

Presbyterian General Assembly.

The Presbyterian General Assembly continued in session until the end of last week, when it adjourned to meet one year later, in Kansas City, Mo.

The spirited debate over endorsement of the Anti-Saloon League ended in the church's adhering to its traditional policy of not affiliating with non-ecclesiastical bodies. At the same time the work of the League was highly commended and recommended to the hearty support of the church's members.

Union with the Cumberland church has greatly strengthened the church in the south and southwest making it as to extent a national church. It has also greatly augmented the work of the Home Mission Board which last year employed 1291 home missionaries and raised $963,326, closing the year without debt as has been done for the eight preceding years. $1,100,000 is needed for the work of next year.

The Foreign Board, which employs about 3500 missionaries, including native helpers, and whose work like that of the Home Board is meeting with great success, met all expenses for the year, but a debt remains from preceding years.

The Board of Education enrolled an increased number of candidates for the ministry—788, but more are needed, the church having now one candidate for every 1240 members as against one for every 640 members ten years ago.

The death of a good woman in England who will be the Board of Ministerial Relief $325,000, will enable that board to meet the increased demands.

One of the most radical acts was the final adoption of overtures on the appointment of Judicial Commissions. This gives the church what is practically a permanent Supreme Court for the hearing and decision of any judicial case that may be referred to it.

During the year the churches raised $123,000 to assist in the repair of church property destroyed by the earthquake on the Pacific coast. The actual loss was estimated at $179,665, on which $19,650 insurance was collected.

The assembly numbered about 1000, the largest in the history of the church.

DEATHS.

JOHN J. GOHEEN.

Friday evening the life of John J. Goheen passed into the other world. He was probably the oldest gentleman in Centre county, and has always lived at Rock Springs. When a small boy he united with the Presbyterian church and has lived according to that faith ever since. He was a son of Joseph Goheen, a pioneer settler of Pennsylvania. In 1844 he was married to Miss Sarah Rider, of Gatesburg, who died in 1891. John J. Goheen was the father of the late Rev. Milligan Goheen who passed away quite recently.

He was a successful farmer and was highly respected among the agriculturists of the county. When the Civil War broke out he was too old to go to the front but with his drum he led the boys of Company E, 45th Regiment to Camp Curtin at Harrisburg. He was born on the old homestead, August 30, 1818. The funeral took place Monday, interment at Gray's cemetery. His pastor, Rev. R. M. Campbell, of Graysville, officiated, assisted Rev. J. C. Kelley, of Hollidaysburg, and Rev. John Oliver, of Pittsburg.

He is survived by four sons and four daughters, viz: J. C., I. M. and H. B. Goheen, of Tyrone; Mrs. William McWilliams and Mrs. Frank Gardner, of Rock Springs; R. G. Goheen, of Pennsylvania Furnace, and Jennie and Bell Goheen, at the family home.

MRS. ROBERT SMITH.

Sunday morning the death of Emma, wife of Robert Smith, of Spring Mills, was announced. Mrs. Smith had been in failing health for over a year, her sickness being due to an affection of the stomach. Every effort was made to relieve her on the part of local physicians, and finally she was taken to a Williamsport hospital, but relief was only temporary.

The deceased was aged forty-eight years. She is survived by her husband and two daughters—Rosie and Ruth. She was the daughter of John F. Heckman, and the following full brothers and sisters survive: Mrs. Amanda Metz and Mrs. Mary Miller, Lena, Illinois; Mrs. Maggie Neese, Mrs. Ella Neese and Oscar Heckman, Penn Hall; Adam F. Heckman, Tusseyville.

Interment was made Wednesday morning, Rev. D. Gress, her pastor, officiating. The funeral services were largely attended, due both to the large number of relatives in the county and the high esteem in which the lady was held by her acquaintances.

AMOS OBERDORF.

Amos Oberdorf died at the home of his daughter, Nora, in Williamsport, aged eighty-three years. Interment was made at Jersey Shore. The deceased made his home with his son, Milton, who now lives at Yeagertown.

Mr. Oberdorf was a resident of Centre Hall for many years. About 18— he and his family, then consisting of a wife and the two children named above, moved from the house where B. D. Brisbin now lives, to near Hubersburg, where he purchased a farm. There he met with financial reverses, and later moved to Jersey Shore. He will be kindly remembered by all who knew him, having been always an honored citizen.

MRS. ANNA M. HARSHBARGER.

At her home in Hubersburg, Mrs. Anna M. Harshbarger, wife of David Harshbarger, passed to the peaceful and joyful rest beyond the grave. Deceased was born in York, and was at the time of her death seventy-one years, eight months and sixteen days old. Early in life she united with the Lutheran church at Aaronsburg.

Surviving her is her husband and following children: William Kurtz James Franklin, at home; Charles Cuddy, Montandon; Mrs. Florence McClain, Hecla.

Mrs. Sallie Purman, widow of John Purman, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Susan Wolfe, at Espy, Columbia county, aged eighty-eight years. She leaves to survive two sons, William and Cromer, of Washington, D. C., and two daughters, Mrs. Mary Kleckner, of Millheim, and Mrs. Emma Tracy, of Brooklyn, N. Y. She is also survived by two sisters, Mrs. Mollie West, of Chicago, and Mrs. Margaret Hartman, of Millheim. Interment was made at Espy.

Thomas Weaver died at his home in Tylersville, of dropsy, after a long illness. Deceased was aged seventy-one years, eight months, and leaves a wife and two sons.

