

BLOATED WITH DROPSY.

The Heart Was Badly Affected When the Patient Began Using Doan's Kidney Pills.

Mrs. Elizabeth Maxwell, of 415 West Fourth St., Olympia, Wash., says: "For over three years I suffered with a dropsical condition without being aware that it was due to kidney trouble. The early stages were principally backache and bearing down pain, but I went along without worrying much until dropsy set in. My feet and ankles swelled up, my hands puffed and became so tense I could hardly close them. I had great difficulty in breathing, and my heart would flutter with the least exertion. I could not walk far without stopping again and again to rest. Since using four boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills the bloating has gone down and the feelings of distress have disappeared."

He Knew A Secret. The mother had taken her youngest hope, aged but 3, with her when she went to do certain errands, never thinking that his bright eyes would discover nor his sharp ears hear what she said to the clerks.

That evening at the dinner table the tiny boy's older sister greeted her father wide-eyed. "Daddy," she said, "Santa Claus has my doll. He wanted to do something to it to make it prettier and he came and got it." "Deed he didn't," responded the 3-year-old, blithely; "mamma tooked it to the dolls' hospital to have some turls put on it. I know 'cause I went wid her."

ALMOST A SOLID SORE.

Skin Disease From Birth—Fortune Spent on Her Without Benefit—Doctor Cured Her With Cuticura.

"I have a cousin in Rockingham Co., who once had a skin disease from her birth until she was six years of age. Her father had spent a fortune on her to get her cured and none of the treatments did her any good. Old Dr. G. suggested that he try the Cuticura Remedies, which he did. When he commenced to use it the child was almost in a solid scab. He had used it about two months and the child was well. I was there when they commenced to use your Cuticura Remedies. I stayed that week and then returned home and stayed two weeks and then went back and stayed with them two weeks longer and when I went home I could hardly believe she was the same child. Her skin was as soft as a baby's without a scar on it. I have not seen her in seventeen years, but I have heard from her and the last time I heard from her she was well. Mrs. W. P. "The Blood is The Life." Science has never gone beyond the above simple statement of scripture. But it has illuminated that statement and given it a meaning ever broadening with the increasing breadth of knowledge.

When the blood is "bad" or impure it is not alone the body which suffers through disease. The brain is also clouded, and mind and judgment are affected, and many an evil deed or impure thought may be directly traced to the impurity of the blood. Pure, impure blood can be made pure by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It enriches and purifies the blood, thereby curing, pimples, blotches, eruptions and other cutaneous affections, as eczema, tetter, or salt-rheum, hives and other manifestations of impure blood.

In the cure of scrofulous swellings, enlarged glands, open eating ulcers, or old sores, the "Golden Medical Discovery" has performed the most marvelous cures. In cases of old sores, or open eating ulcers, it is well to apply to the open sores Dr. Pierce's All-Healing Salve, which possesses wonderful healing potency when used as an application to the sores in conjunction with the use of "Golden Medical Discovery" as a blood cleansing constitutional treatment. If your druggist don't happen to have the "All-Healing Salve" in stock, you can easily procure it by enclosing fifty-four cents in postage stamps to Dr. R. V. Pierce, 663 Main St., Buffalo, N. Y., and it will come to you by return post. Most druggists keep it as well as the "Golden Medical Discovery."

You can't afford to accept any medicine of unknown composition as a substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery," which is a medicine of known composition, having a complete list of ingredients in plain English on its bottle-wrapper, the same being attested as correct under oath. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels.

If afflicted with weak eyes, use Thompson's Eye Water.

Weekly Review of Trade and Latest Market Reports.

New York.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says: Christmas week made a favorable comparison with previous years as to the volume of trade. Retailers' stocks of winter goods have been so well distributed that there remain less than the usual assortments for bargain sales. Wholesale business is good for the season and collections show further improvement. Jobbers are delivering spring goods in some lines, adding to the freight congestion, which has not been relieved, except in isolated cases. Manufacturers complain of the light receipts of fuel and raw material, which has reduced activity at many plants, and there is also some interruption because of inventories and repairs. On the whole, however, there is less idle machinery than is customary at this time. Lack of snow greatly facilitated building operations at many cities and work is making rapid progress, although delayed deliveries of materials retard operations in industry also. High prices are maintained in all sections of the iron and steel industry, which is only natural when all departments are crowded with work and contracts run so far into the future that there is no prospect of idle machinery for at least the first half of next year.

Wool goods continue to develop a little faster than worsteds, indicating that the trend has changed, or the larger stocks of the latter were carried over.

