OLUIE WOLF KILLED.

Caught Between the Buts of Two Trees Money Given Freely by State Lodges--Will While at Work in Richley's Camp Friday.

A young man in the prime of life was so badly injured while working in Board of Directors of the Central the Seven Mountains, at Richley's Pennsylvania Orphans' Home was Camp, Friday morning, that he died held recently at the Orphanage, near at six o'clock in the evening. The Sunbury. Thirty-five out of the young man was Ollie Wolf, son of the forty directors were present. The Oscar Wolf, of near Zerby Station, principal business of the day was the aged eighteen years. Mr. Wolf was receiving of the reports of the various exceedingly stout, robust and fearless.

ucation and finance. The progress Friday morning the unfortunate young man and his companion began made towards collecting funds for the sawing down trees. One tree lodged erection of the new buildings of the oragainst another tree, making it necesphanage was reported as excellent. sary to cut the second before the first There is $16,000 in the building fund would fall. This operation is always and $7,000 in the general fund. All considered to be attended with danger connected with the project have gone by woodsmen, and this instance was to work with the greatest enthusiasm not an exception to the rule. Mr. Wolf to raise the necessary money. Even the stood between the two trees to manip- children themselves, by their enterulate the saw, and when the trees fell tainments, raised $2,800 to help in this the buts of them struck together. They good cause. The members of the variquickly rebounded, but for an instant ous lodges responded promptly to their a human being formed the wedge be- assessment of twenty-five cents per tween them. The stroke was a terrific capita and money rolled into the cofone, and was landed above the hips. passing the dreams of the promoters.

Although suffering great pain he walked to the camp, and after reaching it, Dr. H. S. Braucht was summoned. An examination of the injuries revealed that several ribs were jected. The sum of $21,800 is necessary injured, and that the greatest damage had been done to the internal organs. Death was the result of internal hemorrhages.

The watch carried by the young woodsman was struck with such force as to badly injure the case and break the crystal.

Interment was made at Cross Church, Monday morning. His age that all the projected buildings will be attend. was eighteen years, five months and finished and ready for dedication by thirteen days.

The Reporter's Register.

Ralph Bitner, Millersville Mrs. W. E. Spangler, Chicago, Ill. Miriam Spangler, Chicago Arthur Spangler, Chicago Gertrude M. Spangler, Cen're Hall Mrs. Chas. D. Bartholomew, Centre Hall Margaret Bartholomew, Centre Hall Mrs. R. E. Hockman, Philadelphia Mrs. Wm. H. Forbes, West Philadelphia Mrs. V. A. Auman, Centre Hall Harry Musser, Penns Cave Estie Musser, Penns Cave Bertha Weaver, Spring Mills Chas. W. Weaver, Spring Mills Ethel Sechrist, Centre Hall Helen M. Sechrist, Holtz Maude Sechrist, Holtz Maude Elizabeth Sechrist, Centre Hall Helen L. Luse, Centre Hall Mabel E. Myers, Boalsburg Ethel N. Gingrich, Boalsburg Mrs. L. B. Wolfe, Lewisburg Miss I. B. Wolfe, Lewisburg Mrs. F. E. Richards, Pittsburg Mrs. R. T. Selgle, Pittsburg Mrs. Calvin Horner, Centre Hall

Ralph ung Opera Co.-Herbert Can

THE I. O. O. F. ORPHANAGE, LOCALS Mrs. Harry L. Stuart and little son Calvin, of Tyrone, are guests of the Build Girls' Dormitory-Have Sufficient family of Dr. George Lee. Funds on Hand-Corner Stone Laying.

The semi-annual meeting of the Black spots on the character are the specks are difficult to erase.

> A clerk in the Treasury Department at Washington had his leg broken by falling on him.

Rev. H. W. Bender, pastor of the Lutheran church in Philipsburg, has tendered his resignation, to become effective October 1st.

Rev. D. Gress and family, Wednesday, went to Adamsburg and other rites will be performed Friday mornpoints about Pittsburg. They will be ing by her pastor, Rev. G. W. Mellgone several weeks.

Miss Cora Brown, of near Potters Mills, was in Centre Hall from Saturday until Monday, being the guest of Miss Virginia Durst.

Harold Alexander, son of Abner W. Alexander, at Earlystown, fell from a roller Wednesday evening, and fers of the fraternity in streams sur- injured his arm somewhat.

