LOCALS.

Read Rossman's Spring Mills store adv. If you don't you'll be sorry.

Miss Ethel Sechrist will spend the Christmas season at Howard.

G. R. Meiss will make sale of farm stock the second week in March. The date will appear later.

Evangelical appointments—Centre Hall, morning; Egg Hill, afternoon; Tusseyville, evening.

H. B. Haugh, of near Penns Cave, was a caller Tuesday, and advertises a fine pair of bay horses for sale. See ad.

Miss Jane Slabig and Mrs. Daniel Calahan were callers Wednesday. The former who had been at Potters Mills during the past year, will go to Milroy to live after the first of the year.

John G. Dauberman will make sale of horses, cows, hogs, implements, hay and corn fodder on the Hoffer farm, on Nittany Mountain, December 31st. See sale register and posters.

Mrs. Minerva Fortney, of Harrisburg, was in Penns Valley on a visit to friends and relatives. She has been in delicate health, and has been spending considerable time away from her home.

M. C. Gephart, the Bellefonte music dealer, makes an announcement in the Reporter this week. It is worth the reading by every subscriber of the Reporter who is interested in musical instruments.

Mr. and Mrs. James Spicher, of Cresson, accompanied by their children, were the guests of the former's father, John Spicher, for several days. Mr. Spicher, who is an engineer on the Pennsy was on a short leave of absence.

Al Krabe purchased a team of horses recently. He will begin farming in the Spring, and is gradually buying up stock and implements for that purpose. He will till the land of his father-in-law, George Durst, but will remain a resident of Centre Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. James C. Goodhart will spend Christmas week at York and Hellam, the latter place being the home of Mrs. Goodhart's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Lee. Mr. and Mrs. Clyde A. Boyer, of Milton, will accompany them. Mrs. Boyer is a sister of Mrs. Goodhart.

Rev. S. L. Boston, of Pittsburg, has consented to accept a recent offer of the Presbytery of Huntingdon to devote his time to evangelistic work in the bounds of the Presbytery. He will enter upon his work January 1st, 1907, and expects to make Bellefonte his headquarters.

Albert Kettler, brother of H. M. Kettler, proprietor of the St. Cloud hotel, lies at the Lock Haven hospital, suffering from a self-inflicted pistol shot wound in the abdomen, which though not necessarily fatal, is serious enough to cause apprehension. There were domestic troubles.

Harry M. Hughes, the enterprising young coal operator, has become associated with some eastern capitalists in effecting an organized company with a view of sinking a shaft and developing eight hundred acres of coal land on Mapleton branch, No. 2, about two miles southwest of Phillipsburg.

George Sharer while driving along the Spring Mills pike in the vicinity of Nathaniel Zeigler's, the other Sunday night, had a wreck. He was accompanied by two young ladies, both of whom were dumped from the buggy. A few abrasions of the skin on the ladies' faces was the extent of the injury done to the young people.

Rev. McLain W. Davis, pastor of a Salt Lake City (Utah) Presbyterian church, has resigned his pastorate and accepted a new field at Greenriver, Utah. On retiring from the city, his congregation presented him with a handsome piece of silverware. Rev. Davis some years ago supplied the Sinking Creek Presbyterian congregation.

S. Paul Dinges, of Williamsport, was in town the beginning of this week. Since the first of November he has been secretary of the Underwriters' Association of the Middle Department, and is at the head of the office for Centre, Clinton and Lycoming counties. All fire insurance policies written by the large companies on properties in the counties named pass through the office of which Mr. Dinges is the head.

Rev. C. W. Rishel, well known in this neighborhood, having at one time been pastor of the M. E. church at Munson and Woodland, and who has been located at Elysburg for the past two or three years, on account of failing health has been obliged to retire from the active work of the ministry, and with his family moved to Williamsport. His work is being filled by Rev. John Shaffer, formerly of the Bakerton charge.

