A Company of the Comp		THE PERSON NAMED IN	A communication
Agreeabl of unseated notice is he lic sale or c unseated in and unpaid of Bellefon and to cont	Donnelley John Howard Spencer 10 40	89 50 400 412 278 88 400 335 104 107 104 40 239 225 56 45 175 110 433 65 166 175 175 166 175 175 175 175 175 175 175 175	61 28 108 27 95 150 71 70 20 40	Hubley Bernard Mary M Frank 12 75		66 402 132 402 132 9 20 of 42 of 72 63 120 120 20 89	Marks Henry Wm Witmer Sons Co. 1 18	200 170 175 50 100 275 50 100 318 52 433 200 100 250 200 434 121 431 433 34 of 43 35 of 43 36 of 43 37 of 43 37 of 43 38	153 153 153 153 153 153 153 153 153 153	Shires John	217 65 102 1162 125 102 40 60 111 42 1111 42 1111 42 122 2 26 100 39 69 39 15 of 250 243 55 211 72 65 40 327 84 90 327 84 90 327 100 328 25 443 59 86 40 89 40 89 40 61 136 59 382 138 20 12 23 250 300 345 200 330 174 86 88 109 137 30 TREAST At the san urer's Sale following tax collect ively, for 1 missioners taxes, ace Acts of As land for the Description Lot No. 7 Lot M. and L. Lot 20 Acres 14 140 12 21 22 23 15 24 15 25 15 26 15 27 15 28 16 15 28 16 15 28 16 15 28 16 15 28 17 29 17 20 20 20 20 20 20 20 20 20 20 20 20 20 2	MILESBURG BORO Owners Taxes Z D Miles estate $27 03 MILLHEIM BORO B F Kister 941 HOWARD TWP. J H Bathurst 463 Mary Chatman estate 60 Sarah Daughenbaug 463 James Dulen 2702 Mary E dore 2702 N P Ridder 685 Hannah Watkins 101 John Wantz 81 Edward Gardner 46 Lillie Gardner 46 Lillie Gardner 246 Lillie Gardner 45 Liberty TWP. Julia Kunes estate 455 John Weaver 82 Joseph Brothers 275 Roland Lucas estate 128 Note lance with the Act of June 6th, 1837, li be added to the amount of all taxes ainst unscated lands above advertised. Special Notice
200	GREGG TWP. Antis HenryLinden Hall Lumber Company	50		Packer Job W.George Bec. 2 88 MARION TWP. Harris Jas. Courad Diehl. 2 16 Harris A B. Mary M. Frank 5 82	83 400 35	34	Rapp Jacob. Samuel Brown 1 04 Smith Daniel. W P James 15 34 Shires & FulmerLinden Hall Lumber	423		Williams Polly	above list a	e to land advertised for sale in the hould remit sufficient to pay postage, and advertising.

THE CENTRE REPORTER. S. W. SAITH, . . . Editor and Proprietor.

THURSDAY, APRIL 26, 1906

TERMS.—The terms of subscription to the Reporter are one dollar per year in advance. ADVERTISEMENTS, -20 cents per line for three insertions, and 5 cents per line for each sub-

Harris Township.

Edwin Rupp, John Hess, Riley Hunter, wife and child were visitors from Altoona.

Mrs. Rosanna Bricker returned to her home in Boalsburg after spending the greater part of a year with her son Mitchell, in Lewistown, and her with her for a short time.

Mrs. Anna and Mrs. Clara Kreamer, Courier is a live local paper. of Altoona, were called here by the ward Williams.

mantle of winter.

Some of the farmers have sown oats and planted potatoes.

There is still a great demand for horses. J. H. Meyer sold a valuable young horse to G. L. Gettig, of Pleasant Gap.

P. M. Weber, of Huntingdon, enjoyed a few days with relatives and friends in this community.

Dr. and Mrs. T. O. Glenn, of Rixshort time with Mrs. M. A. Woods.

Mrs. Edward Williams last Friday. Being the first girl in the family she is heartily welcome.

LOCALS.

WANTED-Wanted by B. D. Brisbin for the right kind of a man.

