HIGH FIRE AT MACKEYVILLE.

Disastrous Fire in Mackeyville in Which a Boy Lost His Life.
Monday about 3:30 o'clock, while Andrew Smith, a highly respected and retired farmer, was sitting on his porch in Mackeyville, the alarm was given that his stable was on fire. He hurried to the stable and released his horses, not knowing that his little grandson was in the upper part of the stable burning to death.

Mrs. Walizer saw the boy appear at the window of the stable. He called, "catch me," and then, overcome by smoke, fell back into the flames and was burned to death. The body of the six year old boy was not recovered until after the stable had burned down.

The fire spread rapidly, burning Alfred Heltman's house, in which Mr. Smith lived, then consumed John Solt's stable and house, Mrs. Katie Lee's stable, and Lloyd Greek's stable and shoemaker shop.

An appeal was sent to Mill Hall for help. The fire company promptly responded and arrived at Mackeyville about 6 o'clock, after the fire had spent its fury.

It is thought by some that the fire originated from a spark of a passing train. Very little insurance was carried on any of the properties burned.

Mr. Smith, who is a brother of Isaac Smith, east of Centre Hall, and uncle of L. L. Smith, the grain dealer, has the sympathy of the entire community, not only for the loss of his grandson, but also for the loss of all his personal property.

2. "Birds-eye View of Centre Hall," from Nittany Mountain.
3. Lutheran, Reformed and Presbyterian Churches.
4. View of Main street from Grange Arcadia southward, and from Presbyterian church northward.
5. View of Main street south from residences of W. B. Mingle, Esq., and D. J. Meyer, and Diamond looking north.
6. Old Fort Hotel.
7. Centre Hall Hotel.
8. "Marker in Indian Lane," erected in memory of two Revolutionary soldiers killed by two Indians in a hand to hand conflict.
9. General view of Grange Encampment and Fair, showing tents, etc.
10. Obelisk built of fruit and products of the field, garden and vineyard, Grange Encampment and Fair.
11. Entrance to Penns Cave.

These eleven cards will be mailed to any address for FORTY CENTS. Remittance may be made in one or two cent postage stamps. Address: THE CENTRE REPORTER, Centre Hall, Pa.

88 YEAR OLD SOMNAMBULIST FALLS

From Second Story of Veranda—Both Arms Broken, but Remained Conscious Through It All.
Mrs. Louisa Brackbill, of Bellefonte, aged eighty-eight years, got up in her sleep Tuesday night, and about one o'clock fell from the second story of the veranda at the home of her son, W. R. Brackbill.

After being carried to her room, examination revealed that both her arms were broken, and many other bruises sustained.

Several physicians held consultation Wednesday morning, after which the fractures were reduced. At the time the Reporter went to press, Mrs. Brackbill's condition was reported slightly improved.

The unfortunate lady is a sister of James Runkle, of Tusseyville.

LOCALS.
W. W. Montgomery, ex-postmaster of Bellefonte, is at death's door. The end of his life is momentarily looked for.

Mrs. John W. Mersinger, of Tusseyville, who has been ill for some time is in a very precarious condition as the Reporter goes to press.

Mrs. W. H. Snyder and children, of Hicks Run, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Garis, in Centre Hall, beginning of the week.

A Slight Mistake.
Chitto Harjo was pleading in Washington for the Indians' right to roam in nomad fashion, like their fathers.

"They tell us to trust to fortune," Chitto Harjo said, "and then we'll get our rights. But we are tired of trusting to fortune. Fortune has used us Indians as it used the pale face instructress at the Indian school in 1897."

Chitto Harjo smiled and went on: "This instructress found a horseshoe, and to get good fortune put it under her pillow, along with her false teeth. In the morning in the hurry of dressing, she substituted the shoe for the teeth and did not discover her mistake till her affianced husband asked her in tones of horror at breakfast what was the matter with her mouth."

When Oregon Was in the Balance.
There is no boundary in the world of greater political importance than the forty-ninth parallel, which divides Canada from the United States. When this boundary was under discussion, the Pacific coast was almost inaccessible, and the ownership of Oregon, now a state of vast wealth, with opulent cities and a teeming population, was in the balance. The matter was settled by the report of Captain Temple, a brother of Lord Palmerston, who wrote to the admiralty "that the country was not worth a cuss because the salmon would not take a fly."—Manchester Chronicle.

The Only Way.
"I am writing an article," he said, "on 'The Way to Manage a Woman.'"
"I suppose it will be a long one," she replied in a slightly scornful tone.
"No," he answered, "it will be quite short. In fact, it will consist of only two words—'Don't try.'"—Birmingham Post.

Long Wait.
"Grandpa, how old are you?"
"I am eighty-seven years old, my dear."
"Then you were born eighty years before I was. What a long time you had alone waiting for me!"

Worse Still.
Griggs—The idea of your letting your wife go round saying she made a man of you! You don't hear my wife saying that. Briggs—No, but I heard her telling my wife that she did her best.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know it.
How To Find Out.
Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to Do.
There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail.

Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.
Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Constipation.
For constipation there is nothing quite so nice as Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They always produce a pleasant movement of the bowels without any disagreeable effect. Price, 25 cents. Samples free at The Star Store, Centre Hall; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; C. W. Swartz, Tusseyville.

PHILADELPHIA'S GREAT WEEK
July 15 to 20, when the Elks hold their Annual Reunion in Philadelphia, will be a glorious week in the Quaker City. Not for years have such elaborate preparations been made to honor the City's guests as those which are now being made to welcome members of the Order, and to entertain the thousands who are expected to visit the city during the week.

A grand Court of Honor in Broad Street, the most magnificent structure of the kind ever erected in America, and costing $50,000, will be a great feature of the occasion. Every night during the week this Court of Honor, together with the City Hall, will be illuminated by myriads of electric lights of various colors.

On Wednesday, July 17, a massed band parade of over 2000 musicians will take place.
On Thursday, July 18 the Grand Parade of all visiting Elks will occur. Over 15,000 men from all sections of the country will participate. Each Lodge will have its own band and will wear a distinct uniform. Each uniform will typify the state or city represented by the lodge. Many of the uniforms will be historical and picturesque.

On Saturday, July 20, there will be a grand excursion to the seashore. Atlantic City, Cape May, Wildwood, Ocean City, Asbury Park, and other popular resorts are within easy reach of Philadelphia by the fast express of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

Excursion tickets to Philadelphia will be sold July 13 to 17, inclusive, at reduced rates from stations over 100 miles from Philadelphia.

For exact fares and conditions of tickets, consult nearest Pennsylvania Railroad Ticket Agent.

Best Medicine in the World for Colic and Diarrhoea.
"I find Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to be the best remedy in the world," says Mr. C. L. Carter, of Skirm, Ala. "I am subject to colic and diarrhoea. Last spring it seemed as though I would die, and I think I would if I hadn't taken Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I haven't been troubled with it since until this week, when I had a very severe attack and took half a bottle of the twenty-five cent size of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and this morning I feel like a new man." For sale by The Star Store, Centre Hall; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; C. W. Swartz, Tusseyville.
