BILLS INTRODUCED.

Measures Proposed in the Senate and House of Interest to Raral Districts The following bills were introduced in the legislature recently :

IN THE HOUSE.

ment of sixty days for violation.

Mr. Gearhart, Clearfield, prohibiting the killing of more than one deer bandit, and four of his associates were by one person in the open season.

Mr. Whitman, Venango, making constables and justices of the peace in boroughs and townships and employees of the State Forestry Department ex-officio fish wardens.

Mr. Osler, Bedford, repealing the act protecting bears.

fastallation of Rev. W. Donat.

West Susquehanna Classis met in morning, February 1st, at 10 a. m. in the Reformed church, to receive the Schoenenburg, "if I walk to the sec-Rev. W. D. Donat from Jonestown, Lebanon Classis, and provide for His installation as paster of the Aaron4. burg charge. The classis was called to order by President A. A. Black and the items of business transacted. Installation services were held, members from the different congregations of the charge being present.

The liturgical services were conducted by Dr. D. M. Wolf and Rev. James L. Runkle, of Williamsport. The charge of the pastor elect was delivered by Rev. Daniel Gress, of Centre Hall, and the charge to the members by Rev. Frank Wetzel, of Rebersburg

Rev. and Mrs. Donat were given a hearty reception at the close of the services.

Entertained Young People.

Miss Bertha and brother Edwin Weaver, at their home in Spring Mills, entertained a large number of young people on Tuesd y evening, 29th ult. An important feature was the elaborate spread set before the guests. The following were present : Mae Confer, Esther Foreman, Cora Brown, Anna Tressler, Esta Long, Martha Burrell, Mable Hettinger, Mary Foreman, Theressa Rachau, Lola Mark, Bruce Runkle, Harry Hettinger, John Foreman, Chas. Zerby, Roy Tressler, Harvey Barner, Chas Corman, Gardner Long, Chas. Barner, Foster Walker, Maurice Long, Irvin Walker, Edwin Zerby and Al. Burrell.

Rebekahs Visit Local Lodge.

Somethirty members of the State College Rebeach Lodge visited the Centre Hall Lodge Tuesday evening witness the conferring of degrees. After the work was finished the order went into executive social and served a light lunch.

THE HEADLESS BANDIT.

Queer Story From the Archives of the Vienna Courts. Dr. Loye, a French physician, who greatly interested himself in the question, "What passes in the head of a Mr. Adams, Allegheny, prohibiting decapitated human being?" related the any person from accepting tips and following remarkable story, which he imposing a fine of $100 and imprison- stated was taken from the archives of the Vienna courts: It was in the year - that Schoenenburg, a well known caught and condemned to death. They were already on their knees ready to pay the penalty of their bloody deeds by submitting to the awful fate of decapitation when Schoenenburg addressed the judge, asking that his four companions might be pardoned on certain conditions. "If," asked the bandit, "after I am beheaded I get up and walk to the first of my comrades, will you pardon him?" The judge thought special session in Aaronsburg, Friday that he was pretty safe in complying with the request. "Then," continued ond, the third and the fourth, will you pardon them also?" The judge replied that if such a miraculous feat could be performed he would obtain pardons for the other three also. The bandit was now satisfied, and, bending his head, he received the fatal blow. Instantly the head rolled down in the sand, but to the surprise and horror of all present the headless trunk arose and walked alone, Aimlessly, it appeared, the body walked around until it passed the first, the second, the third and the fourth condemned bandit, when it fell down and became motionless. Query, "How could a headless body think?"

GRUB STREET IN NEW YORK.

A Gastronomic Assignment and the Fate of an Epic.

A story is told of a poet who came to the metropolis with a completed epic. This found no acceptance, so after cursing the stupidity of the publie and the publishers he took to writing "Sunday stuff." Soon the matter of fact attitude of the workers around him, with the practical view of the market he acquired, led him to doubt the literary value of the work he had done in the sentimental atmosphere of his native place.

