THROUGHOUT THE STATE. News of a Semi-Local Character Gathered from the Exchange Table.

Lavinus Keeler, of Freeburg, constable of Washington township, Snyder county, fell from a cherry tree and was killed by the fall. Mrs. Margaret Oliver, of Berwick, had her leg amputated at Scranton. Several days ago Mrs. Oliver scraped a corn. Blood poisoning set in and gangrene developed. The leg was taken off at the knee. While practicing athletic feats at his home in Selinsgrove, fifteen-year-old Homer Fetterolf fell upon a lightning rod which was standing against the side of the house. The barbed point of the rod penetrated both lips, stringing the lad up as an angler would a fish. Hazleton has a Fat Women's Club, whose 18 members have an aggregate weight of 4250 pounds. During the past week a flock of ten turkey buzzards have been noticed about the farm of John Swope, in Woodward township, Clinton county. It is an unusual thing to see a buzzard this far north as they very seldom get beyond the lower tier of counties. The large barn on the property of Willard Brown, at Clintondale, was totally destroyed by fire. There were two horses in the barn, one of which perished. The other one managed by some means to get out of the building, but not until he had been so badly burned that in mercy he was shot. Secretary of War Taft has detailed Major Joseph P. Dickman, Captain Charles J. Muir, Captain John W. Furlong and Captain Dennis E. Nolan, of the general staff of the United States Army, to attend the encampment of the National Guard of Pennsylvania at Gettysburg, July 21-23. A creamery at Prompton, Wayne county, paid farmers in that vicinity $2500 for milk in May. McKean county has twenty-three wood alcohol factories, representing an investment of $1,500,000. Deer have become so tame in Oriole, Lycoming county, that many of them, while seeking food, enter fields where men are employed. The Harrisburg Telegraph prints a story which, if true, sounds the death knell of Sunbury as a railroad center. The Telegraph states that the Pennsylvania railroad will erect a stone bridge at Northumberland for a shorter connection between Shamokin Dam and Selinsgrove, and that the contract for the construction of the bridge has been closed. The shops at Sunbury will be moved across the river.

Linden Hall vs. Centre Hall. After a glorious victory over Centre Hall, the good record of the Linden Hall team was undone in a game on Grange Park, July 4th. The game afforded ample amusement for the spectators, and there was the usual scraping with the umpire. Pitcher Bailey won his highest laurels by striking out seventeen men at the bat, and allowing but one hit. Stahl hit for a dog trot home run. The score:

Will Take 4 Per Cent.

It appears that some of the Borough bond holders have expressed themselves as willing to take four per cent. rather than give up the investment, fearing that the same money could not be placed elsewhere at as much as four per cent. The conclusion is correct. Bellefonte has $25,000 in school bonds bearing but three and one-half per cent. interest; State College is now placing $5000 at three and one-half per cent. It would only require a slight effort, and no expenditure of cash, to have the money borrowed by the borough bearing four per cent. instead of five per cent. And the only reason it is not accomplished is that the members of the council prefer to favor the bond-holders rather than save the borough property-owners cash in the shape of taxes—the hated, dreaded taxes. The readers will note that no one has volunteered to give reasons why the members of the council continue to pay five per cent. interest, when the money could be secured for less. It would be an up-hill proposition to tackle. Above all things, Mr. Office-holder, cease to be arbitrary. Either re-issue the bonds, or make some arrangement to reduce the interest on them. Gentlemen, be manly; work for the interest of your town and the people you represent. Even the bond-holders will respect you for such a course.

TO SOUTH DAKOTA The Land of Bread and Butter. SOUTH DAKOTA IS LONG ON WEALTH AND SHORT ON PEOPLE. Today it presents the best opportunities in America for those who want to get ahead on the Highway to Independence. E. festival was well patronized and proved a decided success, the net proceeds being forty dollars. The only mishap was that of a child upsetting a lamp and breaking the chimney. The loss occasioned some foolish remarks by some empty heads, and the mother of the child promptly sent money to pay for the chimney, but it was kindly declined. Adam and Cal. Finkle and G. C.
