Spring Mills.

The holidays were unusually lively here. Everybody seemed gay and happy the entire week. The only sufferers were the turkeys. Many people entertained quite largely; dinner parties were numerous. Dr. Braucht, D. M. McCool and T. M. Gramley entertained a large number of friends at dinner on Christmas. The young people had musicals in the afternoon and evening. That prince of hospitality, C. P. Long, also entertained a very large company at dinner the previous Sunday. The Reformed was the only Sunday school that had an entertainment. All the little people did well; the singing was excellent, and the occasion proved a very interesting one. Of course, all the scholars of the different schools received their usual gift of oranges and candies.

Daniel, Stephen and Robert Kennelley, who are employed at Burnham, spent Christmas with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Kennelley. Ivy Bartges, also engaged at Burnham, spent the holidays here, the guest of his brother, C. C. Bartges.

Why are not the schools here closed the entire week, like they are in every little hamlet and town elsewhere? There are no holidays here; it's one day. Are our teachers afraid of the week they must serve at the close of the regular term?

Mrs. W. T. Steely and step-daughter, Miss Bertha, of Sunbury, were here last week, visiting the former's sister, Mrs. C. C. Cummings.

Mrs. W. R. Donachy and son Benjamin, of Lewisburg, spent the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Herring.

The merchants here all report a very satisfactory business during the holidays. Money seemed more plentiful than usual, and everybody bought very freely.

New Years day the fanatics were out in full force, attired in the most ridiculous costumes imaginable; some on foot, some in old buggies and dilapidated wagons that would hardly hold together, and drawn by horses that were almost skeletons. The great wonder is where they came from. Music was furnished by tin horns, old buckets and tin cans. Of course, they caused considerable amusement and laughter wherever they appeared.

John Roseman, a student at Franklin & Marshall college, Lancaster, spent the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Roseman.

Dr. H. S. Braucht, after being confined to his bed for a week or more, has so far recovered that he is now able to attend to his numerous patients. The doctor had rather a serious time, owing to rheumatism in both knees, and could neither walk nor stand.

Considerable sledding was done here within the last ten days, and sleighing parties were quite numerous, but the sudden thaw last of the week ended it. Excellent ice was secured during the recent cold snap, and a number of ice houses are well stocked and ready for the hot days of summer.

LOCALS.

Mrs. Deratine and Marguerite, wife and daughter of Rev. M. S. Deratine, last week were in Centre Hall the guests of Mrs. Sarah Deratine.

Mrs. W. J. Mitterling and daughter Miss Anna, visited the family of Daniel Albright, the implement manufacturer, at Millinburg, also other relatives in Union county.

A New Year dinner was served at the Old Fort Hotel. The menu was quite elaborate, and nearly forty persons sat at the tables. The dinner as well as the social feature was much enjoyed by all the participants.

While crossing the Seven Mountains recently George W. Bradford experienced a severe bleeding of the nose. Dr. Kohler, at Milroy, gave him treatment, and happily there were no serious results. Thirty years ago Mr. Bradford had a similar experience.

McClure's for January opens the New Year with an astonishingly good number, distinguished, as usual, by the clean-cut, vigorous tone of its articles, and by fiction of marked excellence. "Mary Baker G. Eddy: the Story of Her Life, and the History of Christian Science," opens its first installment in a manner that practically insures the success of the serial with the American public.

P. Bliss Meyer, of Bowling Green, Virginia, was a visitor in Centre Hall Friday of last week, having come up to Pennsylvania to take back with him his wife who has been at her former home at Linden Hall for the past few weeks. Mr. Meyer is a son of Henry Meyer, also of Bowling Green, and is engaged in the lumber business. He devotes part of his time to farming his own acres, having a fine farm and buildings.

Harris Township.

Mrs. William Markle, of Lucas, Kansas, returned to her home after a pleasant sojourn of several months among friends in this state.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Woods, of Philadelphia, spent Christmas in Boalsburg. Miss Margaret Goheen was home from Phillipsburg for the Christmas vacation.

George Mothersbaugh visited in Altoona.

H. M. Hosterman and family spent Christmas in Huntingdon.

J. M. Wieland and daughters, Ruth and Leona, attended the silver wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Morrow, in Sinking Valley.

