Rural Telephone Lines.

A rural telephone line has been staked from Bellefonte to Zion and Dale Summit. The line runs by the way of Nigh Bank to a junction at Herman's school house, where one line branches east to Zion and the other west to Dale Summit. The line to the junction point is three and one-half miles, the branch to Zion five miles, and the Dale Summit branch four miles in length.

These lines will connect a large number of the leading farmers and business men in the country traversed by the lines. The service will be over the Pennsylvania, commonly known as the Bell, lines.

The patrons of the rural telephone line will have all the privileges given any subscribers in the county, that is the free use of the Bell system in Centre county, excepting Philipsburg.

The Bell company has ample lines and will be able to handle the additional telephones without inconvenience to their patrons now being served. In other words, a ring to the exchange will not bring back the answer "busy", instead of the party wanted.

Keen-Fischer.

The marriage of Rev. Charles S. Keen and Miss Marion L. Fischer took place in the Lutheran church, Shamokin, December 28, the ceremony being performed by the father of the bride, Rev. Dr. W. E. Fischer.

Beary, and accompanied by her sister, marched down the centre aisle. The groom, accompanied by M. B. Mulford, of Bridgeton, N. J., marched in from the right side aisle.

The party met at the altar where the beautiful marriage ceremony of the Lutheran church was pronounced.

The bride looked pretty in a gown of white silk tulle. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses. Her maid of honor, Miss Ella Fischer, wore a creation of pink silk muslin and carried pink roses.

On January 15 they will leave Rochester, N. Y., for San Francisco, Cal., where they will embark for Kihwa, China, where the groom is a Baptist missionary. On the trip west Rev. Keen will deliver a series of lectures.

The Blue Rock Shoot.

Cummings and Mr. Weaver (the latter also shooting for A. B. Lee) were the choice for Colyer. Fifteen rounds were shot, Potters Mills coming out ahead by a small margin. Squire Carson proved to be the best shot.

The prize was an oyster supper, which was served by Geo. R. Meiss, the merchant and huckster, immediately after the contest was closed.

The affair was witnessed by a large number of people from all sections on the South side, who always look forward to the "doings" with Meiss' store on New Year's day at pleasure.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know it.

How To Find Out.
Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to Do.
There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail.

Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Home of Swamp-Root, Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Best Made.
"In my opinion Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best made for colds," says Mrs. Cora Walker, of Porterville, California. There is no doubt about its being the best. No other will cure a cold so quickly. No other is so sure a preventive of pneumonia. No other is so pleasant and safe to take. These are good reasons why it should be preferred to any other. The fact is that few people are satisfied with any other after having once used this remedy. For sale by C. W. Swartz, Tusseville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills.
