

CRISIS OF GIRLHOOD

A TIME OF PAIN AND PERIL

Miss Emma Cole Says that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has Saved Her Life and Made Her Well.

How many lives of beautiful young girls have been sacrificed just as they were ripening into womanhood! How many irregularities or displacements have been developed at this important period, resulting in years of suffering!

A mother should come to her child's aid at this critical time and remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will prepare the system for the coming change and start this trying period in a young girl's life without pain or irregularities.

Miss Emma Cole of Tullahoma, Tenn., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham: "I want to tell you that I am enjoying better health than I have for years, and I owe it all to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

"When fourteen years of age I suffered almost constant pain, and for two or three years I had soreness and pain in my side, headaches and was dizzy and nervous, and doctors all failed to help me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended, and after taking it my health began to improve rapidly, and I think it saved my life. I sincerely hope my experience will be a help to other girls who are passing through girlhood to womanhood, for I know your Compound will do as much for them."

If you know of any young girl who is sick and needs motherly advice ask her to write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., and she will receive free advice which will put her on the right road to a strong, healthy and happy womanhood. Mrs. Pinkham is daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham and for twenty-five years has been advising sick women free of charge.

"Bewhiskered Pete" Dead.

Pete, a bewhiskered goat, known to nearly everybody in the district around Sixty-fourth Street and Amsterdam Avenue, died Thursday of over-exertion while acting as part of the Juvenile Fire Department, an organization composed of volunteer children, one unwilling goat and a cart. The report had it that he was close to 22 years of age. He belonged to George Forns. In his youth Pete worked in Central Park, where he was born. He was one of the goats whose duty it was to draw a fancy cart up and down the Mall at a nickel a draw. Eventually Pete was sold and taken over to the neighborhood where most of the patrons of his park days lived. There they made Pete the official fire horse. He was harnessed up to a cart and driven madly to imaginary fires. Thursday Pete was tucked out after an especially stubborn morning blaze which required four alarms, and was hardly able to work when another alarm was rung in from the most thickly populated part of the district. But he was hustled out at a terrific rate. On Sixty-third Street, near West End Avenue, he fell gasping and soon died.

Took A Patriotic Swim.

There was a lot of excitement on the new Russian steamer Petersburg when she arrived at Quarantine. As the Staten Island shore drew near Harry Besfallen, a stowaway from Rotterdam, rushed up on deck, yelled, "Hurrah! America!" Jumped over the ship's side, and tried to swim ashore. The chief officer ordered a boat in pursuit, but before it reached Besfallen he was overhauled and captured by the Quarantine boat.

When hauled on deck and questioned by the custom officers, the stowaway, who says he is an American, said that the sight of the land was too much for his nerves after a long sojourn in Europe, and he felt he must go ashore at once or go crazy.

Fought With Mirrors.

The poolroom signal men, perched in their high tower outside the Aqueduct race track, retaliated Thursday on the race track police, who for several days have been flashing sunlight reflected from a mirror in the eyes of those in the tower to hamper them in their work of collecting news of the races. The poolroom men used mirrors to throw light into the faces of the police, and early in the afternoon there was a lively exchange of flashes and much annoyance on both sides. The poolroom men had little the better of the conflict. The policemen gave up their scheme of flashing light after the second race, as it suggested that the results might be dangerous to the horses in the races. When the police mirrors went out of action the poolroom men promptly retired their light flashing apparatus.

To Widen Fifth Avenue.

Justice O'Gorman, sitting in the Special Term of the Supreme Court, handed down a decision Friday deciding that the Knickerbocker Trust Company must cut off the entire front of its building at Fifth Avenue and Thirty-fourth Street, because that portion of the structure encroaches over the stoop line. As soon as the decision was handed down Corporation Counsel Ellison announced that he would at once serve notice on all property owners between Twenty-eighth and Fifty-ninth Streets whose property encroaches on or over the stoop line. The city has a plan to widen the avenue from Twenty-third Street to Central Park, and needs every inch it is entitled to.

Pencils Are Higher Now.

Lead pencils are among the latest articles to be advanced in price. The wholesale rate on all pencils costing $3.50 or less a gross has gone up, according to announcements now being sent to stationers by domestic manufacturers, from 5 to 25 cents a gross. New price lists on some lines of foreign pencils are also being sent to dealers.

The reason advanced is the higher cost of labor and material. It is supposed that the retail prices of some grades of pencils will soon go up, for dealers have declared for some time that the profit is too small.

Gunners Destroy Property.

Nearly 1,000 hunters participated in the opening day's deer shooting on Long Island. About 40 deer were killed. Several persons sustained shot wounds through the reckless firing on the grounds beyond the Oakdale district, many of the hunters being posted only a few feet apart. The destruction of property was considerable, and public sentiment may result in a permanent close season for the game being enforced.

Deer Swims Across Sound.