Many choice and useful gifts were received during the holidays, but the most valuable one was a bright little boy who came to the Wm. Mothersbaugh home, at the Blue Spring, a few days after Christmas. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Wasson, of College township, fared equally as well, a little daughter being added to their household on Christmas day; the first girl in the family.

Mrs. Alfred Lee entertained some friends Friday evening.

Mrs. J. W. Miller entertained a company of friends at dinner on Christmas.

A number of the young people enjoyed the Christmas service in the Reformed church at Centre Hall, Sunday evening.

The Odd Fellows will have their annual banquet in their hall at Boalsburg, Tuesday evening, 15th inst.

Linden Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Bliss Meyer after a stay of several weeks at the J. M. Ross home, left for their home in Bowling Green, Virginia, Monday. They will stop at Altoona for a few days. Miss Anna Ross accompanied them and will spend the remainder of the winter with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Gingerich entertained a number of friends at dinner on Christmas. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. James Ross, sons Samuel and John, Mr. and Mrs. Will Houser, Mrs. Henry Houtz, Elmer Houtz, wife and children, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cunningham.

Miss Ella Ross returned from a visit among friends in Altoona.

J. H. Weibly is wearing a broad smile since the arrival of his first granddaughter, at the Shreck home.

Prof. S. C. Miller, wife and little son Russell spent Sunday with relatives here. They were returning to their home in Chester.

Miss Maude Miller, of Rock Springs, visited her sister a few days this week, before returning to her studies at the West Chester Normal.

Robert Glasgow, a brakeman on the middle division, from Altoona to Harrisburg, spent the holidays with his family, at Tusseyville.

Mrs. Harris Stover and daughter Maybelle spent a few days with the former's grandmother, Mrs. Mollie Miller, last week.

Mrs. Minerva Fortney, of Harrisburg, visited friends here last week, on her return from a visit to her daughter Grace, in Buffalo, N. Y.

Mrs. James Gilliland is suffering from an attack of quinsy.

Misses Mary and Lizzie McCracken were guests of Mrs. Elmer Campbell over Christmas.

James Raymond is a new subscriber to the Bell telephone.

Wm. Raymond and family will move from Millmont to the Meyer farm, now occupied by John Strouse.

Among the guests at a dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. James Ross recently were Rev. and Mrs. Black, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. Bliss Meyer and Miss Bessie Searson.

One dollar and sixty-five cents will pay for the Thrice-a-Week New York World and the Centre Reporter one year.

Meeting of Telephone Company.
The Central Company of the Patrons Rural Telephone Company will meet at the Garman House, Bellefonte, Tuesday, January 8, 10 o'clock. All directors are requested to be present. The meeting is also open to all stockholders in Branch companies.

Why Suffer from Rheumatism?
Do you know that rheumatic pains can be relieved? If you doubt this just try one application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It will make rest and sleep possible, and that certainly means a great deal to any one afflicted with rheumatism. For sale by The Star Store, Centre Hall; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; C. W. Swartz, Tusseyville.

The Legislature is in session.

DEATHS.

WILLIAM CONDO.

One of the most elderly citizens of Aaronsburg, William Condo, died Friday evening, December 21, after a brief illness. Interment was made at Aaronsburg, Rev. B. R. M. Sheeder officiating. His age was eighty-one years, eleven months, thirteen days. He is survived by a widow, nee Mary Bower.

Mr. Condo was a son of Joseph Condo, a native of Aaronsburg, who afterward located at Madisonburg, and later in Sugar Valley. The family consisted of the following brothers and sisters, but three of whom survive: John, George and Charles, Indiana; Polly (Mrs. John S. Homan), Aaronsburg; Sarah (Mrs. Jonathan Spangler, living), Rebersburg; Mary C. (Mrs. Jacob Boon, living), Osceola Mills; Jacob and Israel, Boalsburg; Robert, living, Boalsburg.

Upon his marriage, or shortly thereafter, Mr. and Mrs. Condo located at Aaronsburg, erected a dwelling house, which they continuously occupied for a period of fifty-three years. By occupation the deceased was a cabinet maker, but retired from active work a number of years ago.

