Mrs. Harriet Fry died at her home at Centre Hill a short time ago, aged about thirty-seven years. Interment was made at Sprucetown. She was a daughter of Thomas Toot, and leaves a husband but no children.

S. P. Hockman, of Mingo, and John S. Hoy, Jr., of Hubbersburg, left for Chicago and from there will go to various points in Illinois, Iowa, Dakota, and other parts of the west, visiting relatives and sightseeing for several months.

We are pleased to note the splendid development of the Lock Haven State Normal School. Last year was the most prosperous in its history. It is patronized by young people from every section of Pennsylvania. The fall term begins September 9th. You will be interested in its illustrated catalog.

Mrs. Henry Reitz and granddaughter, little Miss Dorothy Lonberger, were callers at the Reporter office Tuesday. Mrs. Reitz is delighted that her daughter, Mrs. Bruce Lonberger, of Clover Lick, West Virginia, is at home for the present, and of course the little granddaughter comes in for a good share of the grandmother's caresses. Mr. Lonberger is boss on the saw mill operated by DeRan & Co., in West Virginia, and was unable to leave for a vacation at this time.

Jacob K. Geiss and daughter, Miss Susan, of Beloit, Kansas, arrived in Centre Hall Tuesday, and are the guests of the former's brother, David K. Geiss, in Centre Hall. Mr. Geiss went west with his father—David Geiss—about 1867. He has been engaged in farming up to a few years ago when he became a grain merchant. Before returning Mr. Geiss and daughter will go to Philadelphia to visit a brother-in-law—John Fearch—and from there to the Jamestown Exposition. In order to be home for the opening of the public school to which Miss Geiss has been elected a teacher, she having just graduated from a college, they will leave for the west about the first of September.

On her return from Philadelphia, Miss Edna Miller was the guest of Miss Tillie Keller, in Centre Hall, Tuesday. Miss Miller is now on her way home, having had a dispatch from her parents—Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Miller—that they were thrown from a vehicle Saturday and both seriously injured. Mrs. Miller had her arm broken and Mr. Miller had the misfortune to have his collar bone dislocated and received other injuries, necessitating his being in the operating table for a period of four hours. Mr. Miller is now health officer of Lorain, Ohio, a position that proves profitable to him. While Miss Miller was in Philadelphia she was the guest of her uncle, W. F. Alexander, a Noble street produce merchant.

B remedy for Diarrhoea. Never Known to Fail.

"I want to say a few words for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I have used this preparation in my family for the past five years and have recommended it to a number of people in York county and have never known it to fail to effect a cure in any instance. I feel that I cannot say too much for the best remedy of the kind in the world."—S. Jewison, Spring Grove, York county, Pa. This remedy is for sale by The Star Store, Centre Hall; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; C. W. Swartz, Tusseyville.

DEATHS.

MRS. KATHARINE FISHER.

As a result of a paralytic stroke received on 6th inst., Mrs. Katharine Fisher died Friday night at the home of her son, Edwin J. Fisher, in Rock Grove township, Stephenson county, Illinois. Her age was about seventy-eight years.

Deceased, whose maiden name was Katherine Mingle, was born in September, 1829, at Aaronsburg, where she resided until 1861, when she was united in marriage with Samuel Fisher, and then went west, locating near the scene of her death, where Mr. Fisher died eight years ago.

Mrs. Fisher was the mother of three children, John, Edwin and Franklin—John and Franklin having passed away some years ago. Mrs. Fisher was the aunt of W. B. Mingle, Esq. of Centre Hall, and is the last surviving member of that family consisting of twelve children.

EDWARD J. PECK.

Edward J. Peck, of Huston, died Friday morning at four o'clock, aged forty-seven years. He is survived by his wife and two sons.

Mr. Peck was supposed to be in his usual health until a very short time before his death. He was a surveyor and was widely known throughout Centre county and the southern portion of Clinton county.

His funeral took place Monday forenoon, and burial was made at Jacksonville.

MISS JUNE SARVIS.

Miss June Sarvis, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. G. P. Sarvis, died in the St. Francis hospital, Pittsburg, after having undergone an operation in the hope of restoring her health. Deceased was twenty-eight years of age and will be well remembered by residents of Centre Hall, when Rev. Sarvis was pastor of the Methodist church in Thompsonstown, where the family now lives.

Henry Gordon, one of the oldest and most esteemed residents of Spring township, died at his home near Pleasant View Chapel.

He fought throughout the Civil war, being a member of Pa. Vol. Inf., Co. 77, and was aged seventy-five years. He was a member of Gregg Post, No. 95, of Bellefonte. Surviving him are his wife and three sons.

Miss Jennie Pennington died at the home of her mother in Lebanon. She was the daughter of John and Sarah (Slack) Pennington, and was born in Potter township. Later the family moved to Ferguson township, where she grew to womanhood.

Surviving are her mother and several sisters and brothers. Interment was made at Tyrone, where the family formerly resided, and where the father is buried.

