Keith's Theatre.

Mrs. Langtry, the famous English beauty, and her own company are entertaining large audiences at Keith's Chestnut Street Theatre, Philadelphia, this being the second and last week of their performance of an one act play of South African life. Clarice Vance, the southern singer, and Lew Sully, the renowned humorist, are important factors in this week's gaieties. Gillett's dogs are a feature for the children. The Immensaphone, world's grand musical mystery, is a special attraction. Franco Piper, the banjo king, and Hilda Clarke, violinist, delight the music lover. The three Perry Pajama girls, in a sketch; Fred Ray & Company; Kremka Brothers, European acrobats, are among the many others appearing at Keith's.

STUART SWEEPS PENNSYLVANIA

Is Elected Governor By Nearly 100,000 Plurality.

IMMENSE REPUBLICAN GAINS

Latest Returns From Counties Show Heavy Losses to Fusion Candidate, Compared With Berry's Vote—Republicans Carry Philadelphia By 40,000 and Elect Rotan District Attorney.
Philadelphia, Nov. 7.—The most exciting campaign in Pennsylvania in 25 years has ended in a triumph for Edwin S. Stuart, Rep., for governor, over Lewis Emery, Jr., Dem. and Lincoln Party, by a plurality of nearly 100,000.

Aside from the contest for governor and other state officers, the chief interest centered in the battle in Philadelphia for district attorney and in few of the congressional districts. Members of the house of representatives and county officers were elected in nearly every county, and state senators were chosen in 25 of the 50 districts.

Samuel P. Rotan, R., was elected district attorney in Philadelphia by a vote which will exceed 40,000, defeating D. Clarence Giboney, who had the support of the reform forces and the Democrats.

The incoming legislature will be strongly Republican, although not so overwhelmingly for that party as it was two years ago.

The new personal registration law, which went into effect since the last election, reduced the normal vote in many of the cities. The corrupt practices act, which also became operative since the last election, also operated to cut down the vote in some localities. The act prohibits the use of money at elections, except for legitimate purposes, and is claimed to have deterred many poll workers from buying votes.

One of the chief issues in the state campaign was the new capitol, which was dedicated on October 4. The Fusionists claimed that several million dollars of overcharges and duplications are represented in furnishing and equipping the building. The Republican candidates pledged themselves if elected to honestly investigate those charges and to place the responsibility for the alleged extravagance where it rightfully belonged.

Of the congressional contests the hottest was that against John Dalzell, one of the Republican floor leaders. Dalzell was opposed by Dr. R. J. Black, who was nominated by the Fusionists because it was thought he would be popular with the labor unions, which are strong in this district.

There were contests against Congressman Acheson in the Washington district; Olmsted in the Dauphin district; Lefean in the York district; Lilly in the Bradford district, and Dale in the Lackawanna district. Thomas D. Nichols, district president of the United Mine Workers, was the Democratic nominee and was elected over Dale. Deemer was defeated by William B. Wilson, D., national secretary and treasurer of the Mine Workers. John Mitchell, president of the United Mine Workers, made speeches for Nichols and Wilson in their districts.

The state senators who were elected will serve in the next two regular sessions of the legislature, and will vote for a United States senator in the session of 1909, when a successor to Boies Penrose will be chosen. The state was apportioned by the legislature at the extra session, and Tuesday's election was the first under the new apportionment.

State Senators Elected.

- The following state senators were elected:
2d district—John M. Scott, R.
6th—F. S. McIlhenny, F.
8th—John T. Murphy, R.

THE RESULT IN JERSEY

Republicans Control Legislature, Although Democrats Make Gains.

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 7.—The next legislature will be Republican on joint ballot, but both houses will not be Republican. This means the election of a Republican as the successor of United States Senator John F. Dryden. The Democrats elect Leon and Hammill to congress in the Ninth and Tenth districts. The Republicans carry the First, Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Seventh and Eighth districts. The Sixth district is in doubt. This gives the Republicans seven congressmen and the Democrats two, with one in doubt. The Democrats have elected Hincheliff to the state senate from Passaic county. Two of the Passaic assemblymen are Democrats and three are Republicans.

In Essex county the assembly ticket is in some doubt, but with the chances favoring the Democrats. Newark has elected Jacob Hansling, D., mayor. Should the Democrats elect their assembly ticket in Essex it will deprive Mr. Dryden of the support of his home county and man mean the choice of some other Republican to go to the United States senate.

