

NEWS OF THE COURT.

Commonwealth Cases Disposed of—Disposition of Other Cases.

May session of court convened Monday morning at ten o'clock. A large portion of time was taken up by the several members of the bar presenting motions and petitions. The civil list of cases was gone over and the following disposed of: Mifflinburg Buggy Company vs. David Bailey, continued. On the second week's list the case of William Witmer vs. Edward Sellers was continued.

Monday afternoon the following Commonwealth cases were taken up: Commonwealth vs. Charles T. Crust, prosecutrix, Annie Heaton; indicted for betrayal; defendant plead guilty and usual sentence was imposed.

Commonwealth vs. Albert Allen, prosecutrix, Annie Fogleman; indicted for betrayal; usual sentence.

Commonwealth vs. Harry Bowes, prosecutrix, Ellen M. Bowes. This case is from Spring township, and the defendant was indicted on two indictments for assault and battery upon his wife. The defendant plead guilty. Court suspended sentence on the one indictment upon the payment of costs; on the other indictment defendant was sentenced to pay a fine of $1.00 and costs of prosecution.

Commonwealth vs. John Dulek, Jr., indicted for assault and battery; prosecutor, David Z. Frain. This case is from Marion township and grows out of an altercation between the prosecutor and the defendant. Verdict Tuesday morning of not guilty and costs divided between prosecutor and defendant.

E. F. Gardner vs. Paul Schwartz, being an appeal, and this action was brought to recover a book account. Verdict in favor of plaintiff for $15.00.

Commonwealth vs. George Merryman, prosecutor, O. P. Maguire, manager of Vulcan Trading Company at Retort. Indicted first count, entering store room with intent to commit a felony; second count, larceny; third count, receiving stolen goods knowing the same to have been stolen. This case is from Rush township, and it appears that the defendant broke into the store of the Vulcan Trading Company on the night of November 6, 1906, stealing flour, ham, sausage and pair of gum boots valued at about $19. Verdict of guilty on first two counts.

Commonwealth vs. Hugh Carson and George Walk, prosecutor, O. P. Maguire. Indicted first count, entering store room with intent to commit a felony; second count, larceny; third count, receiving stolen goods knowing the same to have been stolen. From the evidence of the Commonwealth it appears that these two parties broke into the store of the Vulcan Trading Company at Retort on the night of March 2nd, and took therefrom shoes, tobacco, ham, bacon, watches, gloves, overalls, shirts, etc., to the value of about $120; on or about March 11th a search warrant was issued and the house of Carson and a man by the name of Peters searched in Clearfield county, and some of these goods found, whereupon the two above named defendants were arrested. Verdict guilty in manner and form as they stand indicted.

Commonwealth vs. Steve Berenti and Mary Berenti, prosecutor, Andrew Staski; indicted for cruelty to animals. This case is from Snow Shoe township. On trial Wednesday morning.

Linden Hall.

Clyde Wieland is representing the Boasburg lodge at the state convention of Odd Fellows at Reading this week, while his sister, Miss Gertrude, is a delegate from the Rebekah lodge to the convention of that order. Arthur Fortney is another member who is spending the week in Reading.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Blair Miller, of Hollidaysburg, spent several days with relatives here. Mr. Miller is an inspector for the Pennsylvania railroad company in the repair shops at that place.

Mrs. J. H. Weibly returned Monday from a two weeks' visit with friends in Watsonstown. Mr. Weibly went down Saturday to spend Sunday and accompany his wife home.

Fergus Potter and James Kimport are in Bellefonte as jurors this week. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Ross and little Edith spent Sunday at the J. H. Ross home.

Henry Potter and Miss Mary Potter are having new wire fences put up around their farms. George Harshberger is doing the work.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Lee and family enjoyed a drive to Tusseyville, Mr. Lee's former home, Sunday.

Henry Houser came over from Hecla recently to over see some repairing he had done about his farm buildings.

Georges Valley.

Preaching at Locust Grove Sunday morning.

After spending two weeks at their home, John and Elmer Foust returned to their work at Burnham.

