The Farmer's Wife

Is very careful about her churn. She scalds it thoroughly after using, and gives it a sun bath to sweeten it. She knows that if her churn is sour it will taint the butter, that is made in it. The stomach is a churn. In the stomach and digestive and nutritive tracts are performed processes which are almost exactly like the churning of butter. Is it not apparent then that if this stomach-churn is foul it makes foul all which is put into it?

The evil of a foul stomach is not alone the bad taste in the mouth and the foul breath caused by it, but the corruption of the pure current of blood and the dissemination of disease throughout the body. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery makes the sour and foul stomach sweet, It does for the stomach what the washing and sun bath do for the churn-absolutely removes every tainting or corrupting element. In this way it cures blotches, pimples, eruptions, scrofulous swellings, sores, or open eating ulcers and all humors or diseases arising from bad blood. If you have bitter, nasty, foul taste in your mouth, coated tongue, foul breath, are weak and easily tired, feel depressed and despondent, have frequent headaches. dizzy attacks, gnawing or distress in stomach, constipated or irregular bowels, sour or bitter risings after eating 'nd poor appetite, these symptoms, or any considerable number of them, indicate that you are suffering from biliousness, torpid or lazy liver with the usual accompanying indigestion, or dyspepsia and their attendant

The best agents known to medical sci-nce for the cute of the above symptoms and conditions, as attested by the writings leading teachers and practitioners of all the several schools of medical practice, have been skillfully and harmoniously combined in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. That this is absolutely true will be readily proven to your satisfaction if you will but made a postif you will but mail a postal card request to Dr.'R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Clymer, now dead, was married three times, Jane B. Clymer was his third wife. The second wife was in court aiding the executor under the will in their protest as to the payment of the amount claimed by the plaintiff. It was shown, however," that the plaintiff had lived with Clymer for nineteen year and he thought that she was his legal wife. A bill of separation was put in evidence between the deceased and the second wife, which was claimed to be a legal separation or equal to a divorce. In law, however, the separation did not amount to a divorce, but the plaintiff testified that she had lived with Clymer for nineteen years, believed that she was his lawful wife, that she had loaned him $3000 on a property in Lansdowne Borough and also that during several years' illness she had taken care of him. "Needs A Mother's Care."

There is a child in St. Joseph's Orphan Asylum which, like Smee, the wicked pirate in "Peter Pan," "needs a mother's care." Anyone who wants to adopt a child of spirit could not do better than try this. He (the child) is about 2 years old, wears a white coat, a red dress and black shoes and stockings, and up to date he has this record:

Swung Cop By Coat Tails.

Mrs. Rieka Silverman, "mother of the push-cart man," fought to free one of her sons and gave Policeman Hannon a very unhappy 40 minutes. An admiring East-Side crowd of 3000 persons saw Mother Silverman catch the policeman by the coat tails and swing him around twice in the air almost as easily as a child swings a toy balloon. Mrs. Silverman, who owns many push-carts, it is said, is 60 years old, weighs nearly 300 pounds and is very muscular. Hannon had arrested "Shear" Wolfsky, a push-eart man, for violating the law. Wolfsky submitted to arrest quietly. but Mother Silverman appeared and. Hannon said, tried to rescue the prisoner. Hannon arrested her, too, and had his hands full. As the muscular old woman threw herself on him, a crowd miraculously sprang from the street to see the fun. After his aerial flight the policeman mastered the woman, just as the reserves were going out to learn whi the row was Blind Poodle, Historical Marvel.

And when he saw his eyes were out, with all his might and main. He jumped into another bush and scratched them in again.

The only time the trick of the wise man in our town has been duplicated is reported from Brooklyn. Hence, a poodle in the family of Louis Parmer, of 435 East New York Avenue. is the wise one. Heine is 12 years old. When Heine was a puppy he was wondrous wise, and he got into a fight with a pussy cat that scratched out both his eyes. Twelve years went by, during which poor Heine was led about by loving hands. Last Sunday the poodle met a cat and jumped into a fight with the pussy, which scratched his eyes in again. At any rate, Heine can see again.

Lizzie Went To Jail.

Because Lizzie Quelette is a good servant during her periods of sobriety Magistrate Smith of Long Island City has been somewhat indulgent with her in the past, His knowledge of the girl's good qualities is complete, as she is employed in his household. Magistrate Smith, however, realized Friday that there must be an end to all things, even to extending clemency to tippling servant girls, and had the unusual experience of sending his own servant to jail for 10 days on a charge of intoxication and disorderly conduct. The Magistrate accompanied his wife to Far Rockaway to attend a social function last Sunday. Lizzie was left to care for the house during their absence until Monday. Mrs. Smith returned to the house alone on Monday. She was shocked to find 50 children in front of the house hooting and yelling at a woman who was making a political speech on the front porch. It was Lizzie.

Needle "Rheumatism."

An old-fashioned silver needle with a gold eye wandered around in Mrs. H. A. Smith's body for something over a half century. No one was more surprised than she when the needle ended its wanderings by emerging from her left knee. It is a particularly fine needle, with its gold eye, and Mrs. Smith's mother | 12c. must have been very much vexed when her baby daughter swallowed it. Mrs. Smith as a baby must have swallowed it, say the doctors, though Mrs. Smith has no recollection of having performed such a feat. She had been having "rheumatism," so she thought, for more than a year, and the pain had been settling about her left knee-cap. Yesterday the became so intense that she called Dr. Lambert. He applied the lancet and found the long-lost needle.

COMMERCIAL GULUMN

Weekly Review of Trade and Latest Market Reports.

New York. R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says: The advancing season has broadened retail trade in staple lines, notably heavy-weight clothing and footwear, while wholesale and jobbing departments make satisfactory returns, and there is definite improvement in the promptness with which mercantile collections are made. Current distribution is scarcely more general than the demand for distant delivery, indicating that confidence in the future remains unshaken. Industrial operations are on an unprecedented scale, with especial pressure at steel mills, car shops and shipyards. Prices are well maintained, the general level showing a net gain since the month opened. Many voluntary advances in wages are noted, and it is hoped that the scarcity of labor will be less disturbing when farm work is finished. Railway blockades still delay shipments, yet earnings for October thus far surpassed last year's by 7.5 per

Aside from the advance of $4 per ton in the price of pipe at the close of last week, quotations of iron and steel remain steady, but notably firm Some mills can promise small deliveries in a few weeks, but as a rule contracts already on hand assure activity far into next year, even with the increased production that will follow the opening of new plants.

Liabilities of commercial failures thus far reported for October amounted to $4,561,211, of which $2,820, 177 were in manufacturing, $1,671. 333 in trading and $69,701 in other commercial lines. Failures this week numbered 186 in the United States against 233 last year.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfact hearing, and whan it is entirely close in flamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect bearing, and when it is entirely close 1 Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Out of all the external remedies on the market we doubt if there is one that has the record of that world-renowned porous plaster—Allcock's. It has now been in use for sixty years, and still continues to be for sixty years, and still continues to be as popular as ever in doing its great work of relieving our pains and aches. It is the remedy we all need when suffering from any form of ache or pain resulting from taking cold or over-strain.
