

TRAIN SCHEDULE

Trains leave Centre Hall on the Lewisburg and Tyrone Railroad, P. R. R. System, as follows:

EAST	7:17 a. m. and 2:35 p. m.
WEST	8:15 a. m. and 3:35 p. m.

Picnics Plenty.

August is bringing with it its usual quota of picnics, and a few are:

Wednesday, August 14—Masons, Old Fort.

Tuesday, August 20—Business Men, Hecla Park.

Thursday, August 29—Odd Fellows, Grange Park.

Old Home Week.

"Old Home Week" is being talked of by the citizens of Centre Hall, and later the Reporter hopes to announce that a time for the home-coming of its boys and girls—old and young—has been set for some time in the summer of 1908. What a grand, old time there will be if Centre Hall makes up its mind to observe an "Old Home Week"!

Cleaning and Repairing Separators.

The undersigned is equipped with tools and fixtures to clean and repair separators of any make. Proper attention will save not only wear and tear of machinery, but it will make your receipts large from the creamery and lessen the labor to the operator. A card or telephone message will bring me to your home for business.

LOCALS.

A bird on toast is worth two in the bush.

The Hoy-Yearick reunion will be held at Hecla Park on the 28th of August.

William Holloway, of Orangeville, Ill., who moved west from Penns Valley some forty years ago, is among relatives and friends in the county.

Mrs. John Reasner, of Bracktonridge, spent several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Martin, in Bellefonte. From there she came to Centre Hall to visit friends.

Prof. A. D. Morrill, head of the department of Biology in Hamilton College, Clinton, N. Y., is visiting at the Presbyterian Mansions. His wife, a sister of Mrs. Schuyler, has been in town for some weeks.

On a recent visit to his parents at Centre Hill, Harry E. Bible took with him to Altoona his sister, Miss Bertha, who visited in that city for a few days. Mr. Bible is chief clerk in the general store of M. P. Brumbaugh.

Talk about a backward season when in thirty-six days alfalfa grows thirty-six inches—one inch per day—and timothy in waste places attains a height of six feet! After all, there must be some favorable conditions to growth.

After a stay in Centre Hall of over three months, Miss Hattie Osman returned to her home at Glen Iron. While here she was being instructed in music by Prof. P. H. Meyer, and was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Crawford.

Robert Whitman, of Morrisdale Mines, charged with having appropriated to his own use a certain sum of money that belonged to the Odd Fellows lodge at Hawk Run, in default of bail was committed to the Clearfield county jail.

Idleness has been enforced upon S. H. Knepley, the blacksmith, an account of a broken bone in his little finger, but after careful nursing for several weeks the injury has pretty well healed up, and in a short time he hopes to be back at the anvil again.

Miss Clara Solt, of Bellefonte, was taken to Philadelphia to be operated on for necrosis. The disease is not in an advanced stage and the operation was not a very severe one, though she will be compelled to go to Philadelphia again in about two weeks for a final examination.

Fred Burd, wife and two children, of Akron, Ohio, are visiting Mr. Burd's father, Franklin Burd, and other relatives in Aaronsburg for two weeks. Mr. Burd is employed by the East Ohio Gas Company, and like all the Penns Valley boys who have gone west, is getting along nicely.

Alvin S. Myers, of Altoona, a lumber inspector for the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, was in Centre Hall for a short time last week, where his wife and family are staying, previous to leaving for Kentucky. He will be located in the Blue Grass State for several months, inspecting ties which are being purchased in large quantities about Morehead.

Dr. P. Hoffer Dale came to Centre Hall from Philadelphia Saturday and has decided to locate here. After graduating from the medical department of the University of Pennsylvania, Dr. Dale continued hospital work at that institution until last week, thus fitting himself further for his chosen profession. He is also a graduate of Pennsylvania State College, and has devoted eight or nine years to hard study to prepare for his life work. Dr. Dale is a young man who is honest and honorable, absolutely sober and correct in morals, and can be trusted in a business as well as in a professional way.

