Attest: W. GROSS MINGOLE.

Spring Mills.

Monday evening Mrs. W. O. Gramley was considerably surprised at the unexpected visit of a large number of her friends to congratulate her on the anniversary of her birthday. The party was originally intended for Tuesday evening, but by some mishap it became known to Mrs. Gramley, so in order to surprise her it was changed to the previous evening. The guests, upon their arrival, took possession of the dining room, arranged the tables and furnished them with a profusion of choice dainties, previously prepared and which were thoroughly enjoyed. During the evening Mrs. Gramley was astonished to discover that among her many handsome remembrances were a large number of handkerchiefs. There was considerable merriment when she found four or five dozen of these useful articles, and no one enjoyed it more than did Mrs. Gramley when she realized that this was a handkerchief party. The following persons were present: Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Royer, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Kenney, Mr. and Mrs. H. Allison, Mrs. Emery Ripka and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. McCool, Mrs. Margaret Ruhl, Mrs. Wolf, Mrs. Sweetwood, Mrs. A. Shook, Mrs. Kate Shook, Mrs. C. P. Long, Mrs. H. S. Braucht, Mrs. Decker and son, Mrs. McClellan, Mrs. C. A. Krape, Mrs. H. F. Rossman, Mrs. H. Weaver, Mrs. C. C. Bariges, Mrs. Sowers, Mrs. Zerby, Mrs. Beatty, Mrs. Bitner, Mrs. Susan Ruhl, Mrs. O. McCormick, Mrs. John Snavely, son and daughter, Mrs. C. C. Cummings, Mrs. Jerry Snavely, Mrs. A. Leltzell, Mrs. Zones, Mrs. Calvin Zeigler, Mrs. Geo. Gentzel, Misses Clara Decker, Alice Neese, Louisa Burrell, Carrie Gentzel, Rev. G. W. McInlay, Mr. Wood, Windom Gramley, Paul Leltzell, Mrs. W. R. Donahy, of Lewisburg; Mrs. Condo, of Howard.

The K. G. E. had a banquet Thursday evening of last week.

Ivy Bariges, employed at Burnham, is here on a visit to his brother, C. C. Bariges.

A severe thunder storm passed over the village Sunday morning. A high wind prevailed all day.

John Fenstermacher and family moved to Watsonstown, Tuesday. B. W. Ripka and family moved to his father's farm, near Centre Hill, and Emory Ripka and family moved to Centre Hall during the week.

Mr. Wood, of the Spring Mills hotel, says business is becoming quite lively with him. He has entertained from five to ten guests every night for the past month or more. Mr. Wood is very popular with the commercial agents who make his hotel their headquarters.

Woodward.

Mrs. Anna Showalter, an aged lady, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Mary Motz, in this place. Her age was ninety years. She is survived by one sister, Mrs. Barteges, of Cohn, Union county, and three children, Mrs. Adam Stover, Chadwick, Illinois; Mrs. Mary Motz, Woodward, and Simon Showalter, Northumberland. The funeral services were held in the Evangelical church Wednesday morning, conducted by Rev. Haas.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams and children, Edward Rossman and Miss Minerva Kessinger, all of Nittany, spent Saturday and Sunday with Harry Kessinger.

J. L. Kreamer was to Bellefonte a few days last week.

Orvis Winklebeck and his friend, of Renovo, spent the greater part of last week with the former's uncle, Rev. L. A. Miller.

Miss Bertha Hosterman is spending some time with friends at Millheim.

After being absent a few days Robert and Noah Kitter returned home Saturday.

Wilson Ard and sister, Miss Maude, were to Millheim one day last week.

Summer school.

The spring term of the Boalsburg Normal and Preparatory School will open April 15th and continue eight weeks. Pupils from a distance can obtain boarding at reasonable rates.

For further information address H. C. ROTHROCK, Principal.
