THE CAPITOL ROBBERY.

The Money is Gone and Somebody Got It. Let the Governor and Attorney General Act at Once.

The evidence of wholesale jobbery and robbery in connection with the building or "trimming" of the State Capitol accumulates in a striking fashion. Whether it be furniture or painting or marble or barber racks or chandeliers, every trail leads directly to waste and graft which are not distinguishable to plain intelligences from preconcerted swindling and deliberate theft. So high is the mound of convincing fact and testimony that all the world may wonder.

The people of Pennsylvania at least are convinced. They recognize the enormity of the robbery and they want action. There is the amazing mass of evidence which is the most impressive monument of rascality of modern times. The money is gone and somebody got it. The courts are in good working order, their processes still run, and the Judges are ready to give a patient hearing to all well-founded criminal complaints. Is not the time approaching when the dignity of the people of this Commonwealth will be vindicated and the culprits punished? That is the question which citizens of this State are now seriously asking.

May it not be hoped that the Governor of the State and his Attorney General will make a record for this administration, and courageously and promptly strike home at the guilty, lay bare their perfidy and relentlessly punish them?

Moved to Salona.

Rev. J. M. Rearick and family moved to Salona Wednesday. Their household effects were shipped by rail Tuesday, and the family departed in the train the next morning.

Rev. Rearick had been pastor of the Centre Hall Lutheran charge, composed of five congregations, since October, 1894, succeeding Dr. W. E. Fischer, who had been the pastor of the charge for seventeen years. He came here from Rebersburg, which was his first charge. During his stay here he added many new members to the church, and necessarily performed many pleasant and unpleasant duties.

It is due Rev. Rearick to say that, like his predecessor, he did not leave the charge because of any dissatisfaction on the part of his people, a condition ministers should, and no doubt do, fully appreciate.

The Salona charge, of which Rev. Rearick has become pastor, is composed of but two congregations—Salona and St. Paul's, the latter along the pike between Salona and Lamar. His former parishioners and people in general wish the recent pastor success in his new field of labor, and also have the kindest feelings for the welfare of his wife and children.

June Wedding.

A pretty home wedding was solemnized Wednesday afternoon when Miss Ella Ross, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ross, of Linden Hall, became the bride of George M. Mothersbaugh, of Boalsburg.

The wedding march from Lohengrin was played by Miss Luella Ross, and precisely at four o'clock the young couple presented themselves before Rev. J. I. Stonecypher, of the Lutheran church, who performed the ceremony. The bride was attired in a handsome gown of Paris muslin and carried an elaborate bouquet of American beauty roses.

The guests, who numbered about fifty, were all relatives of the bride and groom and a few close personal friends of both.

Mr. Mothersbaugh has won one of the most beautiful and popular of the younger girls in the valley, and the many friends of both extend most hearty wishes for their future welfare. After a short wedding trip to Eastern cities the young people will return to Boalsburg where they will be at home to their friends.

Lutheran Appointments.

Three appointments will be filled next Sabbath on the Centre Hall Lutheran charge by Rev. B. F. Beiber, of Milton, namely: Centre Hall, morning; Tusseyville, afternoon; Spring Mills, evening. These appointments vary from the regular schedule and should be noted by the members. The disappointment experienced by some of the members last Sunday was no fault of Rev. Beiber's, but owing to a misunderstanding elsewhere.

Sunday, June 16th, Union, morning; Georges Valley, afternoon.

T. M. GRAMLEY,

INSTALLING TELEPHONES.

Two Branch Companies of The Patrons Rural Telephone Company Connected and in Operation.

Branch Companies No. 19 and 20, The Patrons Rural Telephone Company have completed the erection of their telephone lines, and Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday the instruments were installed.

Branch Company No. 19 begins at Centre Hall and extends to Tusseyville with two spurs, one running west to the McClellan homestead the other south to Colyer, making a wire line of about eight miles. The telephone subscribers on this line are Adam F. Heckman, Arthur B. Lee, David Stoner, Harry A. McClellan, Walter J. Copenhagen, William H. Lee, John R. Lee, William H. Cumings, William C. Farner, James H. Runkle, Elmer R. McClellan.

