

Lyric Theatre, Philadelphia.

The new musical comedy, "The Tourists," seems destined to become one of the biggest musical successes of recent years.

Decoration Day Program.

The hour set for services at the various cemeteries in Penna Valley and the speakers on Memorial Day are as follows:

Fire at Gatesburg.

A saw mill at Gatesburg was totally destroyed by fire Saturday noon. It was the property of J. B. Nearhood, who will immediately replace the machinery and begin operating the mill.

A Copy of Independence Hall.

The Pennsylvania commission to the Jamestown exposition decided that the Pennsylvania building at Jamestown, Va., shall be a replica of Independence Hall on a slightly reduced scale.

Marriage Licenses.

Charles E. Miller, Pittsburg. Anna M. Brungart, Rebersburg. Milford B. Albright, Yeagertown.

Elophoth-Alexander.

The marriage of Sumner Eisenbuth, of Coburn, and Miss Elizabeth Alexander, took place at the Methodist parsonage, Spring Mills, Tuesday.

Heinie for Senator.

Hon. W. C. Heinie has announced his name as a Democratic candidate for State Senator. Mr. Heinie is not a stranger to the voters in this district and not to the laborers as a senator, having filled that office with great credit to himself and the party in times past.

Curtain Stretchers.

Messrs. Rearick Brothers, the Centre Hall furniture dealers, have on hand a line of curtain stretchers. Just in season; call.

Engraved Cards.

Orders for engraved cards, invitations, etc., taken at this office. The highest class work.

Miss Lizzie Runkle has been ill during the past ten days.

LOCALS.

Dr. Gill, of State College, will be the Memorial Day speaker at Millheim.

Ex-Sheriff H. S. Taylor has announced his candidacy for congressional honors.

Mrs. Homer O. Barr, Mrs. William Stover and Miss Nora Miller, all of Boalsburg, were in town Thursday.

John H. Weber made a trip to the post-office and bank Wednesday. He came up by carriage, but walked back.

Dr. J. F. Alexander's condition during the past week, has not improved. In fact, if there is any change, it is for the worse.

The members of the Lutheran church, at Boalsburg, are preparing for a festival on an extensive scale to be held on Memorial day.

Mrs. Gress accompanied Rev. Gress as far as Yeagertown where she will be the guest of J. A. Grenoble during the sessions of Classis in Lewistown.

Mrs. E. C. Harter and Mrs. Calvin Finkle, of Spring Mills, were in Centre Hall one day last week, and favored the Reporter with their presence.

Messrs. John Badger and Henry Wolf, both aged gentlemen and residents of Millinburg, are visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Bitner, at Tusseyville.

Mr. and Mrs. Lambert Noll, of Dewart, Northumberland county, visited Mrs. Mary Rearick, in Centre Hall, for several days. Several years ago the Nolls lived at Millheim.

Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Shaw, Thomas Kusteborder and Bradford Wharton enjoyed a drive from State College, Sunday, and spent a few hours with relatives in Centre Hall and vicinity.

The first issue of the Penna Valley Echo, devoted to the welfare of the Penna Valley Methodist Episcopal Church, has been issued by the pastor, Rev. G. W. Mellinay. The paper is devoted entirely to church work.

Edward T. Tuten, editor of the Bellefonte Republican and Daily News, has been seriously ill since Tuesday a week. His condition Wednesday was reported as not improved, and that he was very weak.

Since the little rate bill episode, President Roosevelt will cancel his engagements to speak at Sunday school picnics during the coming season. The man proven "another" is not well calculated for such work, you know.

The June Delineator is a most attractive number, containing the usual array of the latest styles, with the interesting fashion chronicles of Helen Berkeley-Lloyd and Edouard La Fontaine, and literary features of the greatest excellence.

Howard Rossman, farmer and produce dealer, near Penna Cave, sold a pair of fine draft horses to a party in Mahanoy City, which he delivered recently. Mr. Rossman is said to have four of the best horses in the county, and that's saying a good bit.