Congressmen Elected in New Jersey are:

- First District—Henry C. Loudenslager, R.
Second—John J. Gardner, R.
Third—Benjamin F. Howell, R.
Fourth—Jra W. Wood, R.
Fifth—Charles W. Fowler, R.
Sixth—George H. Burke, R.
Seventh—Richard W. Parker, R.
Eighth—Henry J. Gotthob, R.
Ninth—Eugent W. Leake, D.
Tenth—James A. Hamill, D.
The state senators elected in New Jersey are:
Burlington county—Samuel K. Robbins, R.
Cape May county—Robt. E. Hand, R.
Hunterdon county—William C. Gebhardt, D.
Middlesex county—W. H. C. Jackson, R.
Passaic county—John Hincheliff, D.
Sussex county—Jacob C. Price, D.
*Replaces a Republican.
Hold-over senators—Republican, 13; Democrats 2
Elected—Republicans, 3; Democrats, 3
Totals—Republicans, 16; Democrats, 5.
Present senate—Republicans, 17; Democrats, 4.

REPUBLICANS CARRY DELAWARE

Elected Congressman and Will Control the Legislature.

Wilmington, Del., Nov. 7.—Delaware went Republican by a majority of 2500. Congressman Hiram R. Burton, R., of Lewes, is re-elected over ex-Judge David T. Marvel, D., of Wilmington.

State Treasurer Thomas N. Rawlins, R., of Seaford, is re-elected over Robert H. Wilson, D., of Dover.

Thomas C. Roe, R., of Dover, is elected auditor of accounts over Kendall M. Wiley, D., of Bridgeville.

The Republicans will also control the next legislature that will elect a successor to United States Senator Allee, R. It is probable the Republicans will have a two-thirds majority in the house.

State Senator Sparks, R., was re-elected in Wilmington over Democratic State Chairman Bayard and Bradley, U. P. The separate Union Republican (Addicks) ticket in New Castle county ran poorly. It is estimated its vote will not exceed 300.

WEST VIRGINIA REPUBLICAN

Elect All Congressmen and Assure Re-Election of U. S. Senator Elkins.

Wheeling, W. Va., Nov. 7.—Returns from counties in West Virginia show the success of all five of the Republican congressional nominees by the following pluralities:

- Hubbard, R., First district, 3000.
Sturgis, R., Second, 1500.
Gaines, R., 2500 to 4000.
Woodyard, R., 2000.
Hughes, R., Fifth, 3000.
The legislature will be Republican with the present joint ballot majority of 87, insuring the re-election of Senator S. B. Elkins.

News First at Centre Hall.

The election news from over the county and state was received at The Reporter office Tuesday night. The first authentic news of Stuart's election was received direct from Lincoln headquarters, Philadelphia, about eleven o'clock over the Bell lines. At that time the Lincoln party managers conceded Stuart's election.

In a previous call to Walnut 750, the North American bureau of information, incomplete returns were obtained from this state and New York.

The Borough

The election in the borough was exceptionally quiet, there was not the least contention. Those who voted did so and returned to their homes or to their work, and very few were anxious as to the result. A very light vote was polled—Republican, 24; Democratic, 73; Commonwealth, 1; Lincoln, 7; Prohibition, 6.

A Good Lintment.

When you need a good reliable lintment try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It has no superior for pains and swellings. A piece of flannel slightly dampened with Pain Balm is superior to a plaster for lame back or pains in side and chest. It also relieves rheumatic pains and makes sleep and rest possible. For sale by

LOCALS.

It's all over now.
On account of county institute there will be no school next week.
Miss Caroline McCloskey, of Potters Mills, called at the Reporter office Saturday.

The farmers did not stand by Farmer Cressy. He barely held his own in Centre county.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Dunkle today (Thursday) leave for Elmira, N. Y., where they will remain for the winter with their daughter.

The marriage of Daniel Koch, of Sunbury, and Miss Mabel Moyer, of Millheim, will take place Thursday of next week, eleven o'clock.

The Reporter office has no information concerning an excursion to Harrisburg Saturday. Heretofore notice of these excursions was sent to the Reporter for publication.

The McNitt-Huyett Lumber Company completed sawing the timber on the Houston tract, east of Centre Hall. The mill may be removed to Unionville, nothing definite.

Tuesday was a beautiful day. It was the kind of a day the average Democrat is busy laboring. While he was busy, he should have gone to the polls, and had he so done, the result in Pennsylvania's doubtless would have been different.

A Reliable Remedy for Croup.

Mrs. S. Rosenthal, of Turner, Michigan, says: "We have used Chamberlain's Cough Medicine for ourselves and children for several years and like it very much.