Centre Countians' Reunion.

In response to an invitation extended by the Joint Council of the Centre Hall charge of the Lutheran church, Rev. B. F. Beiber, of Milton, will fill the appointments on the obarge as follows: Sunday, June 2nd, Georges Valley, morning; Union, afternoon; Spring Mills, evening. June 9th, Centre Hall, morning; Tusseyville, afternoon.

LOCALS.

Bradford's barn at Old Fort is almost completed.

The pink label will appear next week. Are you prepared for it?

The Newton Hamilton camp grounds will be tenters July 1st.

Misses Minnie and Flossy Geary, of Millheim, are at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Geary, in Centre Hall.

Miss Edith Sankey, of Potters Mills, recently returned from a most delightful trip to Harrisburg and other points.

Sunday William Carson and family, of Bellefonte, spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. D. Wion, in Centre Hall.

Reasick's furniture store is doing a splendid business. The delivery wagon is out every day. Nothing succeeds like success, you know.

Mrs. Sarah Miller, of Kantz, Snyder county, died suddenly Tuesday morning. The deceased was the sister of Hon. Henry Meyer, of Rebersburg.

Monday, June 3, is the day on which school boards throughout the state will reorganize. Bills, or any business to be brought before the present board, should be presented before that date.

The members of the Spring Mills Lodge, I. O. O. F., will join in the Memorial services at both Millheim and Aaronsburg. The order will be represented by a large percentage of its members.

The laying of the concrete walk around the Penns Valley Banking Company's building was begun Tuesday morning. Al. Stover, of Aaronsburg, is bossing the work, while Cashier Mingle keeps a close eye on the entire work.

A second cabinet and a new assortment of postal cards have been added to the Reporter's already splendid line of post cards. Scarcely a week goes by without the addition of a new lot of cards. Call to see the cards, and while here don't forget to register.

A number of handsome headstones and monuments were erected in the cemetery at Centre Hall by H. G. Strohmeier, the marble dealer. There are few cemeteries that have as fine and large monuments as will be found in this particular one, and again there is not another cemetery in the county kept as neat and clean.

The high prices paid for wool makes the sheep grower weigh his clippings and do a bit of calculating. This was the case with John W. Conley, east of Centre Hall, who weighed the wool from nine sheep clipped by Ira C. Bartley, and found the weight to be one hundred and eight pounds, an average of thirteen and one-ninth pounds of wool per sheep.

Sunday afternoon Mrs. Jane Harper, east of Centre Hall, fainted and fell to the floor. Her daughter, Mrs. George H. Emerick, with whom she makes her home, as well as the rest of the household, thought the aged lady had suffered a paralytic stroke, and that the result would be fatal. A physician was hurriedly called, and in a short time the patient revived. Her condition at present is normal.

About a week ago, Hon. L. Rhone had the misfortune to be struck on the foot by a piece of board while overseeing some repairs done to his farm above Centre Hall. While the injury was more or less painful from the beginning, it was thought that in a few days' time all would pass away, but instead the injured foot became much inflamed, necessitating Mr. Rhone to not only remain in the house but keep the bruised member resting quietly at an elevation.

George Clifford Rice, one of the most prominent and well-to-do business men in Reedsville, is lying in a very critical condition at the home of his daughter, in Philadelphia, where he is being attended by specialists. Mr. Rice is a man of large proportions, including heart, and last July fell backward from the rear of a wagon, and since that time he has at times suffered greatly. Tuesday night his condition was very serious, and there is little hope of his recovery.

Mrs. Sallie Purman, widow of John Purman, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Susan Wolfe, at Espy, Columbia county, aged eighty-eight years. She leaves to survive two sons, William and Cromer, of Washington, D. C., and two daughters, Mrs. Mary Kleckner, of Millheim, and Mrs. Emma Tracy, of Brooklyn, N. Y. She is also survived by two sisters, Mrs. Mollie West, of Chicago, and Mrs. Margaret Hartman, of Millheim. Interment was made at Espy.

Thomas Weaver died at his home in Tylersville, of dropsy, after a long illness. Deceased was aged seventy-one years, eight months, and leaves a wife and two sons.

Letter to F. E. Arney, Centre Hall, Pa.

Dear Sir: Take a two-story house and reckon the costs with different paints; you will be surprised. Say the house has a total of 3210 square feet.

Divide by 300; you buy 11 gallons. That's the rule, but it never comes out so.

Buy any other paint than Devco, you will have to buy more, up to possibly 23 gallons. Paint Devco and you'll have a gallon or two to return. Here are some experiences.

N. R. Watkins, Lott, Texas, used 13 gallons on his house before; bought 13 gallons Devco for same house and had 6 left.

C. B. Edwards, of Edwards & Broughton, printers, Raleigh, N. C., used 30 gallons paste paint on his house; bought 30 gallons Devco for same house and had 16 left. Go by the gallons left.

Yours truly, F. W. DEVOE & Co., New York.

Relief from Rheumatic Pains.

"I suffered with rheumatism for over two years," says Mr. Rolland Curry, of Key West, Fla. "Sometimes it settled in my knees and lamed me so I could hardly walk, at other times it would be in my feet and hands so I was incapacitated for duty. One night when I was in severe pain and lame from it my wife went to the drug store here and came back with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I was rubbed with it and found the pain had nearly gone during the night. I kept on using it for a little more than two weeks and found that it drove the rheumatism away. I have not had any trouble from that disease for over three months." For sale by
