LOCALS.

Fair this week.
The Lewistown schools have been closed for ten days on account of an epidemic of diphtheria.
Cattle sale at the Centre Hall Hotel, Saturday, October 13, 12 o'clock noon. Blooded young bulls, heifers, springers, cows and fat cattle make up the lot—Grove & Coldron.
Irish Charley, the linen peddler, is making his rounds through Penns Valley. Although in good humor, Charley was too busy to do his accustomed dance and song.
Friday Millheim and Spring Mills base ball teams will play on the fair grounds. The teams are well matched and the natural rivalry between them is sufficient to warrant a good game.
The November Delineator treats of the established styles for autumn both in dress and millinery, and also devotes much space to the accessories of dress which women find so alluring.
M. M. Condo entertained a number of audiences in Centre Hall with a phonograph. He has one of the best machines ever exhibited in town, and his line of records are the latest to be had.
Rev. J. A. Wood, D. D., formerly of Bellefonte, is now in Los Angeles, California. California papers state that Dr. Wood is likely to be assigned pastor of one of the aristocratic Los Angeles Methodist congregations.
Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Musser, of Altoona, were guests at the Centre Hall Hotel Monday night. They were on their way from Pine Grove Mills to Spring Mills, the home of Mr. Musser's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Musser.
On returning from Synod last week, Rev. J. M. Rearick was taken suddenly ill and it was thought his sickness would be a repetition of his recent illness, both having begun with a chill. After a few days he was able to be about again.
Mr. and Mrs. A. Meyer, of Darragh, are in Centre Hall having come here to visit Mr. Meyer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Meyer, west of Centre Hall. Mr. Meyer is engaged with the Keystone Coal and Coke Company, and has been with them ever since he has been in Westmoreland county.
In making its rounds on the south side of Potter township, the stork left a baby girl at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Wes. Foreman, near the Red Mill. The parents are wonderfully proud of their new treasure, and especially so since it is robust and rosy, having weighed on its arrival nine pounds.
S. H. Knepley, the blacksmith and woodworker, in this issue in an advertisement announces that he has permanently located opposite the school house and is ready to do general blacksmithing and all kinds of carriage and wagon work. Special attention is given to resetting tire and remodeling wheels.
John S. Auman, the proprietor of the Red Mill, attended court in Snyder county last week as a witness. The case was an exceptionally trivial one, and is said to have grown out of a "half pound of bran" a woman purchased from Mr. Auman's successor at the Beaver Springs mills. The upshot was the woman paid the costs.
From the Journal: J. H. Deibler, a former merchant in Millheim, but now located in Berrysburg, visited Penns Valley last week. S. L. Wiser, of Marion, Ohio, is in Millheim. Mrs. D. L. Zerby has returned from a visit to her daughter, Mrs. T. B. Buck, at Berwick. Bquire and Mrs. P. P. Musser attended the Capitol dedication. Mrs. A. A. Frank and Mrs. H. T. Frank returned from spending a week at New Bloomfield.

BOY SHOT TO DEATH.

Found Under Chestnut Tree Riddled with Shot—Limbs Broken in Fall.
The burial of Clyde Auman Sunday morning was one of the most sad incidents experienced in many years, by the good people of Penn township. The lad, aged but twelve years, met his death while on a chestnut tree the Wednesday previous, from a gun shot fired by some unknown person.
The story of the finding of the boy runs as follows:
Wednesday afternoon Jonathan Ritter, on his way home from threshing at the barn of William Vonada, heard a gun shot some distance in advance of the course he was walking, and hurrying in that direction came upon the mangled body of Clyde, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Auman, lying under a chestnut tree twenty rods distant from the Auman home, one-fourth mile west of Green Brier, and two and one-half miles west of Coburn. The boy was taken to his home and a physician summoned, but life was past recovery. The boy died several hours afterward without regaining consciousness. In addition to the gun shot wound the boy in falling broke the bones in one arm and leg.
A. L. Auman, a justice at Coburn, impelled a jury of inquest. The gentlemen were: T. B. Motz, C. E. Finckle, T. F. Auman, Jacob Sanders, D. Geary, S. G. Rote. The decision of the jury was that the boy came to his death by the discharge of a gun in the hands of an unknown person.
The indications are that the person who fired the fatal shot must have been very near to or under the tree on which the boy was standing. There are said to have been removed from the mangled body ninety-seven shot.
At one time suspicion was had on a neighboring boy, but later the blame was placed on one more mature, although there appears to be no direct evidence against any one.
District attorney Runkle and Coroner Fisher visited the scene of the killing and made considerable inquiry. Residents about Coburn are expecting an arrest to be made shortly.

Sabbath School Convention.

