Harris Township.
Mrs. Henry Dale and daughter, Miss Anna, are visiting in Blair county.
Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Rentsler and daughter Margaret, of State College, spent Sunday here.
Samuel Kaup and family, of Benovo, visited his parents.
Mrs. George Fisher entertained some friends from Bellefonte.

Miss Sallie Riley is spending a few weeks at State College.
William Allen is engaged as a helper in Meek's drug store at State College.
William Myers purchased a Deering corn binder, and is busy helping the farmers with their corn cutting. The machine is doing nice work.
Grant Charles, assistant clerk at the Bush house, Bellefonte, was home over Sunday.

Some of our residents are attending the dedication of the State Capitol.
Apples are plenty and selling at eighty cents per hundred pounds.
Workmen are engaged at making a concrete porch and walks at the Odd Fellows hall. Some concrete work will also be done at the Reformed parsonage.

A temperance sermon will be preached in the Reformed church Sunday, the 14th, at 2:30 o'clock.
Those who attended the spelling bee Friday evening had a jolly, good time. The spelling was good and mostly done by the juveniles. Benefits for the Junior Base Ball Club.

The readers of the Centre Democrat are much pleased with the "That" column, by the Associate Editor. Truly, mirth and good, common sense are combined therein.
Judging from the continuous report of rifles all day Monday, squirrel potpie will be included in the bill of fare this week.

Colyor.
Wallace Weaver, telegraph operator at Reading, is home on a short vacation.
Mrs. P. B. Jordan spent several days visiting her son Lloyd, at Northumberland.
Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fleisher and children, of Yeagertown, spent Sunday at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Fleisher.

Sunday afternoon and evening, Rev. E. C. Haney, assisted by Rev. Willour, of Logantown, will hold communion services in the Evangelical church, at this place.
Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Cooney and daughter May spent Sunday visiting at Coburn.

Girl babies came to the homes of Aaron Detwiler and B. F. Rickerts, last week.
Linden Hall.
Eugene C. Heims is here from Oscola for the hunting season.
Elmer Jackson moved from Lemont to Daniel Tressler's house, at Rock Hill.

J. H. Miller came down from "The Glades" to see his aged mother who has been quite feeble. At this writing she is much improved.
Miss Ella Ross is spending the week with her aunt, Mrs. Elmer Ross, at Lemont.
Ed Carper and Wilfred Fry returned to Pitscarn, after a pleasant ten days with former associates.
Roy S. Abb, of Erie, is here for the hunting season.

LOST ON THE MOUNTAINS.

Mrs. Susan Stover, of Livonia, Aged Seventy-two Years, Wanders About for Fifty Hours.
After wandering about in the mountains for fifty hours, Mrs. Susan Stover, of Livonia, was found in Pine Creek Hollow, two miles from Catherman's Camp and five miles northeast of Woodward, a point nine or more miles from her home. When found by Mr. Stitzer, she was seated along the tram road that leads to Glen Iron. Although much fatigued, she was able to give her name and residence. She had had no food except berries and nuts from Friday afternoon until after being taken to Camp Catherman on Sunday morning.

As soon as possible she was taken to her home, the residence of her son, Manassa Stover, at Livonia.
Mrs. Stover, who is the widow of Laurence Stover, Friday afternoon went to the woods to gather nuts. For some unaccountable reason she became bewildered, lost her bearings and then began to travel aimlessly. Friday evening, when the aged lady did not return, a searching party went to the mountains. The searchers increased in numbers as the time went on, and Sunday groups of people from all sections in Brush and lower Penns Valleys scoured the mountains for many miles with the above noted result.

Keith's Theatre.
Violet Black and Company in "A West Point Regulation," leads in the list of entertainers at Keith's Chestnut Street Theatre, Philadelphia, this week. It is a delightful comedy sketch and adds much to the pleasure of Keith's patrons. This is the fifth and last week of George Evans, the black-face comedian's, fun-making at this popular vaudeville. There is a special feature for the children—Bartholomy's cockatoos. Eugene and Willie Howard, parodists; Juliet Winston, comedienne; Willie Weston, imitator; the Prampin trio, colored comedians, are others on the bill. Col. Gaston Bordeny, master marksman of the world, is performing sensational feats with firearms. The Four Nightones are an extra added feature, being great European acrobats.