Frequently a commission to write a column of humor a week came to him. and he cut his epic into short lengths, tacked a squib on each fragment and eventually succeeded in printing it all He brought Rev. Donat's horse and lodge at State College were present. as humor at a price many times larger than the historic one brought by "Paradise Lost."

Another newcomer brought unsalable plays and high notions of the austerity of the artistic vocation. Three months after his arrival he was delighted to spected old lady and lived in this J. H. Jacobs, get a commission to write the hand- town for many years. Funeral services Mra. Margaret Keller enjoyed Saturto sell to visitors seeing the metropolis. This commission brought not only a fair payment for the manuscript on delivery, but involved a vital secondary consideration. The title of the work was "Where to Eat In New York," and its preparation made it necessary for the author to dine each evening

CINCINNATI PEOPLE EXCITED.

The Great Cooper as he is Called Has Stirred Up That City to a Remarkable Degree.

fections of the kidneys and liver, in aration, and now all Cincinnati is ap-

How long the tremendous interest in a let-up. Reputable physicians claim

Harris Township.

Oliver Gibony enjoyed a sleigh ride

Mr. and Mrs. John Harrison, of Jer-

Calvin Young, who spent several

An interesting meeting was held by

Cal. Rossman, of Ferguson town-

the Rebekah's last Wednesday even-departed on the 29th of January for

Cincinnati, O., Feb 6 This city is when he began giving demonstrations, at present in the midst of an excite- as he calls them, in public, and daily ment beyond anything that it ex- met people afflicted with desfness and perienced in recent years. with a single application of one of his Old and young, rich and poor, all preparations actually made deaf peo-seem to have become beside themselves ple hear again. over an individual who was a stranger In addition to this work Cooper ad-to Cincinnati up to two weeks ago. vanced the theory that stomach trou-The man who has created all this ble is the foundation of nine out of ten turmoil is L. T. Cooper, President of diseases and claimed to have a prepathe Cooper Medicine Co., of Dayton, ration that would restore the stomach Ohio, who is at present introducing to working order and thus get rid of his preparations in this city for the such troubles as rheumatism and afffrst time. Cooper is a man about thirty years about two weeks time.

of age and has acquired a fortune This statement seems to have been within the past two years by the sale borne out by the remarkable results of some preparations of which he is obtained through the use of his prepthe owner.

Reports from eastern cities that pre- parently mad over the young man. eeded the young man here were of His headquarters resemble a verithe most startling nature. Many of table stampede. Thousands of people the leading dailies going so far as to are visiting him each day, and the state that he had nightly cured in druggists are selling his medicines in public places deafuess of years' stand- enormous quantities. ing with one of his preparations. The What seems to make Cooper still physicians of the east contradicted more popular is the fact that he practhis statement, claiming the thing to tices extensive charitable work and be impossible, but the facts seemed to has already dispensed a small fortune bear out this statement that Cooper among the poor of the city. actually did so.

In consequence people flocked to Cooper will last is hard to estimate. him by thousands and his prepare- At present there seems to be no sign of tions sold like wildfire.

Many of these stories were regarded it to be a fad that will die out as soon as fictitious in Cincinnati and until as Cooper leaves. Cooper actually reached this city little In justice to him, however, it must be said that he seems to have accomattention was paid to them. Hardly plished a great deal for the sick of had the young man arrived, however, this city with his preparations.

Aaronsburg.

Perry Adams and family have gone to State College to start housekeeping from his home at Saulsburg, Tuesday, again. They had been here during to visit his sister, Mrs. L. E. Kidder. the past four months.

Mr. Little and Miss Lodie Wyle, of sey Shore, were visitors at the home of Mifflinburg, spent a few days among R. B. Harrison. friends in town.

Thomas Weaver has gone to Dixon- months with Centre county friends, ville to work at the plastering trade. Wm. Guisewite's aged mother is his home in Freeport, Illinois. visiting bim at this writing.

