Engraved Cards.

Orders for engraved cards, invitations, etc., taken at this office. The highest class work.

School Directors' Convention.

The school directors of Centre county will meet in their annual convention in the court house, Bellefonte, Thursday, January 18th. Prof. Albert, of Bloomsburg, and Prof. McNeil, of Harrisburg, will be present and address the convention.

Insurance Auditors Meet.

The auditors elected by the Centre County Pomona Grange met at the home of James A. Keller, secretary of the Centre County Mutual Fire Insurance Company, for the purpose of auditing the accounts of the company. The auditors are Messrs. James C. Gilliland, Oak Hall; John S. Dale, Dale Summit; Marcellus Sankey, Potters Mills.

Fire Insurance Officers.

At a recent meeting of the directors of the Centre County Mutual Fire Insurance Company, P. of H., Isaac S. Frain was elected president; J. T. McCormick, vice president; James A. Keller, secretary, and George L. Goodhart, treasurer. These gentlemen have filled the offices for a number of years, and were re-elected without opposition. The company has had a very prosperous year. The cost of insurance, including all expenses of all sorts, was fifteen cents for one hundred dollars.

LOCALS.

Mr. Weber, the DeVoe paint man, was in town Tuesday.
Will Colyer is paying seventy-five cents for apples. See his adv.
Advertise your sale in the Reporter. It will pay you. One bid will pay for the advertising.
Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Ruhl, east of Centre Hall, visited the former's parents and brother at Hartleton.
Henry Royer, of near Centre Hill, fell and injured his shoulder and wrist. It is possible that the radius is fractured.
Mrs. Gertrude Bowersox and daughter Anna, and Miss Elizabeth Alexander, all of Centre Hill, called Wednesday.
Tuesday morning the thermometer registered five degrees above zero, which was the lowest point reached during the present winter.
Ripka's Cash Store advertisement calls attention to 5 and 10 cent "specials." Note that the coupon in their advertisement is worth twenty-five cents in the purchase of shoes.
If you contemplate having sale, call on the Reporter and get prices on posters. They are printed at the lowest possible cost, and the work is neatly done. There are no bills printed cheaper, nor better.
The members of the Epworth League of the Centre Hall Methodist church are preparing to give an entertainment some time this winter. Several years ago this organization gave a play, which was quite creditable.
Mr. and Mrs. George O. Benner recently spent several days at the latter's home at Martha, and from there they went to Mill Hall and Lock Haven where they were the guests of former school friends of Merchant Benner.
Ernest E. Hall, of Snow Shoe, aged eighteen years, employed as a freight brakeman on the Pittsburgh division, fell from an east bound train near Gallitzin tunnel Monday morning, and was run over, receiving injuries which resulted in his death at the Altoona hospital the same evening.
Mr. and Mrs. Roy Shaffer are the possessors of a baby boy since Tuesday morning. The lad is the first of the fourth generation in the Shaffer home, east of Centre Hall. Four generations under one roof is a rather unusual thing. The Senior Shaffer is as spry as any man of fifty, and has as perceptive mind as ever.

WELCOME HOME.

Reception at the Home of L. Mothersbaugh, at Rebersburg.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Mothersbaugh returned from their wedding trip last Friday, and received a welcome home from the parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Mothersbaugh. Seventy guests were present.

The early part of the evening was spent in expressing congratulations to the newly married couple, and in general social conversation. Suddenly there were heard sounds of discordant music, furnished by a charivari party, who had quietly gathered on the porch. J. M. Wieland entertained the company with music on a phonograph; Miss Rose Woods sang a solo; Miss Margaretta Goeben recited a comic selection, after which choice refreshments were served, consisting of sandwiches, coffee, oysters, chicken salad, cheese, ice cream, cake, candies and oranges.

After the midnight hour, the guests departed for their homes, with many thanks to Mr. and Mrs. L. Mothersbaugh for the evening's enjoyment.

Marriage Licenses.

Luther A. Catherman, Millheim.
Verna May Corman, Coburn.

Women's College Dedicated.

The new Lancaster College for Women, Prof. W. W. Moore, principal, was dedicated Tuesday with imposing ceremonies.

Underwent Operation.

John H. Weber, of Centre Hall, underwent an operation at the Hayes private sanitarium, Bellefonte, Tuesday. His condition was very favorable when reported Wednesday.