Prices for packer hides are firmly maintained and some varieties have risen still higher, an element of strength being the extent to which hides are sold ahead.

Leather is quiet, but more active that is customary at this season, large sales of Union backs being recorded at Boston.

WORTH REMEMBERING

About 1,750,000 acres grow the world's tobacco. The jerboa is the desert rat and is found in the Soudan. The Asiatic ports of Russia are at the present time free of customs duties. Employees in salt works never get cholera, scarlet fever, influenza or colds. The production of copper in the United States in 1905 exceeded 901,000,000 pounds.

Dr. Osler On Diet.

Comparing the human body and the steam engine in a lecture at the Workmen's College, Prof. Osler said that while the engine had only one furnace, and a large one, the human body consisted of myriads of little furnaces—that is, cells. Milk was the original food of man. It contained the four things that were necessary as food—fat, curd, sugar and salt—all dissolved in water. Dr. Weir Mitchell once showed him a robust-looking patient and he remarked, "He looks as if he had been living on the fat of the land." "No," replied Mr. Mitchell, "on the fat of the cow." That patient had a five years' milk diet—except on Sundays, when his wife insisted on rice pudding. If vegetarians would eat their vegetables and say less about it they would do well. Many vegetarians were not as robust mentally as physically.

Alcohol was quite unnecessary. If all the beer and spirits could be dumped into the Irish Channel, the English Channel, and North Sea for a year, people in England would be infinitely better off. "If," he continued, "on the second day you dumped all the tobacco into the sea it would be good for you and hard on the fish."—London News.

A Lucky Cabman.

Paddy O'Connor, go-as-you-please cabbie, who gets a fare at the Waldorf-Astoria when the other cabs are too busy to get it, got a fare last night. He was elected to drive Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stanton, guests at the hotel, to the Princess Theatre, which he did with eclat, and then drove up Broadway as far as Fortieth Street, dropped his wagon pole, and went to sleep.

The cabbie was slumbering peacefully when he was aroused an hour later by two men frantically crying: "Here it is, here it is!" They emerged from the inside of his cab, held up a gold mesh purse studded with diamonds, and astonished Paddy.

"Drive us to the Tenderloin Station," they cried, and Paddy whipped up. When they got to the station they found Mr. and Mrs. Stanton. The gold mesh purse belonged to Mrs. Stanton, the purse being worth $750, not counting the cash inside. Mr. Stanton figured that $25 was not too much reward for Paddy, seeing he hadn't discovered it, Paddy pocketed the reward gratefully, and was followed forth by the two men who woke him up. Paddy was liberal with them, and all three made repoleing.—N. Y. World.

"Pencilaneous."

Representative Gaines, of Tennessee, coined a new word in the House while correcting the Record, in which was printed last Friday's colloquy between himself and Mr. Underwood, of Alabama, regarding the increase in member's salaries. He spoke of some of the changes as "interpolated pencilaneous writing" on the stenographer's copy, and said they gave a wholly different construction of the controversy, and he desired that Mr. Underwood's remarks be given as shown by the stenographer's notes, and not as corrected by him. The members who had rejected the reformed spelling last week had a hearty laugh over the word "pencilaneous," but generally appeared to coincide with Mr. Gaines on the broad proposition that copy must not be changed to the detriment of the other person in the colloquy.—Washington Dispatch.

One of the church in a little Western town is so fortunate as to have a young woman as its pastor. She was called to the door of the parsonage one day and saw there a much embarrassed young farmer of the German type.

"Dee said der minister lifed in dis house," he said. "Yes," replied the fair pastor. "Vell—m—I vant to kit merit!" "To get married? Very well, I can marry you," said the minister encouragingly. "Oh, but I got a girl already," was the disconcerting reply.—Woman's Daily.

NEVER TIRES

Of the Food That Restored Her to Health.

"My food was killing me and I didn't know the cause," writes a Colorado young lady: "For two years I was thin and sickly, suffering from indigestion and inflammatory rheumatism.

"I had tried different kinds of diet, plain living and many of the remedies recommended, but got no better. "Finally, about five weeks ago, mother suggested that I try Grape-Nuts, and I began at once, eating it with a little cream or milk. A change for the better began at once.

"To-day I am well and am gaining weight and strength all the time. I've gained 10 lbs. in the last five weeks, and do not suffer any more from indigestion and the rheumatism is all gone.

"I know it is to Grape-Nuts alone that I owe my restored health. I still eat the food twice a day and never tire of it." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

The flavor of Grape-Nuts is peculiar to itself. It is neutral, not too sweet and has an agreeable, healthful quality that never grows tiresome.

