Women Who Wear Well.

It is astonishing how great a change a few years of married life often make in the appearance and disposition of many women. The freshness, the charm, the brilliance vanish like the bloom from a peach which is rudely handled. The matron is only a dim shadow, a faint echo of the charming maiden. There are two reasons for this change, ignorance and heglect. Few young women appreciate the shock to the system through the change which comes with marriage and motherhood. Many neglect to deal with the unpleasant pelvic drains and weaknesses which too often come with marriage and motherhood, not understanding that this secret drain is robbing the cheek of its freshness and the form of its fairness.

As surely as the general health suffers when there is derengement of the health of the delicate womanix organs, so surely when these organs are established in health the face and form at once witness to the fact in renewed comeilmess Nearly a million women have found health and happiness in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. Ingredients on label-contains no alcohol or harmful habit - forming drugs. Made wholly of those native, American, medicinal roots most highly recommended by leading medical authorities of all the sev-eral schools of practice for the cure of woman's peculiar allments. For nursing mothers, or for those broken-down in health by too frequent bearing of children, also for the expectant mothers, to prepare the system for the coming of baby and making its advent easy and almost painless, there is no medicine quite so good as "Favorite Prescription." It can do no harm in any condition of the system. It is a most potent invigorating tonic and strengthening nervine nicely adapted to woman's delicate system by a physician of large experience in the treatment of woman's peculiar allments. Dr. Pierce may be consulted by letter free of charge. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute. Buffalo, N. Y.

New Police Bill.

Commissioner Bingham's new pol-Ice bill made itself felt Thursday. Ex-Inspector Adam A. Cross, reduced to captain, will retire from the force on Sunday. He will get a pension. Cross is reputed to be worth over $300,000, and it will not be necessary for him to engage in any business. He joined the Department a poor man on October 6, 1878, was made roundsman on September 23, 1882, a sergeant on January 13, 1887, captain on December 8, 1890, and an inspector on October 13, 1897. He was twice dismissed from the police board-once when he was captain of the Eldridge-Street Station, and the other when he commanded the Fifth-Street Stationbut each time he was reinstated by the courts, and received back pay for the time he was off. Therefore, he really had a vacation at the lexpense of the city. Cross lives in a fine mansion at 123 West Seventieth Street. The house is owned by Mrs. Cross, and it was said to have been given to her as a birthday gift by her first husband, and that she owned it six years before she was married to Cross. The property is worth over $60,000.

"Only A Souse."

Mrs. Auchenheimer of 29 West One Hundred and Nineteenth Street thought she heard a burglar trying to open the front door at 4 A. M. With a broom she tapped on the window of 27, next door, where dwell Dr. Jackes and his son Joseph. Then she peeked from behind a curtain and whispered "Burglars!"

Dr. Jackes and Joseph understood. Straightway the latter got his revolver and sent lead through the air. Windows went up and from house to house there went the word "Burglars.

Half a dozen persons telephoned to police headquarters and 15 policemen were soon running on the double quick. The entire block was surrounded. One of the guardians of the peace tripped over a prostrate form on the floor of the vestibule and he dragged it out on the stoop. "Are you dead?" asked a policeman. The victim opened his eyes, smiled serenely and replied: "Hic-not yet-dead broke; gi' us a drink, sho shorry for-hic-yer-hic troublehic.

"It ain't a burglar." said a whiteclad figure in an upper window, "it's only a souse." And the windows all along the line went down with a bang.

CALLS HIS CURE A MIRACLE.

Tortured by Terrible, Dry Eruptions -- Too Disfigured to Leave House -Cuticura Cured Him.

"Ever since the time I grew into manhood I have been suffering from a dry eruption which at times appeared very extensively, and at other times, but to a limited degree, on my body. I consulted a number of medical men without result, and last January I was affected with a terrible eruption on my hands, scalp, and face, which was so bad that I could not even leave the house, so I finally resorted to the Cuticura Remedies. So far they represent an outlay of only a few dollars and I am completely restored to health, while formerly I had spent dollars upon dollars on doctors, remedies and ointments without getting cured. The Cuticurs Remedies represent a perfect miracle. Henry E. Kamping, 633 Eagle Ave., New York, N. Y., Feb. 16 and Mar. 15, 1906."

Market Reports.

Weather conditions unseasonable almost beyond precedent have retarded retail trade and agriculture to an extent that cannot yet be measured, but the loss will be considerable Spring opened with the brightest prospects for business and crops, but record breaking results can no longer be attained. May thus far has brought complaints of excessive cold from almost every section of the country, and in many cases it is found that mercantile collections have been slow on that account. Freight congestion is relieved, however, and traffic is very heavy, partly in preparation for fall and winter business, which is viewed with confidence, while last year's pressure causes a big movement of coal and attractive prices bring a vast tonnage of wheat to primary markets. The outlook in the iron and steel industry was never brighter. Steel rails are constantly ordered, much new business being in light rails for trolley lines, and makers of agricultural implements are purchasing bars free-Cotton goods are no cheaper, but the effect of the backward season on retail trade is felt in all departments. Business at first hands is more active on forward contracts than for quick delivery, and there is less offering of premiums for spot goods. Yet the mills are not offering concessions, which may be due in part to the high cost of raw cotton. The only interest of the jobbing trade is in fall goods, current needs having been supplied

Tired Nervous Women Make Unhappy Homes

MRS.NELLIE MAKHAM

A nervous irritable woman, often on | I suffered so I did not cars what became of the verge of hysterics, is a source of misery to everyone who comes under her influence, and unhappy and miserable herself.