A district Sabbath School Convention will be held at Spring Mills, Friday, October 19. The afternoon service will be held in the Methodist church and the evening service in the Lutheran church.
THE PROGRAM
1.30 Opening service.
Rev. E. E. Haney—The qualifications of a S. S. teacher.
Dr. W. H. Schuyler—Discipline in the S. S.
Rev. G. W. McInay—The S. S. as an evangelistic field.
7.30 Song Service.
Rev. J. M. Rearick—How to interest the boys.
Rev. D. Gress—The Memorizing of Scripture should be part of S. S. work.
Rev. M. J. Snyder—The qualifications of a S. S. scholar.
T. M. Gramley will talk on the work of the state convention.
The district is composed of Potter and Gregg townships and Centre Hall borough. All schools are entitled to send delegates. Free entertainment for all.
The officers are: C. E. Royer, president; A. B. Lee, vice president; Mrs. W. H. Kremer, secretary; J. J. Arney, treasurer.

The Markets.

Monday's market reports in the west were as follows: Pittsburg: Cattle—extra, 1450 to 1600 lbs., $5 65 a $5 00; prime, 1300 to 1400 lbs., $5 30 to $5 65; good, $5 00 a $5 20. Hogs, heavy, $7 00 a $7 25; prime medium weight, $7 00; pigs, $6 40 a $6 60; common to good roughs, $5 40 a $6 00; veal calves, $5 a $8 25.
Chicago: Cattle—common to fancy steers, $4 75 a $7 25. Hogs, choice to prime heavy, $6 65 to $6 75; medium to heavy, $6 40 a $6 60; butcher's weight, $6 65 a $6 75.
Cincinnati: Hogs—butchers and shippers, $6 80 a $6 85.
New York: State of Pennsylvania hogs, $6 90 a $7 10.

Millinery Opening.

Mrs. Lucy Henney announces her millinery opening, at Centre Hall Friday, October 12. She has just returned from the city with a choice selection of millinery goods. As in former times the prices, considering the quality, are an interesting feature. Remember, the early customers have the advantage of selecting from the entire stock.

Champion Wheat Growers.

The champion wheat growers reported to this office this season were Frank Lohr and L. Mothersbaugh, both of Harris Township. The former's crop was 1442 bushels and the latter's 1010 bushels.

They Make You Feel Good.

The pleasant purgative effect experienced by all who use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and the healthy condition of the body and mind which they create makes one feel joyful. Price, 25 cents, Samples free at.

The Star Store, Centre Hall; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; C. W. Swartz, Tusseyville.

H. B. IRVING.

Young English Actor, Son of the late Sir Henry Irving, and Miss Dorothea Baird to appear in Philadelphia.
The most noteworthy event of the entire dramatic season of Philadelphia, will be the first appearance in that city at the Chestnut Street Opera House, Monday evening, October 29th, of Mr. H. B. Irving, the famous English actor and his wife, prominently known to the stage as Dorothea Baird. These English stars and the entire London company who last spring and late summer appeared with tremendous success in London and on an English provincial tour under the direction of Messrs. Nixon and Zimmerman, the well known Philadelphia managers, have recently made their American debut under the same management at the New Amsterdam Theatre, New York. Miss Dorothea Baird, who was the original "Tribby" has been welcomed as an actress of undoubted charm and grace. Mr. Irving and Miss Baird will make their Philadelphia debut in Stephen Phillips' great poetic tragedy, "Paolo and Francesca," in which play they have achieved such tremendous success in New York. This is Stephen Phillips' poetic and dramatic version of Dante's imperishable love story. Stephen Phillips has surrounded the history of the lovers with certain characters and incidents of his own and the play is as thrilling as the production is beautiful. Mr. Irving is supported by a notable company of English players. It is probable that during the Irving engagement at the Chestnut Street Opera House, Mr. H. B. Irving will appear in some of his father's most famous successes. The opening of the sale of boxes and seats for the first week of Mr. Irving's engagement will open on Tuesday morning October 23rd at the Box Office.

LOCALS.

D. Wion, one of the elderly citizens of the borough, is ill.
Progress Grange will meet Saturday afternoon at one o'clock.
Mrs. Arney Lee, of Pittsburg, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Lee.
Mrs. Lucy Henney, who was in Philadelphia during the past week, returned Monday.
D. L. Kerr became a citizen of Centre Hall Tuesday. He occupies his own home, below the Presbyterian church.
Mr. and Mrs. Witmer E. Lee returned from Muncion Station Tuesday. Mrs. Lee, who had been sick while at that place, has fully recovered.
Miss Bertha Miller, daughter of Eugene Miller, of Lorane, O., is in Centre Hall, and for a part of the time was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shutt.
Frank P. Duck, of near Madisonsburg, was in town Friday. He is one of the Gregg township school directors, and takes a great interest in school work.
Branch Company No. 14, The Patrons Rural Telephone Company, from Linden Hall to State College, have their wires on the poles and expect to have their instruments installed this week.
Apples and potatoes are being shipped by the Howard Creamery Corporation from the Centre Hall station. W. Gross Mingle is devoting considerable of his time to that line of work for the corporation he represents.
Grove and Coldron will hold a cattle sale at the Centre Hall Hotel, Saturday, October 13, 12 o'clock noon. Blooded young bulls, heifers, springers, cows and fat cattle make up the choice lot. A rare chance for Centre county farmers.
George A. Vonada sold two lots, known as the Ream and Royer properties, on North street, Millheim, to Mrs. Ada M. Yake, of Pittsburg. The consideration was $425. Mr. and Mrs. Yake expect to make their future home in Millheim.

