A Wonderful Restoration That Caused a Sensation ir a Pennsylvania Town.

Mrs. Charles M. Preston, of Elkland, Pa., says: "Three years ago I found that my housework was becoming a burden. 1 tired easily, had no ambition and was failing fast. My complexion got yellow, and I lost over 50 pounds. My thirst was terrible, and there was sugar in the kidney secretions. My doctor kept me on a strict diet, but as his medicine was not helping me I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. They helped me at once, and soon all traces of sugar disappeared. I have regained my former weight and am perfectly well."

The Door Is Open.

One of the reasons why many young men of ambition and high intelligence are averse to entering the Army or Navy service is the belief that it would be almost impossible for them to win shoulder straps. The idea is prevalent that the West Point and Annapolis graduates look upon fellow-officers who came from the ranks as interlopers. There may be a trace of this exclusiveness occasionally in the social relations of the officers, but it is seldom encountered, except when caused by boorishness and vulgarity. The War and Navy Departments have thrown the door wide open to enlisted men who wish to win commissions and desire the fact to be understood.

Only the other day the Secretary of War revoked an order restricting this privilege in the Army which was in some way worked through his department. It has been customary to give the enlisted men the opportunity to qualify for all vacancies in the grade of second lieutenant remaining after the West Point graduates have been placed. The order which Secretary Taft killed apportioned only a certain number to the soldiers, allotting the remainder to civilians. In the Navy 12 commissions are reserved annually for warrant officers who are able to qualify for them. For the young man of good habits and sound intellect who is willing to work hard there is abundant opportunity for advancement in both the naval and the military service.-Cleveland Leader

Striking Case Of Heredity.

George Bernard Shaw, the playwright, has a good deal of contempt for scientists. "We hold scientists in too high honor," he wrote receptly to an American admirer. "We take them too much on faith. We believe every scientific assertion, no matter how incredible it may be. And now incredible, how preposterous much of this scientific talk is! There's heredity, for instance. I have seen books on heredity that were about as logical as the remark of an old woman, whose daughter played the plano. 'Your daughter plays well,' a woman said to her. "Yes," the old woman replied. 'she does have a fine touch, and it's no wonder, for she loves the piano. and never tires of it. Ye see, she's a great taste for music; but, then, that's only natural, for her grandfather had his skull fractured with a cornet at a picnic." -- New York Tribune.

GOOD AND HARD Results of Excessive Coffee Drinking.

It it remarkable what suffering some persons put up with just to satisfy an appetite for something.

A Micn. woman says: "I had been using coffee since I was old enough to have a cup of my own at the table, and from it I have suffered agony hundreds of times in the years past.

"My trouble first began in the form of bilious colic, coming on every few weeks and almost ending my life. At every attack for 8 years I suffered in this way. I used to pray for death to relieve me from my suffering. I had also attacks of sick headache, and began to suffer from catarrh of the stomach, and of course awful dyspepsia. "For about a year I lived on crackers and water. Believing that coffee was the cause of all this suffering. I finally quit it and began to use Postum Food Coffee. It agreed with my stomach, my troubles have left me and I am fast gaining my health under its use. "No wonder I condemn coffee and tea. No one could be in a much more critical condition than I was from the use of coffee. Some doctors pronounced it cancer, others ulceration. but none gave me any relief. But since I stopped coffee and began Postum I am getting well so fast I can heartily recommend it for all who suffer as I did." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Child Sues Mother.

Alleging she is not a proper person to be his costodian and has practised fraud and deception upon him, Henry Russel Drowne, Jr., 9 years old, is suing his nother in the Supreme Court. On April 20 last, the boy charges, his mother suddenly and without justification broke up their home while his father was engaged in serving on a jury. By deception, trickery and force, it is charged, she removed much furniture and other valuables belonging to the home and abandoned his father, compelling the plaintiff to go

Thieves Now Using Motor Boat.

Joseph Canning early Sunday morning saw two men enter a freight house at the steamboat landing at Sea Cliff, L. I. Being alone, he decided that discretion was the better part of valor, and walked back until he met two friends. They returned to the freight house, and the men. immediately took to a motor-boat and made their escape. Five men were seen in the boat, and a case of candy and some bottled beer were found to be missing.

Out Of Job; Into River.

Discouraged because he had lost his job, Henry Newburger, 16 years of age, attempted suicide by jumping into the North River at the foot of Forty-second Street. Capt. John Cameron, of the steamship Monmouth jumped in and saved him. Young Newburger was employed up to Saturday as a filing clerk by A. L. Silverstein, a cutlery dealer. Saturday the boy was discharged.

Bomb For A Banker. An attempt was made the other morning to blow up the banking office of Joseph Tamburro with a bomb. Policeman Wilkinson saw an object sizzling and spouting fire, and doused it with a pail of water. The bomb consisted of a piece of gas pipe, with a long cotton fuse attached, and is believed to be filled with explosives. Tamburro had received several letters in the last month threatening his life, signed "Black Hand," and demanding $400.

