Rebersburg.

Mrs. Kate Hoy spent last week at Aaronsburg visiting relatives. Mrs. Jared Kreamer and Mrs. Dr. Bright have just returned from a pleasure trip to Philadelphia and Atlantic City.

Woodward.

H. S. Runkle, wife and child, of Monessen are visiting friends at this place. Messrs. C. D. Motz and M. I. Stover visited friends in Millheim Monday.

FOE OF POTATO BUG.

Farmer Observes That Plants Thrive Where Strange Insect Appears.

A. Lyman, of Crandall, near Coudersport, has noticed a peculiar species of bug in the potato patches, and has taken pains to watch them, at first believing them to be a new variety of pest.

Last year Lyman noticed but five destroyers on his potato patch, but they had cleaned out all of the potato bugs. He thinks there are about 100 on his property this year.

They somewhat resemble the potato bugs, but are somewhat longer. The dagger with which they kill their prey is spear shaped and situated under the throat.

Spring Mills.

Rev. James Runkle, of Williamsport, who with his family is spending his vacation at the home of his mother, occupied the pulpit in the Reformed church Sunday afternoon.

Rev. W. H. Schuyler, of Centre Hall, preached in the Lutheran church Sunday evening, owing to the illness of the regular pastor, Rev. J. M. Rearick.

Mrs. Wm. Colyer, of Centre Hall, spent Sunday at the home of her father, Philip Heim.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Rossman and Dr. H. S. Brauch spent Monday evening of this week in Centre Hall.

Mr. Campbell, the railroad agent, is now located in one of C. P. Long's houses on the avenue. Mr. Campbell has become very popular at the station, and is well qualified for the position.

Next week John Snively will turn his old tin shop around and have the side for the front, and enter into the photograph business.

Jasper Wagner, letter carrier on rural route, says he can make good time on his motor cycle and prefers it to his horse and wagon, except when it storms, when it is not so pleasant, as he has no protection against the rain.

The concave shores of Penns Creek are lined daily with anxious fishermen, but they are meeting with indifferent success. Fish don't seem to be very plentiful in this immediate neighborhood, at least few are caught.

A committee from each Sunday school here will meet Saturday evening, to decide when and where they will hold their union picnic.

Wednesday of last week a party of about fifty ladies had a grand picnic on the banks of Penns Creek just above the village. All report having had a delightful time.

Can the readers tell what the stripes on the barber pole signify? You see the pole with its stripes and you know there is a barber shop back of the average person ceases.

Well, the red stripes on a barber pole mean the red ribbon bandages that barbers bound over the wounds caused by bleeding people.

That's all. When they get through with a plethoric man, of full habit and had tapped him like a hard maple tree in February, he was patched up and bandaged till his arms, legs and trunks looked like a much-gartered leg.

Potter School Board.

The Potter township school board met at Centre Hill last week to adopt books and transact other business. Spellers was one of the books under discussion, and the result was the adoption of the "Practical Speller," published by D. C. Heath & Co.

The board failed to agree on the adoption of physiologies, the vote being a tie on the "Overton," by the American Book Company, and the "Hutchison" by the Myers, Fishel & Co. A peculiar feature was that two members endeavored to break the tie, but each simply stepped in the other's place, leaving the result the same.

Miss Ella Condo, of Penn Hall, was elected to teach the Manor Hill school, from which school Thos. L. Moore was transferred to the Earlstown district. Miss Viola Harter was elected to teach at Fleisher's Gap.

The tax rate was reduced one mill, and for the current year is four mills. This speaks well for the board.

Adjournment was made without fixing a time for the next meeting.

Smith, the Photographer.

W. W. Smith, the Photographer, will be in Centre Hall Friday August 10, from 8 to 2:30 o'clock.

Miss Mamie Emerick is learning to operate the switch board in the Bell telephone exchange, Centre Hall, in order that she may be able to succeed one of the present operators should one resign or, or—marry.