Centre County S. S. Convention

whole course have been passed, diplomas are granted, and graduation exercises are often held. No charge is made for enrollment or examinations and only twenty-five cents for the diploma. There are 950 graduates already this year, and during the last ten months 4500 students have been enrolled—ministers, adults, boys and girls. Mr. Oliver then answered a number of questions asked from slips previously distributed. A class need not have more than two or three members. It should be started by the superintendent with the pastor's cooperation. A trained teacher is not a necessity; the leader may be a tactful Christian man or woman with little education but much stick-to-itiveness. About a year is required for the complete course; fifteen months is better. Review frequently. Rev. J. D. Matthews closed the session with prayer and benediction.

The song service at the opening of the Wednesday afternoon session was conducted by Prof. Clarence Garbrick, of Philadelphia, the devotional service by Rev. F. W. Barry, of the Lutheran church. Mrs. J. R. Sechrist, of Centre Hall, spoke on "The teacher, the pupils practical friend." The teacher must be devoted and consecrated. Practical friendship is a readiness to exhaust all resources in an attempt to help and encourage. The practical teacher will acquaint himself with the dangers and pitfalls surrounding each pupil, also with his parents and home environment. He should be interested in the temporal as well as spiritual welfare of his pupils, visit them in sickness and distress as did our Master.

Rev. J. H. Boal, of Hinckley, Minn., discussed "The organized Bible class." In an organized Bible class the members are trained to study, prayer and association with God. Such a class was cited, composed of young men, which had a constitution, officers, committees and regular courses of study on missions, the life of Christ, etc.

Another in Erie, composed of both sexes, young and old, had only officers and one committee, and did much outside work, especially looking after strangers in the city. In the former class their room was open to the members at all hours, games were kept there, and they met socially every Friday evening. Several helpful books for such classes are Dr. Scheufler's "The Sunday school," Dr. Wm. B. Forbush's "The boy problem," Marion Laurence's "Methods of Sunday school work," and Steizle's "The boys of the street."

After a song the convention took up a list of eighteen questions, which had been previously prepared and distributed through the audience. A very lively and profitable discussion ensued on these questions.

Rev. McInay, the newly elected normal superintendent, offered to correspond with or visit any school desiring his aid in organizing a class. Rev. Schmidt urged the association to make a strong effort to secure the three additional points needed to become a "star" county. Treas. Lukenbach made a partial report for the current year, showing that there is now a small excess in the treasury. The minutes for the day were read and adopted, and the session closed with a solo by Prof. Garbrick, prayer and benediction by Rev. J. B. Durkee, Pleasant Gap.

Wednesday evening. After a stirring song service led by Prof. Garbrick and the male choir, the scripture was read and prayer offered by Dr. Schuyler. A very beautiful solo was then sung by Prof. Garbrick, the audience joining in the chorus. T. A. Adman, chairman of the committee on enrollment, reported a total attendance of 150 Sunday school workers. A motion was made and carried that each school hereafter be entitled to but one delegate in addition to the pastor and superintendent. As Rev. C. C. Snavely, State College, did not appear, his subject, "Parental co-operation," was omitted.

Rev. A. M. Schmidt was introduced and gave a most entertaining and instructive address on "Holding a Sabbath-school convention in Rome." Thirty-seven nations were represented by about 1500 delegates, the largest delegation coming from the United States, the next from England. The convention was held May 18-23, in the auditorium of the Methodist Episcopal church in Rome. It was remarkable to hold such a large Protestant meeting in Rome, and the immense room was filled to overflowing at each session. The convention was addressed by Miss Garibaldi, granddaughter of Gen. Garibaldi. She received a hearty ovation, as did her father, who also spoke. The Hon. Lloyd Griscom, now our ambassador at Rome, spoke unofficially, and was enthusiastically received. He and his wife were given badges, thus becoming honorary members of the convention, and later tendered a reception to the American delegates. Rev. J. Morgan Campbell, of England, made a very graceful address. The convention placed $50,000 to be paid in ten annual installments, for the mission in Algiers. Telegrams of greeting were sent to the king of Italy and the minister of public instruction; the latter sent a cordial re-

Aaronsburg.

C. H. Stover and father attended the Sunday school convention at Bellefonte last week, and returned home much pleased with the trip.

Ruth and Edna Weaver, of Coburn, spent last week as the guest of Mrs. Effie Weaver.