$70,000 In Gems Held Up.

Alleging gross undervaluation, a consignment of diamonds and other precious stones, said to be worth $70,000, has been held up by the customs authorities at this port. The gems are consigned to Eduard Van Dam, of this city. C. A. Treadwell. an assistant examiner, reported to Edward S. Fowler, the Appraiser of the Port, that the importations were heavily undervalued.

Colonel Gardner Rebuked.

Col. Asa Bird Gardiner, former District Attorney, who was removed by Governor Roosevelt, in an affidavit in the General Sessions cast aspersions on a judicial act of the late Judge Martin T. McMahon. This brought down upon him the wrath of Assistant Corporation wrath of Assistant Corporation Counsel Kelly and the censure of Judge Rosalsky. Mr. Kelly went so far as to suggest that the Colonel should be "thrown bodily out of the court-girls to become wives. How to nurse a sick husband, how to attend to the thousand and one wants of a baby, and how to keep down house hold expenses as low as the trusts will allow, are among the things the girls will be taught. Such is the plan officials of the Board of Education now have under consideration.

His Spine Crumbling Away.

The surgeons of Fordham Hospital never before had a case like that of John P. Miller, whose spine is crumbling. Miller first noticed that something was wrong with him when he found he could not bend forward any more, but could bend backward so far that his head would strike his heels without the least trouble. He went to the Hospital, where the surgeons told him the bones of his spine were rapidly crumbling away.

Maxwell Joins Spelling Board.

The missionaries of the Simplified Spelling Board rejoiced over the addition of several prominent cenverts. William H. Maxwell, City Superintendent of Schools, "got reform" several weeks ago. He has since been elected a member of the Board and has accepted. The board regards his addition to its number as an event.

The Black Hand Again.

The Black Hand has added another to its long list of crimes in Westchester county by the attempted assassination of Michael Griffin, a contractor of Mount Kiseo. While Griffin was sitting at the supper table with his family on Tuesday night, three shots crashed through the window and lodged in the wall within three inches of his head. He caused the arrest of two men who formerly worked for him. Bricklayers Go Out.

The executive committee of the Bricklayers' Unions of Greater New York ordered a general strike of all the union bricklayers on the various stations and buildings now being erected by the New York Central Railroad because of the employment of non-union men on contracts in the upper Bronx. The contracts affected are the buildings at the Grand Central Station, Cathedral Heights, One Hundred and Fiftieth Street and German Place, and a number of smaller contracts.

tion Problem.

North Dakota seems to have found the key to the question, "How shall we protect the people from frauds in manufactured products?" a plan which is applicable to foods, beverages, materials used in the arts, etc., A new law has recently gone into effect designed to make it impossible to deceive people into buying inferior and adulterated paint under the impression that they are getting real paint, viz .: pure white lead and linseed oil.

The North Dakota lawmakers did not attempt to absolutely prohibit the inferior pigments, or mixtures of pigments. They adopted the slogan, "Let the label tell," and then left to the people to buy whichever they wished.

Under this plan, if any one wishes to buy a mixture of rock-dust, ground quartz and other cheap elements which are found in many paints and so-called "white leads," no one can object; for they do it with their eyes But if they prefer genuine open. white lead and linseed oil, they can be sure of getting it, for none but the genuine article can bear a label which says "pure white lead."

In all other States mixtures are often sold as pure white lead which contain little-sometimes no-real white lead.

It would seem that were this same principle applied to food, beverages and all other preparedarticles, where deception is practiced upon the buyer, the question would be solved. It would leave us free to buy what we pleased, but would protect us from unwittingly buying what we did not

Help for Women Passing Through Change of Life

Providence has allotted us each at least seventy years in which to fulfill our mission in life, and it is generally our own fault if we die prematurely.

Nervous exhaustion invites disease. This statement is the positive truth. When everything becomes a burden and you cannot walk a few blocks without excessive fatigue, and you break out into perspiration easily, and your face flushes, and you grow excited and shaky at the least provocation, and you cannot bear to be crossed in anything, you are in danger; your nerves have given out; you need building up at once! To build up woman's nervous system and during the period of change of life we know of no better medicine than Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Here is an illustration. Mrs. Mary L. Koehne. 371
Garfield Avenue. Chicago. Ill., writes:
"I have used Lydis E. Pinkham's Vegetable. Compound for years in my family and it never disappoints; so when I felt that I was nearing the change of life I commenced treat ment with it. I took in all about six bottle ment with it. I took in all about six bottle and it did me a great deal of good. It stopped by dizzy spells, pains in my back and the beadaches with which I had suffered for months before taking the Compound. I feel that if it had not been for this great medicine for women that I should not have been alive to-day. It is splendid for women, old er young, and will surely cure all female disorders."