Mr. Condo's death was due to paralysis, he having been stricken by that disease about two weeks prior to his death.

DAVID BURRELL.

David Burrell, one of the highly esteemed citizens of Gregg township, and an old veteran, died suddenly Wednesday, 26th ult., aged sixty-eight years. Mr. Burrell had been in ill health for several years, yet was able to be up and around almost daily. While feeding chickens he was suddenly stricken by a paralytic stroke. He was immediately removed to the house, and died in a few moments, not having regained consciousness.

He is survived by a wife, nee Susan Kennelly, and two daughters, Miss Louisa, Mrs. Maggie Ruhl, and three grand children; also one brother, Gregg Burrell, near Penn Hall. Funeral the following Friday, services being held at his late residence. Interment in Spring Mills cemetery. Rev. McInay officiated, assisted by Rev. Snyder and Dr. D. M. Wolf. The K. G. E. had charge of the services at the cemetery and were assisted by the Grand Army Post.

Deceased was a member of Company F, 148th Regiment.

MRS. JOSEPH HETTINGER.

The death of Mrs. Mary, wife of Joseph Hettinger, occurred at the home of her son, Walker Shutt, at Linden Hall, Monday afternoon, from cancer. Surviving her are her husband, son and two daughters, Mrs. Della Isenberg and Mrs. Samantha Treasler, Bellefonte; also the following brothers and sisters: Isaac Walker, Spring Mills; Miles, Bellefonte; Stine and Levi Walker, Pine Grove Mills; Mrs. Henry Meyer, Virginia, and Dr. Clara Walker, Baltimore, Md.

Deceased was aged about sixty-five years. Interment in Boalsburg cemetery this (Thursday) morning.

DAVID ROTHROCK.

David Rothrock, a well known citizen of Benner township, died Thursday evening, December 20, at his home near Fillmore, after an illness of almost a year. His death was due to the infirmities incident to old age. He was seventy-five years of age and is survived by his wife, four sons and one daughter. He was a successful farmer, an active Republican and held many township offices including that of Justice of the Peace in Benner township. He was a member of the Methodist church and a highly respected christian gentleman.

MRS. PERRY MCKINNEY.

After suffering a number of years from cancer, Mrs. Perry McKinney died at her home at Potters Mills, Saturday 22. Interment was made at Sprucetown, Rev. G. W. McInay, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church of which the deceased was a member, officiating. Her age was fifty-nine years, six months, twelve days.

Mrs. McKinney's maiden name was Mary Celia Vogt. She is survived by her husband and two sons—William, at home, and Clayton, of Altoona.

SAMUEL JOHNSON.

At the age of thirty-five years Samuel Johnson died at Potters Mills, Saturday, December 22, at the home of Thomas Decker. Interment was made at Sprucetown. He was born and raised at Potters Mills. His parents died some years ago. The cause of his death was consumption.

NEWLIN H. IRWIN.

December 20, Newlin H. Irwin died at his home in Bellefonte. Death was due to diphtheria. Formerly Mr. Irwin was employed in the First National Bank, but two months ago he began operating the Ardel lumber plant. He was a son of Robert Irwin.

OTHER DEATHS.

More extended notices of the following deaths will appear later:
Mrs. Joseph Gramley, Rebersburg.
Miss Lizzie Burkholder, Centre Hill.
Sammel Garis, Reedsville.
Mrs. John C. Rowe, Bellefonte.
Mrs. T. W. Kreamer, Renovo.

Christmas Service.

The Christmas service in the Reformed church, Centre Hall, was very appropriate and well rendered. This may especially be said of the many little children who took an active part. The singing of choruses, anthems, etc., was materially aided by a number of persons from Boalsburg, among them being Misses Della Ishler, Bessie Searson, Beulah Fortney, Messrs. Cal. P. Wieland, Albert Giegerich, Charles Mothersbaugh, Clyde Wieland, Marian Meyer; G. H. Emerick, Centre Hall.

Christmas Service at Penn Hall.

Christmas night the Salem Reformed Sunday school, of Penn Hall, held their annual Christmas service. It was a success financially and otherwise. The collection was $32.35.