> Mrs. George Miller, of Axe Mann, Wednesday came to Centre Hall and ago in Tyrone. Her age was sixtyuntil Saturday will be the guest of six years, nine months and twenty-Mrs. Rebecca Floray, in Centre Hall, eight days.

Dr. Stuart C. Runkle, of Philadelphia, was in the valley recently, makadditional will be sufficient to erect a ing his headquarters at his pretty girls' dormitory. The plans will be country home, on the pike east of Old extended, and the new dormitory Fort.

Sheffer's celebrated ice cream, manufactured at Dewart, will be served at The corner stone laying has been set the M. E. festival in Grange Arcadia attack of heart trouble, but presently for August 15th. It is now believed Saturday evening. Do not fail to

> J. Harold Rodabaugh, of Pittsburg, recently visited friends at the lower

Mrs. John Rossman, nee Miss Annie Dinges, is at the home of her mother in Centre Hall. Mr. and Mrs. Rossman spent the greater part of their time since their marriage about Pittsof seventy-three years. The bicycle burg where they may locate permantrip to Mr. Neff's and later to Centre ently.

Hall was highly enjoyed by both. Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Faust, of Juniata, This was Mr. Neff's old home, and made a sorrowful trip to Penns Valley fifty and more years ago, Rev. Neff's beginning of this week. They accomfather-Msjor Neff-was a prominent panied the body of their seven months figure in and about Centre Hall. Rev. old son Raymond, who died Monday, Neff and one sister, Evelyn, wife of and interred it in the Sprucetown James A. Grove, of Larned, Kansas, cemetery. Mr. Faust is a railroad are the only ones now living of the clerk in Altoona, and formerly was from Potters Mills.

> John Coble, Jr., of Linden Hall, was throughout this county as a carriage a caller Tuesday to advance his sub- builder and musical director. He was scription on the Reporter. Mr. Coble a son of Henry N. Krape, of Salona, DEATHS. MRS. W. F. SMITH.

Mrs. Smith, wife of Ex-Prothonotary William F. Smith, of near Millheim, died Wednesday morning at sometimes made by white lies, and two o'clock. The day previous Mrs. Smith and a little girl who lives with them made a trip to Millheim, and it was on her return from that place that more than a million dollars of currency she was stricken with paralysis. On reaching her home she was unconscious, and was tenderly carried to the house, medical aid summoned, but nothing could be done for her-death terminated her life as stated above. Mrs. Smith was a member of the Methodist church, and the last sad nay. Interment at Millheim.

The deceased was a daughter of David Kimport, - and was born on the old Kimport homestead, in Harris township, and later removed to near the Red Mill, on the farm now owned and occupied by John Bubb.

Mrs. Smith's christian name was Margaret Ellen, and she was the only one remaining of the family, her brother John having died a few years

The husband and one daughter-Anna M., wife of Marcellus Sankey, of Potters Mills, survive.

JOHN F. GRAY.

John F. Gray, of State College, died Thursday morning of last week. A few days prior to his death he had an he was relieved, and went about his business as before. The morning of his death he arose as usual, and was engaged in giving directions to several end of Penns Valley. Mr. Rodabaugh carpenters employed by him when he is a clerk in the Westinghouse offices suddenly expired, without a struggle or indication of a particle of pain.

> Mr. Gray was born in Fillmore, and was aged a little over forty-nine years. He was married to Ella M. Mattern, who survives him as do also four children-Oscar, Myrtle, Shenson and Florence.

> Mr. Gray was engaged in the insurance business, and was the senior member of the firm of John F. Gray & Son, with offices at State College and Bellefonte. As a business man,

> D. B. KRAPE. D. B. Krape, of Williamsport, died a few days ago. For many years he was a resident of Salona, andis kno wn

Mr. Gray was held in high esteem.

We have on hand a large number of the celebrated Keith's Konqueror Shoes for Men. Price $2.50 & $3.00

A full line of Men's and Boys' Shirts at 50 cents and $1.00.

Kreamer & Son. Centre Hall

Lend Us Your Ear, Mr. Farmer !

You will never regret it.

TELEPHONE SERVICE IN YOUR HOME A Protection

A Convenience

A Necessity.

Rates very reasonable. Let us explain our Co-operative plan to you. Telephone, write or call upon the manager.

PENNSYLVANIA TELEPHONE CO Contract Dept., Bellefonte, Pa.

A nice line of Men's fine

....SHIRTS...