McClure's begins a new volume grain, hay, etc., were burned. with May. If the forthcoming numbers are to be gauged by this first one the readers of this magazine have a rare treat ahead of them. Two universally important and interesting to test the constitutionality of the new series begin: Rudyard Kipling's senatorial apportionment law. Nomi-"Robin Goodfellow-His Friends," tion was performed by Dr. Donaldson, hoped to have a decision in the early nall and Goodman, of Loganton.

Miss Clara Snavely, of Clintondale, and Miss Margaret Kerstetter, of Booneville, also submitted to serious operations.

Summer. Until such a decision is made it will obviously be the part of prudence that no nominations for senator be made in districts which would be affected should the act be decicion of President and Directors to serve for the ensuing year, and the transaction of such other business as may come before the meeting. operations.

LOCALS.

grass.

CENTRE HALL, . . . PENN'A. Dr. J. F. Alexander, is about again, and looking after a few patients.

morning.

Ex-Sheriff Spangler, these fine days, turn to the coal regions. sequent insertion. Other rates made known on walks the street, much improved in general health.

Ex-Prothonotary L. A. Schaeffer was confined to the house on account The groom is a son of John Swarm, and later came to this point. of sickness, beginning of this week.

daughter, Mrs. Emma Kreamer, in H. U. Hartzell, has been enlarged and which was also witnessed by a number in putting in their oats. Some are Punxsutawney. She was accompanied is now a six-column, eight-page paper, of the bride's intimate friends. by her daughter, who will remain The editor is a Pennsylvanian, and while a boy lived in Howard. The

A number of workmen at the Burnserious illness of their sister, Mrs. Ed- ham steel works were discharged within the past week. Among these un-The onion snow fell Monday, and fortunates were a number from Penns the mountains were again clad in the Valley who had been regularly engaged at these works for a year or less.

Calvin Horner and family, of Altoons, are guests of the former's mother, Mrs. William Horner, west of Centre Hall. Some time ago Mr. Horner contracted in the war or since that afternoon at Spring Mills. met with an accident by falling time. through an elevator shaft, but he has almost completely recovered from the injuries received.

a vivid account of the Pacific coast Frank Meyer, considerably improved, ford, who attended the funeral of Mrs. catastrophe. Miss Zerbe is the daugh- although he is yet a very sick man. Dr. Glenn, at State College, spent a ter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Zerbe, for- Mrs. Meyer remained at Ardmore, merly residents of Centre Hall, and is and makes daily visits to her son who A daughter was born to Mr. and engaged in one of the large business is at Bryn Mawr hospital. offices in Salt Lake City.

The large barn on the farm of E. S. Parker, situated near Mifflintown, was totally destroyed by fire, entailing a without a physician, and the citizens loss estimated at fully $10,000. In the have issued a petition, setting forth barn at the time were twenty-nine their need and offering some induce-& Co., Centre Hall, a man and team head of live stock and these were also ment to a good live doctor of medicine to do lumbering, steady employment consumed. All the machinery belong- willing to go to their relief. ing to the place and a great amount of Today (Thursday) the argument will take place before the Dauphin county court in the case brought by certain citizens of Schuylkill county tions damage was done to fruit. "Robin Goodfellow—His Friends," and the Life Insurance articles by Burton J. Hendrick.

Mrs. Emanuel Beck, of Eastville, six miles from Loganton, underwent a gerious surgical operation last week for any surgical operation last approximation papers for senator have been filed for one of the districts in that constitution and the districts in that country abolished by the act, and the question of their validity involves also the constitutionality of the new act.

Stated reason.

JOHN H. SNYDER, serious surgical operation last week for The case will in all events be appealed the removal of a cancer. The operato to the supreme court, from which it is of Williamsport, assisted by Drs. Wig- summer. Until such a decision is Notice To STOCKHOLDERS:-The arms and the stockholders of the stockholders of the clared unconstitutional.