One of the sources of rheumatism is from overloading the system with acid material, the result of imperfect digestion and assimilation.

As soon as improper food is abandoned and Grape-Nuts is taken regularly, digestion is made strong, the organs do their work of building up good red blood cells and of carrying away the excess of disease-making material from the system.

Eats Twenty-five Raw Eggs A Minute.

St. Louis has a man who can eat twenty-five raw eggs in sixty seconds, and is a famous player of harmonics. His name is Joseph Wigge. Until recently he has hidden his light under an egg case. Suddenly he recognized that fact that he was great.

So, in order to tell the sporting editor of his varied and vigorous virtues, he sent around a note. Here's the very note, and this is what he wrote:

"Dear Sir: Mr. Joseph Wigge, who is known as the Missouri original egg-eating kid. Mr. Joseph Wigge holds the title at present as champion raw egg eater of Missouri. Joe Wigge issues an open challenge to all comers for a purse of $25 to $100 a side bet that he can put away more raw eggs than any man of his size in Missouri, and every day he puts away is retained and swallowed with great relish and without exertion.

Joe is twenty-four years of age, and is five foot nine inches in height and 170 pounds in weight."—Chicago Inter Ocean.

Andy And The Divvie.

Mr. Carnegie's various liberalities have evoked many censures, but none more severe than one now laid upon him of being in league with Satan. This has become a tradition in some of the remoter parts of the Highlands and in the Hebrides.

"Andy," as Mr. Carnegie is universally called, has, according to this tradition, entered into a pact with the evil one to destroy Scottish religion by spreading the use of musical instruments and man-made hymns.

It is said that before returning to his native country he asked Satan how he could best aid him—whether he should make folks dance, build theatres in every parish or teach them to play cards.

"Na, na, 'Andy,'" replied Satan, "take a kist of whistles to lika kirk (put an organ in every church). Then my wurk wull gang weel aneuch."

The fact that Mr. Carnegie has presented organs to many churches in all parts of Scotland, introducing instrumental music and modern hymns were formerly only psalms, were vocally rendered, is taken as proof of the fulfillment of the compact.—London Dispatch.

Safe, Sure and Speedy.

No external remedy ever yet devised has so fully and unquestionably met these three prime conditions as successfully as Alcock's Plasters. They are safe because they contain no deleterious and are manufactured upon scientific principles of medicine. They are sure because nothing goes into them except ingredients which are exactly adapted to the purposes for which a plaster is required. They are speedy in their action because their medicinal qualities go right to their work of relieving pain and restoring the natural and healthy performance of the functions of muscles, nerves and skin.

Alcock's Plasters are the original and genuine porous plasters and like most meritorious articles have been extensively imitated, therefore always make sure and get the genuine Alcock's.

What is Pe-ru-na?

Is it a Catarrh Remedy, or a Tonic, or is it Both?

Some people call Pe-ru-na a great tonic. Others refer to Pe-ru-na as a great catarrh remedy.

Which of these people are right? Is it more proper to call Pe-ru-na a catarrh remedy than to call it a tonic?

Our reply is, that Pe-ru-na is both a tonic and a catarrh remedy. Indeed, there can be no effectual catarrh remedy that is not also a tonic.

In order to thoroughly relieve any case of catarrh, a remedy must not only have a specific action on the mucous membranes affected by the catarrh, but it must have a general tonic action on the nervous system.

Catarrh, even in persons who are otherwise strong, is a weakened condition of some mucous membrane. There must be something to strengthen the circulation, to give tone to the arteries, and to raise the vital forces.

Perhaps no vegetable remedy in the world has attracted so much attention from medical writers as HYDRANTIS CANADENSIS. The wonderful efficacy of this herb has been recognized many years, and is growing in its hold upon the medical profession. When joined with CUBEBES and COPAIBA a trio of medical agents is formed in Pe-ru-na which constitutes a specific remedy for catarrh that in the present state of medical progress, cannot be improved upon.

This action, reinforced by such renowned tonics as COLLINSONIA CANADENSIS, COHYDALIS FORMOSA and CEBRON SEED, ought to make this compound an ideal remedy for catarrh in all its stages and locations in the body.

From a theoretical standpoint, therefore, Pe-ru-na is beyond criticism. The use of Pe-ru-na confirms this opinion. Numberless testimonials from every quarter of the earth furnish ample evidence that this judgment is not over enthusiastic. When practical experience confirms a well-grounded theory the result is a truth that cannot be shaken.