73-Year Old Minister Biking. in the Smoky City. Rev. and Mrs. Isaac P. Neff, of Siglerville, Saturday mounted their bicycles and rode to the home of their nephew, William R. Neff, near Tusseyville. Rev. Neff has retired from the ministry, having attained the age

Shope, Edgar Miles, Ray Baird, Mahlon Baird, at the M. E. festival. Ethel Twitmyer, Bettie Haupt, Edna McCullough Ida Orvis, Lee Smith, Mac Housel, John Bryan, Roland Bryan, Perry Kanarr, Ed. Franks, W. B.

Milles, Jr., E. W. Grove. J. W. Conley, Centre Hall Marcella L. Boggs, Milesburg Esther A. Foreman, Centre Hall J. Elmer Royer, Centre Hall J. Roy Shaffer, Graysville Edward Durst, Centre Hall Rev. I. P. NefLand wife, Milroy R. C. Faust, Juniata Mary Cooney, Colyer W. F. Keller, Centre Hall W. R. Keller, Spring Mills Anna Mitterling, Centre Hall Cora Brungart, Centre Hall Mayme Emerick, Centre Hall J. R. Frazier, Centre Hall

Teachers Elected.

COLLEGE TOWNSHIP. Oak Hall grammar, Margaretta Goheen Oak Hall primary, Gertrude Wieland Houserville, Miriam Dreese Dale, Miss Jacobs Pleasant View, Sophia Thompson Lemont, G. W. R. Williams Centre Furnace, Branch and Township High School not supplied.

FERGUSON TOWNSHIP. Pine Grove Mills grammar, Gertie Keichline Pine Grove Mills primary, Nancy Heberling Fairbrook, John C. Homan Marengo, Ralph Harpster Pine Hall, Alberta Dreiblebis Glades, Sarah McWilliams White Hall, Homer Decker Oak Grove, William Garner Krumrine, N. N. Hartsock. Kepler, Harry Walker Gatesburg, O. M. Wrye Branch, G. B. Mc. Fry Centre, Miss Peters HOWARD TOWNSHIP.

Fairview, W. S. Thompson Confer's, Blanche Gardner Furnace, Flora Pletcher Sand Hill, Pearl Gates Kennedy, Mrs. Laura Bechdel Frog Pond, Estella Bitner Mt. Eagle, Maude Deitz

Grange Program.

The following program has been arranged for the meeting of Progress Grange Saturday evening at 7 o'clock : Recitation, Mrs. David Bradford. Song by the Grange. Select reading, Mrs. Ross. Questions for general discussion : Should wheat and oats be cured in the sheaf, before moving into barn?

Methods of canning fruits. The cause and remedy for smut in wheat.

Post Cards.

A new line of Souvenir Post Cardsall kinds and at all prices. The local Centre Hill; L. E. Swartz and John views are the prettiest yet offered for Hoy, Jr., Hublersburg. sale at this office.

dred kinds.

Laundry Notice.

Monday.

Dr. William Frear will hereafter do

others.

Janunry 1, 1908.

the food analyzing for the state pure food department. He holds his appointment under Governor Stuart.

LOCALS.

Saratoga chips by the box, for sale

family of eighteen children.

committees on supplies, property, ed-

With such backing the directors saw their way clear to erect another dormitory in addition to those already proto construct the boys' dormitory and the administration building; $8,000

rushed to completion along with the Misses Maude and Helen M. Sechrist, of Holtz, last week, were guests of the family of their uncle. Rev. J. R. Scenrist.

Autos are becoming numerous in Bellefonta. Among those who most recently purchased machines were W. Harrison Walker, Esq., and W. A. Moore.

Potato fields indicate a good crop for September and October. The vines flicted. are prolific with blossoms which is a a certain forcast the vines will be loaded with tubers.

Mrs. H. W. Pletcher, of New York, Rhone. Mr. Conklin made a tour is at present at the home of her parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. R. Sechrist. north of Centre Hall. It will be re-Mr. Pletcher is engaged in the Penn- membered that the State's lands, tosylvania railroad station in New York gether with many hundreds of acres City.

Prof. Poffenberger, who a few years parties, was greatly injured by a ago taught the Pine Grove Mills High forest fire which originated above Cen-School, was a visitor to that town a tre Hall. be out after having gone through a Centre Hall for a brief vacation. He sister-Ralph and Mary, siege of typhoid fever.

