MRS. J. W. MERSINGER

After an illness of some duration, Mrs. John W. Mersinger died Thursday morning at her home at Tusseyville, aged seventy years. Interment was made at Tusseyville, Saturday forenoon, Rev. B. F. Beiber, pastor of the Lutheran church, assisted by Rev. S. H. Deitzell officiated.

Mrs. Mersinger's maiden name was Carolina Decker. Her husband and four children-John, of South Dakota; Elward, at home; Lizzie, wife of Alfred Osman, of Altoona; Ella, wife of William Hess, of Pittsburg, survive as do also the following brothers and sisters : John, Potters Mills; George, Sober; Mrs. Kate Wageley, Bellefonte; Mrs. Amanda Ripka, State College; Mrs. William Reiber, Tusseyville : Mrs. Lydia Moyer, Port Royal.

JOHN PASTORIUS.

In 1838 Abraham Pastorius moved from near the farm now occupied by Wells Evans, in Georges Valley, to Oil Creek township, Venango county, taking with him his family, one of whom-John Pastorius-died a short time ago, aged seventy-nine years. Death was due to valvular heart trouble and was very sudden. He is survived by a widow, a Venango county lady, and two sons.

In the early part of the nineteenth century the name of Pastorius was prominent in Georges Valley. The head of the family-Wm. Pastoriusmigrated to Venango county in 1828, making the trip with a pair of oxen.

Deceased was a farmer and was actively engaged in that pursuit when he died. He was a cousin of Geo. M., J. Shannon and Dr. J. W. Boal.

Mrs. Eve Stover, wife of A. J. Stomonths and twenty-eight days. She were held Friday morning in the Reformed church at Coburn, conducted by Rev. W. D. Donat. Interment at Wolfs Chapel, east of Aaronsburg.

These brothers and sisters also survive: Michael Stover, Feidler; Emanuel Stover, St. Joseph, Michigan; Adam Stover, Clifford, Michigan; Mrs. M. L. Emerick, Centre Hall, and Mrs. Ezra Auman, Millheim.

the home of his brother Hugh, in out of danger. The snake was killed, cured, and with these a large copper- had tried. For sale h Beech Creek. Though he had not been feeling well for several days there was nothing alarming in his condition until the afternoon of the day of home and when the boy was in the his death, when he walked out into top, the limb upon which he was the yard and fell over dead. Acute indeath.

months and thirteen days old and up- head on the stones, inflicting a terrible married. His parents are d ad and his only immediate relative is his was summoned, says the Journal, and brother Hugh, with whom he made found it necessary to etherize the boy his home, and who with his wife were before the wound could be dressed. at Smullton visiting relatives when the young man died.

side near Port Matilda, but who for at Centre Hill. He is assistant train clerk in the Vulcan Trading comps- P. R. R, and while the golden sheaves ny's store at Wallaceton, died from of wheat and hay cocks would not be appendicitis. He was about twenty- obedient to his command, he made one years of age, and a steady, indus- them move along at the end of the ago, his parents and a number of Lola Strohm from Philadelphia to her brothers and sisters.

W. W. Mayes, an old Centre coun- months. tian, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. Finley Bell, in Englewood, N. J. His death was very sudden, he not having been sick at all. Deceased was aged eighty-two years and four without permission from the water months, and was born in Ferguson committee, township, this county, where he spent the early part of his life. The remains were taken to Grampian, Clearfield county, where interment was made

Mrs. Mary Hadson died-at her home in Philadelphia after a brief illness She was born at Pleasant Gap and was a daughter of the late John Barnes. Her husband died several years ago leaving her quite a fortune. Among her surviving relatives are Robert Barnes, night watchman at the Brockerhoff house, Bellefonte, and Mrs. John F. Harrison, of Jersey Shore.

ROBERT H. MOORE.

burg Friday, aged forty-six years. He was a son of the late John Moore, of visiting her mother. College township, and was manager of the wholesale and retail meat market employed in Buffalo, N. Y., for more of Mock & Moore. He is survived by than a year, returned home Monday, his wife, nee Miss Sarah Schrack, of Lemont, and two sons.

Mrs. Mary C. Carr died at her home in Milesburg, after a lingering illness is survived by his wife. from a complication of diseases. was a daughter of Andrew and Amelia Kreamer, and was seventy years, nine months and eleven days old. Surviving her is one son, Homer Carr, and one sister, Mrs. Grove, both of Roger T. Bayard, local editor of the Bellefonte Daily News, has been spending a few days at the home of Hon. Leonard Rhone.

