

THURSDAY, AUGUST 22, 1907.

TRAIN SCHEDULE

Trains leave Centre Hall on the Lewisburg and Tyrone Railroad, P. R. R. System, as follows:

EAST	7.17 a. m. and 2.35 p. m.
WEST	8.15 a. m. and 3.35 p. m.

Seed Wheat.

Choice Fultz seed wheat, clean of rye, at ten cents above market price. Inquire at the Reporter office.

Boarding House Keeper Wanted.

A good party is wanted to run the boarding house at the Grange Encampment, September 14th to 20th, at Centre Hall.

The boarding house is equipped with tables, seats, stoves and water, and will seat one hundred persons.

For information apply to L. Rhone, Centre Hall, Pa.

LOCALS.

Pink Label this week.

Miss Margaret Goodhart, who has been in Tyrone for some time is home at present on a visit.

Loganton will celebrate Labor day on Monday, September 2, with an ox roast in the grove near that place.

If it is a stove you want—the best in the market—you will find it at J. A. Reesman's. And the price is made an object.

George Fox & Sons, painters, of Lock Haven, have been awarded the contract for doing the painting on the new agricultural building at State College.

Miss Margaret A. Wood, of Youngwood, is the guest of the Misses Brunhart, in Centre Hall. Before returning to her home she will go to Philadelphia, New York and other points.

Besides training young men and women for teaching, the Lock Haven State Normal School is a splendid fitting school for college and for a business career. Its departments of music, elocution and art are unsurpassed anywhere. Write for its beautiful catalog.

Mrs. Joanna Foster, of Carlisle, while attending a picnic on top of Nittany Mountain, did not leave an opportunity to go by to call on a few personal friends in Centre Hall, and consequently spent a few moments with Mrs. Isaac Smith and Mrs. Phoebe Yearick.

C. W. Sweetwood, of American Falls, Idaho, forwarded to the Reporter several copies of the Press, published at that place, which indicates that Idaho is booming. Mr. Sweetwood is very comfortably located, and is in a section of country that is bound to make wealthy all its present landholders.

Although his last piece of work for the Dean Electric Company, of Elyria, Ohio, was in Sheboygan, Wisconsin, Clyde W. Smith is spending a ten days' vacation at his home in Centre Hall. When he returns to work, he will be one of a force of men to install a large telephone switchboard in Detroit, Michigan.

C. N. Kryder, the lumberman, who a few months ago sold out his lumber interests at Arbovale, West Virginia, is now located at Covington, Virginia. Although he did not say so in his note to the Reporter, the readers may safely assume that he is engaged in turning the mighty forests of Old Virginia into government bonds.

Because of a change in Rev. W. H. Schuyler's vacation plans there will be services next Sunday, August 25th, in the Centre Hall Presbyterian church at 10:30 a. m., and at Spring Mills at 2:30 p. m., but no service in either church September 1st. Dr. Boal will fill the appointment at Centre Hall and Dr. Schuyler at Spring Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Musser and daughter Catharine, of Clearfield, drove to Penns Valley and visited about Centre Hall, Pine Grove Mills and other points. Mr. Musser is the purchasing agent for the Clearfield Bituminous Coal Corporation, and stated that in his regular travels he sees no valley as productive and thrifty in appearance, from an agricultural point of view, as Penns Valley.

Mrs. John S. Dale, of Dales Summit, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Daniel Summy, and sister, Miss Elizabeth A. Summy, of Philadelphia, were callers Friday on their way to Old Fort hotel and the Indian Lane marker, two historic spots near Centre Hall. Miss Summy, who is a stenographer for Booth, Garrett & Blair, chemists, in Philadelphia, is very much delighted with Nittany and Penns Valleys—both the scenery and the people. On her return this week, her sister, Miss Edith Summy, will come to the country for a brief vacation.

The following, taken from the Democratic Watchman, is endorsed by the Reporter: Arthur Kimpert has made a Prothonotary such as the county cannot hope to improve upon. He is entitled to a second term and will get it. He should not be put to the expense of a costly campaign for many reasons; principally because his office has not been near up to its usual amount of business during his term and it would be well for people of the county to interest themselves in his behalf with a view of making his election a certainty with a minimum expense.