Swarm-Hartman,

The snow Monday freshened up the Thursday morning of last week the Samuel Condo, a resident of Bir- High winds Tuesday; sunshine. marriage of William Swarm, of Wy- mingham, Iowa, writes the Reporter Miss Emilie Alexander, of Tyrone, oming, Luzerne county, and Miss of the death of a former Harris town- is home this week. Mary Hartman, of Millheim, was ship resident, and other bits of news, It is reported that three inches of solemnized, Rev. B. R. M. Sheeder, of under date of April 23: snow fell in Sugar Valley Monday Aaronsburg, officiating. The young David Kreamer died at this place re-

The National Government has ap- He is lieutenant of Company C, State one, but the spring was a terror. The sylvania railroad office. propriated $2,500,000 for relief of the Police, with a salary of $1200 per year. coldest we had was about eight degrees

Pacific coast earthquake and fire The father and sister (Miss Clara) below zero. The like of mud this Stump, whose illness was mentioned of the groom, who now live in Will- spring was never before witnessed. The Orangeville Courier, edited by iamsport, attended the wedding, Farmers had considerable difficulty she is growing weaker daily.

New Pension Law.

The age limit pension bili passed by be a good fruit year. I have about a by many other farm owners. both houses of congress has become a hundred peach trees looking redlaw. Under its provisions when a ready to burst in bloom. soldier of the Civil war arrives at the Mrs. Condo and I contemplate a age of sixty years he is allowed $6 per visit to Penns Valley this summer month without examination as to dis- where we hope to again converse with ability. At sixty-one he gets $8; at our old friends. seventy years he is allowed $12. The measure does away with any question as to disability, and gives every sol- Centre Hall will play Spring Mills provements to his dwelling at dier a pension regardless of disease a return game of base ball Saturday

Dr. Meyer Improving.

'Squire J. S. Meyer, of Penn Hall, Thanks to Miss Mabel O. Zerbe for a returned from Ardmore Tuesday, and copy of The Salt Lake Herald, giving reports the condition of his son, Dr. J.

Town Advertises for Physician. Shade Gap, Huntingdon county, is

Mercury at 28,

Tuesday morning mercury stood at twenty-eight degrees above zero. The ground was frozen hard, and pools were covered with ice. In some sec-

D. E. SNYDER, Centre Hall, Pa

JAMES R. McCLURE, Secretary. a fool of himself.

From Iowa,

couple went from Millheim to Phila- cently, aged about eighty years. He delphia, and from there they will re- was formerly a resident of Harris township, Centre county, Pa., and The bride is the daughter of J. H. was engaged in the woolen factory at B. Hartman, the Millheim foundry- Oak Hall Station. During the war he man, and is an estimable young lady. came west, first locating in Wisconsin, sowing now, among these is myself. Corn planting will be late. From present indications this will

A Return Game.

Linden Hall.

Miss Bertha Meyers started to school at Spring Mills on Monday. She will stay during the week with her aunt, Mrs. John Rishel, whose daughter, exposure. Miss Lodie, is also going to school.

Thursday evening the friends and neighbors of Samuel Floray, to the number of forty, surprised him by gathering at his home to celebrate his sixty-fifth birthday. Ice cream and cake were served, and all spent an enjoyable evening.

Mrs. J. Mitchell Garbrick spent Tuesday with her brother's family here. She will return to her home at Hummelstown on Friday. J. M. Wieland went to Mifflinburg

Monday, in the interest of the Boalsburg carriage works. Miss Maude Miller, of the Glades, visited friends here last week and enjoyed a drive to Centre Hall.

John Strouse lost a valuable horse last week. He had refused to sell the animal for two hundred dollars only a few days previous. Wallace White was seen in town last week. Mrs. Nora Smith, of Altoona, paid her uncle's family a visit before starting on a trip to California. Luella Ross returned from a six weeks' visit in Altoona, Tuesday. Mrs. Carl Motz, of Woodward, visited Mrs. Keller last week.

The average man can't refrain from chuckling when his best friend makes 16 streets occasionally.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fisher, their daughter, Miss Lola, and Miss Fisher, all of Penn Hall, were in Centre Hall Wednesday.