Driven from Long Island by hunters and dogs, a large deer swam across Long Island Sound and landed on the Connecticut shore at Wilson Point. It had a swim of from eight to fifteen miles. There have been reports of similar feats, but this is of these rumors has been verified. This deer was seen as he was approaching the Connecticut shore by the crew of the oyster steamer Rowland. The boat passed close to the deer.

For A Mono-Rail Road.

A high-speed elevated mono-rail rapid-transit road may be built in this city in a comparatively short time. At a hearing held by the committee on plans of the Rapid Transit Commission advocates of the Behr mono-rail system made a strong showing, and the members of the committee not only displayed interest in the proposal, but gave evidence of being inclined to favor the building of the road. Should the plan be adopted, New York will have the first mono-rail to be built and operated in the United States.

COMMERCIAL COLUMN.

Weekly Review of Trade and Latest Market Reports.

New York.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says:

Business experienced the customary interruption during election week, but a more permanent retarding influence was the inadequate supply of freight cars and labor. Many industries are severely handicapped by traffic delays. In other cases there is idle machinery because hands cannot be secured despite the high wages offered. This difficulty threatens to reduce the lumber cut materially. Several strikes are threatened, and one railway system alone has advanced wages to the extent of a million dollars monthly. Retail trade is well maintained by lower temperature in some sections of the country, and the full employment of labor at all points, while wholesale business in holiday goods is very heavy.

Less interest is shown in the primary market for cotton goods, although there is a fair volume of business in progress. The persistent reaction in raw materials has had influence at last, buyers now believing that concessions must follow a period of indifference on their part.

Interrupted movement of grain to primary markets and the consequent restriction of foreign business as well as activity of Northwestern flour mills checked the upward tendency of quotations and caused some reaction.

Liabilities of commercial failures thus far reported for November amounted to $1,221,132, of which $537,780 was in manufacturing, $672,537 in trading and $10,815 in other commercial lines.

WORTH REMEMBERING

More than two million sheep are eaten in Paris in a year. The late Premier Seddon, of New Zealand, left an estate of about $50,000. Slates are no longer used in London schools. The exercises are written on washable paper with lead pencils. Through the munificence of the widow of a New York capitalist, the means has been supplied for the establishing of a magazine printed in blind point type.

WHAT JOY THEY BRING TO EVERY HOME

as with joyous hearts and smiling faces they romp and play—when in health—and how conducive to health the games in which they indulge, the outdoor life they enjoy, the cleanly, regular habits they should be taught to form and the wholesome diet of which they should partake. How tenderly their health should be preserved, not by constant medication, but by careful avoidance of every medicine of an injurious or objectionable nature, and if at any time a remedial agent is required, to assist nature, only those of known excellence should be used; remedies which are pure and wholesome and truly beneficial in effect, like the pleasant laxative remedy, Syrup of Figs, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. Syrup of Figs has come into general favor in many millions of well informed families, whose estimate of its quality and excellence is based upon personal knowledge and use.

Syrup of Figs has also met with the approval of physicians generally, because they know it is wholesome, simple and gentle in its action. We inform all reputable physicians as to the medicinal principles of Syrup of Figs, obtained by an original method, from certain plants known to them to act most beneficially and presented in an agreeable syrup in which the wholesome Californian blue figs are used to promote the pleasant taste; therefore it is not a secret remedy and hence we are free to refer to all well informed physicians, who do not approve of patent medicines and never favor indiscriminate self-medication.

Please to remember and teach your children also that the genuine Syrup of Figs always has the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—plainly printed on the front of every package and that it is for sale in bottles of one size only. If any dealer offers any other than the regular Fifty cent size, or having printed thereon the name of any other company, do not accept it. If you fail to get the genuine you will not get its beneficial effects. Every family should always have a bottle on hand, as it is equally beneficial for the parent's and the children whenever a laxative remedy is required.

A Theatrical Superstition.

They were rehearsing a new play and everyone was nervous, for the first night was close at hand. The play was a tragedy, yet at its end the dying heroine, as the curtain descended, said: "Three beers, please."

Those words concluded the play. Yet they were entirely out of keeping. The concluding words should have been: "I die, but since I have saved you I die happy," or something to that effect.

A dramatic critic new to the business asked how it was that the tragedy ended with "Three beers, please," and the stage manager said: "Superstition. It is always thought bad luck in rehearsals of a new play to speak the last sentence before the opening night. He who has the last sentence to speak substitutes some meaningless phrase for it. If he dared to speak the true phrase the prospects of the play would be thought doomed."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Feats In Bricklaying.

In the erection of the House of Representatives office building, adjacent to the United States Capitol at Washington, an interesting fact has developed in connection with brick masonry work. The first brick was laid at the site on the afternoon of July 5, 1906, and on July 3, 1906, there had been laid in the walls 11,000,000 brick. This is believed to be the greatest number of brick laid on any building in one year in the United States, and probably in the world. One of the causes conducting to this record-breaking feat was the remarkably "open" winter of 1905-'06. In those winter months the work continued almost without interruption from either snow or cold, and not more than twelve or fifteen days were lost during the entire winter by reason of weather conditions.—Scientific American.
