GRANGE ENCAMPMENT AND FAIR.

Prospects Exceptionally Bright for the Best Exhibition and Fair on Grange

The Grange Encampment and Fair opened under the most auspicious circumstances. During the past few most successful year for this great project, and now enough has been realized to make the indication a certainty.

At no time in the past ten years were the members of the Order of Patrons of Husbandry more alive to their interests as an order than at present. Every Grange movement has been given an impetus, and the Grange Encampment and Fair is not an exception.

Camp opened Saturday in old fashioned earnestness. It was "moving in" day, and everybody was busy farmer. Many tents were neatly fitted up, and by evening several scores of families were housed for a week hotel. with all the conveniences that could be desired in camp life.

The vender of the sweets and trinkets, the more pretentious salesman, the ice cream man, the Moxie man, the show man everybody was busy Saturday.

Sunday was a beautiful day. In the afternoon religous services were conducted by Rev. G. W. McIlnay, pastor of the Methodist church. The auditorium was crowded with attentive listeners, all of whom were amply rewarded by a forceful sermon.

The following is the order of service carried out in the religious exercises : Hymn.

Anthem by choir-"How Beautiful." Prayer. Hymn. Scripture lesson.

Duet and chorus-Miss Sara Breon,

Hymn. Sermon by Rev. G. W. McIlnay. Prayer.

Song by choir-" Sing unto God." Hymn. Benediction.

Not less than fifteen hundred people were on the Camp ground Sunday afternoon. The order was perfect, every one keeping in mind the sanctity of the day.

As lhe Reporter goes to press the camp ground is crowded with people. Every tent on the ground is occupied, and many of them have over a dozen occupants.

In the next issue of the Reporter a and Fair will be printed.

Quigley Nominated.

The Republican conferees nominated Henry C. Quigley for state senator at a conference held Saturday at Philipsburg. This was accomplished by compelling the state committee to appoint two out and out Quigley confere s to settle the dispute. On the first ballot T. L. Snyder, the additional confer e for Clearfield, voted for Joseph Alexander, and Harry Keller, the additional Centre county conferee, cast his ballot for Quigley. On the second ballot both Snyder and Keller voted for Quigley, which settled the dispute.

Mr. Quigley has been very much tangled up in Centre county Republican politics, and can not hope to carry with him the full vote of his party.

KACHIE WAS MURDERED.

The Victim Placed on Railroad Track to Hide the Deed.

John Kachie, found badly mutilated on the railroad track near Clarence, was first thought to have met his death accidentally, but an examinamonths everything pointed toward a tion by Coroner Fisher and District Attorney Runkle shows without a doubt that murder had been committed, and the dead body laid on the railroad track with the hope that the evidence of the murder might be hidden. Several stiletto thrusts in the neck, one of which almost severed the juglar vein, are positive evidence of murder, and so the coroner's jury decided at the inquest held Friday.

The body of Kachie was found Wednesday morning of last week by workmen. It was horribly mutilated, and at first could not be identified. Later George Kachie, proprietor of the from the fakir to the most retired Clarence hotel, recognized it as that of his brother. He was last seen Tuesday night previous at the Clarence

Mr. Creasy said of the measure when it was before the house:

"Just a few days ago I talked with one of the leading members on the other side of the house, who said he thought it was about time to stop this increasing salary business and this creating of new departments. How They Fought the "Rippers." Mr. Creasy, Mr. Harman and other Democratic representatives spoke vigorously against the Philadelphia "ripper" bills. Seeing that they could not defeat them, they strove to amend them so as to have the directors elected by the people instead of by the machine controlled city councils, as the bills provided. But all in vain. That struggle alone sufficed to show the necessity for an arousing of the people of the state so as to elect a trustworthy majority to the next legislature.

Representative Flynn said during the discussion on one of those "ripper" bills:
