fifty names will be selected. The jury commissioners are John Decker and Frederick Robb.

Shot Index Finger Off.

John Stover, a young farmer of near Pine Grove Mills, accidentally shot off the index finger on his left hand. He went to the hog pen early Tuesday morning to shoot a hog with a revolver, and in preparing to do so, while in the pen, the accident occurred. The wound was dressed by Dr. Woods.

Ran Over by a Train.

David Calderwood, a young man of Pennsylvania Furnace, was killed on the railroad at Tyrone by being thrown from a car. Both his legs were cut off. His remains were brought to Pennsylvania Furnace Tuesday, where interment was made. He was employed on the railroad but for a short time, and was aged twenty-five years. Mrs. John Allen, of Boalsburg, is a sister of the deceased.

Rocking chairs free if you buy shoes of Yeager & Davis.

LOCALS.

Progress Grange will meet Saturday afternoon.

Presbyterian appointments—Spring Mills, morning; Centre Hall, afternoon.

Wm. Fetterolf, east of Centre Hall, was a purchaser of two sixes for John F. and George F. Emerick.

Wednesday morning Miss Grace Smith went to Williamsport where she will remain for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bible, of Centre Hill, recently visited their daughter, Mrs. Daniel Rossman, at York. The real attraction was the first baby—a girl—in the Rossman home.

C. M. Sweetwood is home from Illinois, where he is engaged as a tiling contractor. He is a son of D. R. Sweetwood, of near Potters Mills, and went west six years ago, making but one visit home previous to the present.

For the greater time Mr. Sweetwood was located in the vicinity of Freeport. He was accompanied to this office by Frank Bible, of Centre Hill.

Land owners should profit by the experience of Ivy W. Barges who recently sold his farm, known as the Fairview Fruit Farm, for $6500. This good figure was obtained because the farm was well stocked with choice fruit, which requires both time and care to grow.

Mr. Barges intends going west in the spring, and announces public sale for Saturday, December 16th.

Col. John Taylor, of Reedsville, was a caller Tuesday morning. From here he went to Pittsburg to attend the funeral of his personal friend, Col. Thos. G. Sample, past department commander and ex-state printer, which took place Wednesday.

Colonel Taylor is looking forward with considerable pleasure to February 8th, at which time he and Rev. A. H. Spangler, of Yeagertown, will sail on the steamer Arabic for Madrid. From there they will go to Cairo and the Holy Land. The trip will cover a period of about three months.

A Fatal Kick.

Michael Frank, a prominent and wealthy citizen of Prairie township, Jewell county, Kansas, died Friday 21st ult., from the kick of a horse.

Mr. Frank had been butchering a pig and while the blood was still on his clothes, he attempted to pare the hoof of a horse. The horse, smelling the blood, began to plunge, and finally broke away. Mr. Frank's daughter then caught it by the long rope attached to its halter, and led it to her father. Mr. Frank was pulling the horse to him, when it again began to plunge, and whirling, kicked him in the stomach. This was on Wednesday and on the following Friday Mr. Frank died. He was fifty-seven years old. Mrs. Frank is a sister of Mrs. D. N. Eitel, of Valley Falls, Kansas. The latter and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. F. Schaefer, of Jewell City, attended the funeral.

Mr. Frank was a son of Michael Frank, of Haines township, deceased, and is survived by a widow, (a daughter of Levi Long, of Madisonburg,) and the following sisters: Mrs. H. E. Duck, Mrs. W. H. Smith, Mrs. Henry M. Swartz, all of Millheim.

Marriage.

John Martz and Miss Letitia Bradford, both of Centre Hall, were married at the Reformed parsonage, Boalsburg, Sunday evening of last week. The groom is one of the trackmen on the Lewisburg and Tyrone railroad, and is an industrious, frugal young man. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Bradford. The young couple have the best wishes of the Reporter.

John A. Breckman Bought Home.

Mrs. Myra A. Kerr, of Omaha, Nebraska, sold her dwelling house in Centre Hall, to John A. Heckman, west of Centre Hall. Price, $1000. The sale was made through W. B. Mingle, Esq., who during the past few years has sold real estate summing up many thousands of dollars.

