Fertilizer Test.

The Agricultural Department of Pennsylvania State College is making preparations to conduct cooperative fertilizer tests. With a view to helping the farmers of the State to secure some information upon this very important matter of the fertilizer requirements of their soils, a simple form of field moving from Boalsburg, which has test with fertilizers has been devised, been his home since childhood, to involving the use of only five plate State College. Mrs. L. W. Kimport and less than $2.00 worth of fertilizer. While such an experiment requires a moderate amount of labor and attention, it is still comparatively inexpensive and if faithfully carried out will The Station, in all cases, will furnish full directions for the experiment and suitable blanks for recording the results. It is hoped that many farmers will avail themselves of this opportunity, and that by means of these experiments it may be possible to secure indications as to the fertilizer requirements of different types of soil in Pennsylvania.

Today (Thursday) Foster V. Jodon, Jr., moves from near Centre Hall to near Bellefonte. The past year he farmed on the Huston farm for D. K. Keller.

Dr. H. F. Bitner, of Millersville, is in town, and will remain for about a week. He is looking after his interests connected with his two farms on the Boalsburg road, west of Old Fort.

Clement Dale, Esq., of Bellefonte, was in town the other day to defen 1 a defendant in a suit before Justice W. B. Mingle. Lawyer Dale is well and favorably known on this side of Centre county.

In the case of Grove vs. Durst, Justice Mingle gave judgment against the defendant. The suit was brought to recover a bill of costs. This decision does not cover another point disputed by Mr. Durst.
