

Centre County Sabbath School Association.

Will the Sunday school workers of Centre county please note that arrangements are being made for the holding of the thirty fourth annual convention at Howard, May 31st and June 1st? All the schools and churches of Howard have heartily united in inviting us to hold this convention with them and are eagerly looking forward to our coming. The program is in course of preparation and all indications point to the best convention yet held. In a few days a circular letter and the statistical blanks will be mailed to the superintendents of our one hundred and sixty-five schools. Please see that these are promptly presented to your schools.

A. C. LATHROP,
Secretary.

Note from Illinois.

From Aurora, Illinois, G. H. Rishel writes the Reporter, March 19, thus:

Beginning of March we moved from Coburn to this point eight miles northwest of Aurora, and we expect to take up stock raising. The ground is covered with two inches of snow, and ever since our arrival we have had wintry weather.

The Reporter contained the statement that James C. Goodhart, in one week, from six cows, sold fifty-three pounds of butter. While on the Kerstetter farm, at Coburn, from January 10th to 31st, six cows yielded one hundred and thirty-one pounds of butter.

In the future it is my purpose to write the Reporter readers about this section of Illinois.

Telephone News

A bit of telephone news: D. Geiss Wagner and James W. Swabb were added to the farmer line between Centre Hall and Linden Hall, making in all seventeen subscribers.

Bell telephone contracts have been signed by the following in Centre Hall: L. L. Smith, of the firm of Foreman & Smith, dealers in grain, coal and implements; Kresmer & Son, general merchants; Rearick Brothers, furniture and undertaking; J. D. Murray, druggist.

Marriage Licenses.

Paul N. Atss, Chester Hill.
Mary Frank, South Philipsburg
John Mitchell, Lemont.
Janet McFarlane, Boalsburg.
Clifford E. Close, Altoona.
Jennie E. O'Neil, Lemont.

Smith, the Photographer.

W. W. Smith, the Photographer, will be in Centre Hall Friday, March 23, from 8 to 2:30 o'clock.

LOCALS.

The program for the next two weeks: Fittings.

Tuesday was a bad day but the Krumpholtz-Moyle-Brunnert public sale was a k

It is good luck to find anything of value, but a criminal offense not to publish the fact.

Judge Martin Bell, at the banquet of the Altoona Merchants' Association, advised business men to know enough about law to avoid it.

Prof. H. A. Surface, state economic zoologist in authority for the statement that it is the year for the appearance of the seventeen year locusts.

The Old Fort Hotel is being well patronized by young people who "trip the fantastic toe." Almost every evening, since sledding is possible, a party gathered at that hostelry.

If you are a Reporter reader and will change your address this spring, please notify this office at once, giving both the old and new address. Do not wait until you have made the change, but now.

Prof. Surface the state economic zoologist, has set himself up against a popular idea when he asserts that the locust does not damage fruit and shrubbery. Here's a chance for Doctor Groff to cross swords with that official.

In the case taken up from Luzerne county the Superior Court of Pennsylvania handed down a decision that constables and other persons serving subpoenas can only be allowed fifteen cents a name for serving and six cents a mile for traveling expenses.

A boy weighing eleven pounds put the calculations of Foster V. Jodon, Jr. to naught by arriving on the day set for his moving from near Centre Hall to near Bellefonte. As indicated, the fitting last Thursday was postponed, but the family has no objection, since the delay was not intentionally caused by the babe.

Mrs. Elmer McClellan, south of Centre Hall, while in town the other day, lost her purse containing $20. She had been at Rearick Brothers' furniture store, and from there went home on a two-wheeled sled. Some time after reaching home the loss was discovered. Although diligent search has been made, no trace of the wallet has been found.

A few movings: Aaron Thomas from Church Street to the Murray house, on Main Street. John Spisler followed the Thomas family, having purchased that house from J. Miller Goodhart. Sydney I. Poorman has a lady (Thursday) to move from the Spier farm, east of Centre Hall, to Centre Hall, where he will be the all round man at the Centre Hall Flouring Mills.

Oak Hall.

Mrs. Sue Peters and daughters, Elsie and Margaret, and Mrs. B. F. Homan attended the funeral of John Shadle, at Bellefonte, Friday. Mrs. Peters remained with her sister, Mrs. Shadle, until Monday.

Mrs. E. K. Smith and son Andrew are visiting at the home of A. J. Tate, at Shiloh.

Miss Bessie Seaton, of Linden Hall, spent Saturday among friends in town. Wm. Thompson and family, of State College, were callers in town Sunday.

Mrs. John Coble, of Lemont, and Mrs. Ralston, of Tyrone, are helping to care for the sick at J. C. Eiters', Mary and George both being ill from measles.

Last Tuesday while Mrs. John Eiters, of Centre Furnace, was visiting at the home of her son she slipped on the ice and fell, causing a serious bruise and strain. The unfortunate lady was taken to her home, and has since been confined to her bed.

Amos Tyson and daughter Lizzie, of Pine Hall, attended a meeting of Victor Grange Saturday morning and spent the remainder of the day visiting friends in town.

Mrs. Newton Miller, of Altoona, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Dale this week.

Arthur Peters was home for a few days' visit with friends. He is attending school at Williamsport.

Wm. Ferris and family moved from Lock Haven last week and will occupy Mrs. Henry Dale's property.

Miss Cora Noll, of Sunbury, spent Monday in town.

Woodward.

Fisher Motz, of Monessen, was in town a few days.

Mrs. R. M. Wolfe spent a few days with her mother, Mrs. Mary Miller, at Linden Hall.

C. D. Motz, E. F. Orndorf and the Haines Brothers made a trip to Millheim Saturday.

Misses Bessie Vonelda and Mabelle Wolfe spent Saturday at the home of Charles Wolfe, at Aaronsburg.

Mrs. Harry Keasinger and Miss Kathryn Benner went to Millheim last week.

Miss Bessie Vonelda will leave for Reading today (Thursday).

Messrs. Charles Kreamer, Wilson Ard and Gilbert Gentzel went to Aaronsburg Saturday evening.

J. L. Kreamer made a business trip to Millheim on Saturday.

Spring is Here.

According to the almanac spring began Wednesday. But, really, it is wintry weather. Snow is two feet deep and roads filled to the top of the fences.