Mrs. John Brown, of Monroe, Wisconsin, who is visiting in Penns Valley, spent several days at the home of her brother-in-law, Jared Brown. Mr. and Mrs. Brown went west from Centre county about thirty-three years ago and this is the latter's first visit east.
Mr. and Mrs. John H. Krumbine, of Rexis, are visiting friends in Centre Hall. The Krumbine family has had considerable sickness since in Indiana county, but at present all have recovered their former good health. Like when in Centre Hall, Mr. Krumbine is conducting a furniture establishment together with undertaking.

The Rev. Dr. Boal goes to Allenwood Saturday to conduct the dedicatory exercises of the church at that place on Sunday, the 14th inst. From Allenwood he will go to Lancaster to meet the committee of Synodical Mission and Sustentation in the Synod of Pennsylvania of which he is a member. He will be gone eight or ten days.
The Millheim Literary Club indulged in one of its occasional purely social feasts last week at the Musser house. Those of the club present on this occasion were: Miss Jennie K. Reifender, Miss Eva Moyer, Mrs. Carrie Condo Meyer, Mrs. Mary Hartman Swartz, Mrs. Cora Hoekman Stover, Mrs. Anna Smith Sandley, Mrs. Mary Ziegler Neff, Mrs. W. S. Musser and Mrs. Elizabeth W. Hosterman.

Dr. Boal Sold Farm.
Dr. James W. Boal, of Centre Hall, Tuesday sold his farm south of Earllytown to Samuel Baird, of near Pleasant Gap. Mr. Baird expects to occupy his new possession next spring. The price paid is said to have been in the neighborhood of $50 per acre.
D. W. Bradford has been the tenant on the Boal farm for the past thirteen years, and for some years previous to that John R. Lawyers, Mr. Bradford's father-in-law, was the tenant.

Millinery Opening
Ladies are invited to the millinery establishment of Mrs. Sadie J. Wolf, at Spring Mills, to inspect her line of goods just received from the eastern cities. Mrs. Wolf just returned from the east where she made her selections after making a personal visit to the best establishments.

Quincy, Sprains and Swellings Cured.
"In November, 1901, I caught cold and had the quincy. My throat was swollen so I could hardly breathe. I applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and it gave me relief in a short time. In two days I was all right," says Mrs. L. Cousins, Otterburn, Mich. Chamberlain's Pain Balm is a liniment and is especially valuable for sprains and swellings. For sale by
The Star Store, Centre Hall; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; C. W. Swartz, Tusseyville.

Buy Oil from the Barrel.

Don't pay $1.50 a gallon for canned oil, which ought to cost but 60 cents a gallon. Ready-mixed paint is half oil and half paint. Buy oil fresh from the barrel, and add it to the L. & M. paint which is semi-mixed.
When you buy L. & M. paint you get a full gallon of paint that won't wear off for 10 or 15 years, because L. & M. Zinc hardens the L. & M. White Lead and makes L. & M. paint wear like iron.
4 gallons L. & M. mixed with 3 gallons Linseed Oil will paint a moderate sized house.
Actual cost L. & M. about $1.20 per gallon.
Sold in the north, east, south and west.
C. S. Andrews, ex-Mayor, Danbury, Conn., writes, "Painted my house 19 years ago with L. & M. Looks well today."
Sold by Rearick Bros., Centre Hall.
Keith's Theatre.
Fred Walton, the toy soldier, in "Clay's Dream," the grandest spectacular pantomime on earth, is the top liner at Keith's Chestnut Street Theatre, Philadelphia, this week. Julia Redmond and Co. appear in a stunt entitled "Too Much Married." Bessie and Miller are song and dance artists, while the Adeimantos, peerless xylophonists, are also keeping up the musical part of the program. The added feature this week is "The Gems," being European artists in a great feature, "Song, Mirth and Play." Cliffe Berzack's ponies and "Maude Hee-Haw!" constitute an extra added attraction. Clayton White and Marie Stuart, former Frohman stars, are seen in a brilliant comedy, "Paris."

CHURCH APPOINTMENTS.