Mrs. Owens Pecht, of Yensertown; Misses Jennie and Abbie Barger, who have been employed at Woolrich for some time, and Maynard Barger, who is working near Lock Haven, all spent a few days at the home of James Barger, returning to their work Tuesday. Maynard Miller, of Woolrich, spent Sunday with his friend, James Barger. Green Decker, since his return to his home in North Dakota, has been very ill, but is now improving.

THE FROM CASE NOT READY FOR TRIAL.

Attorneys Making an Effort to Have From Released Without Bail. How the Case Now Stands.

The Commonwealth attorney did not have the case against Jacob From, accused of the murder of Josiah C. Dale, ready for trial at the opening of court, consequently all witnesses were notified not to appear.

It is thought the attorneys for the prisoner are waiting until the grand jury adjourns, after which time they may demand that the suit of their client be heard.

The court will then either release From until September court on his own bail or order the case nolle prossed. In the latter case From would be entirely free.

Thus the case stands as the Reporter goes to press.

REDUCED RATES TO HARRISBURG.

Via Pennsylvania Railroad Account Republican State Convention.

The Republican State Convention will be held at Harrisburg on Thursday, June 7.

For this reason the Pennsylvania Railroad will sell round trip tickets to Harrisburg June 1 to 6 good to return until June 15 inclusive, from all stations in Pennsylvania, at reduced rates.

This will be an excellent opportunity to see the new State Capitol which has been pronounced the handsomest State building in the United States.

For the fare from your nearest station apply to the Ticket Agent. (2)

General Assembly Meets.

The 119th General Assembly of the Presbyterian church in the U. S. A. convened in Columbus, O., and is now in session. Dr. W. H. Roberts, Stated Clerk, an able parliamentarian and executive officer, was chosen Moderator by acclamation after the delivery of a sermon by Dr. Ira Laudreth, the last Moderator of the Cumberland Presbyterian church, which a year ago united with the Presbyterian church. Dr. Roberts' selection was especially appropriate because of his activity in effecting the union and his familiarity with the details yet to be arranged in connection with the consolidation.

The report of the Temperance Committee has this statement of progress: "One-half the area and more than one-third of the population of the United States is now under prohibitory law. The attitude of science, industry, education, religion, journalism, sociology, law, labor, capital, business, economics, art, literature and general public sentiment all prophesy the overthrow of the liquor traffic."

There is considerable division of sentiment over the wisdom of organizing an Inter-Church Temperance Council. Presbyterians are earnest supporters of the Anti-Saloon League and it is feared that the proposed new organization may interfere with the League's efficiency. Others think there is room for both. The question is undecided at this writing. The Sabbath Committee made its report last week. The other agencies of the church will report this week but too late for this issue of the Reporter. A movement looking to union with the United Presbyterian church has been begun.

Veteran E. R. Men.

The Veteran Railroad Association is composed of Pennsy employees who have served twenty-one years and over. The association was given a banquet Saturday night in Wilkesbarre, and attended by the following employees along the L. & T. branch: W. Frank Bradford and James Smetzler, Centre Hall; J. H. Wibley, Linden Hall; Mr. Hutchison, Bellefonte; Calvin Osman, Glen Iron; Mr. Marks, Milmont; J. C. Kelley, Lewisburg.

The Bellefonte Daily News contained this notice: Miss Nettie Osman, one of Glenn Iron's pretty and charming young ladies is visiting Miss Eva Showers on Spring street. Miss Osman has just returned from an extended visit through the western part of the state.

The venerable Henry Heaton, of Yarnell, who has been seriously ill during the past few weeks, was reported Wednesday morning to be slightly better. He is suffering from a paralytic stroke. Mr. Heaton is most highly regarded in the community in which he lives, and up to the time of his illness took an active part in all public affairs in his neighborhood.

Many a woman's idea of being artistic is not to know how to cook.

MEMORIAL DAY

Exercises at Centre Hall at 5 P. M.—Rev. J. W. Boat, D. D., Chief Orator.

The Memorial Day exercises at Centre Hall will be held at five o'clock P. M. The chief orator is Dr. James W. Boat. A feature not heretofore enjoyed will be the singing of National hymns by the children of the various Sabbath schools in Centre Hall and any others who may wish to join.