The building of a railroad through Sugar Valley is again being agitated. The White Deer Lumber Company is said to be the promoter in the latest scheme, and the line is to run by Loganton and connect with the Central Railroad of Pennsylvania at Lamar. A line through Nippenose Valley is also said to be under contemplation by this lumber company. A railroad through these valleys has been the dream of the inhabitants ever since the iron horse has been penetrating outlying posts.

There were humors even in the San Francisco calamity, and one of them has only just been reported. Mr. Lane, formerly City Attorney of San Francisco, who is in New York, notes the fact that no one has done justice to the part the great American rocking chair played in the rescue of household effects. "Rocking chairs," he says, "were in great demand as drags for household goods. Nearly every family dragged one or more after them in the flight to the western hills." Let it also be observed that the American is resourceful.

There is not a man in this community, however indifferent to the claims of Christianity, who would want to rear his family here if there were no churches or church influence, for he at once recognizes them as the guardians of the morals of the community. What would be the condition of this community at the end of the next ten years if from this time until then the churches were closed? To what extent would life and property be safe? And yet, with all the organized agencies of the churches, the devil too frequently holds high carnival. What might not be expected if wholly divested of these good influences?

The Gentzell-Beezer horse as he'd at Bellefonte Saturday, was well attended, the horses bringing good prices. Among the Penna Valley people who attended the sale were Merchant F. O. Hosterman, Auctioneer W. F. Smith, and Farmer W. H. Musser, of Millheim; Station Agent G. R. Stover and Standard Oil W. L. Hosterman, of Coburn; Samuel Frerick, proprietor of the Farmers Mills Roller Mill, and Alvin Duck, of Spring Mills. The latter two bought one horse each; Mr. Hosterman purchased a team of heavy bays for his oil wagon, and Mr. Stover secured a driving horse. Mr. Musser also bought a team of three year olds.

LOCALS.

By the end of this week the greater part of the corn will have been planted.

WANTED—Wanted by B. D. Brisbin & Co., Centre Hall, a man and team to do lumbering, steady employment for the right kind of a man.

Christ Alexander, of Millheim, for the greater part of the past week, was in Centre Hall, and assisted in taking care of his brother, Dr. J. F. Alexander, who is seriously ill.

The Susquehanna synod of the Lutheran church has been adopting a resolution discouraging the holding of Christmas entertainments at which Santa Claus is the central figure. The Reporter is a strong friend of Santa Claus, but it believes these Lutheran brethren are quite right. Let the old saint disport himself about the family hearth as much as he has a mind to, but it is wise for him to avoid the altars of the church.

The Reporter is pleased to see so many of our citizens taking pride in their homes. The word "home," next to that of "mother," is the greatest ever uttered by human tongue. What a refuge the home is when the darkness gathers! How glad one is to get a glimpse of home when time and space have separated him from it if even but for a brief period! There seems to be a good natured rivalry here in an effort to make "our home" look a little better and thus be the more inviting to the occupants than all others. Such rivalry is certainly pardonable.

"Lo, the poor Indian, whose untutored mind" makes him the easy prey of the white sharper, but whose mind tutored in a law school and stimulated by the atmosphere of the national capital is capable of attaining contingent fees of unprecedented dimensions! Robert S. Owen, a Cherokee, has won a suit for his nation for $5,000,000 against the United States, being the cost of the tribe's removal from Georgia to Indian Territory sixty-eight years ago. Of this he is to receive 15 per cent. For winning another case this same copper-hued attorney got $255,000 from the Chickasaws and Choctaws. The members of the Washington bar must be kicking themselves that they never procured a law requiring Indian tribes to employ only white lawyers.

Even when a man is making history some other fellow wants to boss the job.

The minute a man accomplishes anything he is called a crank by those who have failed.

WAGON FOR SALE.—The undersigned offers for sale a one-horse Kremer wagon; good as new.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know It.

How To Find Out. Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to Do. There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes.

You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Smith, the Photographer. W. W. Smith, the Photographer, will be in Centre Hall Friday May 25th, from 8 to 2:30 o'clock.