Institute at Boalsburg.
The second district will hold a teachers' local institute in Boalsburg, Boal's Hall, Saturday, January 5th. The names appearing on the program and the general reputation of Boalsburg for having good things is a guarantee that this institute will be one of special interest.

School Report.
Report of Shingletown school, H. W. Lonberger, teacher, for November: Scholars present every day during month—Miles Thomas, Roland and Rosy Breen, Chester and Anna Schenck, Edgar Hess, Edward and Stella Sones, Edwin and Mary Lohr, Edna and Anna Leech, Maggie and Clara Smith, Ruth Koch, Hilda, Mary and Ruth Gearhart. Per cent. of attendance, boys, 98; girls, 98; average, 98. The highest average in the monthly report was made by Winnie Thomas and was 98.

Fire Company Meets.
The Centre Hall fire company held a special meeting Monday night to elect officers. Fire Marshal Brisbin was re-elected, as were also President W. Frank Bradford, Secretary Rowe, Treasurer Wilson, and trustees Boozer, Puff and Lutz.

With prospects for additional equipment and a suitable place for caring for and housing the same, the fire-fighters exhibited considerable enthusiasm.

Christmas at Colyer.

G. R. Meiss, the Wanamaker at Colyer, has stocked up for the Christmas season, and is anticipating a big day's business on the 25th of this month. The store will be open during the entire day and evening. He is offering a fine line of the choicest candies and fruits, Christmas toys, etc. Also the best grade of oysters on the market. Give Mr. Meiss a call before you have finished your Christmas shopping.

Notice.

The services at the west end of the Penns Valley charge, M. E. church, next Sunday will be as follows: Centre Hall, 10:30; Sprucetown, 2:30; Spring Mills, 7:30. After the services at each of the appointments the Sunday School Board will meet to hold an election of officers for the several schools for the ensuing year. The pastor, Rev. G. W. McInay, requests a full Board.

Working for Church Fund.

The ladies of the State College Lutheran church will hold an exchange, Friday afternoon and evening, December 21, at the Muser House, corner of Beaver avenue and Frazer street. Bread, pies, cake and ice cream, also fancy articles—useful and ornamental—will be on sale. Exchange opens at 2:30 p. m. Proceeds for the new Lutheran church fund.

Pinned to the Earth.

John Mayes, of Mackeyville, was pinned to the earth by a falling tree which he had cut, and lay there for several hours when he was accidentally discovered. When found he was unconscious, but on being taken to the home of his father, James Moyer, he partially revived. His injuries are severe, and he is not likely to recover.

Buying Sevens.

There has been a brisk demand for sevens at the Reporter office during the past week. The supply, however, is fully up to the demand. The Reporter readers are kindly asked to look at their labels and observe which of the numerals indicate their credit.

P. S.—We cordially invite you to call and hear the wonderful Player Piano, which is a musical treat to everyone. Whether you buy or not we invite you to call at our store and see our extraordinary display this week.

For any of the ordinary diseases of the skin Chamberlain's Salve is excellent. It not only allays the itching and smarting but effects a cure. For sale by

The Star Store, Centre Hall; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; C. W. Swartz, Tusseyville.

The man who can't stand prosperity doesn't have to try very long.

It Sounds Paradoxical

and it is, because it's true that you or any other man cannot afford to be poorly dressed. To do so is not making a good use of your capital, for that is what your personal appearance means to you.

To make the best of your capital—to be well dressed without going to a high-priced custom-tailor—to have all the advantages that go with good clothes, the power, the influence, the pleasures that are the possessions of a well-dressed man, there is but one thing to do: Make your selections from our stock of Kuppenheimer Clothes.

Kuppenheimer Clothes have all the style, the fine workmanship and individuality, the fit and quality which characterize the product of the metropolitan tailor who charges fifty, sixty, or seventy-five dollars for a Suit or Overcoat. You have probably seen them advertised in all the leading magazines.
