

TERMS.—The terms of subscription to the Reporter are one dollar per year in advance.
ADVERTISEMENTS.—20 cents per line for three insertions, and 5 cents per line for each subsequent insertion. Other rates made known on application.

Aaronsburg.

Mrs. Maggie Houser and daughter, of Brisbin; Mr. and Mrs. Heigh, of Pittsburg; Mr. and Mrs. Luther Kurtz, of Mifflinburg, were the guests of Mrs. Lavina Lenker the past week.
Miss Eliza Summers has gone to visit her sister and brother, at Altoona.
Rev. Lewis Edmunds, of Ford City, is the guest of his brother, Thomas.
Mr. and Mrs. Luther Stover and Merchant E. A. Bower and wife attended the sessions of Lutheran Synod at Sunbury last week.
Miss Gertrude Russell, of Lewisburg spent part of Friday at the home of William Guisewite.
Rev. Rhoads and family, of Lewisburg, spent a day last week at the home of George Weaver.
John Royer and family, of Pleasant Gap, spent a day last week with Thomas Hull's on North 2nd street.
Luther Bower and family visited Mrs. Bower's parents, at Potters Mills, for a few days.
Dr. A. S. Musser and family were guests of friends in Bellefonte last week.
Miss Ruth Swabb, who is teaching a term of summer school at Tusseyville, was home over Friday night. She has many warm friends here.
Miss Mary Kreamer, of Renovo, has come to visit her uncle, A. S. Stover.
Rev. F. W. Brown, of Beaver Springs, a former pastor of the Reformed congregation at this place, stopped a few minutes on his way home from Classis.
Misses Roxie and Helen Mingle, of Bellefonte, are the welcome guests of their uncle, Ed. Mingle.
Ed. Vonada and family, of Mackeyville, called at the home of Alice Bright one day last week.
Miss Miriam Keister has gone to spend a few weeks with friends at State College.
Fred Limbert, Jr., and family, of Altoona, are guests of his parents.
Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Meyer, of Boalsburg, visited the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Haffley, Sunday.

Spring Mills.

This is the last week of the summer school.
Rev. W. H. Warburton's parents recently arrived in town and moved into the United Evangelical parsonage.
S. L. Condo Tuesday delivered a fine carriage to Lamar.
The proprietor of the Coburn bakery run his wagon through town one day last week. As there are four bakeries in this place, his venture did not prove a success.
While Howard Weaver, of Centre Mills, was up here on a business trip Tuesday of last week, his team got the better of him, and threw him out of the buggy and tore things up nasty.
Dr. Braucht dressed the wounds and sent him home.
Grover Walker, last week, bought a horse and buggy.
C. E. Zeigler, in addition to erecting a very handsome portico to his residence, has had the entire building beautifully and artistically painted in colors, presenting a very pleasing and attractive appearance. The painting was done by Peter Auman, of this place, a skillful and ornamental painter of large experience.
Monday the supervisors started to make road through town. This was very much needed as the roads are in a bad condition.
The Methodists will hold Children's Day service on the 23rd of June.

Rebersburg.

Henry Krumline, of Centre Hall, spent several days this week visiting friends and relatives at this place.
After spending two weeks among relatives here, Charles Miller and wife returned to their home in Pitscain.
Miss Maude Weaver, of Tylersville, was in town for a few days.
Ralph Stover and son Lloyd were in town on business one day this week.
Miffin Moyer and wife, of Potters Mills, visited the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bair, over Sunday.
Quite a few people from this place attended the meetings of Reformed Classis, at Madisonburg, last week.
Forest Stover and family spent Saturday at the home of Ross Mowery.
Quite recently two young ladies of this town were employed by a Smulton lady to capture a runaway child. They did their work well, having secured the child and delivered it to the proper person. Any one having work in this line will do well to employ these young ladies.
For stomach troubles, biliousness and constipation try Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Many remarkable cures have been effected by them. Price 25 cents. For sale by The Star Store, Centre Hall; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; C. W. Swartz, Tusseyville.

Advertise in the Reporter.

COURT NEWS.

Remainder of Business Transacted in Court at First Week's Session—Opening of Second Week of Court.

The court proceedings beginning Wednesday afternoon of last week are as follows:

In the case of Commonwealth vs. Neff, on motion of counsel for defendant for a compulsory nolle prosequi, the court directed a verdict of not guilty.

Com. vs. John Dulen, Sr., Michael Delaney, Sr., and Joseph Delaney, prosecutor D. Z. Frain; indicted for malicious mischief.

Com. vs. Brinton Mongan and John Ammerman, prosecutor P. F. Kelchline; indicted for malicious mischief. It appears that these defendants threw a part of a brick through the window of the store of Jennie S. Kelchline, in Bellefonte, presumably with the intent to commit a robbery later. Defendants plead guilty.

