Lawyer Hughes City Solicitor.

Charles P. Hughes, Esq., a native of Potters Mills, was selected city solicitfor Erie. Mr. Hughes is a well known lawyer, having practiced in the Centre county court for a number of years] previous to locating in Erie.

In speaking of the action of the city. council, the [Erie Evening Herald] says: "In the selection of Charles P. Hughes Esq., for city solicitor the councils undoubtedly chose the best municipal lawyer in Erie to look after the city's legal affairs. Mr. Hughes's familiarity with knotty municipal legal problems admirably fits him for the responsible position he has been chosen to fill."

Devoe lasts six, in the same wayments. What does it mean, to last? It means the same with both.

As a covering: that's another.

Here's an instance. Mr. J. J. Hall, Sheffield, Pa., painted two houses, lead-and-oil; took forty gallons. Last summer he bought forty gallons Devoe for the same two houses; returned ten gallons.

The paint, that covers, lasts; it's all paint, true paint, and full-measure. Lead-and-oil is all paint but not good paint; the lead wants zinc. Better paint Devoe.

HENRY GRESS

Wednesday, April 11.

He was born at North Washington, in he year 1818, and moved to Pleasant Unity in 1837, where he engaged in farming for almost a half century. His age was eighty-eight years.

Mr. Gress was a life-long member of the Reformed church, being the last and popular uptown theatre is taken Actual cost L. & M. about $1.20 per member of a class of twenty-eight into consideration. Philadelphians gallon. catechumens confirmed in 1838. He is survived by his widow and five children: Mrs. Florinda Bash and J. H. Gress, of Pleasant Unity; William Gress, of South Side, Pittsburg; Mrs. Sarah J. Graham, of Greensburg, and Rev. Daniel Gress, pastor of the Reformed church, Centre Hall.

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon, conducted by the pastor, Rev. W. A. McClellan, assisted by the Lutheran minister, Rev. D. W. Michael.

SAMUEL HOOVER.

Samuel Hoover, one of the best known men in the upper Bald Eagle valley, died at his home at Hannah station, of rheumatism, from which he had been a sufferer for the past five years. He was born near Tyrone, lived all his life within a small radius of the place of his birth, and was sixty-eight years of age. By occupation he was a farmer and one of the most successful in that locality. He was a life-long member of the Methodist church, for years a trustee, and it was he who donated the ground on which the present church at that place now stands.

JOHN C. DUNKLE. John C. Dunkle died at his home in Olean, N. Y., of a complication of diseases, aged sixty-seven years. He was born at Hublersburg, this county, Hannah Jane Mitchell Dunkle, his wife, having been a native of Bellewife, eleven children, thirty-five grand-children, two great grand-children, four brothers and one sister. wiler and wife were to Penn Hall Burial was made at Olean.

ROBERT I. FLEMING.

Robert I. Fleming died at Brookville, Thursday morning of last week, was aged sixty-nine years. During Miss Theodora Greenman, of State Cleveland's administration he was postmaster at Lock Haven, and was a son of the late ex-Sheriff A. S. Fleming, of Clinton county.

JAMES D. NEFF.

James D. Neff, the fifteen year old son of Mr. and Mrs. James Neff, of Hecla, died on Tuesday of last week, of meningitis, after a brief illness.

Doyle, the youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. John Holmes, of Walker, died of pneumonia, superinduced by an attack of the measles.

It is frequently difficult to understand why certain children whose parents are good moral people develop surprising tendencies for evil. The mystery has just been solved in the ase of one boy who was apparently incorrigible. Some observing person happened to note that there was a scar on the boy's head and was curious to know how it got there. Investigation child had been struck on the head. Gradually since that time his whole character radically changed. Following up this clue, an examination was made and it developed that some pressure on the brain existed. An operation was performed with success, the brain was relieved of its incubus and the boy is now said to be exhibiting a most exemplary character. There Mr. and Mrs. Harris Stover and have been other similar cases in medical practice. The fact should lead to a more careful physical examination of all children who begin to develop vicious tendencies and whose bodies, rather than their souls, are out of gear, and who should therefore receive the attention of a surgeon instead of a