Seven Burned to Death.

A family of seven persons, Isaac Saylor and his daughter, Mrs. Martin, and her five children, were burned to death in their beds, at Pleasantville, Juniata county. The fire was discovered by Mrs. Martin; but not in time to make her escape.

Will Vote on Cash Tax Question.

The townships of Ferguson, College and Harris have been granted a petition by the court to vote on the question of whether road tax shall be paid in cash, or the old system continued. Thirty days' notice must be given, which necessitates districts to take immediate action if they wish to vote on the question at the February election.

Nieman's Clearance Sale.

The fourth page of this issue of the Reporter is devoted to the advertisement of D. J. Nieman, the Millheim clothier, who advertises his semi-annual clearance sale to begin Friday, January 12, and to continue for ten days. All prices quoted in the advertisement apply during the clearance sale only. Mr. Nieman has a fine, large stock of clothing which he offers at this time. They are not shelf-worn goods, but new, fresh and clean. See the adv.

LOCALS.

Mr. and Mrs. John Grove, of near Spring Mills, recently removed to the home of their son, Wm. M. Grove, Esq., near Centre Hill.
WANTED—75 to 100 men to work in Hammer Shop and Boring Mill. Apply to the Standard Steel Works, Burham, Millin county, Pa.—0.5.
The McNitt-Huyett Lumber Company has moved a mill to the timber tract purchased several years ago from the Harper farm, east of Centre Hill.
Charles Sharer, of Mill Hall, formerly of this place is wanted at Ridgeway, where it is said he forged two checks—one for forty and another for twenty dollars.
George L. Goodhart and H. C. Shirk have both decided to become residents of Centre Hall, after April 1st. Each of them purchased properties in this place.
Dr. J. R. G. Allison was appointed local registrar of vital statistics. His territory covers Centre Hall borough and Potter township. His duties are to report births and deaths in his district.
Mrs. Theodore Cunningham, who with her husband was thrown from a buggy in Reedsville, died from the effects of the injury a short time ago. Mr. Cunningham died a few days after the accident.
The Lock Haven school board adopted a resolution asking the court of Clinton county to pass on the constitutionality of the compulsory vaccination law. If Judge Mayer gives an opinion on the question, school boards will be safe in following his directions.
Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Mothersbaugh, of Boalsburg, the latter part of last week, returned from their honeymoon trip. Among other places they visited were Lancaster, Reading, Harrisburg, Sunbury, Williamsport and the Bethany Orphans' Home at Womelsdorf.

The stable on the John Albright place, one and one-half miles west of Spring Mills, now owned by Speer Burrell, was burned Tuesday morning. The house on the premises was burned several years ago. It was first reported that it was the barn on the Woods farm (owned by John Grove) that was destroyed, which of course was an error.

DEATHS.

HON. SAMUEL FRANK.

One of the best known and most highly respected citizens of Miles township—Hon. Samuel Frank, died Tuesday night, at Rebersburg. He had been in feeble health, due to age, for some months. Interment will take place at Rebersburg, Friday, at 9:30 o'clock.

Mr. Frank was born in Miles township, April 25, 1821, in a small one-story log cabin, located one and one-half miles south of Rebersburg. In 1843 he was married to Miss Sarah Brungart, who died September 1, 1896. The children born to this union are: James P., Luther B., and Paulina, Mrs. R. D. Bierly, all of Rebersburg; and Dr. George S., of Millheim.

Mr. Frank was elected to the office of associate judge of Centre county, and served from 1877 to 1881, and for the three following years was county auditor. He also held almost every local office, and for many years was regarded the most influential Democrat in his township.

The deceased was the son of George Frank, who, in 1779, came to Aaronburg from Lebanon county.

CALVIN M. RUNKLE.

After an illness of some months duration of dropsy, superinduced by poisoning, Calvin M. Runkle died at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Runkle, Sr., at Tusseyville, Tuesday morning. His age was thirty-five years. Interment will take place Friday morning, at Tusseyville, Rev. Daniel Gress, of the Reformed church, officiating.