Mrs. Stump, widow of William Robert Bloom, Milesburg. last week, has not improved. In fact,

The Neff brothers, west of Old Fort, will plant a hundred apple trees this spring, and half as many other fruit Pine Grove Mills, after a lingering illtrees. This example should be followed daily walk into the fresh air. He un- by a host of friends. derwent a most serious operation. His many friends will be glad to learn that member of the Lutheran church, and he is again able to enjoy out-of-door leaves to mourn their loss her parents exercise, although limited.

Hon. Leonard Rhone is making im-Rhoneymede," west of Centre Hall. A large porch will be one of the improvements. A portion of the dwelling will be re-roofed. This roof was put on in 1853; on the south side of the structure the roof is well worn, years, five months, one day and was a but on the north side there is not a leak. And this after half a century of

Letter to Centre Hall Lawyers. Centre Hall, Pa.

Dear Sirs: As your business is to get people into and out of trouble, last week and died at his home, near suppose you consider their paint; it Colyer, Wednesday evening. Intermakes 'em almost as much trouble as ment took place Saturday forenoon, at money, except of course matrimony. Tusseyville, Rev. Daniel Gress of-They buy poor paint a good deal; ficiating. they don't mean to; they don't know any better; they buy without think- years, and is survived by a widow and ing. Bad paint isn't good. It looks two children-Mrs. William Ishler good enough for a year; then begins to and John Weaver, both of Colyer. get rusty; but changes so slowly, one don't notice it. Looking isn't all. The business of paint is to keep a house dry inside, an act approved March 31, 1905, and to do it.

Good and bad paint are sold at one tion for failure, and are entitled to be price or about that. One can't go by paid twenty five cents an hour for this the price at all; as with lawyers, the branch of their work. Any one who price has nothing to do with goodness refuses to assist fire wardens, may be or badness; and costs are worse yet; fined $20. the painter and sheriff some in for their share.

But the probability is that a man, out on top.

Yours truly F. W. DEVOE & Co., New York. Kreamer & Son sell our paint.

DEATHS.

The advertising is $1.00 on each tract.

G. W. RUMBERGER,

F. K. WHITE County Treas.

MRS. MARY WINGERT. After an illness of but thre Mrs. Katie Durst, one of the oldest pneumonia, Mrs. Mary Mary Wingert, ladies in Centre Hall, is seen on the of near Tusseyville, died Friday. Interment took place Tuesday forenoon at Tusseyville, Rev. J. M. Rearick officiating.

The deceased was the widow of Samuel Wingert, and before her mar-Samuel M. Goodhart is in Altoona survived by six children :- Mrs. Alvin risge was Miss Mary Miller. She is since Thursday of last week, where he Stump, Centre Hall; Mrs. Samuel formerly a resident of Centre Hall. The past winter was a very pleasant holds down a clerkship in the Penn-Klinefelter, Mrs. Roy Miller, John and Dora, all of near Tusseyville; Mrs.

MISS LAURA REED.

Miss Laura, daughter of James I. and Emma Reed, died Tuesday of last week at the home of her parents, in ness from heart trouble. She was a very bright and attractive young lady John H. Weber is able to take a and her early death will be mourned

She was fourteen years of age, a and a number of brothers and sisters.

JOHN FRANKLIN BEST.

John Franklin Best, one of the oldest and best known farmers of Walker township, died quite suddenly of paralysis, at the home of his son Frederick. He was aged seventy-seven native of Lehigh county. His wife died a number of years ago, his one son being the sole survivor.

EZRA WEAVER.

Ezra Weaver took sick Monday of

The deceased was aged sixty-eight

Constables Fire Wardens,

Constables are made fire wardens by the wood and iron of it; keep it from are empowered to call out their neighrotting and rusting. Takes good paint bors to fight forest fires. They must act under this law on pain of prosecu-

$10,000,000 for Relief.

The relief funds sent to the Pacific who paints Devoe, will always come coast aggregate almost ten millions of dollars.

Smith, the Photographer.

W. W. Smith, the Photographer, will be in Centre Hall Friday May 4th, from 8 to 2:30 o'clock.