J. Orris McCormick, who is giving

Miss Carrie Spicher, of Centre Hall, and Mrs. Korman Spicher, of Philadelphia, attended the Spicher-Heckman wedding in Bellefonte, Wednes-

The middle of last week Charles Wiser was taking a vacation at the home of his mother in Hartleton. He is employed at Pittsburg, and is boss over the mechanics in his depart-

Sheriff Kline were in Centre Hall these services. Tuesday, having made a professional call to revive the geniality between several Bellefonte attorneys and a ty of this representative school. Two thousand graduates are now either ed to make this day a success. teaching or engaged in business or other civic duties.

Mrs. John Luse and daughter Anna, of Joliet, Illinois, are visiting at the home of W. F. Rishel, at Farmers Mills. Mrs. Luse was raised by Jacob Strohm, at Tusseyville, and will at eleven o'clock, the ceremonies havbe remembered by many of the Reporter readers. Mr. Luse is a superintendent in the axe factories at Jollet, and as soon as his duties there will permit bim he will join his wife and daughter in the east.

Thomas Watson, of Union township, who is an eighty-year old veteran of the civil war, owes his life to ver, died at her home at Coburn Tues- the fidelity of a pet house dog. The day afternoon of last week, after a other day while grubbing out a fence sickness extending over a period of row, he came upon a large copperone year, aged fifty-six years, five head snake. He lifted the hoe to strike the reptile, but the hoe caught leaves to survive her husband, two in the branches of a tree. The snake sons, James, of Sandusky, Ohio, and started for Mr. Watson, but the dog Martin, at home. Funeral services came to his rescue and broke the cop- tre Hall, is employed by the governperhead's back.

Lester, the eight year old son of W. A. Hackenberry and wife, living on the George Spaid farm, immediately east of Beavertown, followed his father while mowing grass in the orchard and stepped on a copperhead snake, and the result was that the reptile bit him in the foot above the ankle. The lad suffered considerably and the foot was very much swollen, but he is get-Harry Kahler died very suddenly at ting along nicely and is considered the vessel. A pair of pincers were se-

Stover, a young son of John Durst, who lives along the monntain, east of Aaronsburg, climed a tree near his standing broke off, precipitating him digestion was given as the cause of onto a stone pile at the foot of the tree. The limbs of the tree checked the Deceased was thirty-five years, nine hoy's fall, but he struck the top of his wound on his head. Dr. C, S. Musser

Real recreation was indulged in by A. E. Person, of Philipsburg, New Jersey, while the guest of the family Edward Kenepp, whose parents re- of ex-Commissioner James R. Strohm, some time has been employed as a master of the Belvidere division of the trious young man. He is survived by pitch fork. This was not his first visit his wife, who was Miss Lizzie Roth- here, nor is to be his last-"he has rock, of Centre Hill, and to whom he promised to some back-i, the latter was married less than three months part of August. He accompanied Miss home Saturday, the latter having been in that city during the past few > Water Notice. All persons are hereby notified not to use water from the borough plant for any other than domestic purposes

> > THE COUNCIL

Woodward.

Miss Bessie Etlinger, of Centre Hall, is visiting friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Willet Hosterman, of Buffalo, N. Y., are visiting the former's parents.

Harry Brendell, baving spent a few days with his friend Charles Musser, returned to his home in Buffalo, N. Y., Tuesday.

Mrs. R. M. Wolfe is visiting her aged mother, at Linden Hall.

Misses Mabel and Elizabeth Guisewite returned to Philadelphia this week, and Misses Leonora and Charlotte have gone to Harrisburg, having Robert H. Moore died in Philips- spent their vacation with their mother. Miss Laura Ard, of Philadelphia, is

Miss Miriam Benner, having been

John Packer, aged seventy-six years, died of infirmities incident to old age at his home in Howard township. He Max Schell, one of the best known citizens in the upper Bald Eagle Valley, died at his home near Dix Station, of general disabilities. Deceased was eighty-two years of age and was born in Bavaria, Germany. Corner-stone Laying.

The corner-stone of Grace Lutheran church, of State College, was laid with impressive ceremonies Sunday such good attention to Penns Cave in charge of the pastor, Rev. J. I. evening. visitors that they are flocking there Stonecypher, who preached the serby the hundreds, was in town Wed- mon from Isaiah 28:16. He was assisted by Rev. C. T. Aikens, D. D., president of Susquehanna University, and Rev. C. C. Snavely, pastor of the M. E. church of State College. A male quartet rendered a selection much appreciated by all.

The corner-stone is the gift of J. F Mayes & Son, of Lemont, workers in marble and granite. In it were placed Attorney D. Paul Fortney and ing one dollar or more at the time of grateful for the excellent spirit of co-condition Saturday, when Mrs. Boozer operation manifest on the part of the returned, was somewhat improved, The recent appropriation of $40,000 to the college authorities for their better. to the Lock Haven State Normal courtesy in the loan of a large number School assures the continued prosperio of chairs for use on this occasion, and to all those who in as many ways help-

J. I. STONECYPHER.

Spicher-Heckman.

was solemnized Wednesday morning ing been performed by Rev. A. M. Schmidt, of the Reformed church, at the home of the bride's parents, ex-Commissioner and Mrs. Daniel Heckman, in Belletonte.