DEATHS.

MRS. REBECCA LYON WILSON.

Mrs. Rebecca Lyon Wilson died at her home in Lewistown, of general debility, aged seventy-six years. She was the widow of Prof. David Wilson, who forty years ago was a professor at The Pennsylvania State College, then known as the Farmer's High School, as well as vice president of that institution. Prior to her marriage to Prof. Wilson, deceased was known as Miss Rebecca Lyon and was herself a school teacher, having for a number of terms in the neighborhood of fifty years ago taught the school at Pottera Mills, after that she was for nine years teacher and governess in the family of Rev. Dr. Hamill, at Oak Hall, and will doubtless be well remembered by the older people of Penns Valley. Her remains were buried at Lewistown.

Miss Elsie Hendershot passed away at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Hendershot, near the Nittany furnace, being a victim of consumption. She was born in Spring township.

Charles Fuller, son of the late Aaron Fuller, died at the home of his mother at Morriadales Mines. It will be remembered that last April young Fuller, while working as paymaster for a mining company in Wyoming, was stabbed in the back. He was brought to the Cottage hospital, Philipsburg, where he underwent treatment for several weeks after which he was removed to the home of his mother where he lingered ever since. He was twenty-eight years of age.

EMANUEL FYE.

Monday afternoon of last week Emanuel Fye, of State College, passed into the great beyond. The cause of his death was due to cancer. He was an honored and respected citizen and was a tiller of the soil all his life. He leaves to mourn his death a good wife, three sons, three daughters, two brothers and three sisters. He was a consistent member of the Lutheran church.

Mrs. Daniel McGaghan died in the Bellefonte hospital, after having undergone a most serious operation. Deceased, whose maiden name was Gill, was born near Pleasant Gap and was only thirty-one years of age. She was married to Mr. McGaghan less than ten years ago, and besides her husband survived by three small children. Mr. McGaghan is one of the section crew on the L. & T. railroad.

J. IRVIN MORRIS.

Joseph J. Irvin Morris, a highly respected citizen of Milesburg, died Monday evening of last week, of Bright's disease. He was a gentleman about sixty-eight years of age, and leaves a wife and two small children to mourn his death.

Another old soldier has answered the last long roll call in the person of William S. Gibbooney, who died at his home at Pleasant Gap, aged about sixty-seven years. He served all through the war as a member of company C, 101st Pennsylvania Volunteers.

Mrs. Jacob Mark died at her home in Loganton, aged sixty years. She had been sick for nine years, being paralytic. Deceased is survived by her husband, one son, two daughters.

Ed. J. Jamison, et. ux., to Mrs. Dina Confer, Feb. 2, 1907, house and lot in Spring Mills. $425.

A. J. Gephart to Lydia S. Kleckner, Sept. 22, 1907, 20p in Millheim. $500.

Campbell's Fourth Clearance Sale.

The fourth annual August clearance sale at Campbell's furniture store, Millheim, consists of a larger stock and offers greater bargains than those of former years. Stock consists of Bedroom suits, Couches, Sideboards, Extension tables, Chairs, Rockers, Springs, Mattresses, Iron beds—in fact a general line of furniture.

In order to make room for fall stock coming in I have concluded to make a cut in prices, ranging from 5 to 50 per cent. This is no "bluff." I mean what I say, and goods must go regardless of cost. It is not necessary to quote prices, come to my furniture rooms and see for yourself.

S. M. CAMPBELL,
Millheim, Pa.

Seeds.

We have now on hand choice timothy, clover and alsike seed. These seeds are as clean as can be found in the market.

J. H. and S. E. WEBER,
Centre Hall and Oak Hall.

LOCALS.

C. P. Hughes, Esq., of Erie, was a visitor to Bellefonte recently.

The school board has a surplus of about two thousand cedar shingles which are offered for sale.

Miss Nellie Lohr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Lohr, of Philadelphia, is in Centre Hall and will remain for a short time among friends.

Ex-Sheriff and Mrs. Cyrus Brungart Friday went to Bellefonte for the day, and from there to Salona where they remained several days, guests of relatives and Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Rearick.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Dunkle have decided to make their home in Elmira, N. Y., where they have a daughter living. They will give up house-keeping on account of their age and general debility.