Clyde Barges, of Amtler, has come to spend his vacation with his parents. He has many other friends here who are always glad to see him.

Miss Blanche Treaster, of Seigerville, and Miss Mamie Treaster, of Bellefonte, spent a few days with friends in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Winkleblech spent the Sabbath at the home of Mr. Bowersox, at Wolfs Store.

W. C. Mingle and Miss Flossie Stover were the guests of Mrs. Armstrong, at Pottery Mills, Sunday.

Mrs. Clymer Stover and two sons spent a few days with friends at Zion. On Sunday her husband drove over and brought them home Monday.

Prof. and Mrs. Watson returned home from a three weeks' visit to friends at Lemont and Pleasant Gap.

Wm. McClintic, chief of police of Lock Haven, visited his sister, Mrs. Mona Crouse, a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Weaver spent a few hours on Sunday at the home of C. A. Weaver, at Coburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Limbert are visiting their son, at Altoona.

Wm. Guisewite, wife and daughter Mae, Mrs. Sara Harper and Mrs. Mayes spent the Sabbath with friends near Madisonburg.

Miss Teresta Wert, of Penn Hall, spent a few days with her parents.

Prof. W. T. Meyer and wife, of Philadelphia, have come to spend a month in their home at this place.

Mrs. Ezra Burd, of Coburn, is spending a few weeks with her mother, Mrs. Kizzie Swabb.

Dr. Jas. Hosterman, of Centre Hill, was the guest of his aunt, Mrs. Julia Kreamer, one day last week.

Mrs. H. D. Kreamer and daughter Sara are visiting the former's daughter at Jeannette and son at Southfork.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Luse, of West Fairview, are guests of A. S. Stover's Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burd entertained the following persons in a very pleasing manner: Fred Burd and family, of Akron, O.; Wm. Hollway, of Orangeville, Ill.; Sumner Burd and family, Luther Wert and wife, James Hollway and wife, Mrs. Henry Crouse, Emma Bower, Miriam Kersteter, Mrs. Gerie Weaver, Mrs. Annie Mense.

Delegates to S. S. Convention.

In addition to those mentioned in the report the following delegates from the South side of Centre county were in attendance at the Sunday school convention in Bellefonte, last week:

Williamsport Commercial College.

If you are going to take bookkeeping and shorthand, your success will depend a great deal upon the school you attend. The Williamsport Commercial College is the best known school in Central Pennsylvania. Students from thirteen different schools came to us to finish courses last year. Over two hundred calls were received last year for office help. Sixty-five writing lessons by mail, $2.50. Catalogue and trial lessons free. Students enter at any time. Fall term begins Sept. 3rd. Send us the names of the young people of your place and we will send you a pack of calling cards. Write F. F. HEALEY, Prop'r.