Mr. Yakely, of Jonestown, was the guest of George Weaver over Sunday. ing. Twenty-one members of the buggy up through the parrows. Julia Bower died at the home of her ship, passed through there on Saturday great niece in Bellefonte, Sunday intent on buying some horses. night. She had gone to pay them a Mrs. Hannah Burchfield is spend-visit a week ago. She was a much re- ing the winter with her daughter, Mrs.

chapel.

book a utilitarian publisher proposed on Thursday. Interment at Wolf's day with Austin Dale and family, at Oak Hall. Mrs. William Young visited her aged parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Condo, at Spring Mills, being called there by the illness of ber father. Rev. A. A. Black and Elder L. Mothersbaugh were present Friday at the installation of Rev. W. D. Donat as pastor of the Reformed church at Aaronsburg. Oscar Gilmer, of near Rebersburg, spent last week with friends in this locality. Miss Mary Reish spent the last two weeks with Mrs. Meese, at State College. Mrs. Margaret Woomer, of State College, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Miller Quite a number of people are still on the sick list. Some of our residents 'attended the office. They are not too gay, but gay horse sale at Millheim Monday, but considered them too high in price to Rebersburg. Saturday a number of young people attended teachers' local institute at Tylersville. Wm. Frank spent a week at Jersey Shore, visiting Frank Reed and family. T. F. Brungart recently bought Wm. Hackman's home, at the east end of towa. Mr. Hackman contemplates beginning farming this spring. Miss Bertha Hosterman, of Woodward, visited relatives here over Sunday. Ammon Walker's condition is becoming serious and his friend are alarmed. Floyd Gramley, who is a student at of the mercantile firm of Stuart & the State Normal at Lock Haven, spent several weeks at home on account of illness. Eilis Frantz and daughter Annie, of Contract Dept., Bellefonte, Pa.

OF ALL KINDS GLOVES and MITTENS

Men's Leather Work Gloves...Men's Woolen Mittens and Gloves...Boys' Mittens with fur

The Repo ter's Register,

The Centre Reporter has orened a register in its office, iu which all callers will be asked to write their names and addresses. When you call here, keep this in mind.

New Books in Library

"The State Department has sent a set of new books to the Grange Library. The library will be open Saturday from 4 to 5 o'clock.

Spring Mills.

'Last Wednesday evening D. M. Mc-Cool was startled and amazed by a large party of friends who gathered at his home to congratulate him on the anniversary of his birthday. Mrs. Mc-Cool, who so successfully managed the affair, was herself somewhat surprised A large number of ladies collected at the residence of Dr. Braucht and from from one rank to another as she took possession of the house, much to the astonishment of the mistress thereof. She soon recovered herself, however, and entered into the spirit of the occasion with the same vim as the rest, and an evening of enjoyment and delight followed. The double surprise occasioned considerable mith and was served. Between fifty and sixty guests were present, and Mr. McCool was the recipient of many haudsome testimonials At rather a late hour all retired to their homes, after wishing then lift it. Mr. McCool many returns of the day

The U club gave quite a large party last Friday evening at the home of Miss Ella Decker, in Georges Valley. The guests were confined to the members of their own and the A B C clubs An elaborate supper was served, followed by an evening of enjoyment. This was the first entertainment given by the club, the organization being a new seasonable hour both clubs retired to color as the leaves .- Exchange. their sleighs and had a beautifu! moonlight drive to their respective homes.

The question is, did his hogship see his shadow on Saturday. It really looks a good deal that way, to judge from the arctic weather we have had since.

There is very little tolk on politics in this neighborhood. Both parties Philadelphia Press. have excellent candidates, but this being a Democratic stronghold, the successful ticket is easily foreshadowed.

The sudden thaw and disagreeable weather the latter part of last week, caused a number of sleighing parties to be postponed, but the heavy fall of snow on Monday night, will afford them another opportunity.

Advertise in the Reporter.

lins in Atlantic. De n Man.

for a month in a different cafe at the proprietor's expense .-- James H. Col-

According to the order of nature man being equal, their common voca ion is the profession of humanity. and wheever is well educated to dis charge the duty of a man cannot be budly prepared to fill any of those offices that have relation to him. It matters little to me whether my pupil be designed for the army, the pulpit or the bar. Nature has destined us to the offices of human life, antecedent to our destination concerning society. To ive is the profession I would teach him. When I have done with him it is true he will be notther a soldier, a awyer nor a divine. Let him first be man.: Fortune may remove him there walked to the Mct ool home and pleases. He will always be found in i : place .- Rousseau.

