Lucky Hunters.

In the vicinity of Linden Hall several flocks of wild turkeys have been harboring all to their sorrow. Monday was the first day the game could be legally killed, and by evening eight of the proud birds were bagged by as many hunters, namely: John and Jonas Ross, John Raymond, James Swabb, John L. Tressler, Linden Hall; Rev. J. R. Sechrist and J. Frank Smith, Centre Hall; George Fisher, Boalsburg.

Tuesday Messrs. Earl Ross, of Linden Hall; John Allen and George Fisher, of Boalsburg; George Kline, of Oak Hall, and John Hoy, of Leont, each killed one. Several were also killed by parties from State College whose names were not learned.

Two flocks were discovered—in one there were about twenty and in the other thirty birds. At one time the two flocks united, making the beautiful spectacle of fifty birds in a bunch.

BIG TELEPHONE MERGER.

Local System in Five States Unite—Orvis and Spangler are Directors.

Col. J. L. Spangler and Judge Ellis L. Orvis are interested in a big telephone company which takes in local companies in five states. The United Telephone & Telegraph Company, of Bellefonte, is one of the companies in the merger.

Arrangements are about concluded for the consolidation of fifteen local telephone companies in Pennsylvania, New York, Ohio, Maryland and West Virginia into the American Union Telephone Company, which has been organized with an authorized capital of $25,000,000.

The companies generally to be merged by lease or through stock control already have traffic arrangements with the Keystone Telephone Company in Philadelphia, and at Pittsburgh with the Pittsburg and Allegheny Telephone Company.

The object is to unify into one system and to standardize and develop the several local telephone systems, and at the same time to strengthen the long distance service, particularly in Pennsylvania.

About 40,000 telephones are now operated by the companies to be brought under this management.

Percy M. Chandler, of Philadelphia, is a director and one of the chief promoters of the new telephone company. James Kerr, of Clearfield; John W. Garland, of Pittsburg; Lyman E. Gilbert, of Harrisburg; Rembrandt Peale, of New York; H. Prentiss Taylor, of Pittsburg; S. P. Light, of Lebanon; Ellis L. Orvis, of Bellefonte; A. W. Lee, of Clearfield; W. B. Trask, of Erie; J. L. Spangler, of Bellefonte; William Kaul, of St. Marys; Edward Bailey, G. W. Riley and B. F. Myers, of Harrisburg, and J. Eloat Fassitt, of Elmira, are the other directors.

P. O. Robbes, then Fired.

The post office at Buffalo Run was robbed Monday night and then fired. The office was in the store room of J. Linn Mattern, who is also the postmaster. Mr. Mattern awoke at about three o'clock Tuesday morning and saw the fire pouring from the windows of the building. The rear door of the store room was broken open, and there were other traces of robbery. The entire building and contents were destroyed, the loss being considerable.

"THE COLLEGE WIDOW."

To Play an Engagement of two weeks at the Chestnut Street Theatre, Philadelphia.

The pretty "College Widow," with her following of fetching girls and rollicking students returns to the Chestnut Street Theatre, Philadelphia, for a two weeks' stay commencing October 22nd. People who have seen the play go again and again and declare they always find something new to laugh at and enjoy. Ade's bright lines fairly bristle with wit and humor, within a story admirable in combining the elements of simplicity and continued interest. Mr. Ade in "The College Widow" has sketched a score or more of amusing American types, irresistible because of their absolute fidelity to nature. For this company Mr. Savage has endeavored to provide a cast that if possible, will outshine all others that have appeared in the comedy. The cast includes Thomas Melghan, Evelyn Vaughan, Gertrude Quinlan, Frederick Burton, Louise Forde, Adeline Dunlap, Laurence Wheat, Albert Tavernier, Edgar Halstead, Dan Collyer, Thomas Delmar, E. Y. Backus, Melville Alexander, Hall Norcross, Virginia Milton, Mildred St. Pierre, Minnie Monroe, Alice Donovan, Dale Loomis, and others.

A Certain Cure for Croup—Used for Ten Years Without a Failure.

Mr. W. C. Bott, a Star City, Ind., hardware merchant, is enthusiastic in his praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. His children have all been subject to croup and he has used this remedy for the past ten years, and though they much feared the croup, his wife and he always felt safe upon retiring when a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was in the house. His oldest child was subject to severe attacks of croup, but this remedy never failed to effect a speedy cure. He has recommended it to friends and neighbors and all who have used it say that it is unequalled for croup and whooping cough. For sale by