By request of the veterans the Reporter calls attention to the thoughtlessness on the part of women, (yes, usually women) who attend the memorial services at the cemetery, and during the exercises annoy not only the speaker but every one nearby by continually talking. The gathering at the cemetery is not planned for social intercourse, for the gabble-gut to exploit him or herself, but for religious purposes. Those disposed to be loose-tongued on such occasions are invited to vent their feelings against the veterans who requested that this notice be published and this paper which willingly gives it space, any time previous to Memorial Day, and then go to enjoy the exercises in the proper way.

Prof. P. H. Meyer, who has charge of the musical part of the program, announces that all children under fourteen years, are requested to meet in the Lutheran church, Saturday afternoon at three o'clock to practice singing National hymns.

LOCALS.

The Presbyterians will observe Children's Day on June 9th at 10:30 a. m.

Samuel Condo, of Penn Hall, took quite a string of buggies across the Seven Mountains to Mifflin county.

Mrs. Anna Hemphill, of Philadelphia, is at present at the home of her sister, Mrs. D. W. Bradford, in Centre Hall.

Miss M. Eloise Schuyler has been re-elected teacher of mathematics and history in the Cape May (N. J.) High School, with a substantial increase of salary.

Master Otto Bailey, of Philadelphia, is the guest of the editor and family. On leaving Centre Hall he will go to New York City where he will make his home with an uncle.

Report has it that John Rossman, who lately returned from the southwest, and Miss Annie Dioges, of Centre Hall, were married in Williamsport Tuesday evening.

Branch Company No. 20, The Patrons Rural Telephone Company, expects to erect its pole lines this week beginning today (Thursday). There will be twelve telephone subscribers on the line.

Elmer Alexander, the twelve-year-old lad of Potters Mills, is keeping up his good fishing record. Friday he caught fifteen large catfish, while his brother Hugh, aged ten years, succeeded in capturing seven.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Zong, of near Oak Hall, were in town Tuesday, having come here to attend a bit of business. Mr. Zong is tenant on the Homan farm, now owned by Mrs. J. W. Keller, of Linden Hall.

Concrete walk building is all fever heat in Centre Hall, and all because the concrete put down one year ago withstood the frost without apparent injury. Among others not already mentioned who are preparing to lay concrete are Merchant W. H. Meyer, who will take up the flag stone walk in front of his house and substitute concrete and will also extend the composition walk along the side of his house. W. Gross Mingle will also lay a similar walk to the front of his residence.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD Bulletin

Low-Rate Tour to the Pacific Coast

The International Christian Endeavor Convention will be held in Seattle, July 10 to 15. The fares named by the transcontinental railroads for this occasion enables the Pennsylvania Railroad to offer a Personally-Conducted Tour to Seattle and the Pacific Coast at unusually low rates.

A special train of the highest grade Pullman sleeping cars and dining car will leave New York July 5, running via Chicago, St. Paul, and the Northern Pacific Railway. Round-trip tickets, including Pullman accommodations, double berth, and all meals in the dining car en route to Seattle on special train, and railroad transportation only returning via direct routes, will be sold at rate of $112.75 from New York, $111.25 from Philadelphia, $108 from Baltimore, Washington and Harrisburg, $107.20 from Altoona, and proportionate rates from other points.

Passengers will return from Seattle independently on regular trains. Those desiring to return via San Francisco or Los Angeles may do so for $12.50 additional. A transcontinental tour is a great educational experience. The northwestern country is in a most interesting stage of development just now and a visit to that section will prove not only enjoyable but profitable.

A rare opportunity for such a trip is here presented. The rate is exceptionally low, and includes the advantage of a special through train to the Pacific Coast. For itineraries, tickets, and full information, apply to Ticket Agents, or address Geo. W. Boyd, General Passenger Agent, Philadelphia.

Relief from Rheumatic Pains.

"I suffered with rheumatism for over two years," says Mr. Roland Curry, of Key West, Fla. "Sometimes it settled in my knees and lamed me so I could hardly walk, at other times it would be in my feet and hands so I was incapacitated for duty. One night when I was in severe pain and lame from it my wife went to the drug store here and came back with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I was rubbed with it and found the pain had nearly gone during the night. I kept on using it for a little more than two weeks and found that it drove the rheumatism away. I have not had any trouble from that disease for over three months." For sale by The Star Store, Centre Hall; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; C. W. Swartz, Tusseyville.
