Anti-Trust and Rate Measures Roundly Scored.

Put-in-Bay, Ohio, (Special) .-- President M. E. Ingalls of the Merchants National Bank of Cincinnati and chairnan of the Big Four Railway, in an address before the Ohio Bankers' Association, created something of a stir by declaring that the greatest menace to American business and banking interests today is the various trade laws which have been passed, particularly the Hep-burn and the Sherman acts.

The United States, he said, had just started in its development, and this development depends upon wise and generous encouragement. Yet, under the construction placed upon the Sherman act by the courts, a business man who comes to any agreement with competitors is great severity, and during that night 82 guilty of an act in restraint of trade and is liable to punishment. REIGN OF BLOOD IN OLD WARSAW A Massacre of Police and Other Officials.

St. Petersburg (By Cable). - Acting apparently with a definite plan and at signal, the terrorists and revolutionists Wednesday inaugurated a carnival of murderous attacks with bombs and revolvers on the police and troops in various cities n Poland, echoes of which are heard from Samara, Ufa, Yalta, Kiev and even faraway Chita, where Acting Chief of Police Gorpinchenko was slain almost on his own doorstep. The revolutionist campaign flamed out with especial viruence at Warsaw, where over a score were slain in the streets and many more wounded. Among the killed, according to the latest official advices, were two sergeants of police, eight patrolmen, three gendarmes, five soldiers, a Jewish merchant and a woman. The returns are Policemen and soldiers were shot down like rabbits in the streets. Their assailants, who traveled in small bands, almost all escaped among the terrorized but sympathetic populace. The only considerable capture was a band of 10 men who had invaded a grogshop and killed a soldier. These were taken by a passing patrol. Troops fired into a crowd, killing 15 and wounding 130 with bullets and bayonets.

Bombs were employed in an attack on the police station of the Volsk precinct in Warsaw, where a sergeant, two pa-