Linden Hall.

The ladies of the Lutheran church conducted a missionary service in the church at Boalsburg Thursday evening. Leo Brooks has rented the Miller farm from Henry Houser, the new owner, and will move there in the spring. Mr. Miller has not decided where he will locate.

Mrs. D. C. Hess has closed her house for the winter and gone to spend the time with her granddaughter, Mrs. G. M. Hall, in Huntingdon.

Misses Rhoda and Jennie Kyle and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bell, of Reedsville, spent Sunday at the McFarlane home.

S. E. Weber made a business trip to Altoona last week.

Reuben Tressler, while on his way to Muncy, stopped here over night with Robert McClellan.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McFarlane spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. Jennie Henry at the Thompson home, at Martha Furnace.

Rugs free if you buy shoes of Yeager & Davis.

Harris Township.

The Modocs and the Riley hunting parties returned last week, each having three deer.

J. W. Smith, one of the managers at the saw mill, returned with his bride on Saturday. In spite of the rain, they were welcomed to their home, at Shingletown, by a band of calthumpians whose hideous music could be heard for miles around.

Miss Priscilla Stuart is visiting friends in Pittsburg.

Mrs. Anna Glenn and little girls, of Rixford, are visiting at the home of Mrs. M. A. Woods.

Mrs. E. P. McIntire and son Norman, of Altoona, spent Thanksgiving day in Boalsburg.

Harry Hess moved his cigar and confectionery store to the store house on the premises of his mother, Mrs. Mary Hess.

Mrs. Sara Rankin departed on Saturday for Altoona where she expects to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. E. P. McIntire.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore D. Boal returned last week from Washington.

Rev. A. A. Black attended the funeral of Rev. Miles O. Noll, at Lewisburg, last Wednesday.

Grant Houser lost a horse last week. Charles Moffit returned to this place, after spending the summer in Kansas.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Wagner and son Cyrus, of the Mountain City, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Durst.

George Hosterman is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Boob, near Millburg.

Rev. A. A. Black was unable to fill his appointments Sunday on account of sickness.

Spring Mills.

R. D. Runkle, a former resident of this place, but now living in Shamokin, is circulating among friends here at present.

John Leitzell, wife and baby, of Lewisburg, recently visited at the home of Mrs. C. C. Barges, the former's sister.

The meetings conducted by Rev. Haney, of the Evangelical church, are still in progress. There have been between forty and fifty converts, as a result of his efforts.

Morris Oberly, wife and two children, of Steubensville, Ohio, left last week after a few weeks' visit to Mrs. Oberly's sister, Mrs. Wm. Smith.

Messrs. Wm. Allison, Jr., and Bruce Gramley spent their Thanksgiving vacation at home.

Through the efforts of Rev. Lauffer, of Aaronsburg, who is superintendent of the Sunday school normal course in this county, attempts are being made to organize a Sunday school normal class here. This is an opportunity that ought not to be missed.

Rev. Bixler, pastor of the Lutheran church in Rebersburg, will preach in the Lutheran church here Sunday morning, as he and Rev. Rearick will exchange pulpits for the day.

C. C. Barges assisted in Rossman's store last week, during the absence of Mr. Rossman in Bellefonte.

The Reformed Sunday school contemplates rendering a New Year service. The date has not yet been determined.

Condo-Downey.

The marriage of Clyde Condo and Miss Downey took place Thursday of last week. The groom is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Condo, of Darragh, formerly of this place. The Reporter and the groom's many young friends in and about Centre Hall, wish the young couple an abundance of happiness.

Grip Quickly Knocked Out.

"Some weeks ago during the severe winter weather both my wife and myself contracted severe colds which speedily developed into the worst kind of a gripe with all its miserable symptoms," says Mr. J. S. Egleston, of Maple Landing, Iowa. "Knees and joints aching, muscles sore, head stopped up, eyes and nose running, with alternate spells of chills and fever. We began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, aiding the same with a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and by its liberal use soon completely knocked out the gripe."

These Tablets promote a healthy action of the bowels, liver and kidneys which is always beneficial when the system is congested by a cold or attack of the gripe. For sale by C. W. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills.