Com. vs. Brinton Mongan and John Ammerman, prosecutor John Risk. Indicted first count, entering store with attempt to commit felony; second count, larceny; third, receiving stolen goods. Defendants plead guilty.

Com. vs. John Henderson, Milton Henderson, Robert Orwick and Ed. Orwick, prosecutor H. A. Gever; indicted for malicious mischief. This case is from Taylor township.

At the close of the commonwealth's testimony court held that there was no evidence to go to the jury and sent the case to the jury on the question of costs. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty and county to pay the costs.

Com. vs. James Terrill, prosecutor George T. Bush; indicted for malicious mischief. Defendant plead guilty.

Com. vs. John Dulen, Sr., Michael Delaney and Joseph Delaney; John Dulen, Sr., Annie Dulen, John Dulen, Jr., Daniel Delaney, Joseph Delaney and Michael Delaney, and Mrs. Annie Dulen, being three cases; prosecutor D. Z. Frain, and indicted in each case for malicious mischief. Thursday morning a settlement was arrived at between the parties, reduced to writing, and counsel informed the court that cases had been settled.

The several defendants convicted during the week were called for sentence: George Merryman, convicted of breaking into the store of the Vulcan Trading Company at Retort, was sentenced to pay a fine of $1.00, costs of prosecution and two years in the penitentiary.

Hugh Carson and George Walk, convicted of breaking into the same store, sentenced to pay a fine of $1.00, costs of prosecution, and to the penitentiary for two years and four months.

James Terrill, who plead guilty to breaking the window in Bush Arcade, valued at $50.00, sentenced to pay the costs of prosecution, $25.00 fine, and sixty days in jail.

Brinton Mongan, convicted of breaking into the store of John Risk, near Coleville, was sentenced to pay a fine of $1.00, costs of prosecution, and to the Huntingdon Reformatory.

John Ammerman, convicted of breaking into the same store, was sentenced to pay a fine of $1.00, costs of prosecution and two years to the penitentiary.

The Grand Jury made recommendation for slight improvements about the court house and jail.

The other criminal cases for the week's list were disposed of as follows:

Com. vs. O. L. Smith, charged with malicious mischief, prosecutor William Rimert, nolle prosequi.

Com. vs. Peter Rider, indicted for involuntary manslaughter, prosecutor Joseph I. Auman, continued.

Com. vs. William White and Pady Ryan, charged with burglary, prosecutor George M. Boal, continued.

Com. vs. Steve Berenti and Margaret Berenti, charged with aggravated assault, prosecutor S. R. McCartney, continued.

Com. vs. J. W. Ely, charged with assault and battery, prosecutrix Laura S. Runkle, continued.

Com. vs. Warren Sharrett, charged with neglecting to pay tax, prosecutor W. M. Riddle, tax collector, nolle prosequi.

Com. vs. O. L. Smith, charged with surety of the peace, prosecutor William Rimert, nolle prosequi.

Com. vs. Steve Berenti and Margaret Berenti, charged with malicious mischief, prosecutor S. R. McCartney, continued.

Com. vs. Charles Bechdel, charged with assault and battery, prosecutor J. Harris Clark, continued.

Com. vs. Samuel Ostrander, charged with being a public nuisance, prosecutor William Beezer. The court some time ago appointed a commission on this young man who found him a fit subject to be sent to an institution for the insane, and he was accordingly sent away.

Com. vs. Joseph Barner, charged with assault and battery, prosecutor William Bathurst, nolle prosequi.

Com. vs. Robert Harris, charged with larceny, prosecutor J. W. C. Kussick, nolle prosequi.

Com. vs. D. Z. Frain, charged with assault and battery, prosecutor John Dulen, nolle prosequi.

Com. vs. John Kelly, charged with assault and battery, prosecutrix Eva Kelly, settled.

The other civil cases of the week's Lutheran Minister Dies Suddenly.

Rev. I. M. McGann, pastor of the Lewisburg Lutheran church, died very suddenly in the Mary M. Packer Hospital at Sunbury Monday evening. Rev. McGann delivered the Baccalaureate Sermon to the graduating class of the Lewisburg High School on Sunday evening and on Monday was in the best of health. He went to Sunbury to attend the Lutheran Synod in session in that city, and took part in the discussions. In the afternoon he had a stroke of apoplexy. He was taken to the hospital where he passed away at 8:30 Monday evening. Rev. McGann was well known in Centre Hall and his many friends here will be shocked to hear of his untimely death. The funeral will take place today (Thursday) at Lewisburg.

Sabbath School Convention.

The district Sabbath School Convention held in Centre Hall Tuesday afternoon and evening was largely attended at both sessions. The program as published in last week's issue of this paper, was followed very closely. The discussions were profitable to Sabbath school workers—whether teachers or scholars.