The most pleasing features of the well rendered program were a recitation by Miss Ella V. Condo, and singing by a male quartet, composed of Messrs. Charles W. Fisher, Frank M. Fisher, J. S. Meyer and H. N. Meyer.

From Illinois.

Mrs. B. F. Brown, of Lockport, Illinois, in a recent note to the Reporter, said: "We have had no snow to speak of, and no cold weather. By the way, let me say a good word for Dr. G. W. Hosterman of your town. I have been wearing a set of teeth made by him ever since 1882, and they are yet giving perfect satisfaction."

Sociable at the Manse.

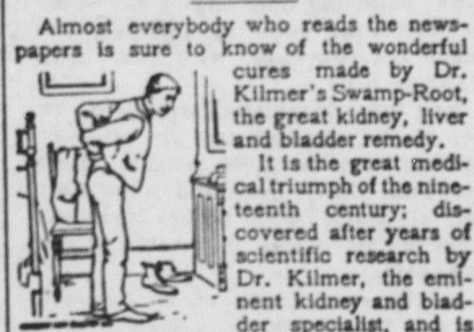

The members of the Presbyterian church combined a sociable at the Manse Monday evening. Some one, while no one was looking, appropriated a large cake, and it is presumed divided it among the boys on the outside.

The Dale Murder Case.

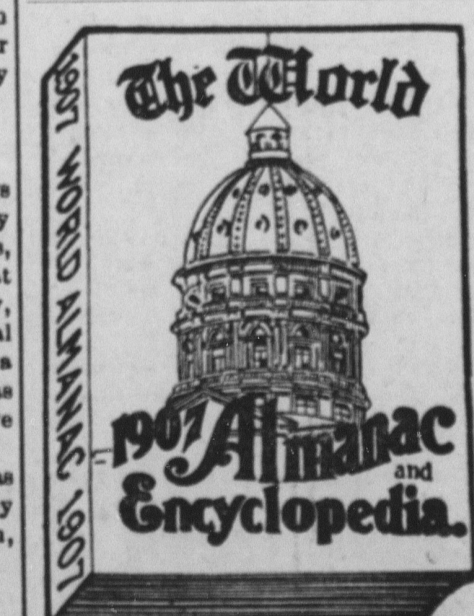

There is nothing new in the Dale murder case. The detectives have been in Philadelphia during the past week, but stated they would return, and were certain of being able to arrest the murderer of Mr. Dale.

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century, discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, kidney, bladder, uric acid troubles and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work, in private practice, among the helpless too poor to purchase relief and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty cent and Home of Swamp-Root dollar sizes are sold by all good druggists. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a Safe Medicine for Children.

In buying medicine for children never be afraid to buy Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. There is no danger from it, and relief is always sure to follow. It is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough, and there is no better medicine in the world for these diseases. It is not only a sure cure for croup, but, when given as soon as the croupy cough appears, will prevent the attack. Whooping cough is not dangerous when this remedy is given as directed. It contains no opium or other harmful drugs, and may be given as confidentially to a baby as to an adult. For sale by The Star Store, Centre Hall; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; C. W. Swartz, Tusseyville.

Miller-Armbruster.

Arthur Miller, of Bellefonte, and Miss Rosie Armbruster, of Farmers Mills, were married at the Lutheran parsonage, Centre Hall, by Rev. J. M. Rearick, Wednesday, December 27. The bride is a daughter of the late George Armbruster, and is favorably known to many of the Reporter readers. The young couple will make their home in Erie, where a home is already furnished, and at which place the groom holds a good position.

It takes a certain amount of head-work even to raise cabbages.

It Sounds Paradoxical

and it is, because it's true that you or any other man cannot afford to be poorly dressed. To do so is not making a good use of your capital, for that is what your personal appearance means to you.

To make the best of your capital—to be well dressed without going to a high-priced custom-tailor—to have all the advantages that go with good clothes, the power, the influence, the pleasures that are the possessions of a well-dressed man, there is but one thing to do: Make your selections from our stock of Kuppenheimer Clothes.

Kuppenheimer Clothes have all the style, the fine workmanship and individuality, the fit and quality which characterize the product of the metropolitan tailor who charges fifty, sixty, or seventy-five dollars for a Suit or Overcoat. You have probably seen them advertised in all the leading magazines.