Mats in Parliament.

A member of parliament must never tand up with his hat on even if he is only risen to speak to the man behind him. Coming in, going out or speechifying he is always hatless, and he is sometimes hatless when sitting amusement. A very elegant supper down. Thus if the speaker mentions a bill the member is responsible for he lifts his bet. If his name is mentioned in a speech he lifts his hat. Even if headed he must selze a hat, put it on. father, John T. Lee.

Tobleco Smoke and Flowers.

A remarkable effect of tobacco smoke on the color of flowers may be seen in the case of the field scabia named botanically Knavtia arvensis, se frequently on the hills and commons from August till October. If its purplish blue blossoms, which form nearly globose heads, are held in the of his father, John R. Lawyers, smoke of tobacco, their color will soon one, and was quite a success. At a turn to a bright green, about the same

The Dangerous Part.

"See here," feebly complained the victim after the accident, "I thought you said it was perfectly safe to go up in that old elevator?" "Well," replied the elevator man, "so it was safe to go up. You see, the dangerous part of it was comin' down."-

A Good Patient.

First Physician - Has he got an hereditary trouble? Second Physician -Yes. I hope to hand his case down to my son.-Harper's Bazar.

It is well for one to know more than he says.-Plautus.

Subscribe for the Reporter.

..... Unclaimed Letters, Following is a list of the unclaimed letters in the Centre Hall post office, February 1st, 1907: Mrs. Maggie Braim, Eugene C. Bell, 2; William Kennedy, Ed. Moyer, John S. McIlvaine, Cashier ; John R. Oo, Cashier ; Rev. Herman Shaffer, J. A. Young, Prof. S. W. Gramley.

Persons inquiring for above letters please state they are advertised. GEO. M. EOAL, Postmaster.

LOCALS

Labor always believes in Capital punishment.

A regular meeting of Progress Grange will be held Saturday afternoon.

Valentine post cards at the Reporter enough.

The county auditors have finished buy any. auditing the accounts of the county officials.

The Webers advertise seeds in this issue. This is the time to buy; the sowing comes later.

When you call at the Reporter office be sure to write your name and address in the register.

The latter part of last week James B. Horner and family moved from the Bible, farm, near Potters Mills, to Lewistown.

Mr. and Mrs, Arney Lee, of Pittsburg, came to Centre Hall last week he happens at those times to be bare- on account of the illness of the former's J M. Wieland, the junior member Wieland, Boalsburg, was a business visitor in Centre Hall Tuesday.

William Lawyers, a resident of St. Louis, Mo., came east arriving in Centre Hall Saturday. He was called here on account of the serious illness

"Without the Reporter it would be all up with us," is the way W. A. Sandoe, Jr., puts the finishing touches to a letter having a remittance enclosed for subscription. Ingram, the of the citizens, but there are no serious home of the Sandoe family, has grown cases at present. to such an extent that it has been granted free mail delivery.

Charles Zeigler, of Aurora, Illinois, came east in January to visit friends they secured employment at lumand relatives. Thirty-four years ago bering. Mr. Zeigler left Brush Valley with his father, William Zaigler. They settled became interested in mining ma-chinery, and is now an expert along that line. While in Centre Hall he visited the families of A. P. Krape, M. T. Emerick and the Bearick Brothers L. Emerick and the Rearick Brothers, Tusseyville.

Tylersville, spent Friday at this place on business. John Ocker is at present housed up on account of being ill.

Scott Stover and wife returned last Tuesday from a two weeks' visit to Edinboro and Ridgeway.

That much dreaded disease, la grippe, has taken a firm hold on some left last Monday for the narrows at the east end of this valley where

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a Favorite. father, witham Zaight 1 100 young in Farmv'lie, Virginia, but the young man was not satisfied with conditions there and soon went to Illinois. He there and soon went to Illinois. He