The Old Fort hotel is maintaining its good reputation for entertaining picnic parties, etc., every day in the week. A trip to Penns Cave is not complete without stopping at Old Fort hotel, either going or coming.

Dr. J. Frank Meyer, who upon the opening of Pennsylvania State College will become head of the department of physics in that institution, was the guest of his cousin, Prof. John D. Meyer, in Centre Hall, last week.

Messrs. W. E. Tate, J. T. Potter and Samuel Gingerich represented the Pine Stump-Linden Hall, and Joseph K. Bitner the Farmers Mills telephone lines at a directors meeting of the Central Company at Bellefonte Saturday.

Gatesburg had a citizen in the person of J. S. Meyers, who was among the passengers in the railroad wreck at Kelsey, near Pittsburg, a short time ago. He was seriously hurt, and is now at the home of his daughter, in Wilkensburg.

The four-seated auto touring car in charge of C. D. Keefer, of Tyrone, visited Penns Cave Friday, with the following party: Hon. C. O. Templeton and Mrs. Templeton, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Shuman, Misses Jess LaPorte, Elsie Barr, Blanche Miller, May Crawford, Messrs. G. Wood Miller, W. F. Minary and F. K. Mattern.

Mrs. J. W. McCormick, of Columbia, South Carolina, arrived in Centre Hall Saturday, and will remain for several weeks the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Meyer. Mr. McCormick has decided not to come north at this time on account of business that necessitates his personal attention. It will be remembered that he had been seriously ill a short time ago, but has now fully recovered.

Letter to Philip Durst.

Centre Hall, Pa.

Dear Sir: What will it cost to sow ten acres half wheat and half daisy mixed? and what'll the crop be worth? We don't know what daisy-seed costs, nor how bulky it is; we suspect half wheat and half daisy would make a big crop of daises, and last a long time; the wheat might be short.

The parable throws some light on the cost of a paint half whitewash. Whitewash, mixed half-and-half with paint, is all-paint to look and feel; indeed nine-tenths of the "paint" in the stores is part whitewash; some half, some more and some less.

Paint has to be spread with the brush, the surface prepared, the ladders, scaffolds, pulleys and ropes arranged and moved, there's a great deal of labor in putting paint on; it costs $2 to $4 a gallon to do it.

What does it cost to paint whitewash? Just the same. Half-whitewash? Just the same. It does not seem worth while, for whitewash does harm, not good.

Will the paint hold the whitewash fast? or will the whitewash loosen the paint?

Better paint, pure paint, the least-gallons paint, the least-money paint, Devco.

Yours truly,
F. W. DEVCO & Co.,
New York.

Challenge from J. D. Murray.

J. D. Murray is seeking the worst case of dyspepsia or constipation in Centre Hall or vicinity to test Dr. Howard's new specific for the cure of those diseases.

So confident is he that the remarkable medicine will effect a lasting cure in a short time, that he offers to refund the money should it not be successful.