The couple were accompanied to the altar by William School and Miss Minnie Cole. After the congratulations by the guests, who included only a small circle of the nearest relatives, the wedding breakfast, which was no small feature of the affair, was served.

At 1.05 p. m. Mr. and Mrs. Spicher left for their furnished home in Wilkinsburg, in which borough the groom who is a son of John Spicher, of Cenment, as a mail carrier.

Copperhead Snake in Corn Barrel, While picking corn from a barrel Mrs. Irvin Showers thought the corn was being moved of its own accord. but upon closer investigation she disaroused and Mr. Shower's attention kind and after using the doctors' was called to the moving contents of remedies for some time concluded to head snake was drawn from between the ears of corn. Mrs. Showers had been picking close to danger.

Meeting to Elect Cemetery Trustees.

Notice is hereby given that there will be a meeting of the patrons of the Farmers Mills union cemetery on August 10, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of electing one trustee, and to transact such other business as may be brought before the meeting.

By order of the Trustees,

M. L. RISHEL, Sec.

ROPOSAL FOR BRIDGE ABUTMENTS—The undersigned, supervisors for Gregg township, will receive bids for abutments for a bridge to cross Penns Creek, at Allison's dam, in the village of Spring Mills, Gregg township, Centre country, Pennsylvania, until Saturday, August 10th, 1907, at six o'clock p. m. The specifications may be found at the residence of James P. Grove, near Spring Mills. The right is reserved to reject any or all tides.

A quantity of crushed stones are located near fixed rate. JAMES P. GROVE. President J. C. ROSSMAN, Secretary

I. J. ZUBLER,

Supervisors Gregg Township.

M. L. RISHEL, Sec.

Frove Sunday evening. Mrs. Wm. Lingle is still not improving very rapidly. A K. L. C. E. society was organized at Locust Grove Saturday evening. They will now have Endeavor meetings regularly every Sunday evening. Miss Ella Decker is attending the Sunday school convention at Bellefonts, as a delegate from the Evangelical Sunday school at Locust Grove. Howard Confer and family, of near Tusseyville, visited friends through here on Sunday.

Lola Davis spent a few days last week among friends in Centre Hall. Miss Besse Hoover was the guest of Mrs. A. C. Davis last week.

Frank Annis, of Yeagertown, visited James Foust. Mrs. Frick and brother, Harry Lingle, returned to Philadelphia Monday. Their brother Victor will remain a week or more longer. 100th Anniversary.

The one hundredth ann versary of the first conference of the Evangelical Association will be selebrated near the site of the occurrence, at Klinefelterville, Lebanon county, September 25th and 26th.

The Evangelical Association was organized in 1803, at the home of John George Becker. When the first conference met in 1807 there were two hundred members, and five ministers. Jacob Albright was the first bishop.

Remedy for Diarrhoea, Never Known to Fall.

"I want to say a few words for Chamberlain's Colic. Cholers and Diarrhoea Remedy. I have used this preparation in my family for the past five years and have recommended it to a number of people in York county and have never known it to fail to effect a cure in any instance. that I cannot say too much for the best remedy of the kind in the world."

—S. Jemison, Spring Grove, York county, Pa. This remedy is for sais by The Star Store, Centre Hall; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; C. W. Swartz,

The Dale family reunion will be held at Oak Hall, Saturday, August 3.

Tussey ville.

LOCALS:

Mrs. Cyrus Luse, of Tyrone, is among friends in Centre Hall.

The regular monthly meeting of the morning, in the presence of a large Hospital Aid Society will meet at the assembly of people. The services were home of Mrs. S. W. Smith Monday

The Centre County Sunday School Convention met in Bellefonte Tuesday and Wednesday. A report will appear in next week's issue.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Long, of Washington, D. C., are spending their summer vacation at the home of the latter's parents Mr. and Mrs. D. Geiss Wagner, west of Centre Hall.

Miss Bertha Wolf, who had been in a number of papers of historic interest | Philadelphia during the past two to the church and community, to- years, arrived in Centre Hall Wednesgether with the name of the donor of day morning. She has many friends the stone, and of all those contribut here who were pleased to greet her.

Mrs. D. A. Boozer, Wednesday of last week, went to Sunbury to care The pastor and congregation are for her sister, Mrs. W. E. Park. Her community. We are greatly indebted and since she has been very much

"Grotz my Bookel und Ien grotz deine," is the slogan adopted by Harry S. Meyer, Republican candidate for Prothonotary in Lycoming county. Mr. Meyer has the right notion of Republican politics in his home county. If a Republican is to have the of-The marriage of Miss Emma Rebect fice, the Reporter hopes it will be ca Heckman and Clarion G. Spicher Meyer.