Branch Co. No. 20 begins at Centre Hall and extends along Brush Valley road west to near Linden Hall, with a spur running to the top of Nittany Mountain, the pole line being about the same length as that of the Company named above. The subscribers on this line are William S. Brooks, William E. Tate, Samuel Gingerick, Miss Mary Potter, Poorman & Hoover (Charles Poorman and Adam Hoover), George Breen (on Bartholomew farm), Joshua T. Potter, Howard Zeigler (on Rothrock farm), William Walker, J. W. Mowery, John A. Heckman, Calvin Horner.

Branch Company No. 18, leading from Centre Hall to Farmers Mills has its wires about all up, and in a few days will also have its telephones installed.

LOCALS.

WANTED—Four thousand eyes to gaze on the pink label of the Reporter. Samuel Ertle, in Georges Valley, is erecting a large barn, the dimensions being ninety-two by forty-five feet. That ought to hold the good crops from the Ertle farm.

With a view of making his home more convenient and at the same time improving its general appearance, Dr. J. R. G. Allison is erecting an addition to the rear of his dwelling.

The present week has been more like it. The sun has been out pretty regularly in the morning and left there until evening, causing the farmer to smile and thrust his hand into the soil to see whether mother earth is absorbing the rays sufficiently to boost the corn.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Shaffer and daughters, of Lewistown, were guests of the Burris families, west of Centre Hall. Mr. Shaffer is employed in the wheel finishing department of the Burnham Steel works, and thinks a great deal of his job, because it is bringing him good money.

Having given up conducting a butcher shop, M. M. Condo, of Daragh, is devoting some time to farming, and is preparing to handle all kinds of farm products both in small and car load lots. Mr. Condo is now in Centre Hall where he has been since the latter part of last week.

The Methodist Episcopal Sunday School of Centre Hall will observe next Sunday as Children's Day. An instructive and interesting program will be rendered at 7.30 o'clock. Everybody invited. Spruocetown has delayed their Children's Service until June 23, as has also Spring Mills. The former at 10 a. m. and the latter at 7.30 p. m.

Dr. Thos. S. Land is serving a Reformed charge at Manchester, Maryland. He was formerly pastor of the Reformed church in this place, and recently was the head of the Allen-town College for Women. He has many personal friends in and about Centre Hall who will wish him abundant success in his new field of labor.

After a two weeks' visit at Niagara Falls, B. H. Arney is expected home this (Thursday) afternoon. His daughter-in-law, Mrs. A. Miles Arney, and two children will accompany him, and remain here for some time. A. Miles Arney, whom the father visited, is one of the electricians at the greatest electric power producing plants in the world.

Mrs. J. Norris Miller, accompanied by her most interesting little son, Warren, of Sinking Spring, Berks county, is at present at the home of her brother, E. M. Huyett, in Centre Hall. Mr. Miller is an extensive horse dealer and trainer, and because there is such a great demand for horses of all kinds, he is not inclined to leave his business at present, and consequently sent the family here alone.

The Penn's Valley Ministerial Association met Tuesday in the home of Rev. A. A. Black, at Boalsburg. Revs. Black, Stonecypher, Schuyler, Gress, Boal, Bergstresser and McInlay were present. Rev. D. M. Wolf, D. D., of Spring Mills, was present by invitation. Rev. G. W. McInlay read a sermon from Luke 15-18. It was commended upon by all present. Rev. Stonecypher read a splendid paper on "The Best Use of the Minister's Time." The Association will take a vacation during July and August. The next meeting will be with Rev. McInlay in September.

Harris Township.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gramley and little son, of Altoona, spent a week with friends at Boalsburg, Oak Hall and State College.