The deceased is survived by his parents, and the following brothers and sisters: W. G. Runkle, Esq., Bellefonte; James Runkle, Colyer; Hugh Runkle, at home; Maggie, Mrs. Frank Musser, Penn Hall; Lydia, Mrs. Jas. High, Lock Haven; Alice, Mrs. Calvin Osman, Glen Iron; Mary, Mrs. Bortoff, Williamsport; Miss Hulda, whose address could not be learned.

DANIEL OBERHOLTZER.

The death of Daniel Oberholzer, well known in Centre county, occurred at his home in Killinger, Dauphin county, on 28th ult., his illness being dropsy, aged sixty-seven years, six months and twenty-three days.

Mr. Oberholzer is survived by his wife and three daughters, namely: Mrs. Mary Rhives, West Fairview; Mrs. Bertha Fray, Millersburg; and Mrs. Annie Bucher, Harrisburg; also a sister, Mrs. Beard, of Harrisburg.

HARRY T. COLE.

Harry T. Cole, landlord of the Kyler House, Mill Hall, died Monday morning, aged fifty years. He lived for many years at Loganton, where his father conducted the Logan House, and for about nine years was landlord of that hostelry himself. Last July he purchased the Kyler House where he has since lived.

He is survived by his wife, two sons, Thomas and Bruce, at home; two brothers, James W., Rebersburg, and Charles, Tylersville, and one sister, Mrs. Kline Heckman, Loganton.

GEORGE C. GINGERY.

George C. Gingery died at his home in Kohler Valley, east of Potters Mills, Tuesday morning, aged seventy-seven years. He is survived by his wife and eight children. Rudy Gingery, of the Benner farm, near Old Fort, is a son.

LOCALS.

Edward Fehl purchased the house and lot of his father, George Fehl, located on Main street, Aaronburg.
R. C. Palmer, of Linden Hall, is representing R. J. Gunson & Co., Rochester, New York, growers of farm and garden seeds. He is making quite a number of sales.
The senior editor of the Lock Haven Evening Express, W. A. Kinsloe, was appointed associate judge of Clinton county to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Hon. I. Warren Bridgema.
The Union county commissioners appointed the following officers: Clerk, Ammon J. Stees; attorney, Wm. R. Follmer; jail physician, Dr. Wm. Leiser; janitor, Jackson McFadden; mercantile appraiser, Albright Bingsman.
Mrs. W. W. McCormick and son William, of Potters Mills, last week, returned from Altoona, where they visited friends. Among others who entertained them were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Koyer, of Altoona, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Emory Shires, of Roaring Spring. They were delighted with the trip.
The Elkhart (Indiana) Acetylene, published in the interest of the Davis Acetylene Company, contains a picture of the home of J. Frank Reaick, at Elizabethtown, Pa. It is a beautiful home, and of course is lighted by acetylene. In a note to the Reporter, Mr. Reaick writes that he and his family are comfortably located, like the place, people and surroundings.
The Reporter is indebted to W. B. Kerr for a copy of the Omaha Daily Bee, of January 1st, which is devoted to extolling the industries of that prosperous city. The number is elaborately illustrated and is termed "The Illustrated Jubilee Year Review." The same mail brought the Salt Lake City Herald, the compliments of H. E. Zerby, formerly a resident of Centre Hall.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy Absolutely Harmless.

The fault of giving children medicine containing injurious substances, is sometimes more disastrous than the disease from which they are suffering. Every mother should know that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is perfectly safe for children to take. It contains nothing harmful and for colds, coughs and croup is unsurpassed. For sale by C. W. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills.

STEFFENS HUNTS NATIONAL GRAFT.

Wants to Learn Whether or Not Corruption is Lurking There.

Washington as a hunting ground for corruption has not been in high favor for many years, but Lincoln Steffens, the man who has explored the political jungles of many cities and States, has gone there on a "graft-stalking" expedition.

Mr. Steffens is the man who wrote "The Shame of the Cities" for McClure's Magazine, a memorable chapter of this series being devoted to what he was pleased to term "Philadelphia, Corrupt and Contented."

In making his investigation in the cities and States, Mr. Steffens says he has found unmistakable signs of the trail of corruption leading toward the national capital. He will endeavor to learn whether or not the grafter has reached Washington, and discover his abiding place and his methods.

The Steffens articles will appear weekly in the Sunday edition of The North American, and it is promised for them that they will be highly enlightening to all students of governmental affairs.