Although living apparently retired in Boalsburg, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Meyer are pretty well hitched to service during these busy days on the farms. The former has been assisting his son, Nevin Meyer, on the old homestead, and the latter her daughter, Mrs. Will Mothersbaugh, on the "Spring" farm, above Boalsburg, and it is safe to say both are better contented than to sit idly by.

Lewis L. Will, of Pittsburg, was guest of the H. C Robison family in Centre Hall. Mr. Will is connected with the advertising division of the Central District and Printing Telegraph Company, the name under which the Pennsylvania Telephone Company does business in Western Pennsylvania. Apparently he is pleased with Centre Hall and its people, and no doubt will return again in the future.

Eczema.

covered some shiny object in the bottom of the barrel. Suspicion was

The Star Store, Centre Hall ; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; C. W. Swartz,

PROPOSAL FOR BRIDGE ABUTMENTS-

Supervisors Gregg Townsh ip.

Georges Valley.

There will be preaching at Locust Edward Lucas, Boalsburg.

Do you pin your hat to your own hair? Can't do it? Haven't enough hair? It must be you do not know Ayer's Hair Vigor! Here's an introduction! May the acquaintance result in a heavy growth of rich, thick, glossy hair! Use this splendid hair-food, stop your falling hair, and get rid of your dandruff.

The best kind of a testimonial—"Sold for over sixty years."

Made by J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mas Also manufacturers of er's SARSAPARILLA.
PILLS.
CHERRY PECTORAL.

$44444444444444444

Central State Normal School

LOCK HAVEN, PA. J. R. PLICKINGER, Prin.

FALL TERM BEGINS SEP-TEMBER 9th, 1907. If you are interested in securing the best possible training for teaching or for business or desire to fit for college, or are seeking an ex-cellent course in Music, Elocution or Art, it would be to your advantage to patronize this reputable and thoroughly established institution. Its policy is to train not only the intellectual faculties but to develop character and to fit for life's duties. Address for illustrated catalog.

THE PRINCIPAL

SHOES SHIRTS

We have on hand a large number of the celebrated Keith's Konqueror Shoes for Men. Price $2.50 & $3.00

A full line of Men's and Boys' Shirts at 50 cents and $1.00.

Kreamer & Son. Centre Hall

Lend Us Your Ear, Mr. Farmer! You will never regret it.

TELEPHONE SERVICE IN YOUR HOME A Protection

A Convenience

A Necessity.

Rates very reasonable. Let us explain our Co-operative plan to you. Telephone, write or call upon the manager.

PENNSYLVANIA TELEPHONE CO Contract Dept., Bellefonte, Pa.

A nice line of Men's fine

...SHIRTS...

Ladies' Neckwear, Ribbons, Laces, Embroideries and Insertions.

F. E. WIELAND, Linden Hall

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

Ten-Day Excursions to Atlantic City, Cape

Anglesea, Wildwood, Holly Beach Ocean City, Sea Isle City, Avalon NEW JERSEY

Thursdays, August 8 and 22, 1907

$5.35 Round Trip Via Delaware River Bridge

$5.25 Round Trip Tickets good going on trains leaving CENTRE HALL at 7.17 A. M., or 2.41 P. M., to Philadel-phia; thence on regular trains to all resorts named.

Tickets Good Returning Within 10 Days

J. R. WOOD ' Passenger Traffic Manager

GEO, W. BOYD General Passenger Agent

... The Index... Bellefonte, Pa.

WE are now showing an unusually fine LEATHER GOODS for midsummer. Our price, too, is attractive, considering the fact that manufacturers are demanding higher prices for every leather product. The line comprises Shopping Bags, Hand Bags, Bill Books, Wallets, Card Cases, Coin Purses,

... The Index....

Festival Notice. Farmers Mills Union Sunday School will hold a festival at the Union church, Saturday, evening, S. H. KNEPLEY

Blacksmith ... Wood Worker...

Attention is here called to the fact that I have located opposite the School House and am prepared to do . . . GENERAL BLACKSMITH-ING & WOOD WORK.

Special attention given to Resetting Tire AND

-Rimming Wheels-Satisfactory workfis guaranteed. Call to see me.

A DMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.-Letters of

DMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—Letters of Administration on the estate of Lydia A. Foust, late of Potter township, deceased, having been duly granted to the undersigned, he would respectfully request all persons knowing themselves indebted to the estate to make immediate payment, and those having claims against the same to present them duly authenticated for settlement.

JAMES L. FOUST,

Administrator, (Potters Mills, Pa.)

W. G. Runkle, Spring Mills, Pa., R. F. D.

Attorney.

June 6, 1907.

Subscribe for the Reporter.