The musical part of the program under the direction of Prof. P. H. Meyer was a prominent feature of the sessions.

The present officers of the association were re-elected.

The next convention will be held at Sprucetown.

Cemetery Association Meeting.

The reports of the various officers of the Reformed and Lutheran Cemetery Association indicate that the finances of the association are in good condition. Messrs. D. A. Boozer and H. G. Strohmeier were re-elected trustees. The president of the association stated that under the resolution passed at the last annual meeting he could report that the driveway on the east side of the cemetery was a public alley. The association also had its charter amended in conformity with the laws as interpreted by the supreme court.

Gentzel-Young.

The Reporter is pleased to tell its readers of the marriage of Grover C. Gentzel and Miss Ella Young, both of Altoona, which event occurred recently and the honeymoon trip to New York already over.

Mr. Gentzel is the son of George Gentzel, of Spring Mills, and has been engaged with the Pennsylvania Railroad Company at Altoona for several years, first in the Company's store house, and at present in the drafting department. The bride is a native of Altoona, and a charming young woman.

List were disposed of as follows:

Joseph Brothers & Company vs. W. C. Helnie, continued.

George R. Mock, administrator, vs. J. E. Hedding, H. Turner, nonresident, and Alton Nelson, resident, continued by agreement.

J. F. Guyer, vs. J. E. Hedding, H. Turner, nonresident, and Alton Nelson, resident, trading as the Beaver Run Coal Company, continued by agreement.

John Williamson vs. Edward Hughes, continued by agreement at costs of defendant.

Joseph Fritchard vs. J. W. Dunwiddie, settled.

H. A. Guyer, agent and tenant for Anna Francine vs. John Henderson and Milton Henderson, doing business as Henderson Brothers. Plaintiff suffered voluntary non suit.

Second Week of Court.

Court convened Monday morning at ten o'clock, and after hearing some motions and petitions the trial list was taken up and it was soon observed that there would be nothing for trial as the entire list went over, excepting two cases, by reason of some important witness or some one connected with the case being sick and the parties being unable to go to trial, and also by amendments to records, and in one or two cases for want of additional time for additional surveying. The two cases not thus disposed of were the case of Louise Bush vs. John G. Dubbs, which was settled. In the case of the Citizen's Building and Loan Association, of Osceola Mills, vs. Mary M. Pie, executrix of Justin Pie, and all the heirs of Justin Pie residing in different parts of the country, being a scire facias sur mortgage, and no defense made thereto, a verdict was rendered in favor of the plaintiff for $10900.07, together with an attorney's commission of $534.25.

Monday afternoon Charles Vieard and Hillery Vieard, convicted at August sessions, 1906, for interfering with the public officer, etc., motion made for new trial, which was refused.

Charles Vieard was sentenced to pay a fine of $10.00 and costs of prosecution; Hillery Vieard to pay a fine of $1.00, costs of prosecution and sixty days in jail.

The Jacob From case was called up and after some discussion the District Attorney entered a nolle prosequi and Mr. From was ordered discharged by the court. After which court adjourned.

Harris Township.

W. K. Cori, of College township, attended to business here last week.
David Stuart, of Bellevue Station, Pittsburg, is enjoying life with old acquaintances in Boalsburg and vicinity.
John Leech is home from Altoona for a rest.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stamm and daughters, Anna and Katharine, enjoyed a drive from Altoona to this part of the country, Saturday. They will spend some time with friends in this community.

Fred Stamm, of New Hamburg, spent Friday night at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Katharine Wieland. The young man is one of the graduating class at Franklin and Marshall College and expects to enter the Theological Seminary at Lancaster in September.

The base ball team of F. & M. College played the State College team on Friday. Saturday they had a game at Sunbury.

Miss Margaret Knox, of Cherokee, Iowa, was an arrival in Boalsburg Saturday, having come here to spend the summer. She will be the guest of her aunts, the Misses Elmira and Lucretia Goheen.

D. Keamer, of Watsonstown, was here last week in the interest of the International Manufacturing Company, of Chicago.

A. H. Hosterman departed Monday for a month's visit in some of the western states. Among others he will visit his brother, Newton, at Edwardsburg, Michigan, whom he has not seen for eighteen years. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Neidigh, of near State College, will accompany him in his travels.

Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Meyer visited friends in Aaronsburg over Sunday.

Monuments have recently been erected in the cemetery at Boalsburg in memory of Mary Knoph, Mary Hettlinger, Marion Murray, John and Rebecca Myers, Lot and Rebecca Kimport.