Miss Margaretta Goheen returned home last Wednesday from Phillipsburg, where she had been engaged at teaching during the past nine months.

Foster Charles was home from Pittsburg, for a visit to his parents. John Williams, of Port Matilda, visited his brother, E. R. Williams, last week.

J. L. Holmes and family and J. P. Weber and family, of State College, attended the Memorial services in Boalsburg.

Mrs. Mattie Twig and daughters, Esther and Ruth, of Curwensville, visited in Boalsburg, Lemont and State College.

Misses Rilla and Daisy Keller, of Houserville, with their cousins, Misses Ellen and Teresine Kimport, of Bellefonte, enjoyed a few days with their aunt, Miss Mary Felty.

The refreshments furnished by the Presbyterian ladies on the evening of Memorial day were first class. They cleared $60.

Master Cyrus Wagner, of Juniata, is enjoying this week with his cousin, Guyer Durst.

At a meeting held in the Reformed church Saturday evening to elect trustees for the cemetery, H. C. Rothrock and O. W. Stover were elected. J. N. Dinges and Henry Fredericks are still in office. Information relating to the cemetery can be obtained by calling on any of the above named.

Wm. Kramer visited his parents, near Rock View. He enjoyed part of the time fishing.

Miss Nora Myers, of Hartleton, was a guest at the Lutheran parsonage from Wednesday until Friday. During the time she also enjoyed the sights at State College.

Mrs. Cyrus Durst, while dusting the top of a high cupboard, fell from a step ladder last Wednesday and sprained her left knee. She is unable to be about and suffers considerable pain. Her daughter, Mrs. Samuel Wagner, of Juniata, is caring for her.

Prof. E. H. Myers, of Bellefonte, and Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Kuhn and daughter, Mildred, of Rebersburg, visited in Boalsburg, and participated in the Memorial services.

Mrs. Julia Musser, of Pine Grove Mills, enjoyed a week with Mrs. Fisher and Mrs. Sweeney. She was also an honored guest at the Mothersbaugh-Ross wedding, being a great aunt of the bride. Mrs. Margaret Keller, grandmother of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Musser were the oldest persons who witnessed the ceremony.

Mrs. Ella Hunter Stairs, of Youngwood, was a guest at the W. A. Murray home during the past week.

George Young, of Pine Hall, was a guest at the home of William Brouse on Memorial day.

Mrs. Anna Morrow, of Arch Spring, and Mrs. Laura Weston and little son, of Altoona, were visitors at the J. M. Wieland home over Sunday.

D. K. Mothersbaugh and family, of Williamsport, were guests at the Mothersbaugh-Ross wedding on Wednesday. They will spend a month with their parents and other friends in this locality.

Mrs. Maude Whitehill and her little girls, of Lemont, spent Memorial day in Boalsburg.

A. B. Kimport and family, of Bellefonte, were in Boalsburg on Memorial day, guests of Grandfather Adam Felty.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Weaver and daughter, Miss Mary, of Lemont, were entertained at the home of E. R. Williams on Memorial day.

The regular June picnic held by the young people of this place and vicinity will be held June 15th, at Shingle-town Gap.

Sober.

Joseph Auman, who cut his foot very badly several weeks ago, is much improved.

B. Breen left for Slate Run, where he is working in the woods.

The farmers are wishing for warm weather so the corn can come up.

Supervisors are busy making road. Jacob Kern, who had been at Patton for some time, returned home Saturday.

H. V. Gentzel bought a phonograph and is having music every evening.

John Confer went to Richley's lumber job, where he has secured work for the summer.

Grange Program.

The following program has been arranged for the meeting of Progress Grange, Saturday afternoon: Recitation, Edith Lutz.

Duet, Sara Breen and Bertha Strohmeier.

Should young men who desire to pursue farming for a livelihood qualify themselves with a special school training for agricultural pursuits?—General discussion.

How to secure a change each day in the week's variety for dinner.
What are the present outstanding revenues of our grange?—By the Secretary.