The Educational Association - of his parents and brothers-Ralph and Pennsylvania which recently con. Lynn-is at the home of Druggist J. vened at Greensburg will meet at State D. Murray. Mr. Bitner is city asso-College next year. There are over a ciate editor of the Pittsburg Press, and thousand members and among them as a newspaper man has been very Barley..... are the leading educators of the state.

Mabel E. Myers and Ethel N. Gingerich, two pretty little maidens from Boalsburg, were guests of Mr. ciate. and Mrs. Harry Shirk in Centre Hall, last week, and were accompanied to Melvin Treaster, an all around sport the Reporter office by their friend and ladies man, arrived in Bellefonte Helen L. Luse.

Register and Recorder W. A. Snyder, of Clinton county, the latter part of last was able to return to the court house and resume his duties, after having been laid up for a week or more on account of several very interesting carbuncles.

splendid position with the Altoona Road viewers meet Monday, 29th Street Railway Company. He is one inst., to decide whether or not the of the best sports that ever went down road from Gilltown leading by A. V. the "pike" and has hosts of friends, Miller's and intersecting the public both in Bellefonte and down through road at Pleasant Gap, shall be vacated. Penns Valley, who feel pleased that he The gentlemen appointed to perform is making a success in his work. this work are W. M. Grove, surveyor, Miss Esther J. Nolan died Tuesday Paul Witmer, son of W. W. Wit- morning at Marfa, Presidio county, Birthday, Stork, Art, Poses, Comic mer, of Buffalo Run, was out in the Texas, aged about thirty years. Miss Cards, etc., etc., --more than one hun- field mowing when his horses fright- Nolan went to California several years ened and ran away. In attempting to ago with the hope of regaining her stop them he was knocked down and health, and later went south to Texas. trampled upon, sustaining an ugly cut The young lady was known about Laundry will be sent from this office on the leg from the horse's hoofs. No Potters Mills, having made her home Friday morning, and will be returned bones were broken, and he fortunately for a number of years with Daniel escaped being caught in the machine. Daup.

Saturday evening in Grange Arcadia, is almost seventy-seven years of age, who survives him, as do also his wife, but is quite active and capable of doing two sons, Harry, of Philadelphia, and much manual labor. For a period of Charles, of Williamsport, and Miss almost three years he was in service Susan, at home. He is also survived during the war of the sixties. having by one brother, Jacob P., and one sisbeen a member of Company C, 148th ter, Mrs. Luther Sigmund, of Lamar township, Clinton county. His age Regiment. was about seventy years.

Nathaniel Dorman, of Snydertown, was seriously injured by being thrown from a load of hay, Saturday after-

Conklin was in Centre Hall a few days ago, and called on Hon. L.

some of his friends, says the Bellefonte Daily News. Melvin is a Penns

Valley boy who went to Altoona and through his courteous, kindly disposition has worked himself into a

Miss Esther Noian Dead.

noon. He was driving a team hitched Saturday evening, William Thomas Hillibish was instantly killed by a to a broad tired wagon, and on descending a hill the wagon slid, the train striking him while walking rear end striking a post. The sudden along the tracks at New Florence, his stop of the horses threw Mr. Dorman kome. He was a mechanic, and was from the load of hay. Several ribs on his way to perform a piece of work were broken and other injuries in- for his employers. His age was fiftyone years. He was the son of Nicholas Hillibish and was born in Bellefonte, Forestry Commissioner Robert S. where interment was made.

RAYMOND FAUST.

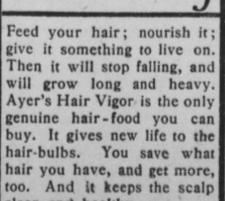

WM. THOMAS HILLIBISH.

A sad death occurred in the family over a portion of Nittany Mountain, of Roland C. Faust, in Juniata, Monday morning, when their little son, aged seven months passed to the beyond. The remains were shipped timber land belonging to private to Centre Hall Tuesday, and Wednesday interment was made at Sprucetown cemetery, near the home of the father. Besides the parents to mourn short time ago. He was just able to Harry Bitner, of Pittsburg, is in the little one's death are a brother and is a son of Dr. H. F. Bitner, and with Tablets, all sizes, at the Reporter office. GRAIN MARKET.

clean and healthy. The best kind of a testimonial-"Sold for over sixty years."

Made by J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass Also manufacturers of ers Pills. CHERRY PECTORAL.

Subscribe for the Reporter.

Spring Mills, Pa., R. t. d.