Musser-Weaver.
Miss Pearl Weaver and Wilfred Musser, both of Altoona, were united in marriage Monday afternoon at the parsonage of the Second Lutheran church, by Rev. A. E. Wagner. Miss Alice Weaver, sister of the bride, and Elsworth Cutshall were the attendants.
Miss Weaver has for some years been a successful clerk in Kline Brothers department store, and is well known in Centre county as the daughter of the late Prof. J. A. Weaver. Mr. Musser is employed in East Altoona, and is the son of Robert Musser, of Spring Mills.
After spending some time at Niagara Falls and Buffalo the young people will go to housekeeping in Altoona.

$7050 for McClintic Farm.
Messrs. Hugh McClintic and A. F. McClintic, trustees, Saturday sold the farm in Gregg township, known as the James A. McClintic farm, near Farmers Mills, to I. J. Zubler for the sum of $7050. The farm contains one hundred and fifty-five acres, twenty-seven of which are well timbered.
Other bidders than Mr. Zubler were Rev. J. M. Runkle, of Williamsport, and Merchant C. P. Long, of Spring Mills.

Killing Game.
Squirrel hunters were more or less successful the first few days of the season. East of Old Fort the woods on the Bartiges farm, now owned by B. D. Brislin & Co., seems to be the most prolific field for game. Messrs. B. D. Brislin, W. Frank Bradford, Robert and Nane Sweetwood, Irvin Showers, killed twenty-eight in these woods. Clyde Bradford also had good luck, killing to the limit. Other sports came in with from 0 to 4.

Korman Spicher Married.
Korman Spicher was married recently in Philadelphia, and at present the newly married couple are spending a portion of their honeymoon in Centre Hall, at the home of the groom's father, John Spicher.
Mr. Spicher is one of the city mail carriers in Philadelphia, and has held the appointment for several years.

Spanish Coin of 1609.
A truly old Spanish coin bearing the date of 1609 was found the other day by M. T. Zubler, of near Spring Mills, while cutting corn. The money bears a profile of Ferdinand VII, and the inscription "Hispania et In—" the latter letters indistinct.

And Penny Knew It.
The Philadelphia Record, speaking of the capitol commission, editorially says: First there was proved deception of the Legislature and the people; then there was proved extravagance, and now there is very strong indication of fraud.

Cider Press Notice.
The cider press of J. F. Treaster, located at Sprucetown, will be operated Tuesday and Thursday of each week during the season.

THE FAIR.

Everything in Readiness for the Great Centre County Fair.
It is impossible at this time to estimate the crowds that will be in attendance at the Great Centre County Fair next week. Indications all point to the largest gatherings of people that have ever been recorded within the county. And to please these great crowds the Fair will be all that is expected of it. This means that it will be far greater and grander than ever before.

Without going into details the following list of things you may expect to see:
A stupendous exhibit of the products of the fields, gardens and homes of Centre county.
A fine display of horses, cattle, sheep and swine.

Exciting races on all the days of the Fair.
The great county race on Friday.
Championship base ball games between Pine Grove Mills and Baileyville on Wednesday. Hecla Park and Snow Shoe on Thursday. Spring Mills and Millheim on Friday. All of these games will be called at 11 a. m. sharp.
The Bijou Vaudeville Circus including dogs and ponies.
Mlle Maude DeLora, the queen of acrobats.
Catharine LaEelle, the premier contortionist.

The Brothers Trevelix, the European sensational tumblers and equilibristas. Stueckhart's famous animal show.
Prof. Probst's four-year-old child wonder who charms snakes and has performing rats and mice.
A merry-go-round and a ferris wheel.
Lendis Electrical Arcade of moving pictures.
A magnificent exhibit of the products of the state of Virginia made by the Norfolk and Western R. R.
The Pennsylvania State College display of fruits, flowers, grain and poultry.

Countless other diversions and shows of agricultural implements, dairy paraphernalia and wagons and buggies.