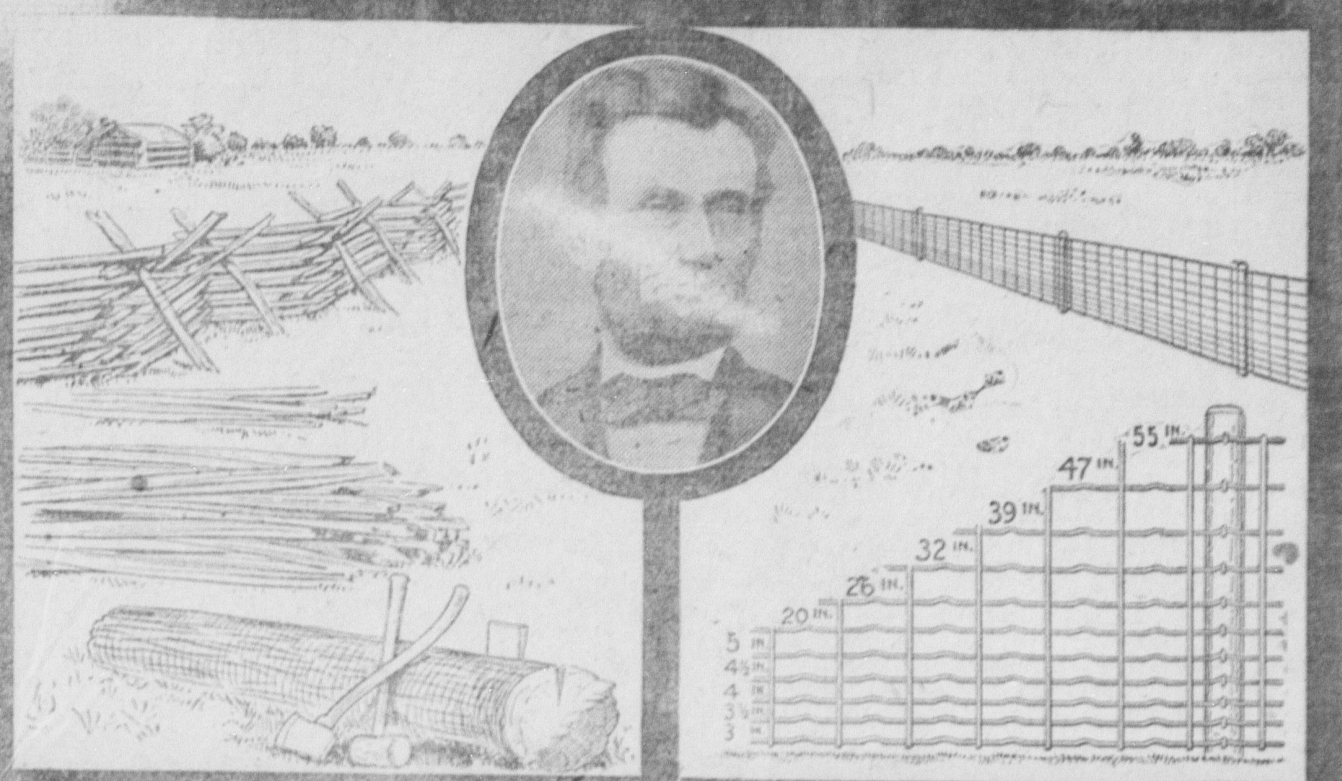

In order to secure the quickest possible introduction Mr. Murray will sell a fifty cent package of this medicine at half price, 25 cents.

This specific of Dr. Howard's will cure sick headaches, dizzy feelings, constipation, dyspepsia, and all forms of malaria and liver trouble. It does not simply give relief for a time; it makes permanent and complete cures.

It will regulate the bowels, tone up the whole intestinal tract, give you an appetite, make food taste good and digest well, and increase vigor.

Take advantage of Mr. Murray's challenge and secure a bottle of Dr. Howard's specific at half price, with his personal guarantee to refund your money if it does not help you.

There is no need of suffering with constipation, dyspepsia or liver diseases when you can get sixty doses of a scientific medicine for their cure like Dr. Howard's specific for the small sum of 25 cents.

THE MODERN "PITTSBURGH PERFECT" WIRE FENCE, WELDED BY ELECTRICITY.

What a Marvel it would have been to Abraham Lincoln splitter of rails.

Mr. Farmer: Your progressiveness is keeping you in close touch with improvements in farm machinery, in dairy methods, and with all the scientific facts that bring about the greatest possible agricultural production.

You are also informing yourself about fence. We know you are.

- First—there was the stone fence of medieval history.
- Second—pioneer America converted its timber into rails.
- Third—somebody found a way to weave wire and slats.
- Fourth—along came barb wire, with its marvelous sale.
- Fifth—machines were invented to twist or clamp one wire around another: the woven wire fence.

But, most important of all, electricity now welds the wires at the joint, making no longer necessary these wraps and clamps. Stay and strand, wizard-like, become one.

The greatest step forward in fence building is thus accomplished at a single, master stroke.

Of course, you are not using anything else. Surely you are familiarizing yourself with this remarkable improvement, to be found only in "Pittsburgh Perfect."

A large variety of this fence is kept on hand, and any varieties not in stock will promptly be secured from the factory.