W. D. Strunk & Son put into operation their new threshing outfit last Thursday, at which time they threshed for Charles Stump, farmer for S. W. Smith. The crop yielded twenty-one and two-third bushels.

Prof. George F. Norton, eyesight specialist, of 307 Fourth Avenue, New York City, will be at the Centre Hall hotel during July and August. He will attend to any who desire defective vision corrected. Difficult cases especially solicited.

Among the visitors in and about Centre Hall from the busy iron centre of Western Pennsylvania are Mr. and Mrs. J. Finn Stover, of Darragh, who are spending the time with Mr. Stover's father, Benjamin Stover, near Potters Mills, and Irvin M. Burris, west of Centre Hall. Mr. Stover is employed as clerk in the large supply house of the Madison Supply Company.

The taxpayers attention is called to the fact that the borough interest tax is one-half that of the borough tax. The borough tax includes streets, light and all incidentals. This is not because the borough debt is so large, but because an exorbitant vote of interest is paid on the debt.

Can the readers tell what the stripes on the barber pole signify? You see the pole with its stripes and you know there is a barber shop back of the average person ceases.

Well, the red stripes on a barber pole mean the red ribbon bandages that barbers bound over the wounds caused by bleeding people.

That's all. When they get through with a plethoric man, of full habit and had tapped him like a hard maple tree in February, he was patched up and bandaged till his arms, legs and trunks looked like a much-gartered leg.

THROUGHOUT THE STATE.

News of a Semi-Local Character Gathered from the Exchange Table.

Engine No. 119, on the B. and S. while running alone near Dents Run, jumped the track and turned completely over and lies on its back, wheels up, in Bennet's branch. The engineer was pinned under the cab for twenty-five minutes before he was rescued.

A fierce fight between a bull and a horse on the farm of Abraham McHenry, near Bloomsburg, resulted in the death of the horse after a battle lasting fifteen minutes. Farmhands with pitch forks succeeded in driving the bull off, but not until the horse was injured so badly that it had to be shot.

Shocked by lightning while working as an operator in a telephone exchange, Miss Fannie Miller, of Williamsport, became seriously ill and was operated upon at the hospital in that city for the removal of an abscess on the brain due to shock.

Johnstown wants the government to erect a federal building there, but none of its citizens is willing to sell property for that purpose for the sum the government offers. And it was ever thus.

In the record time of two hours a rat killed twenty-seven chickens for H. L. Bausler, of Hamburg, Berks county, and while he was finishing the last one Wilson Foster killed the rodent.

Taxpayers in Whitehall township, Lehigh county, have filed an appeal from the auditor's report of the school board of that district, objecting to an item for music, claiming that music is not a study.

Farmers in a number of districts of Lehigh county have held prayer meetings for rain, while their neighbors just across the mountains, who have been almost drowned out, are hoping for a dry spell.

The postoffice at Vall, Blair county, was entered early one morning last week by thieves. Postmaster George W. Dayton, who was sleeping in the room, did not awaken. The robbers took his watch and pocketbook containing money, but nothing belonging to the government was disturbed.

John A. Miller, an ex-school director of Washington township, Schuylkill county, has begun to serve his sentence of a year in prison for accepting a bribe of $15 from one Daniel Herring, a teacher. One of the singular features of this case, as reported by the Schuylkill county exchanges, is the high esteem in which Miller is held by his neighbors, nearly all of whom called upon him the day before he went to jail, expressing their sympathy and their confident belief that he had meant to do no wrong.

No every convict has such kind-hearted neighbors. Grasshoppers have appeared in such large quantities in the upper part of Lehigh county that the farmers in order to save their oats crop are compelled to harvest it before it is fully ripe.

Spring Mills and Millheim played a game of ball Saturday, and then were obliged to get into a squabble to break the tie, which was done by the umpire deciding the game 9 to 0 in favor of the Millheim team. The game throughout was well played. The score stood 3 to 3 from the eighth to the thirteenth innings.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs.

This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.