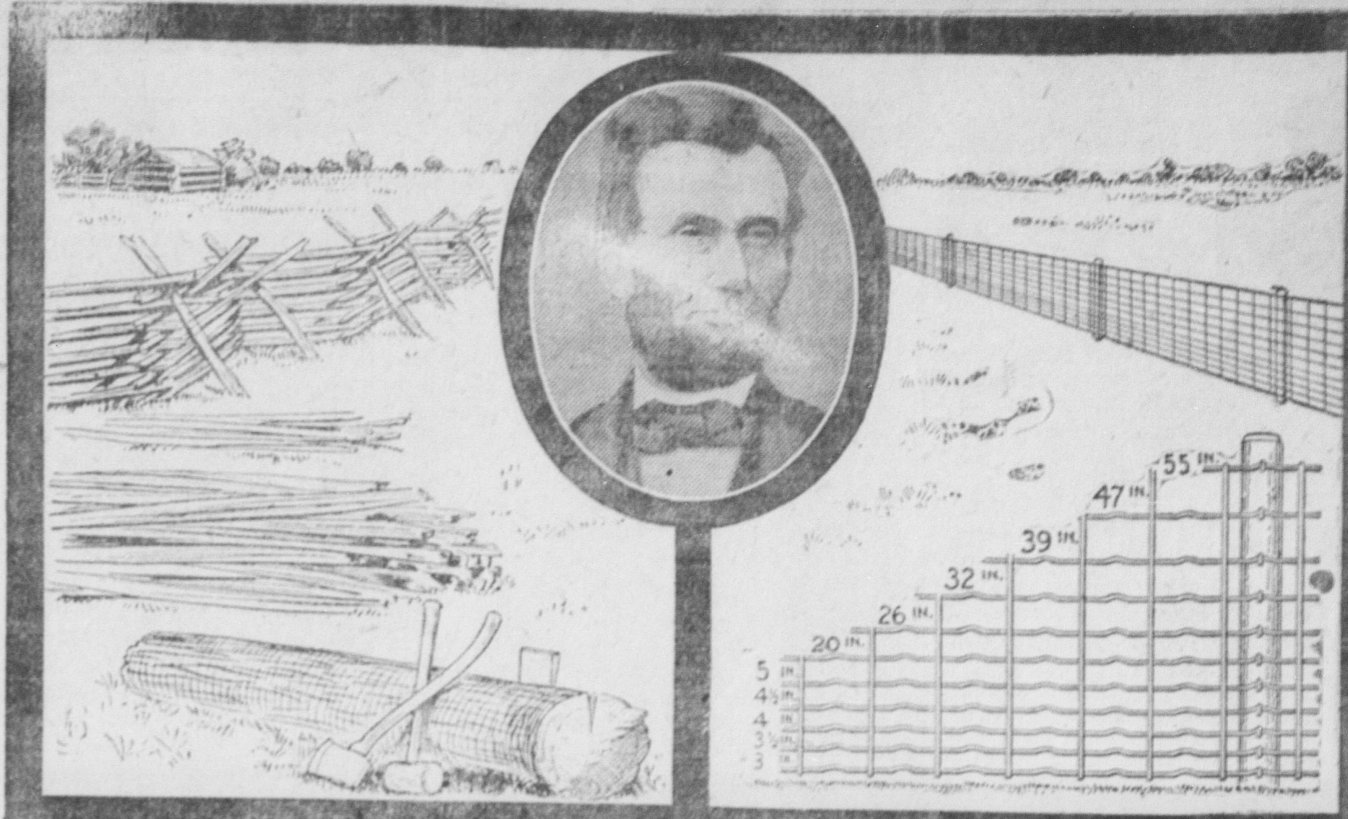

A free lecture is generally worth just about the price of admission.

Our troubles lose part of their sting if we realize that they are not borrowed.

Pres. Roosevelt also sent a letter. The convention decided to issue a large, illustrated, cloth-bound book, which will be sold for $1.00 to those ordering promptly. The key-note of the convention was missions.

The offering for the evening amounted to $9.03. A motion was made and carried that the matter of appointing delegates to the state convention be left to the executive committee. The convention then came to a close with singing, and prayer and benediction by Rev. J. B. Stein.

The thanks of the association are due the committee on hospitality—Mrs. Cleo Dinges, Mrs. Mitchell Gardner and Miss Daisy Potter—for their efficient services. The comfort of the delegates during the convention is largely due to their efforts before and during the sessions.

THE MODERN "PITTSBURGH PERFECT" WIRE FENCE, WELDED BY ELECTRICITY.

What a Marvel it would have been to Abraham Lincoln splitter of rails.

Mr. Farmer: Your progressiveness is keeping you in close touch with improvements in farm machinery, in dairy methods, and with all the scientific facts that bring about the greatest possible agricultural production.

You are also informing yourself about fence. We know you are.

- First—there was the stone fence of medieval history.
- Second—pioneer America converted its timber into rails.
- Third—somebody found a way to weave wire and slats.
- Fourth—along came barb wire, with its marvelous sale.
- Fifth—machines were invented to twist or clamp one wire around another: the woven wire fence.

But, most important of all, electricity now welds the wires at the joint, making no longer necessary these wraps and clamps. Stay and strand, wizard-like, become one.

The greatest step forward in fence building is thus accomplished at a single, master stroke.

Of course, you are not using anything else. Surely you are familiarizing yourself with this remarkable improvement, to be found only in "Pittsburgh Perfect."

A large variety of this fence is kept on hand, and any varieties not in stock will promptly be secured from the factory.