Such. women not only drive husbands from home but are wholly unfit to govern children.

The ills of women act like a fire brand upon the nerves, consequently seven-tenths of the nervous prostration, nervous despondency, the "blues", sleeplessness, and nervous irritability of women arise from some organic derangement.

Do you experience fits of depression with restlessness alternating with extreme irritability ? Do you suffer from pains in the abdominal region, backache, bearing-down pains, nervous dyspepsia, sleeplessness, and almost continually cross and snappy? If so, your nerves are in a shattered condition and you are threatened with nervous prostration.

Proof is monumental that nothing in the world is better for nervous troubles of women than Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs. Thousands and thousands of women can testify to this fact. Mrs. Nellie Makham, of 151 Morgan

St., Buffalo, N. Y., writes :--Dear Mrs. Pinkham :---

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotics or harmful drugs and today holds the record for the largest number of actual cures of female diseases of any medicine the world has ever known, and thousands of voluntary testimonials are on file in the laboratory at Lynn, Mass., which testify to its wonderful value.

Jackson. "Nothing left," said Mrs. Williams. 'If you're hungry, go to the store and get some pork chops. I'll cook them for you."

Jackson went to the store, but instead of buying pork chops he bought back a 30-cent steak and a 5-cent loaf of bread, which he had charged to Mrs. Williams. She demurred, but Jackson told her she was too late with her objections. Mrs. Williams cooked the steak and Jackson ate it and the bread. Then he went out for a walk. When he returned Mrs. Williams handed him a pawn ticket and 10 cents.

"What's this for?" asked Jackson. "Well," said Mrs. Williams, "I pawned your Sunday shoes for 50 cents. I paid 35 cents for the steak and bread you ate, and I kept 5 cents for my trouble, and the 10 cents is yours to help redeem the shoes."

She Has Eight Husbands.

After ordering goods in his name from various stores and calling at his home to see him at 5.30 in the morning, Soma Willett, a comely young woman, gave the final touch of surprise to Russell S. Tucker of 317 West Forty-seventh Street when she declared in the West Side Court that she had a right to do so, because she was his wife. Before Mr. Tucker, himself only 23 years old, had a chance to blushingly deny the statement, the young woman calmly remarked: "I'm also married to Dr. Ward, Frank Denison and five others." Thereupon Magistrate Kernochan committed her to Blackwell's Island for one months in default of a bond of $100 to keep the peace.

Dog Shakes Boy Like Rat.

Little "Johnny" McLaughlin, b years old, was playing in front of his home, 420 East Fifty-second Street, when he was attacked by a savage dog. Hearing his screams. the boy's mother looked out of the window and saw the dog with its eeth sunk into "Johnny's" forehead, shaking the little fellow like a rat. Half a dozen persons beat the dog off, and it ran away. Dr. Young Flower Hospital dressed "Johnof ny's" wounds, and said the boy would recover.

Dutch Women's Headdress.

Women often possessed two headdresses, one for Sundays and the other for week-days. In cold or wet weather a hood was worn stiffened with paper and having two long r'brons, provided with golden hooks, to protect it against the wind. Above a low silk or satin bodice was worn an elaborately folded kerchief of fine lawn or cambric, which allowed only a little of the throat to be seen, and which was fastened by a brooch or ribbon. The bodice itself was usually a tight-fitting laced one of white or blue satin. It is said that women of the lower classes frequently only took the trouble of unlacing this cuirasslike garment once a week. The tighter the bodice the more elegant its wearer was considered, and, as a great number of petticoats were de rigueur, a small waist appeared even less than it actually was .---Girl's Realm.

FIT THE GROCER Wife Made the Suggestion.

A grocer has excellent opportunity to know the effects of special foods on his customers. A Cleveland grocer has a long list of customers that have been helped in health by leaving off coffee and using Postum Food Coffee.

He says, regarding his own experience: "Two years ago I had been drinking coffee and must say that I was almost wrecked in my nerves.

"Particularly in the morning I was so irritable and upset that I could hardly wait until the coffee was served, and then I had no appetite for breakfast and did not feel like attending to my store duties.

"One day my wife suggested that inasmuch as I was selling so much Postum there must be some merit in it and suggested that we try it. I took home a package and she prepared it according to directions. The result was a very happy one. My nervousness gradually disappeared and to-day I am all right. I would advise everyone affected in any way, with nervousness or stomach troubles, to leave off coffee and use Postum Food Coffee." "There's a Reason." Read, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.