Miss Sarah Barnhart passed away at her home, along the Jacksonville road, near Bellefonte, early Friday morning. She had been a sufferer for many years, and a member of the Methodist Episcopal church. Surviving are a sister, Miss Lizzie, and a brother, Philip. In the absence of her pastor, the funeral services were conducted by Rev. Ambrose Schmidt.

William Brackbill and daughter Louise, of Bellefonte; Mr. and Mrs. John Fryberger, of Phillipsburg, were guests of James W. Runkle, proprietor of the Centre Hall hotel, Sunday.

Mrs. Sarah Tressler, of Centre Hill, was in town the other day, and related that the chicken thief does not miss her coops, but paid his visit and took with him a number of choice birds.

Miss Anna Lohr is having a large porch built to the front of her dwelling house on Church street. The work is being done by Carpenter John Lucas and assistants Shoop and Stahl.

A thief visited the hen coop of William Zimmerman, near Hecla Park, and carried away forty-two fine young pullets. This is the second time a visit was paid to Mr. Zimmerman's coop, the first attempt being foiled.

Wilbur A. Henney, of Wilmerding, who is credited with drawing the best wages of any young man from Centre Hall engaged in mechanical work, is home at present, and will remain for a short time. He is employed in the Westinghouse air break establishment.

Mrs. W. H. Kreamer Monday started on a trip to Missouri to visit her sister at Gainesville. On her way home she expects to stop at St. Louis, Troy, Ohio, Pittsburg and Franklin, and perhaps other points within the state. She will be gone for about two months.

Misses Bess and Breeze Benner are at the home of their mother, Mrs. Nancy Benner, at Old Fort, having come up from Philadelphia to remain until September. The ladies were accompanied by Miss Florence Scott, a chum, who will stay here until the Misses Benner return.

Almost forty counties in addition to several other states were represented in the student body of the Lock Haven State Normal School last year. This is the best evidence that the patronage of this important school is widely distributed. The fall term begins September 9th. See its beautiful catalog.

Charles, the little son of Merchant J. Frank Smith, had the misfortune to be thrown from a horse, about ten days ago, and broke his leg. The fracture was reduced by Dr. George R. Lee and Dr. J. K. Hosterman and placed in a plaster cast. The boy is now resting as easily as can be expected.

Mrs. S. T. Irvin and daughter Ruth, of Omaha, Nebraska; Miss Mattie Williams, of Unionville; Miss June Robinson, of Altoona, and Miss Lydia Everts, of Martha, were guests of Merchant and Mrs. George O. Benner. The latter is Mrs. Benner's niece and will remain in Centre Hall for a while.

After suffering from a swelling on his right cheek for six or more weeks, J. R. Harshbarger, of Potters Mills, hopes to begin work again in a short time. The swelling, so far as Mr. Harshbarger knows, was caused by a bruise over the cheek bone, immediately below the eye. For a time he suffered most excruciating pain.

Among the visitors in the valley from the west are J. M. Stiffler and daughter, Miss Frances, who are the guests of William Bower, Mrs. Sarah Tressler and other friends and relatives. Mr. Stiffler will be remembered as having made several valuable contributions to the Centre Reporter. He went west from the home of John S. Dauberman a good many years ago, and now is said to have a good bank account, besides owning considerable property.

HAD AN AWFUL TIME.

But Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy Cured Him.

"It is with pleasure that I give you this unsolicited testimonial. About a year ago when I had a severe case of cholera I got caught out in a hard rain and the measles settled in my stomach and bowels. I had an awful time and had it not been for the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy I could not have possibly lived but a few hours longer, but thanks to this remedy I am now strong and well. I have written the above through simple gratitude and I shall always speak a good word for this remedy."—Samuel H. Gwin, Concord, Ga. For sale by The Star Store, Centre Hall; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; C. W. Swartz, Tusseyville.

Burial Services.

Thursday of last week at 11:30 o'clock, one of the prettiest weddings of the season in Spring Mills was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Sowers in that place, when their daughter, Miss Anna Viola, one of the charming and highly esteemed young ladies of Spring Mills, became the wife of Charles Burris, of Centre Hall, a most popular and estimable young man.

The bride and groom, who were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Sowers, the bride's brother and wife, of Pine, Lycoming county, entered the parlor to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, as played by Miss Savilla Reareck, of Centre Hall. The ceremony was performed by Rev. David Sowers in the presence of a number of relatives and friends. After a sumptuous wedding dinner the bride and groom left on their wedding trip. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful and useful presents.

Campbell's Fourth Clearance Sale.

The fourth annual August clearance sale at Campbell's furniture store, Millheim, consists of a larger stock and offers greater bargains than those of former years. Stock consists of Bedroom suits, Couches, Sideboards, Extension tables, Chairs, Rockers, Springs, Mattresses, Iron beds—in fact a general line of furniture.

In order to make room for fall stock coming in I have concluded to make a cut in prices, ranging from 5 to 50 per cent. This is no "bluff." I mean what I say, and goods must go regardless of cost. It is not necessary to quote prices, come to my furniture rooms and see for yourself.

S. M. CAMPBELL, Millheim, Pa.

No Students Reunion.
