Manufacturing plants report little idle machinery, except at Northwestern flour mills, where the heavy output has exceeded demands for a time.

Railway earnings for February exceeded last year's by 28.2 per cent., but a further decline occured in prices of securities, attributed to the financial stringency.

No setback has occured in the iron and steel industry, mills and furnaces operating at the limit of capacity withsut overtaking orders, which come forward more rapidly than they can be filled. HERITAGE OF CIVIL WAR.

Thousands of Soldiers Contracted Chronis Kidney Trouble While in the Service. The experience of Capt. John L. Ely. of Co. E, 17th Ohlo, now living at 500 Manut Second street, Newton, Kansas, will interest the thousands of veterans who came back from the Civil War suffering tortures with kidney complaint. Capt. Ely says: "I contracted kidney trouble during the Civil War, and the occasional attacks finally developed into a chrunic case. At one time I had to use a crutch and cane to get about. My back was lame and weak, and besides the aching, there was a distressing retention of the kidney secretions. Real Cause for Worry.

"Yes, I am concerned about myself. You see, of late I have got into the habit, if one may term it, of talking in my sleep," said the man who had been waiting to see the doctor.

"Ah,. yes!" said the doctor. "And you want to stop it in some way? Really, it is not a cause for worry, I should give it no attention if I were you.

"But it bothers me a great deal." "Tut, tut. You needn't feel any alarm over talking in your sleep." "But I am afraid my wife listens in AWFUL PSORIASIS 35 YEARS.

Terrible Scaly Humor in Patches All Over Body-Skin Cracked and Bleeding-Cured by Cuticura.

"I was afflicted with psoriasis for thirtyfive years. It was in patches all over my body. 1 used three cakes of Cuticura Soap, six boxes of Ointment and two bottles of Resolvent. In thirty days I was completely cured, and I think permanently, as it was about five years ago. The peoriasis first made its appearance in red spots, generally forming a circle, leaving in the centre a spot about the size of a silver dollar of sound flesh. In a short time the affected circle would form a heavy dry scale of white silvery appearance, and would gradually drop off. To remove the entire scales by bathing or using oil to soften them the flesh would be perfectly raw, and a light discharge of bloody substance would ooze out. That scaly crust would form again in twentyfour hours. It was worse on my arms and limbs, although it was in spots all over my body, also on my scalp. If I let the scales remain too long without removing by bath or otherwise, the skin would crack and bleed. I suffered intense itching, worse at nights after getting warm in bed, or blood warm by exercise, when it would be almost unbearable. W. M. Ohidester, Hutchinson, Kan., April 29, 1905." The Dread Disease Pneumonia. We spend time and money in fighting the white scourge and one of the important measures proposed by the Iowa legislature to act upon this winter is the founding of a state hospital for consumptives. Yet it is doubtful if this disease can lay claim to a larger number of victims than can pneumonia. In the presence of the rampant pneumococcus the physician is practically helpless. The question of recovery seems to be whether the patient is strong enough to bear with the poison produced by the germ until that poison is strong enough to kill the germ itself. It is a duel to the death between patient and germ and if the patient would win he must begin to train long before he has any suspicion that the struggle is coming. In other words, he must keep in good health .-- Nebraska State Journal.

WOLVES ARE HARD TO SHOOT.

Seen for Only an Instant, They Seem to Melt Into the Landscape. The wolves now found in Jackson ounty are in size between the coyote of the western plains and the big wolves found in the Ozark region. In general appearance they bear a reemblance to the Scotch collie dog. They live in unfrequented places.

generally in the timber or along the treams, and a favorite abode is in caves or under overhanging ledges of stone.

Scratching out a shallow hole in the ground they line it with small sticks and dry leaves. Here the mother wolf takes care of her young, while the father is scouring the country for miles around in search of food.

He is rarely seen by day, and then only for an instant, for he seems to melt away like a mist into the weeds or brush, his tawny hide making it easy for him to disappear from sight His skill in eluding his enemies, especially human, is remarkable, and this is one of the most aggravating things about him. If a hunter succeeds in getting within gunshot of him the chances are 10 to 1 that no damage will be inflicted.

His hide is so thick and tough and is covered with such a heavy coat of fur that an ordinary discharge from a shotgun has little or no effect. With an ease that is exasperating he simply lopes out of danger and is soon lost in the brush .- Kansas City Sta-

That in addressing Mrs. Pinkham you are confidirg your private ills to a womans woman whose experience with women's diseases covers a great many years. Mrs. Pinkham is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, and for many years underherdirection, and since her decease.she has been advising sick women free of charge. Many women suffer in silence and drift along from bad to worse, knowing full well that they ought to have immediate assistance, but a natural modesty impels them to shrink from exposing themselves to the questions and probable examinations of even their family physician. It is unnecessary. Without money or price you can consult a woman whose knowledge from actual experience is great.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation.

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and answered by women only. A woman can freely talk of her private illness to a woman; thus has been established the eternal confidence between Mrs. Pinkham and the women of America which has never been broken. Out of the vast volume of experience which she has to draw from. it is more than possible that she has gained the very knowledge that will help your case. She asks nothing in return except your good-will, and her advice has relieved thousands. Surely any woman, rich or poor, is very foolish if she does not take advantage of this generous offer of assistance.

If you are ill, don't hesitate to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once, and write Mrs. Pinkham. Lynn. Mass., for special advice.

When a medicine has been successful in restoring to health so many women, rou cannot well say, without trying it, "I do not believe it will help me."

Harvest of the Spears.

A reporter recently took a journey of considerable length for the purpose of interviewing a rising literary light as to his next novel. On reaching the house he discovered the author seated in his garden, engaged in earnest conversation with a little boy who had a large towel pinned around his neck. The author received his visitor cordially, but seemed rather absentminded. "Are you willing to tell me a little about your next important work?" asked the reporter. The literary man clicked a pair of shears and patted the boy on the shoulder. "We were just talking about it as you came up," he said. "Willie thinks ought to do it with a bowl, but I think I can do it without. What would you advise? You see, his mother has always cut it before, but she's away just now!"-Las Angeles Times.

THE EDITOR

Explains How to Keep Up Mental and Physical Vigor.

A New Jersey editor writes:

"A long indulgence in improper food brought on a condition of nervous dyspepsia, nearly three years ago, so severe that I had to quit work entirely. I put myself on a strict regimen of Grape-Nuts food, with plenty of outdoor exercise and in a few months found my stomach so far restored that the process of digestion gave me pleasure instead of distress.

"It also built up my strength so that I was able to resume my business, which is onerous, as I not only edit my own paper, but also do a great deal of 'outside' writing.

"I find that the Grape-Nuts diet enables me to write with greater vigor than ever before, and without the feeling of brain-fag with which I used to be troubled. As to bodily vigor-1 can and do walk miles every day without fatigue-a few squares used to weary me before I began to live on Grape-Nuts!" Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.
