Gambler, Ohio (Special) .- Three boys are dead, nine severely injured and several others more or less hurt as a result of a fire which destroyed Milner Hall, Kenyon Military Academy, Delano and North Halls and North Annex.

The fire started at 4 A. M., while the students and college authorities were asleep, and spread quickly through the buildings named, which were consumed. The search for the missing boys, the bodies of whom it is certain are in the ruins, was kept up till late in the afternoon, when the walls of the burned structures fell and their recovery is now regarded as impossible for some The search was impeded by time. the fact that the ruins were still red nearly impossible.

Stateroom Occupied by Mrs. John Waters and Her Three Children of New York Found Empty on the Steamer Plymouth's Arrival at Newport-A Note Pinned on Door Asks Husband's Porgiveness.

New York (Special)-Mrs. John Waters, of 279 Kingston Avenue, and her hree children, two girls and a boy, the and, perhaps, more. eldest four and the youngest six months, took passage on the Sound steamer Plymouth for Fall River. Before the boat arrived at Newport the stateroom they ad occupied was found empty.

Notes in the room show beyond a doubt that sometime during the night the mother had carried out a purpose conceived apparently before she took the boat, and had thrown her three children verboard and perished herself.

Nobody knows when the awful tragedy occurred, for nobody appears to have seen them when they went to the state-

Mrs. Waters had been in ill health ever since the birth of her second child, wo years ago. Her actions, however, were at times strange, and her act can only be ascribed to a crazed mind. When she left her home with the children Monday afternoon she said she was going to take the children to a photographers. That was the last seen of her by anyone that knew her. Her husband, John W. Waters, general nanager of the insurance bureau of when the expiration date of the contract the National Manufacturers' Association, was extended from the end of August spent a sleepless night looking for his missing family. He arrived at his office, at 170 Broadway, early to be met with a message from the steamboat com-rangement the mineworkers of the counpany telling him of the notes found in the stateroom indicating that the woman was his wife. It was the first news he had that they had even taken passage on the boat. When he received it and realized that his little family had all perished he was like a man suddenly paralyzed. He left later for Fall River. Mrs. Waters was 32 years old and frail ooking. She was the daughter of Capt. James Brady, a politician of Fall River. and now collector of the port there. She and her husband were married there nine years ago. They lived in Providence for some years. There their eldest child (Helen) was born. Four years ago they noved to Chicago, where Mr. Waters became the secretary of a fire insurance company. The other children born there were Dorothy, aged 2. and John, the baby, six months old. The Waters family moved here from Chicago four months ago.

After moving here Mrs. Waters be- granted to the miners, came worse and imagined that she was unhappy. At times she expressed a de-