James J. Glenn, a student of Princeton Seminary, who is visiting his parents at the Branch, is invited to preach in the Presbyterian church, Sunday at 3 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. William Goheen, Miss Elmira Goheen, Daniel Patterson, Miss Margaret Knox, S. H. Bailey and Harry C. Bailey attended the funeral of John Goheen, at Rock Springs, Monday. Mr. Goheen was the oldest citizen in that locality, being almost eighty-nine years old. The funeral was largely attended. Interment was made at Graysville. Besides his own pastor, the Presbyterian minister from Bellefonte and the Presbyterian minister from Tyrone were present. All his children and nearly all his grandchildren were in attendance. His grandsons who were his namesakes acted as pall bearers. His nephew, Daniel Clemson, of Pittsburg, presented the flowers. Mr. Goheen was the last one of a large family.

Linden Hall.

Mrs. Daniel Bohn and children visited her parents, at Coleville, last week.

Mrs. Ida McClellan and sons, Carl and Rodney, were guests of her sister, Mrs. Harriet Long, at Spring Mills.

Miss Sadie Felding is on a two weeks' visit to her uncle's home, in Pittsburg. Wallace White is also visiting friends at the same place.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Lee spent Saturday and Sunday in Milton. During their absence Mr. Kerstetter, of Coburn, had charge of the railroad office.

Mr. and Mrs. George Traub, of Allentown, spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Isenberg, last week.

Mrs. Lloyd Smith and children, of Altoona, are visiting Lloyd Brown and family. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Potter, of the Glades, were recent visitors at the same place.

Mrs. Anna Williams, of Altoona, is spending a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. J. H. Ross.

George Meyer came up from Milton Saturday for a short visit at his mother's home. The young man is a telegraph operator at that place.

Members of Lemont Post G. A. R. will observe Memorial Day at Rock Hill at ten o'clock. They will be assisted by the Sunday school and citizens.

Many persons from a distance, who have friends buried in this cemetery, were here during the week, cleaning up the graves and planting flowering plants.

Nathaniel Zeigler and family were here a short time last week.

The Lemont Sunday school of the Presbyterian church will observe children's service Sunday, June 2nd, 10 o'clock. Rev. Harnish will have returned from the sessions of General Assembly, at Columbus, Ohio.

Daniel Treasler is again under the care of a physician.

George Miller, of Axe Mann, is employed at building new porches and otherwise improving Henry Houser's farm house.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Brooks and Mr. and Mrs. Cloyd Brooks drove across the Seven Mountains to Reedsville, Saturday, where they visited relatives, returning Monday.

The June issue of the Ladies' World which has just been received, is so far the handsomest number of the year, and its literary, fashion and household departments are full of attractive material.

Spring : 1907

Kuppenheimer Clothing
Imperial Hats, Guyer Hats
Jas. R. Keiser Neckwear
Shirts -- New Columbia and Manhattan

...Merchant Tailoring...

Full Line of Woolens to Select From.
B. V. D. Underwear
Etc.

Montgomery & Co.
Bellefonte

Foreman & Smith CENTRE HALL, PA.

Distributing Depot For "PITTSBURG PERFECT" FENCES

For some time we have been investigating a New Idea in Wire Fencing. After a most careful examination we have been convinced that we have found the best field fence manufactured. "Pittsburg Perfect" is made of all galvanized steel wire. It is the only fence welded by electricity. Every rod is guaranteed perfect. All large wires, the stays being the same size as line wires. It has no wraps to hold moisture and cause rust.

If You Are Looking For a Fence

- That will stand HARD USAGE,
- That will not SAG DOWN or CURL OVER on the top,
- That has stays that WILL NOT SLIP,
- That will CONFORM to UNEVEN GROUND,
- That has no SLACK WIRES,
- That does not require an EXPERT TO ERECT,
- That is LOW IN PRICE—

Then Buy "Pittsburg Perfect" Fence

We add our personal guarantee to everything claimed for it and would be pleased to submit prices.
Don't fail to see us before buying your fencing. Don't put it off until you are ready to use it, but place your order in advance, as we cannot carry all sizes in stock

Sore Nipples.

Any mother who has had experience with this distressing ailment will be pleased to know that a cure may be effected by applying Chamberlain's Salve as soon as the child is done nursing. Wipe it off with a soft cloth before allowing the babe to nurse. Many trained nurses use this salve with best results.

The Star Store, Centre Hall; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; C. W. Swartz, Tusseyville.

Advertise in the Reporter.

Improvements Under Way.

J. Shannon Boal is having his residence repaired. Carpenter Thomas and assistants began work on Jacob Sharer's new barn Wednesday. The Hagens are erecting the new porch for Merchant Meyer. A concrete walk is being put down around the bank building.

The Centre Hall Hospital Auxiliary will meet at the home of Mrs. Mary Shoop Monday evening.