LOCALS.

Wm. M. Grove with a crew of men has begun a survey of state forest lands in the eastern end of the county.
Wm. Confer, of Georges Valley, has sold his house and lot to Willard Jamison for seven hundred and fifty dollars.

Merchant C. W. and Mrs. Swartz, of Tusseyville, are at Harrisburg today (Thursday) to attend the Capitol dedication.
Among others from the south side who are attending the Milton fair are Mrs. W. F. Beckey and son William and Mrs. Henry Meyer, of Tusseyville.
Former Chief Burgess W. Harrison Walker, of Bellefonte, found a $50 gold pin on the tire of his automobile. The tire gathered up the pin on a highway.

Miss Laura Runkle is out on a little pleasure trip. Among other points she will stop at are Pottsgrove, where she will be entertained by Mrs. W. J. Finkle, Sunbury, Milton and Williamsport.
A sacred song service will be given in the Reformed church Sunday evening. Prof. P. H. Meyer is the musician who will be in charge. Many of the local singers have been invited and will participate in the service.

Grove and Colbron will hold a cattle sale at the Centre Hall Hotel, Saturday, October 13, 12 o'clock noon. Blooded young bulls, heifers, springers, cows and fat cattle make up the choice lot. A rare chance for Centre county farmers.
James A. Keller, president of the Penns Valley Banking Company, has been confined to bed since Friday, and for a time was seriously ill. Tuesday his condition began to improve. His first sickness began with neuralgia, and later stomach trouble developed.

To place your umbrella in a rack indicates that it is about to change owners; an umbrella carried over a woman, the man getting nothing but the drippings of the rain, signifies courtship; when the man has the umbrella and the woman the drippings, it indicates marriage; to carry it at an angle under the arm signifies that an eye is to be lost by the man who follows you; to put a cotton umbrella by the side of a silk one means "exchange is no robbery"; to lend an umbrella may be interpreted, "I am a fool"; to carry an umbrella just high enough to tear out men's eyes and knock off men's hats signifies, "I am a woman."

Running a newspaper is just like running a hotel, only different. When a man goes into a hotel and finds something on the table which does not suit him, he does not raise hedges with the landlord and tell him to stop his old hotel. Well hardly. He sets that dish to one side and wades into the many dishes that suit him. It is different with some newspaper readers. They find an article occasionally that does not suit them exactly and without stopping to think it may please hundreds of other readers, make a grand stand play and tell the editor how a paper should be run and what should be put into it. But such people are becoming fewer every year.

Buy Oil from the Barrel.
Don't pay $1.50 a gallon for canned oil, which ought to cost but 60 cents a gallon. Ready-mixed paint is half oil and half paint. Buy oil fresh from the barrel, and add it to the L. & M. paint which is semi-mixed.
When you buy L. & M. paint you get a full gallon of paint that won't wear off for 10 or 15 years, because L. & M. Zinc hardens the L. & M. White Lead and makes L. & M. paint wear like iron.
4 gallons L. & M. mixed with 3 gallons Linseed Oil will paint a moderate sized house.
Actual cost L. & M. about $1.30 per gallon.

Sold in the north, east, south and west.
C. S. Andrews, ex-Mayor, Danbury, Conn., writes, "Painted my house 19 years ago with L. & M. Looks well today."
Sold by Rearick Bros., Centre Hall.

Oak Hall.
Mrs. Taylor, of Unionville, is visiting friends in town.
Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Lowder spent Sunday with friends in Lemont.
Miss May Thomas and Mr. Coleman, of State College, were guests at the Peters home on Sunday.
Miss Dora Meyer and Hoffer Dale, of Centre Hall, spent a few hours at Sunny Hillside on their return from a visit to State College.

Mrs. Mary Jane Walls, of Pleasant Gap, is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Georgiana Dale, at Dale's Mills.
George Mothersbaugh, of Boalsburg, and Miss Ella Ross, of Linden Hall, were callers in town Saturday evening.
Frank Williams and Charles Bohm, of Lemont, transacted business in town Friday evening.

Some men become testy if they are put to the test.
